end with relatives in Snyder county.

Walter E. Orwig went down to Allentown, last week, securing employment in the Bethlehem Steel works, at Bethlehem. His younger son, David, has been in Sunbury the past week or more where he is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Gilbert.

In last week's issue of the Watchman we noticed an article, "A Centre Hall Sandwich," in which the writer stated his doubt of being able to secure anything worthwhile to eat between State College and Harrisburg. We have been informed by good authority that there are places where good eats may be secured. Though unfortunate in his choice of a quick lunch place he should not judge all others thereby. We are not in the lunch business but there are those who are and who no doubt resent such a statement.
