Bellefonte, Pa., October 19, 1928.

NEWS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

-Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Luse, of Williamsport, but formerly of Millheim, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary on Sunday.

-Latest reports from Lock Haven state that Jacob Marks is getting along as well as can be expected and his permanent recovery is anticipated. -Quite a number of children in Bellefonte have the whooping cough, and the result is there are a good many empty seats in the primary

-The Bellefonte Academy football team will play the Bucknell Freshmen, at Lewisburg, tomorrow morning, being one of the attractions of the alumni home-coming at the schools.

-Mrs. Geo. D. Green and Mrs. Blanchard, of this place.

-Rehearsals are being held nightly for the big baseball play, "Here's Your Hat," which will be given in the Richelieu theatre October 25th and 26th. One hundred and fifty people will be in the cast.

-The 32nd annual convention of tober 26th. There will be a short session in the afternoon and one in the evening.

Three shares of stock of the First National Bank of Bellefonte, John Cole.

in the chapel at State College at the measures necessary to abate the nuiregular services Sunday morning. It sance. will be his first address in this country and will be broadcast from the college station at 11 o'clock.

-Roy Howard Adams, of Pleasant Gap, and Kleine H. Moyer, of surance agents in Williamsport tomorrow.

-The Bellefonte and State College groups of Republican women workers held a meeting at the Centre Hills Country club, last evening. As a big dinner was a feature of the gathering the women are at least getting some good eats out of the

---William J. Musser, who for the past twenty-five or thirty years balance of $1022.16 in the hands force of men to work, on Monday, has conducted a dairy and milk route at his home on east Lamb street, Bellefonte, has quit the business for good. He sold a number of his herd and what he did not sell were taken to his farm in lower Bald Eagle val-

---The hunting season for small game, such as wild turkeys, pheasant of $1690 after which council adjournunder a ruling of the State Game Commission hunters were not permitted to do any killing until yesterday. Because of this fact we are unable to give any report of the success of the hunters who went out for the first day's sport.

-Mrs. Emily Norris Bogle, who some years ago occupied the "Forge of water but as a number of the House," just south of Bellefonte, died at her home in Chicago on Wednes- ervoir would not give the desired reday evening. Her only survivors are sult. Another plan suggested by one daughter and a son, Miss Sarah chairman Cunningham was the instal-Bogle, with whom she made her home, lation of a one-half horse-power autoand E. Norris Bogle. Burial will be afternoon.

eight years was pastor of the Church feed pipe for the pump inside the of Christ, in Philipsburg, was instant- check valve, water can be furnished ly killed at Bellefontaine, Ohio, on at a fifty pound pressure to all resi-Monday, when his automobile was hit dents on Blanchard street through by a train on a grade crossing as the the present pipe line, and also afford pastor was returning home from an ample supply for any other houses playing golf. He was 65 years old that might be built there. The cost, and had been stationed at Belleont- too, is much in favor of the pumping aine since leaving Philipsburg seven system. A four inch pipe line would

-Over in DuBois, according to the Express, the Pennsylvania Railroad be installed for less than $250. The company is installing "flesh" lights at expense of operation is estimated at a street railroad crossing to take the about fifty per cent. of what the borplace of the old-time watchman. This, ough will receive in water taxes. The undoubtedly is an innovation but we believe if they are the right kind of pump system. "flesh" lights every old duffer who drives an automobile will not only stop but want to linger as long as the lights are on.

-Announcement has been made of the wedding of Miss Helen Melvin, nouncement that Leo J. Toner has of Corning, N. Y., and Thomas Win- been appointed manager of the Falls slow McNeill, of Brooklyn, which took and Alhambra theatres at Cuyahoga place in New York, Wednesday, Oc- Falls, Ohio. The show houses are tober 10th. Miss Melvin is well owned and operated by the Washingknown in Bellefonte, through her fre- ton Circuit of Cleveland. quent visits here with her aunt, the late Mrs. James Noonan and her

-Col. Henry W. Shoemaker, chairman of the Pennsylvania Historical Commission, and Jacob M. Hoffman, superintendent of State parks, are expected to visit G. Edward Haupt's "Veiled Lady Cavern," in Brush valley, next Monday. Col. Shoemaker claims to have data establishing the fact that the cavern was originally

COUNCIL CONTRACTS FOR 1500 FEET NEW FIRE HOSE.

Other Business Transacted at the Meeting Monday Night.

