Cheaper Postal Rates Will Become Effective July 1st.

Reduced postal rates will go into effect, July 1st, under an act passed at the recent session of Congress and approved by President Coolidge.

The rate on postcards will be one cent, instead of two. Reply postal cards will remain at two cents.

For mailing of newspapers by persons other than the publisher or news agent, the rate will be one cent for each two ounces up to eight ounces, instead of two cents for each two ounces or fraction thereof.

Important changes in indemnity registration rates will also go into effect. Heretofore it has been impossible to insure a package valued at more than $100, but under the new law the valuation has been increased to $1000. The rates will be as follows: On packages valued at not more than $50, 15 cents, not including postage; between $50 and $100, 20 cents; between $100 and $200, 30 cents; $200 to $300, 40 cents; $300 to $400, 50 cents; $400 to $500, 60 cents; $500 to $600, 70 cents; $600 to $700, 80 cents; $700 to $800, 90 cents; $800 to $1000, $1.

Other reductions have been made in the special delivery of mail, on parcel post, etc., which will no doubt meet with the approval of the public.

Wilbur H. Baney Bought the Nittany Shoe Store.

At a meeting of the creditors of the bankrupt estate of D. B. Fowler, held in the office of referee Champion, in Williamsport, on Monday morning, Wilbur H. Baney bought the Nittany shoe store, in the Bush Arcade, Bellefonte.

The store was closed about six weeks ago on an execution placed in the hands of sheriff Harry E. Dunlap. But before the date of the sale D. B. Fowler, of Williamsport, the owner, confessed to voluntary bankruptcy and that put an end to the sheriff's sale.

Mr. Baney was the only bidder for the store at the meeting of the creditors, on Monday morning, and as his bid exceeded the appraisement made recently it was accepted. He opened the store Tuesday morning and will conduct it under his own management.

Having worked in a shoe store from boyhood up he has had years of experience catering to the wants of the people of Bellefonte and vicinity, and under his own management will be able to confine his stock to staple lines instead of being compelled to handle shoes that would not sell in Bellefonte.

Former State Student Pays Hotel Bill Twenty-one Years Old.

Back in 1907 three State College students found themselves marooned in Bellefonte, at a late hour one night, with no way of getting to the College and not a cent in their pockets. H. S. Ray was landlord of the Brockhoff house at that time, and watching their chance the three boys slipped into the hotel, got upstairs and hunting an unoccupied room went in, locked the door and slept soundly until early morning when they got out of the hotel and made their way back to State College.

During the recent commencement, a well-dressed, fine-appearing man stopped at the hotel over night and when he left in the morning he told the above story to landlord M. A. Lansdy, ending up with the fact that he was one of the three students and wanted to pay the bill for the room. He said that his conscience had always troubled him about that unpaid bill of twenty-one years. Mr. Lansdy accepted the money and turned it over to the children of Mr. Ray.

The man, by the way, graduated at State College in 1909 as an electrical engineer and now has a splendid position at Bradford, Pa.

HARPSTER.—William P. Harpster, a native of Centre county and a veteran of the Civil war, died at his home in Houtzdale, last Friday afternoon, as the result of general debility.

He was a son of John and Leah Sellers Harpster and was born in Halfmoon township, Centre county, in 1839, hence was about eighty-nine years old. His early life was spent in the vicinity of Stormstown. When the Civil war broke out he enlisted as a private in the 148th regiment, commanded by Gen. James A. Beaver, and early in 1863 was made chief musician of the regiment, serving in that capacity until the close of the war. He was given an honorable discharge at Harrisburg on June 7th, 1865. In the history of the 148th regiment compiled some years ago, is a very interesting chapter dealing with the musicians of that organization, contributed by Mr. Harpster.

Shortly after his return from the war he located in Philipsburg where he lived a few years then moved to Houtzdale. In his early life he taught school and also conducted the old-time singing schools in the country districts. At Houtzdale he filled one term as postmaster, served as tax collector and a justice of the peace in that borough. He was an enthusiastic G. A. R. man and was a member of the Centre County Veterans club.

He married Miss Mary Goldman, of Philipsburg, who died in 1912, but surviving him are two daughters, Mrs. Edward Hall, of Houtzdale, and Miss Ida Harpster, at home. The funeral was held on Monday afternoon, burial being made at Houtzdale.

