

PINE GROVE MENTIONS.

Deputy sheriff Sinie Hoy greeted old friends in town, on Monday.

J. S. Osman, of Circleville, spent Friday in town on a business mission.

J. B. Eves, of Guyer, spent Friday at the W. S. Ward home, at Baileyville.

Mr. Humphries, of Lewisburg, has been a visitor at the Fred Fry home this week.

Ed Livingstone, of Saulsburg, was a registered guest at the St. Elmo, on Sunday.

Quarterly meeting will be held in Meek's church Sunday afternoon, at two o'clock.

Rev. Samuel Martin and wife departed last week to spend their vacation in Norway.

Mr. and Mrs. Fetterhoff, of Mount Union, were visitors at the Will Hoy home last week.

Mrs. John Korman and daughter Annabelle spent the early part of the week in Altoona.

E. B. Parsons, wife and mother, motored to Jersey Shore, Saturday, to visit relatives.

Pine Grove Mills will play an Altoona ball team, on the Frank field, tomorrow afternoon.

Alexander S. Bailey was entertained at supper, Sunday evening, at the W. R. Port home.

Wilbur Dodd and wife, of Philipsburg, spent Sunday at the Roy Louck home, near Graysville.

John Gummo is having his farm home repainted, white with the proverbial green trimmings.

Rev. C. W. Rishel, of State College, was a guest at the M. C. Wieland home, last Friday evening.

Mrs. Dora Krebs, of State College, spent Sunday with her brother, J. Clayton Corl, on Main street.

John M. Keichline and family, of Bellefonte, were Sunday visitors at the home of Mrs. Susan Goss.

Mrs. Elmer C. Musser, who has been confined to bed several weeks with illness, is now recovering.

Samuel Hess Tate and wife, of Yeagertown, were callers at the Mrs. Mary Meyers home, on Sunday.

Mrs. Elsie Corl, of White Hall, spent Sunday with her mother, at the Imperia Inn, on Walnut street.

L. S. Johnson left, on Friday, for Chicago, to continue his post graduate studies at the University of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Bierly left, last Thursday, on a motor trip to the Pacific coast, expecting to be away several months.

Miss Katherine Corl, of Philadelphia, is here to spend the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Corl, at Struble.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Johnson motored to Tyrone, on Saturday, to see Mrs. Johnson's father, J. Cal Markle, whose condition is very bad.

L. D. Fye has been awarded the contract for carrying the mail from Tyrone to Bellefonte by way of State College, effective July 1st, 1928.

Samuel Ewing, of Mooresville, has been visiting among friends in this section for several weeks, and expects to remain until after the Fourth.

J. H. Ward, of Philadelphia, came up, last week, and joined his brother, George Washington Ward, of Pittsburg, for a brief visit at the old home.

E. B. Irvin and Mac Fry attended the community sale, at Bellefonte, last Thursday. Mr. Irvin bought a cow and brought the animal home in his truck.

Mrs. Fred Goss left, on Monday, for a visit with friends in Pittsburgh. During her absence her son Budd will stay with his grandmother, Mrs. Cyrus Goss.

W. A. Collins, our village blacksmith, has invested in a new car and according to his own words is "having the time of his life managing the d—critter."

Editor A. J. Zimmerman, of the State College Times, motored to Ithaca, N. Y., last week to visit his son and family, returning home on Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Estella Watson, of Pittsburgh, is visiting her sister, Mrs. A. C. Kepler, in the Glades, and helping to crate the big crop of strawberries on the Kepler farm.

Many people from hereabouts are planning to go to State College on the Fourth, to help make the eagle scream.

W. L. Foster and wife, with their daughter Alice, motored to Buffalo, Monday, and brought home Mrs. Charles Ball and daughter for their summer visit.

Owing to the summer months being a busy season for all the monthly meetings of the Ferguson township Brotherhood have been cancelled until September.

A. L. Burwell, State College merchant, is breaking ground for a new house on east Main street, Pine Grove Mills, expecting to have it completed before cold weather sets in.

Miss Edith Sankey is now spending a portion of her time at Centre Hall making preliminary arrangements for the annual Grange fair and encampment which will be held the last week in August.

W. H. Glenn and wife, Harry Gearhart and wife, Edgar Hess and wife, John Hess and wife and George Dreibelis and lady friend spent several days, last week, camping in the wilds of Potter county.