Six members were present at the regular meeting of borough council, on Monday evening, namely; Badger, Brouse, Cunningham, Cobb, Kline and Mignot. In the absence of President Walker, Mr. Cunningham was chosen to preside.

Representatives of four fire hose the suggestion of president pro tem Cunningham they were given an opseparately, show their samples and ment. state prices, terms, etc., each man being given five minutes. The companies represented were the Republic Rubber company, of Pittsburgh, with prices ranging from $1.25 to $1.40 a $1.30 to $1.40; the Eureka Fire company, $1.30; the Bi-Lateral Fire Hose company, $1.40, and the Consolidated Grove street, Lock Haven. Mrs. ed for 1000 feet of Fabric hose and Green was formerly Miss Rebecca 500 feet of Eureka, the same kind that the Bellefonte companies are now using.

borough solicitor N. B. Spangler stating that he had examined the bill of the Auditor General for State tax on the borough indebtedness and found it correct. The bill, however, the Christian Endeavor Union of CenMr. Spangler also stated that he had need not be paid until November 24th. program and won an encore. tre county will be held in the Baptist investigated the claim of Fred Waite, of Crafton, for damages because of an automobile wreck, on north Wa- and the greatest compliment that ter street, and he expressed the opinion that he has no cause for complaint or action against the borough. sold at public sale at the court house, barger continues pouring salt water was purchased by Roy Wilkinson, and ters along Bishop street, notwithwas the property of the late Mrs. standing persistent requests of property owners that he refrain from do--J. J. Mallon, warden of Toyn- ing so. The matter was referred to bee Hall, London, will be the speaker the Sanitary committee to take any > dition for the winter and repairs generally.

The Water committee reported that $191.00 on the 1927. The 1928 assess- able of properly appraising such talment has been completed and shows a total of $12,515.75, which is $227.25 of an increase over last year's dup!icate. Meter bills for the six months | ment. from April to October aggregate $4,-185.40, which shows an approximate income for the year of a little over twenty thousand dollars. of the borough treasurer. Renewal was authorized for notes totaling $6500, and a new note for $1000 was authorized to meet current bills. Mr. Cobb, of the Special committee, reported progress on the proposed building and fire zone ordinance.

After council adjourned the Water committee had a meeting to decide on something definite whereby water can be furnished to residents of Burnside street. Two propositions were considered, one the laying of 700 feet of four inch line, which day. would naturally increase the volume houses are on a level with the resmatic electric pump at the intersecmade at Milton, Pa., this (Friday) tion of Logan and Blanchard streets. a total of eighteen rooms in addition By placing a check valve on the wa-Rev. H. S. McClintock, who for ter main, on Logan street, with the give him a better opportunity to cost over $700 and then would do little good, while the pump system can committee decided to install the

Leo Has Landed.

The Film Daily, a trade publication of the screen news, has made the an-

Mr. Toner was formerly associated with the late T. Clayton Brown in the daughters, having made many friends management of the Scenic and State in the younger set during those visits. theatres in this place. He is a show man, through and through, and with the experience he has had in catering to movie fans and his ever genial personality we predict that he will please both his employers and the patrons of their houses in Cuyahoga Falls.

> -In federal court, at Scrarton, on Monday, John Kachik, who pleadby Judge A. W. Johnson.

Annual Musical in Methodist Church FORMER BELLEFONTERS Was a Great Success.

the Bellefonte Methodist church maintained the reputation they won with their concert of last year by giving another, quite as delightful, last Friday evening.

The auditorium of the church was crowded when the program was opened with the presentation of all the artists who were to entertain during the evening. The numbers, instrumanufacturers were present and at mental and vocal, were balanced so as to give variety and moved so smoothly from one to another as to form a portunity to appear before council pleasing symposium of entertain-

Mr. Herbert A. Wahl, of State Colhad reserved an offering of more brilliance for his second appearance foot; the Fabric Fire Hose company, and it was in its rendition that his fine technique was revealed. D. Eugene Wentzel, of Bellwood, was the barytone of the evening and Rubber corporation, $1.18 and $1.28, though we hadn't heard him in years Henry Hipple have opened a book On recommendation of the Fire and we found that his wonderfully powshop and lending library at 320 north Police committee contracts were sign- erful voice had lost none of the richhas a contralto voice, very true and A communication was received from of unusual range so that their duets were especially harmonious.