HILL.—The remains of Mrs. Myrtle Johnson Hill, wife of Dr. Anson Hill, who died at her home in Cleveland, Ohio, on Sunday morning, were brought to Bellefonte on the 1:20 train, Tuesday afternoon, and taken directly to St. John's Episcopal church, where funeral services were held by Rev. Stewart Franklin Gast. The body was then taken to Zion for interment in the cemetery at that place.

Mrs. Hill was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johnson and was born in Pittsburgh forty-two years ago. Her father is a cousin of M. R. and Curtis Johnson, of Bellefonte, while Mrs. William Boyer, of Bellefonte, is a sister. Mrs. Hill's early life was mostly spent in Pittsburgh, and she was a graduate nurse of the Allegheny General hospital. After graduating she spent six years in California but since her marriage to Dr. Hill had lived in Cleveland. Her husband, parents and four sisters survive.

FENIMORE.—Miss Margaret Catherine Fenimore died, last Friday morning, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Garrett, on south Allegheny street, following six months' illness with tuberculosis. She was a daughter of William and Margaret Fenimore and was born in Chester, Pa., being at her death 22 years, 11 months and 10 days old. For several years she had been employed in the offices of the Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea company, in Philadelphia. Her parents are dead and it is alleged that she contracted her fatal illness while taking care of a brother, who died of the same disease. Her only survivor is one sister, Miss Margaret Fenimore, of Philadelphia.

Funeral services were held in the Catholic church, on Tuesday morning, after which the remains were taken to Pleasant Gap and placed in the Colborn mausoleum.

WEAVER.—Mrs. Angeline Weaver, widow of A. H. Weaver, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. R. F. Gingerich, of Linden Hall, last Friday, as the result of general debility, aged 75 years, 8 months and 22 days. She is survived by nine children, namely: Charles A. Weaver, of Centre Hall; Harry E., of Altoona; Grover C. and Orvis P., of Centre Hall; Willis A., of Lewistown; Mrs. S. E. Shearer, of Centre Hall; Mrs. O. E. Lair, of Salona; Mrs. Herman Moyer, of Lewistown, and Mrs. R. F. Gingerich, of Linden Hall. The funeral was held on Monday, burial being made at Farmers' Mills.

—The corner stone for the north wing to be erected at the Presbyterian home, at Hollidaysburg, was laid yesterday afternoon at three o'clock. The new addition will cost approximately $50,000, and of this amount $30,000 has already been pledged and a special effort will be made to raise the balance by the time the wing is completed in November.

—Bobby Tanner, the five year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Tanner, of North Spring street, has surely inherited some Waltonian skill from his father. One day this week he accompanied his parents on a picnic and had hauled out two trout almost before his dad had had a bite.

—Because of the reunion at Snow Shoe there will be dancing at the park there, afternoons and evenings of July 3 and 4. Berney Kitt's orchestra, of Altoona, and the "Royal Sereaders," of Jersey Shore, will furnish the music.

—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Crissman, of State College, have announced the marriage of their daughter, Lois M. Crissman, to Carl S. Bauer, of Renovo, the wedding having taken place at Hagerstown, Md., on April 30th.

Spend the Fourth with the Logans at Hecla Park.

Next Wednesday will be the Fourth of July and, as has been the case for a number of years past, no celebration of any kind will be held in Bellefonte. This is in deference to the Logan fire company, which holds its annual picnic on that day at Hecla park.

State College will have a demonstration, Snow Shoe is preparing for a big time, and Osceola Mills is going to have a big blow-out. But Bellefonters should, and doubtless will, patronize the Logans. The firemen have arranged as one of their attractions a ball game for the afternoon between Centre Hall and a picked nine of Bellefonte players. While the exact lineup for Bellefonte is not yet known assurance is given that a good team will make its appearance on the grounds, and as Centre Hall has one of the best teams in Pennsylvally, the game should be worth watching.

The Odd Fellows band will be at the park and give concerts during the day, and a Sunbury orchestra has been engaged for dancing in the pavilion, afternoon and evening. Busses will be run from Bellefonte at proper intervals during the day to handle the crowd.

The Union Chapel Needs Help.