Miss Leah Dunlap, a professional nurse in Philadelphia, was home for a brief visit the latter part of the week, having come from Cherry Tree where she attended the funeral of her little nephew, Clair Dunlap, last Thursday.

J. M. Campbell and son Charles motored to Allentown, last Thursday, and on Saturday brought home Mrs. Campbell, who had been with her daughter, Mrs. Michael Black, recovering from a recent illness. She is now much improved.

Mrs. Clarence McCormick and three children, of Collegeville, were guests at the home of Hon. and Mrs. John T. McCormick, last week. On their trip home they stopped in Harrisburg to see Mr. McCormick, who is a patient in the Harrisburg hospital.

Mrs. George Long, Mrs. Charles Mesenner and Mrs. George Brown and daughter Bess, of Centre Hall, motored through town, last week, on their way to Cleveland, Ohio, to visit Mrs. Brown's daughter, Mrs. Richards. They will also visit friends in Alliance.

The Children's day services in the Pine Hall Lutheran church, last Sunday evening, were well attended, and those in charge deserve credit for the fine program rendered. The children, also, deserve special commendation for the splendid way in which all took their parts.

Jacob W. Kepler, of Johnstown, spent several days, last week, with his father, Hon. J. Will Kepler, and found him improving from a siege of rheumatism. Jacob has been promoted to the position of general manager of the New Haven Coal company at a salary of $3000 a year.

Rev. John S. English, wife and daughter Dorothy motored to Harrisburg, on Friday, Mrs. English and daughter going on to Williamsport, Md., to attend a church wedding of an intimate friend. The pastor returned home, on Saturday, so as to be here to fill his Sunday appointments.

After spending two years in Florida Mrs. Ella Ailman and Sue McClarey returned north, last week, and with Mrs. Anna Scharm, of New Castle, were callers at the Charles M. Dale home, on the Branch. They expect to remain north for the summer, or until conditions improve in Florida.

Dr. and Mrs. Pillsbury, of Washington, D. C., and Miss Margaret Broadly, of Lincoln, Neb., are visiting the Bailey and Glenn families in this section. Dr. Pillsbury is a specialist at the Walter Reed hospital while Miss Broadly is a grand-daughter of Dr. McDonald, who as far back as 1840 was located at Baileyville.

Harold Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Williams, was ten years old, last Friday, and his mother gave a party to celebrate the event. A dozen or more of his school chums were present and the lads had a jolly time playing games and eating the good things Mrs. Williams served as refreshments. Harold received quite a number of nice gifts.

At a regular meeting of the Ferguson township school board teachers for the ensuing school year were elected, as follows:

Pine Grove grammar—A. B. Corl.
Pine Grove primary—Mary Burwell.
Branch—Maude Miller.
Pine Hall—A. L. Bowersox.
Oak Grove—M. C. Barto.
Tadpole—Miss Buck.
Baileyville—Elizabeth Goheen.
Marengo—John Gilliland.
Krumrine—not yet supplied.
Glades—Closed.

An extra program was put on at the regular meeting of Lemont lodge, No. 717, I. O. O. F., last Thursday evening, the occasion being the presentation of twenty-five year jewels. There were two eligible members, George Glenn and J. C. Kustaborder. Mr. Glenn, however, declined to accept the jewel, preferring to wait three years and get a thirty year emblem. The presentation of the jewel to Mr. Kustaborder was made by Dr. Frizell, of State College, who talked on the theme, "The Coronet of Friendship." Mr. Kustaborder expressed his gratitude at receiving the emblem. Refreshments and a smoker followed the presentation.

WINGATE.

Mrs. Florence Lucas is recovering from a recent illness but is still under the doctor's care.

Children's day services will be held in the Evangelical church next Sunday evening. The public is invited.

Mr. and Mrs. George Snyder motored up from Mill Hall on Sunday, and spent the day at the James Snyder home.

Mrs. Irwin is one of the unfortunates who have been laid off at the Federal Match company for an indefinite time.

Mrs. Ida Witmer, Misses Sarah and Marian McMillen attended the W. C. T. U. medal contest, at State College, on Monday.

George Snyder, a student at Lebanon Valley college, is home to spend his vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Snyder.

We have certainly had lots of rain, of late, and let us hope that when the weather does settle it will not be too long between showers.

Mrs. Irwin, with her daughters, Edna and Florence, and Donald Irwin, motored to Tyrone, on Sunday afternoon, to see her aunt, Mrs. Phoebe Yarnell, who is living with her daughter, Mrs. Sarah Holt. Mrs. Yarnell is now 88 years old and still enjoys fair health.