The Temple Trio, of Lock Haven, Messrs. Myers, Lucas and Cree, furnished a number by way of instrumentation that gave variety to the Miss Mabel Gast, of Lock Haven. was the reader of the evening. She is a very versatile young elocutionist could be paid her is that she won her audience and concluded by having it vociferously demanding more.

The Ashburne Bros. quartet, of Altoona, were favorites before they sang and greater ones when they concluded their last number.

The mixed quartet of the First Church, Altoona, sang with a style quite professional and contributed much to the artistry of the program. Miss Clair Keller, of Harrisburg, was the soprano soloist. She is a The Street committee reported put- lyric soprano, with a voice of great ting a number of streets in good con- power and range and delighted her audience with the ease with which she sang. Rebersburg, in the life section; the fittings for completing the new Louis Schad. One uses the word and Meredith Avery, of Philipsburg, water line on Thomas street ought to artist in a more sincere way when it in the fire and casualty sections, will be here most any time, when that line applies to her. We shall not attempt will be completed. Some minor re- to praise her performance. It needs pairs have been made and $19.00 col- nothing from us because she is 30 lected on the 1926 duplicate and much of an artist that we are incapent.

> We understand that the ladies netted about $150 from the entertain-

Work On Enlarging "The Markland" Started On Monday.

tearing down a small portion of "The Markland" for the purpose of building a good-sized extension on the

"The Markland" is the new name to the new aviation field. be applied to M. A. Landsy's property, on Spring street, recently known as "The Annex," and which formerly was the Bush family ancestral home. For some time past Mr. Landsy has considered enlarging the building so as to afford more rooming space. Consequently he had plans prepared by architect Emil Kant, of State College, and work was started on Mon-

The plans provide for an addition which will fill out the offset in the rear of the present building, on the southwest corner. When the addition is completed it will add eight more to the present apartments. This will house overflow guests from Brockerhoff hotel, where he is frequently unable to accommodate all the guests who apply.

At the present time no dining room or culinary department will be added to "The Markland," but if the time comes when there is a demand for same the building will be so equipped.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bailey Celebrate Silver Wedding.

Sunday was the twenty-fifth anniversary of the marriage of Paul Bailey and Elizabeth Fromm, former residents of Ferguson township, but hard coal region who last fall wrested now living at Roaring Springs, Blair the State championship from Bellecounty, and as a reminder of that fonte in a game on ice and snow at event a number of Centre county peo- State College, will be Bellefonte pule motored to their home, that day, High's opponents, on Hughes field, toand helped them celebrate. They al- morrow afternoon. Game will be so took along the makings of a big called at 2:30 o'clock and as this will ver and otherwise.

and children, Kathryn, Mabel, Ella, John, Junior and Edith, those present included the following: Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Butler, of Roaring Springs; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fromm, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Fromm and sons, Kenneth and Richard, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Altoona proves that they have offen-Gentzel and son, George of Bellefonte; Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Detrick and sons, Gerald and Melvin, Mr. and Mrs. during the game they displayed Bierly, of Rebersburg, a daughter of P. John Martin and son, Bobby of State spurts of brilliancy, evidence that S. Bierly, with whom she now lives and College; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence they are capable of playing a bet- at one time one of the well known teach-Fromm and family, Jack, Bill, Bob, ter game than that of Saturday. And and Florence of Tyrone; Mr. and Mrs. with the special practice the boys Irvin Walker and daughters, Ruth and have had this week coach Cresswell discovered over one hundred years ed guilty to a violation of the Vol- Pine Grove Mills; Mr. and Mrs. Thom- will give a good exhibition of the as Forshey of Altoona; and Mr. and game against Mount Carmel tomor-Mrs. Winters, of Locust Hills.

AUTO ACCIDENT VICTIMS.

The ladies volunteer Bible class of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Moore Seriously Hurt, at Lewistown, Late Saturday Afternoon.

A bumblebee in his car caused Thomas Moore, of Philadelphia, to lose control of his machine, in Lewistown late Saturday afternoon, with the result that the car crashed into a telephone pole with terrific force and both Mr. and Mrs. Moore were so badly injured that the attending physicians in a private hospital, at Lewistown, will give no positive assurance of recovery.

lege, was the piano soloist. His first but who for twenty or more years are former residents of Bellefonte, have lived in Philadelphia, were on to Pittsburgh, Monday, for one of her petheir way to Bellefonte for Mr. riodical visits with her son, J. M. Curtin Moore's annual vacation. They were driving a new sedan and in Lewistown a bumblebee, that in some way had gotten inside the car, stung Mr. Moore on the forehead. Mrs. Moore and as she did so Mr. Moore attemptforward with terrific speed and crash- day. ed into a telephone pole on a street such as to leave an imprint of the license tag on the pole and yet, strange as it may sem, not a glass in the car was broken.