Whereas, about twenty-eight years ago the Union chapel at Pleasant View, commonly called "Red Roof," was erected largely through the cooperation of such men as Gen. James A. Beaver, A. G. Morris, Frank McCoy, Emanuel Noll and Emanuel Korman, for the use of the people of Pleasant View, in which to hold their Sunday school and other religious exercises, and

Whereas, this chapel is at present greatly in need of repairs.

Therefore, we the undersigned trustees and pastor, hereby kindly solicit the aid of the people of Bellefonte and vicinity and ask them to contribute toward the repairing of the chapel.

It is plainly understood that all the money received as a result of this appeal will be used only for the above named purpose.

The names of the donors and amounts given will be published later.

Contributions can be paid to any of the undersigned who are authorized to give a receipt therefor.

Child Drowned Near Boalsburg.

Carl Ferguson, two and a half year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ferguson, who live in one of the Col. Theodore Davis Boal properties, about midway between Boalsburg and Oak Hall, fell into a small stream which runs through the rear portion of the grounds surrounding the house, at noon, on Sunday, and was drowned.

Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson were not at home at the time of the accident and the boy and a younger child were in charge of their grandmother. The children were out in the back yard playing and it is supposed the boy wandered too close to the stream and fell in. When the grandmother missed the child neighbors were notified and a search was instituted which resulted in the finding of the body some distance down stream, near a swimming pool constructed on the creek.

The father is a mechanic employed on the construction of the new gymnasium, at State College. The remains were taken to Fort Wayne, Ind., on Tuesday, for interment.

Hospital Nurses to be Graduated.

The annual graduation exercises of nurses of the training school of the Centre County hospital will be held in the High school auditorium, Bellefonte, on Monday evening, July 2, at eight o'clock.

The class of 1928 comprises five young women: Misses Mabel Aileen Ingram, of Altoona; Mary Beatrice Evans, of Altoona; Mary Elizabeth Swartz, of Snow Shoe; Beatrice Mae Blair, of Buffalo Run, and Anna Kline, of Pine Grove Mills.

Their class motto is, "Always for others." Their class flowers are red and white carnations and their color blue and silver.

—The Millheim Journal states that fishermen down there report having caught a trout with an eight penny nail sticking through its under jaw and another with a spike in its intestines. The trout were alleged to have been caught in Penn's creek and if they are hungry enough to eat nails fishermen in that locality ought to have no trouble in getting a strike.

—Noah H. Swayne II, who lived in Bellefonte, when he was president of the Nittany Iron Co., sailed for Europe last Saturday with the Yale glee club. Mr. Swayne is a Yale man and has been prominent in musical circles in Philadelphia for years. He went as guest soloist for the club, which will tour England and central Europe.

—Twenty-four all-metal dump cars built for a narrow gauge railroad have been sold by the American Lime & Stone company to the Whitecroft Quarries. As there is no narrow gauge road on which they can be transported from one plant to another they are being hauled out on trucks.

Fryberger-Norton.—The wedding of George McGaffey Fryberger, son of Mrs. John E. Fryberger, of Philipsburg, and Miss Nancy Evans Norton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Evans Norton, of "Falcon Hill," Rosemont, last Friday afternoon, was one of the fashionable events of the season at that place. The ceremony took place in the Church of the Good Shepherd at four o'clock in the afternoon and was performed by Rev. Charles Townsend, rector.

The bride was given in marriage by her father while the attendants were Mrs. George Douglass Deberose, of New York, as matron of honor; Miss Olivia S. Cover, Miss Eleanor Clark Wesley and Miss Sara Brooke Jack, of Philadelphia; Miss Garetta M. Dickinson, of Princeton, and Misses Louise and Alice Fryberger, of Philipsburg, as bridesmaids. Paul D. Millholland, of Washington, D. C., was best man.

Following the ceremony a reception took place at the bride's home and later the young couple left on a wedding trip of several months touring Europe. On their return they will locate in Philipsburg where the bridegroom will be employed in the First National bank, of which he was recently elected a director.

Thompson-Barker.—Edward J. Thompson Esq., of Philipsburg, and Miss Harriet Barker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William P. Barker, of Shady avenue, Philipsburg, were married at the home of the bride's parents, at 7:30 o'clock last Thursday evening, by Rev. Henry H. Forsyth, assisted by the bride's brother, Dr. John Bryant Barker, of Smithfield, Ohio. The bridegroom is a son of Andrew Curtin Thompson, of Philipsburg, Democratic candidate for the Legislature, and is a member of the Centre county bar. Following a brief wedding trip they will take up their residence in Philipsburg.

