ALTOONA AUTO RACES HELD ON SUNDAY

Judge Fleming Asked to Sign an Injunction to Prohibit the Races.

Sixty thousand auto fans thronged the big bowl, at Tipton, on Sunday, to see the exciting races on the Altoona speedway which had been postponed from Saturday owing to a hard rain storm just before the races were to have been called.

Application was then made to the district attorney of Blair county for an injunction to restrain the association from pulling off the races.

And the races were pulled off notwithstanding all efforts to stop them. Lou Meyer, the young cyclonist driver from California, won the race and first prize of $7,000.

McCULLISTER.—Robert McCullister, an old and well known resident of west Ferguson township, died last Thursday, at his home at Pennsylvania Furnace, following a lingering illness with a complication of diseases.

He was born in Armstrong county on January 27th, 1856, hence had reached the age of 72 years, 6 months and 23 days.

Funeral services will be held at two o'clock this (Friday) afternoon by Rev. Homer C. Knox, burial to be made in the Union cemetery.

Wool Growers' Ram Sale, Last Week, A Decided Success.

The Centre county Sheep and Wool Growers' association held their first annual purebred ram sale in the stock judging pavilion, at State College, on August 15th.

There were eighteen rams in the sale, nine Hampshires and nine Shropshires. The majority of them were consigned by Centre county breeders.

The highest priced ram sold for $49.00 and the lowest $20.00, with an average for the eighteen head of $36.14.

The second annual Bald Eagle pilgrimage and rally day will be held at the Methodist church, at Bald Eagle, on Saturday, September 1st.

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Bald Eagle Cemetery association will serve a good, old Bald Eagle dinner at a reasonable price, so that no one need bother taking a lunch if they don't want to.

ESKRIDGE.—J. H. Eskridge, a well known resident of Philipsburg, died on Wednesday morning of last week, following an illness of several years.

He was a native of Delaware, having been born at Laurel, in that State, on September 10th, 1857, hence was almost 71 years old.

He was a member of the Presbyterian church, the Moshannon lodge No. 391, Free and Accepted Masons; the Clearfield chapter, No. 228, Royal Arch Masons; Moshannon commandery No. 74, Knights Templar; Jaffa Temple Order of the Mystic Shrine, of Altoona, and the Tall Cedars of Lebanon.

He married Miss Ellen May Moore, of Hazleton, who survives with two children, Robert Lee Eskridge, an artist, of Chicago, and Miss Marion, at home. The funeral was held last Friday.

KINNE.—In the sudden death of Miss Emma Kinne, at her home in Milesburg, last Friday evening, the last member of one of the old-time families of that town has passed away.

She was a daughter of Henry T. and Mary J. Bennett Kinne and was born in Milesburg, about eighty-three years ago.

She was a daughter of Henry T. and Mary J. Bennett Kinne and was born in Milesburg, about eighty-three years ago. Her entire life was spent in that place and it was only natural that she had many friends who sincerely mourn her death.

FISHER.—John Fisher died at his home on South Spring street, following an illness which dated back to last March. Some six weeks ago he was taken to a Pittsburgh hospital for treatment but became homesick and remained only two weeks.

Deceased was a son of Bond and Addie Shuey Fisher and was born in Bellefonte on December 30th, 1895; hence was in his 33rd year.

William P. Rice Reported Killed in Auto Accident at Reading.

A news dispatch from Reading, Pa., on Tuesday afternoon, contained the following information of the tragic death of a Bellefonte man:

"Seeking to escape a traffic policeman who was pursuing him for passing red traffic lights, a man carrying a card bearing the name of William P. Rice, of Bellefonte, was instantly killed when a stolen automobile which he was driving crashed into the curbing and a telegraph pole on the western end of the bridge connecting this city and West Reading this afternoon.

Another man crawled from the wreckage, which caught fire, and holding his hands to his bleeding head, fled across the fields and escaped while passersby tried to give aid to his companion.

The wrecked automobile carried Pennsylvania license 389-756, issued to Charles F. Bryde, of 370 Hillcrest Avenue, Drexel Hill, and was stolen the police say."

Up to this time it has not been possible to definitely determine if the man killed was William P. Rice, of Bellefonte, or not, but if it is, we feel sure that he was not the driver of the car, had not stolen the machine, nor knew that it had been stolen.

It is known definitely that he had been at the home of his sister, Mrs. David W. Keller, in Philadelphia, the past six weeks, and had intended coming to Bellefonte within ten days on a visit.