Mr. Moore was thrown forward with stunning force. Both were tak- been made. en from the car and rushed to a private hospital where it was found that burn, were guests of their nephew, James Mr. Moore had sustained a crushed E. Harter, of Bellefonte and his family, breastbone, fractured jaw and ribs on his right side. Mrs. Moore has fractures of the skull, nose, jaw, left leg, and her left eye so badly contused it had to be removed. Her condition is had to be removed. Her condition is Fleming and daughter Louise, of Altoona,

Mr. Moore is a native of Howard Reynolds avenue. and a jeweler by profession. For some years he has been in charge of Mann, with their son William acting as the watch department in the Wanamaker store, Philadelphia. Mrs. days yesterday morning. Their destina-Brown, of Bellefonte.

Their daughter, Mrs. W. H. Dahl, and her husband, Dr. Dahl, of Minneapolis, Minn., were promptly noti-

Troop B Wants New Armory and Parade Ground.

A public meeting was held in the grand jury room, last Thursday evening, as an initial movement to Contractor Benjamin Bradley put a rade ground for Troop B. Thirty or more business men were present and one most favored being the east end hangar out to the road running to

Dr. M. J. Locke, president of the Bellefonte school board, was present at the meeting and stated that if there is any likelihood of the move for a new armory going through the school board will purchase the old armory and pay cash for it, providing it can be secured at the right

It is understood that the State Armory Board recognizes the need of to the present building of an exten-be induced to build one. But if they a new armory here and possibly may consent to do so it will be up to the people of Bellefonte to furnish the site. In view of this fact a committee composed of Robert F. Hunter, with Miss Helen Beezer ever since return-Frank M. Crawford and O. G. Morgan, was appointed to confer with with the State-highway department. On Thomas Beaver regarding the probable cost of the desired site; find out here, Miss Noonan has planned to make from the school board what they will pay for the old armory and then confer with the State armory Board.

The school board would like to have the old armory for various uses. It could be used as a gymnasium and auditorium for various uses and the basement converted into up-to-date work shops for the students in manual training.

Mount Carmel to Play Bellefonte High Tomorrow.

The Mount Carmel High school football team, the bearcats from the dinner and a number of gifts in sil- probably be one of the best home games of the season every football fan In addition to Mr. and Mrs. Bailey in Bellefonte should be on hand to encourage the local boys. While Bellefonte lost to Altoona, does not mean that the team has no possibilities. The burst of speed they showed in their opening spurt against sive strength if it is properly co-or- of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Billet. Mrs. dinated. On several other occasions Nichols was formerly Miss Mary B.

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

-Mrs. Thomas A. Shoemaker has been with friends in Ebensburg, for the past days. week or more,

-The Misses Roxy and Helen Mingle in Philadelphia.

-Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Sutherland motored over from Huntingdon, on Sunday afternoon, and spent a few hours with friends in Bellefonte. -Miss Zoe Meek, again among Centre week in Bellefonte, attending Institute. Miss Meek is now in charge of the school at Monument. -Mrs. Harry C. Yeager left, Sunday, on a two week's trip east, expecting to spend Mr. and Mrs. Moore, both of whom and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Yeager, at Perth Amboy, N. J.

-Mrs. Harry Curtin, of Curtin, went out and his family, expecting to be gone for the greater part of the fall. -Gray Furey is home from Massachusetts, expecting to be in Bellefonte for the present, with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. struck at the insect to drive it away had been on a dairy farm for the summer. George Furey of east Linn street. Gray ness of tone that charmed us so on to stop the car but instead stepped on week-end visit, having come up with Camthe accelerator. He also lost control eron's father, who had been to Harrisburg of the steering wheel and the car shot for the Gettysburg-Beckley game Satur-

-Mr. and Mrs. Roy C. Bellows, friends detour. The impact of the car was of Mrs. Callaway and her daughter, Mrs. Garber, at Flushing, L. I., motored to Bellefonte, Sunday, for a visit with them at Mrs. Callaway's apartment, in the Bush Arcade.