Winkleman-Wadsworth.—Harry Winkleman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Winkleman, of Mill Hall, and Miss Dorothy May Wadsworth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Wadsworth, of Lock Haven, were married, last Saturday, at the parsonage of the Reformed church in Bellefonte, by the pastor, Rev. Robert Thoma. The only witnesses were Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Wadsworth, of Lock Haven, the bride's brother and sister-in-law. Mr. and Mrs. Winkleman will live at Kato.

—On Sunday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Johnston, accompanied by two friends from Lock Haven, took an automobile trip by way of Snow Shoe to Philipsburg, then across the mountain on the Port Matilda road. Between the foot of the mountain and Port Matilda D. S. Woodring undertook to pass the Johnston car in front of another car going toward the mountain and to avoid a head-on collision ran into the Johnston car, tearing off the left front wheel and damaging the left front fender. The impact threw Mr. Woodring's car across the road against a telephone pole. Fortunately nobody in either of the cars was injured. The Johnston car is a LaSalle with wire wheels and it will require a new wheel and new fender. The Woodring car was also considerably damaged. Mr. Woodring assumed all the blame for the accident. Mr. Johnston was brought to Bellefonte by a passing motorist and securing another car, a temporary wheel, etc., went up to Port Matilda and brought his car to Bellefonte.

—Dealers of fireworks in Bellefonte and the boys and girls who are already playing with the explosives destined especially as adjuncts to the proper celebration of the Fourth of July, are simply storing up a supply of trouble for the future by not observing Burgess Harris' request to abstain from the use of fireworks until the day before the Fourth. This request was made in good faith and has been observed by most dealers, but the boys and girls are not so punctilious. Unfortunately there is no borough ordinance governing the sale or use of fireworks and the Burgess cannot enforce his request this year. But because of the fact that it is not being observed generally has sort of stirred up the Burgess and he has set his mind on having an ordinance passed before another Fourth of July rolls around—one with teeth in it that will give the Burgess and police department ample power to restrict the sale and use of fireworks.

—David Bryant and wife, of Cold Stream, Rush township, are under $2500 bail for their appearance at the next term of Centre county court on joint charges of conducting a disorderly house; Mrs. Bryant on an additional charge of larceny and Mr. Bryant for violation of the prohibition laws. The arrests were made, last Wednesday, by county detective Leo Boden, on instructions from district attorney John G. Love.

—Considering State College as a better field for his work as a building contractor Edward J. Gehret, with his wife, moved there on Wednesday last week, and his home on east Bishop street, Bellefonte, has been occupied by Charles Brachbill and family, who moved there from the Beatty block.

—Farmers and gardeners have no reason to complain of a shortage of rain so far this season. The biggest trouble has so far been lack of enough dry weather to cultivate the crops.

ADDITIONAL PERSONAL NEWS.

—Mrs. George A. Bezer and Mrs. E. E. Widdowson drove to Pittsburgh, Wednesday, to spend a day or more in the shops.

—Miss Jean Knox returned home a week ago from a visit at her former home in Harrisburg, where she had spent a week, as the guest of Miss Lucille Parthemore.

—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Galbraith, of east Bishop street, went to Reading last Sunday for a visit of two weeks with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Shields, of that city.

—Mrs. A. W. Woche and her small son are here from New York, guests of Mrs. Woche's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Bower, on east Linn street. Mrs. Woche was formerly Miss Eleanor Bower.

—Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Kline with Mrs. Kline's sister, Mrs. William Ott, as a driving guest, left yesterday on a motor trip to Sandusky, Ohio, where they will spend the early part of July with relatives.

—A summer guest at the William Houser home, on Water street, is their grandson, Kurtz L. Houser, of Houtzdale. The child was brought to Bellefonte, Tuesday for the visit, and says he is going to stay until the 14th of August if he does not get homesick.

—Mrs. Hollobaugh and her son Richard, who are in Bellefonte spending the summer with the M. E. Johnson family, went to Lewistown, Sunday, for a week's visit with Miss Caroline Rice, Mrs. Hollobaugh and Miss Rice having been school mates at Dickinson seminary.