Mrs. Henry Estrigh had so far recovered from her recent illness as to be the central figure at a dinner given in her honor, Monday, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Snyder. Mrs. Robert Cowan, who had been here helping to care for her mother during her illness, returned home last week.

BOALSBURG.

Clayton Martz returned, last week, from an overseas trip.

Miss Flora Snyder, of State College, spent the week-end in town.

Miss Harriet Coxey, of Altoona, is visiting at the Coxey-Ishler home.

John Stover, of Altoona, is spending some time with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Stover, while convalescing from an operation for appendicitis.

Mr. and Mrs. John Harris, of Mifflinburg; Mr. Engle and family and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Harro and family, of Sunbury, were visitors in town on Sunday.

Rev. and Mrs. W. J. Wagner accompanied Rev. Harkins and family, of State College, on a motor drive to Garrettson Beach, N. Y., to visit Rev. J. H. Wagner and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Smeltzer celebrated their first wedding anniversary with a motor trip to Maryland. They were accompanied by Jared Zettle, of Pleasant Gap, and Miss Hester Lonbarger, who were united in marriage before their return, Sunday evening.

JACKSONVILLE.

Mr. and Mrs. Mervin Hoy spent Thursday afternoon and Friday at the home of Mrs. Hoy's parents, near Curtin.

Miss Helen Vonada and James Carner were married Saturday, June sixteenth. We wish them a long, happy and prosperous life.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hoy, son Wilard and nephew, George Fisher, attended Children's day exercises on Sunday evening, at the Howard Reformed church.

Mr. and Mrs. William Weaver and daughter, Mrs. Deitz, and her daughter Josephine, attended the funeral of their sister-in-law and aunt, Mrs. Angeline Weaver, of Centre Hall.

Woman's Struggle; Present Day Life Depicted.

This most interesting novel telling of the intense struggle of a woman to save the soul of the man she married and the love of the man she loved began in the last issue of the Sunday New York American.

A most thrilling story that will hold your interest thru every chapter. Do not miss the early installments of this popular novel. Tell your news dealer today to save a copy of the Sunday American of July 1, 1928 issue. If he does not carry it in stock, send this notice together with $1.00 to the Subscription Department, New York American, 220 South Street, New York city and we will enter your subscription for a period of 10 weeks.

Squirmy Season.

"What makes you so uneasy? Is your conscience troubling you?"
"No; it's my winter underwear."—Boston Transcript.

—Subscribe for the "Watchman."

LUMBER? Oh, Yes! Call Bellefonte 432
W. R. Shope Lumber Co.
Lumber, Sash, Doors, Millwork and Roofing

UNIONVILLE.

Mrs. Mary Wright is on the sick list, suffering with a heavy cold.

Mrs. Flora Lucas and Mrs. Susanna Henderson have returned from a visit to Philadelphia.

Mrs. Milford Spotts, of Rochester, N. Y., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Houtz.

The Tureen supper given by ladies of the W. C. T. U. was delicious, but not so very well patronized.

Madeline Stere is attending a convention of the Presbyterian young people's school at Birmingham.

Little Miss Lois Ann Keathley is able to be out again after being housed up for some time with measles.

Mrs. Almeda Stere went to Williamsport, on Monday, to assist her niece, Mrs. Gertrude Updegraff, in moving.

Mrs. Anna St. Clair Elway, of Altoona, was a caller at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Robison, on Tuesday.

Mrs. Bessie Wagner and daughter, of State College, were visitors over Sunday with Mrs. Wagner's mother, Mrs. Susan Stere.

The members of the W. F. M. S. held their regular meeting on Thursday evening, June 28th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Way.

Mrs. Bessie Wagner and Mrs. Katherine Resides went to State College, on Tuesday, to cook for the nature study club, at Bear Meadows.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Spotts, of Rochester, N. Y., is visiting his grandmother, Mrs. Arista Lucas, and Miss Gertrude Lucas, his aunt.

Miss Anna Rich went to Clearfield, on Sunday afternoon, expecting to visit with friends there and in Curwensville for a week or ten days.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Roller have returned from a visit of about three weeks with friends and relatives in Ohio. They had a very pleasant time.

Miss Julia Bullock is attending the Y. P. B. of the W. C. T. U., at State College this week, as a delegate. Several members from here were also in attendance on Monday evening.