-The Misses Anne and Caroline Valenagainst the steering wheel and the Place' and will go to Philadelphia Monday, front of the car while Mrs. Moore was to live at "The Colonial" for the present, thrown against the front of the car no definite plans for the winter having

> -Mr. and Mrs. James E. Harter, of Coon a drive through the eastern part of the State, Sunday, visiting enroute at Harrisburg, York and Lancaster.

extremely critical. Mr. Moore has a motored to Bellefonte, on Sunday, and chance to recover if pneumonia does spent the day with the parents of the two men, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fleming, on

-Mr. and Mrs. Thaddeus Cross, of Axe chaffeur, started on a motor trip of four Moore is a sister of Mrs. T. Clayton tion is Bolivar, the place of Mrs. Cross' birth, but they expect to visit at other points going and coming.

-Mr. and Mrs. Bruce S. Burlingame are here from Cazanovia, N. Y., visiting fied of the accident and came east at Mrs. H. C. Valentine and Miss Mary Valonce, reaching Lewistown at four entine, at their home on west Curtin street. Mr. and Mrs. Burlingame will be in Bellefonte until next week.

-Ira Harpster, one of the most prominent and best known men in the vicinity of Gatesburg. motored to Bellefonte a week ago, accompanied by his niece, Miss Edith Johnston. The trip was one combining pleasure and business, some politics consuming a part of Mr. Harps

-Miss Rachel Marshall and her neice, Miss Elizabeth Longwell, returned to their various locations were discussed, the after spending a month in Centre county. home at Washington, D. C., yesterday, south-west corner of the present Beaver's farm, extending from the Mrs. Georgiana Dale, at their home at For the greater part of the time they of the old aviation field on Thomas were guests of the daughters of the late present day problems of civic, eco-Lewistown Monday morning, called there through co-operative measures, the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Moore, of Philadelphia, who were injured in an automobile accident Saturday afternoon near Lewistown, while on their way to Bellefonte.

-Mrs. James Krom and two friends drove up from Jersey Shore, Wednesday morning, stopping in Bellefonte for Mrs. Hastings, who accompanied them to Cooksburg, where they were all overnight Ben Hill, State College, Mrs. J. Will guests of Mrs. Anthony Wayne Cook, the party having gone out on campaign business for the D. A. R.

-Miss Geraldine Noonan was over from Clearfield for her weekly visit to Bellefonte, having spent the week-ends here ing from Nw York to resume her work account of her love for her former home her weekly visits a custom.

-Mr. and Mrs. Frank Strouse, of Washington, D. C., were over-night guests at the Brockerhoff house Wednesday. They have been motoring through Pennsylvania in search of genealogical records of Mrs. Strouse's family, the Irvins. Mr. Strouse is of the well known College township family of that name and is at present a member of the Public Service Commission of the State of Maryland.

-Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Campbell stopped in Bellefonte, Saturday, on their drive from Lewistown to Milesburg, where they spend every third week-end at Mr. Campbell's former home. Mrs. Campbell, who is a member of the well known Orris family, is also a native of Milesburg; so that their regular over Sunday visits is Cornell University and holds a posionly going back home to keep in touch with their relatives and childhood friends. Pittsburgh Plate Gla

-Mrs. Mary Meyer Abbott, principal of the High schools, of Rebersburg, has been among the well known and foremost educators of the county, who have been in Pellefonte attending institute this week. Mrs. Abbott is a daughter of the late Hon. and Mrs. Henry Meyer, and ever since the death of her husband several years ago, when she and her children returned to on Saturday, by a decided score it their home, she has been a leading facher girlhood home in Rebersburg, to make tor in the school work of Centre county.

-Mrs. D. L. Nichols, of Williamsport, has been a visitor in Bellefonte during the past week, a guest while here ers of the county. While, very young she Corrected Weekly by C. Y. Wagner & Co. went over into Clinton county, teaching there until her marriage and since then has made her home in Williamsport. Still very much interested in the work, Mrs. Nichols has been spending much of her

-Mrs. David Dale, who went east yesterday, will be with friends near Philadelphia during her absence of several

-Mrs. Louis Grauer, who has been with her son Edward and her sisters, Mrs. have been spending the past two weeks Lichten and Mrs. Gordon, in Philadelphia, since the middle of August, is not expected to return to Bellefonte before November.