—Miss Grace Mitchell, who is now occupying her bungalow on north Spring street, returned home last week from Princeton, N. J., where she has been an instructor in Miss Fine's school for a number of years. Taking a year's leave of absence from her work, Miss Mitchell now expects to be in Bellefonte for that length of time.

—Mr. Harry E. Kline and his daughter, Miss Bertha, were in Bellefonte for an hour or so yesterday enroute to their home in Middletown. They had been over to Philipsburg for a visit with Mr. Kline's sister, Mrs. Hoffer. We were sorry to learn that Mrs. Kline is in a rather precarious condition of health. Several weeks ago it was found necessary to amputate one of her limbs. Mr. Kline, however, seems not to change a bit, for with each recurrent annual visit to his former home here we look for but fail to detect any sign that years are piling up on him.

P. O. S. of A. to Celebrate the Fourth at Newton Hamilton.

The Patriotic Order Sons of America, of all the Central Pennsylvania group of camps, are looking forward with keen interest to the big picnic to be staged on the old camp grounds at Newton Hamilton, Pa., Wednesday, July 4th.

President Edwards and his committee have been successful in securing Honorable Albert W. Johnson, of Lewistown, Pa., who is one of the nation's federal judges, and who is the National President of the P. O. S. of A., as one of the speakers for the big picnic. Wherein We Get Some H—

Centre Hall, Pa., June 21, '28.
Editor, Democratic Watchman,
Bellefonte, Pa.

Dear Sir:
My attention has recently been called to a few paragraphs in your publication of June 15, 1928 under the caption of "A Centre Hall Sandwich."

This rotten piece of journalism, we are asked to believe, is a reprint from the Harrisburg Telegraph.

I have been advised that this article appeared in the Harrisburg sheet,—not as an unjustifiable knock against our fair town, but to "wise up" dry throats in and about Amity Hall and Dauphin.

This, however, does not explain why the Democratic Watchman should feel justified in permitting a reprint of this extremely silly mess in its columns.

You, Mr. Editor, your publication and your town can live without Centre Hall,—but we "help a heap." If you will keep your eyes open you will find Centre Hall supports your merchants most handsomely, your movie houses, your hospital, your service club, your lodges and clubs—all benefited by the little town at the foot of Old Nittany and we invite you over to a taste of chicken sandwich, and while you are paying the least you ever paid for the biggest, fattest chicken sandwich made within a radius of ten miles, just tell the proprietor of the restaurant who you are and how sorry you are that that nasty article appeared in your paper recently, without your knowledge or consent. No telling, he may believe you and it would give an opportunity to right yourself in the minds of some five hundred good people in this community.

Yours for fair play,
W. W. KERLIN.

Mr. Kerlin evidently wasn't in a very pleasant mood, last Thursday, when he indited the above to us. The thermometer is now somewhere in the nineties so it hasn't made us any hotter than we were before we opened his letter. If that is disappointing to him we regret it for we don't like to disappoint anyone. We don't intend to be drawn into a discussion of what is or what isn't a good "sandwich," either. The idea of how a sandwich ought to be built is almost wholly an individual matter. Some like bulk. Others prefer those dainty little things that wouldn't make a tid-bit for a humming bird, but whether you stuff a big roll with a juicy hot dog or lay a thin slice of white meat of chicken between two triangles of thin bread it all depends on who the consumer is as to what reaction there will be. If he's bilious he'll "crab" at anything. If he is a person who has been raised right and been about a bit he'll eat either with a relish gauged solely by his hunger and go on his way. We have eaten what we thought were just as bad sandwiches in Bellefonte as the Harrisburg writer says he got in Centre Hall. Not long ago we ate what we thought was a far better club sandwich in Lebanon than we had gotten the day before in the Ben Franklin in Philadelphia. So we would advise Mr. Kerlin not to worry. A sandwich is good or bad largely because of the gustatory urge one has before approaching it.—Ed.

Wherein We Get a Little Praise.

Breckenridge, Texas, June 14, '28.
Democratic Watchman,
Gentlemen:

We enjoy the paper so much and look for its arrival each Monday. A friend of ours here is connected with the local daily paper and a few evenings ago saw a "Watchman" at our house. He remarked several times that it was an unusual looking paper and finally said that he had to take a copy over to their office to show the other fellows a paper that was made up with more care than they gave to their job printing. From another in the same line of business, we considered this quite a compliment.

Very truly yours,
E. D. B.