E. T. Hall, who was taken seriously ill early last week, was operated upon for appendicitis, at the Centre County hospital on Wednesday, and while his condition is still serious, it was regarded, at latest reports, as favorable.

Miss Elizabeth Hazzard and Mr. Henry Baird, of Pleasant Gap, were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hazzard, on Saturday evening, by the Free Methodist minister. Best wishes for their happiness is extended by their friends.

A number of repairs and improvements are noticed along Allegheny street in our town. Clarence Houtz is remodeling his house and John Askins replastering his home. Joseph Brugger is painting and repairing and John Resides is having a new front porch erected.

Dorothy Kerchner and Donald Fisher visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Kepler, at Pine Grove Mills, last week and were accompanied home, on Saturday afternoon, by Master Aaron Kepler and sister Millicent, who are cousins of Dorothy. They are having a delightful time.

On last Thursday afternoon the following persons enjoyed a picnic luncheon at the home of Mrs. Clara Leathers: Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Hancock and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Millard Hancock, of Philipsburg; Mr. and Mrs. Philip Conover and daughter, of Charleston, W. Va., and Mr. Miller and lady friend, of Jacksonville, Fla.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary society will have home baked cakes and Davidson's ice cream for sale on Tuesday afternoon, July 3rd, after 3 o'clock, at the borough hall. The ice

THE SAFE AND SANE FIREWORKS
(No Blank Cartridge Pistols)
Strictly Within the Law Kind
GARMAN'S

cream sale will be continued during the day of the 4th. Proceeds for the benefit of the Missionary cause, different departments of the work needing funds.

Prof. Reish and Miss Mittie Barton gave everybody quite a surprise by quietly motoring to Cumberland, Md., where they were married. It was understood by their friends that they were going to Lock Haven to Normal school, both being successful teachers in the township schools. They have the best wishes of their friends for a happy and prosperous life.

Visitors at the home of Mrs. Cora Kreps, on Sunday, were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wrye, Mrs. William Wrye and two children, Mr. and Mrs. Judson Williams and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Comley and son, Mr. and Mrs. William Kreps and family, all of Tyrone; Mr. and Mrs. Whitstine and daughter and Edward Gill, of Juniata, and Mrs. William McEwen, of Unionville.

—Another thing that seems to improve the longer you keep it is your temper.—Detroit News.

Our Dress Goods Department
unusually busy, despite the unseasonable weather.
PRICES and STYLES go HAND in HAND in this shop.
GARMAN'S

IRA D. GARMAN JEWELER
101 South Eleventh St., PHILADELPHIA.
Have Your Diamonds Reset in Platinum
72-48-ft Exclusive Emblem Jewelry

Silk and Rayon Hosiery
We likely handle more than any three or four general stores.
QUANTITY MAKES THE PRICE
Have an eye only for the best.
GARMAN'S

CRETONNES 20c. to 25c.—the 25c. to 50c. kinds, ordinarily.
ORGANDIES at a new low price—quality not sacrificed.
We pass our low overhead on to the customer.
GARMAN'S

ERA NEWS

FROM the telephone on your library table you can talk to the Pacific Coast, to Canada, Mexico, Cuba, and even across the Atlantic Ocean to Great Britain, Belgium, Holland, Germany, Sweden, or France.

That's inspiring!

For a quarter or so you can reach any number of nearby places where you have friends who would like to hear your voice.

That's a thrill!

JESSE H. CAUM, Manager

FRIDAY, JULY 6
WILL BE
ALTOONA DAY
IN ALTOONA BOOSTER STORES

YOU ARE INVITED

There are so many stores included in the Booster Membership that you will be able to buy practically anything needed for personal use or for the home on this important occasion.

Altoona Day, Friday, July 6

Will be a time when Booster Stores will offer special inducements to out-of-town customers and you are invited to come and share in ALTOONA DAY opportunities.

It will be a good time to secure the things that your local merchants cannot supply. Booster Stores always maintain a high standard of quality and style in their merchandise and sell at low prices and guarantee satisfaction in every purchase.

It Always Pays to Trade at a Booster Store

Don't Forget That Altoona Day Will be Friday, July 6—Come Prepared to Stay All Day.

Altoona Booster Association

Strand Theatre One Week, Starting "THE LEGION OF THE CONDEMNED" Sat., June 30
ALTOONA, PA. 3 Vitaphone Acts - Orchestra