-Mr. and Mrs. Richard Mabus, who have been making their home at Tarentum, since their marriage in August, bave now county's school teachers, is spending the gone to Martinsburg, W. Va., the change carrying an increased salary for Mr. Mabus.

-Mrs. D. I. Willard left, Sunday, to go to Wilkinsburg, anticipating spending the winter with three of her children, whose homes are in the locality of Pittsburgh. Mrs. Willard went directly to Mrs. Ludwig's with whom she will be for the greater part of the time.

-Miss Louise Carpeneto and her sister, Miss Evangeline, left Sunday on a week's motor trip through western Pennsylvania, eastern Ohio and Virginia, stopping enroute to visit with their brother and with Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Cantwell, at Ashland, Ohio. Mrs. Cantwell was formerly Miss Margaret Mignot, of Bellefonte.

-Miss Eva Powers has completed her arrangements for leaving Bellefonte, to make her home with her sister, Mrs. Massey and the latter's daughter, in Los Angeles. Sale has been made of the Powers home on east Lamb street with all its furniture, and now Miss Powers expects to leave for the coast within the week.

-Miss Louise Hoffer, a member of the board of instructors of the schools of Philipsburg, is here for the week attending institute. Miss Hoffer had been connected with the educational work in Bellefonte for a number of years, before resigning to go to her home town to continue her work, and her occasional visits back are always anticipated with great pleasure by her many friends about here. -Mrs. Hugh Crumlish, of Pleasant Gap, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Philip Seamon and her daughter, Mary Elizabeth, of Asbury Park, spent a part of Tuesday afternoon in Bellefonte, looking after some business pertaining to the coming carnival to be held at Pleasant Gap, under the auspices of the Woman's Mrs. Seamon and her daughter club. came over from Wilkes-Barre Sunday, to visit with Mrs. Crumlish until Wednesday, returning from there to her home in New Jersey.

Program for County Conference of Women's Clubs.

The conference will meet in the auditorium at the High school at 10 o'clock tomorrow (Saturday) morning. Rev. Stuart F. Gast will lead in devotional services. Miss Isabella S. Hill will make the address of welcome and Mrs. C. D. Champlin the response.

Conference speakers will include Dr. George P. Bible, of Bellefonte; Mrs. Margaret L. Krall, vice president of the Central Pennsylvania district; Mrs. F. W. Haller and Mrs. Arthur W. Cowell, of State College; Charles M. McCurdy, of Bellefonte, and Miss Beal, of Harri

Three minute reports from the various organizations in the county are always interesting and instructive. An urgent invitation to attend this meeting is extended to all persons who denomic and social phases of life. The problem of interdependence "Myself -Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Dahl arrived in and Others"-can only be solved chief aim of the conference. It offers free interchange of ideas—a little beginning to a mighty end. The conference is non-sectarian, non-partisan.

A box luncheon will be served and election of officers for the ensuing year. The retiring officers are: President, Miss Helen E. C. Overton, Bellefonte; vice presidents, Mrs. J. Mayes, Howard; secretary, Mrs. Roy Wilkinson, Bellefonte; treasurer, Miss Helene Williams, Bellefonte.

A late telegram from Miss Matthews states that the book truck will not be here for the conference, but will come to Centre county October 25, 26 and 27, and November 1, 2 and

> HELEN E. C. OVERTON. President County Conference.

Hill-Musser.-David Garrett Hill, son of Mr. and Mrs. William S. Hill, of Pittsburgh, and Miss Eleanor Campbell Musser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Howard Musser, of State College, were married at the home of the bride's parents, on Saturday afternoon, October 6th, by Rev. A. E. Mackie. The attendants were Miss Kathryn Glace, of Lewisburg, bridesmaid, and Dr. Venton H. Sweezey, of Buffalo, N. Y., best man. Mrs. Hill is an accomplished musician, being a graduate of the Ithaca Conservatory of music. Mr Hill is a graduate of tion as electrical engineer with the

Crystal	City,	Mo.	ass cor	npany	, at
	Flo	rida F	telief.	te ell suriae
Previousl	y repor	ted	-	$8	93,59
Lick Run	Carpene Presby	to	Mission-	•••••	5.00
ary So	ciety	•••••	• • • • • • • • • •	••••	5.00
No froublished	irther	contri	butions	$90 will)3.59 be
Cont f tearing etriken	hall a	t the a	anditori	m	in

Bellefonte Grain Markets. Wheat $1.35 Corn 1.10 Rye 1.10 Buck wheat