

Only Fifty-Seven Civil War Veterans Living in Centre County.

Out of almost two thousand men who responded to the call to arms during the Civil war, from Centre county, only fifty-seven are living today, according to a roll just completed by W. H. Bartholomew, president of the Centre County Veteran Club. Mr. Bartholomew went to considerable trouble to compile the roll, making personal visits and using the telephone and mails, and he feels confident his list is complete.

The oldest soldier of the surviving group is Col. J. Miles Kephart, who makes his home in Unionville but is now at Sayville, Long Island, and who is 92 years old. The "baby" members are C. H. Martz, of Pine Grove Mills, and Prof. Madison M. Garver, of State College, both of whom are 80 years old. Following is a complete list of the fifty-seven survivors.

- Bellefonte—Samuel Shirk, 82; William Colpeter, 81; John Griffith, 86; Levi A. Miller, 86; M. F. Calderwood, and Samuel Cupp, 84.
- Blanchard—Cyrus Bowman, 83.
- Centre Hall—Eric D. Brisbin, 86; Alfred Durst, 85; W. H. Bartholomew, 82.
- Fleming—Col. J. Miles Kephart, 92; George Dubbs, 83.
- Howard—David Wagner, 84; W. I. Wilson, 86; James Tyson, 87; Washington Barney Codor, 88; George P. Thomas, 85; John Knarr, 87, and John Wesley Young, 87.
- Juniata—W. G. Carner, 81.
- Jubilee—George W. Gill, 87.
- Lemont—B. P. Hoy, 85; John I. Williams, 85; George Martz, 86, and William Hoy, 87.
- Madisonburg—S. R. Gettig, 90.
- Millheim—Nathaniel Boob, 85; Abraham King, 82, and J. H. Hoffman, 82.
- Milesburg—P. H. Haupt, 86; Simeon Bathurst, 89; W. G. Graftmeyer, 84; A. T. Boggs, 85, and W. W. Dunkle, 82.

- Pine Grove Mills—Capt. W. H. Fry, 85; D. W. Miller, 82; C. H. Martz, 80, and J. W. Sunday, 82.
- Port Matilda—Matthew Adams, 88.
- Spring Mills—G. A. Immel, 85.
- State College—T. A. Snyder, 84; John B. Holter, 82; Benjamin Espenshade, 89; Philip S. Dale, 86; Prof. Madison M. Garver, 80; Cyrus Walker, 86, and James Lytle, 83.
- Woodward—John L. Kremer, 89.
- Yarnell—William C. Confer, 84.

A special meeting of the board of directors of the Bellefonte Central Railroad company was held in Philadelphia, on Wednesday, to decide definitely on the awarding of the contract for building the proposed connecting link between the present road and the Fairbrook branch. Yesterday the officials attended a hearing before the Public Service Commission, in Harrisburg, on their application for permission to construct three grade and one overhead crossings on the new stretch of road. No word of the outcome of either meeting had reached Bellefonte when the Watchman went to press.

According to a report of the national census bureau Centre county had 293 marriages in 1927 against 267 in 1926. In 1927 there were also 24 divorces against 16 in 1926.
