

Editor Warren Worth Bailey Died at Johnstown.

Following a heart attack Warren Worth Bailey, editor of the Johnstown Democrat and former Congressman in the Nineteenth congressional district, died at his home in Johnstown at 6:30 o'clock last Friday morning.

Mr. Bailey's death followed an illness of six weeks. He had been in ill health for months, and six weeks ago, was stricken with a nervous breakdown. His condition became serious Sunday, and he grew gradually worse until the fatal heart attack Friday morning. His wife and members of his family were at the bedside at the time of his death.

Warren Worth Bailey was born in Indiana 73 years ago. He was a newspaperman all his life. His debut in journalism came in Chicago, where he was a member of the staff of the Chicago Tribune. He was editorial writer on the midwestern paper, when he and his brother, E. Homer Bailey, purchased the Johnstown Democrat in 1893 and published it together until the death of E. Homer Bailey, when the work was carried on by the remaining brother.

He was a member of the Sixty-third and the Sixty-fourth Congresses, from 1913 to 1914, and was first elected in 1912, being opposed at that time by J. L. Hartman, Republican, and Lynn A. Brua, Independent, both of Blair county. He was defeated by Anderson Walters, editor of the Johnstown Tribune, for the Sixty-fifth Congress, in 1918. He again aspired for the office but was defeated, and since had devoted his energies to his newspaper.

He was an authoritative editorial writer. In the Wilson campaign, he was assistant national publicity director. Surviving are his widow, a son, Warren Worth Bailey, Jr., his assistant on the Democrat, and a daughter, Mary Louise, wife of Howard Thomas.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon.

IF

500,000 Votes, Shifted, Would Have Elected Smith.

Just what is a "landslide" in a presidential election.

Prof. Frank G. Dickinson, of the University of Illinois, originator of the Dickinson football rating system, explains the "real meaning" of Herbert Hoover's victory by this illustration:

"Take ten voters. The first man votes for Hoover, the second man for Smith, and so on to the ninth man, who votes for Hoover. The manner in which the tenth man now votes decides the landslide.

That is what happened in the election. Had the tenth man followed the examples of the other even-numbered men, he would have voted for Smith. But he did not, so Hoover is our next President.

"If 500,000, or 1 1/2 per cent. of the voters in the closely contested States had voted Democratic instead of Republican, Smith would be the next President."

RUNVILLE

Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bottorff, this week, were Mrs. William Brodhead and two sons, daughter and daughter-in-law, of Wilkes-Barre. She told of her brother, Benjamin Williams, having passed away and was buried at Sharpville on Tuesday. He was well known here, as Runville was his former home.

A very delightful birthday party was enjoyed by all present, on Monday evening, at the home of Mrs. Harry Bottorff, where their son and family, of Altoona, have been spending a few days visiting. As he was lucky in getting a wild turkey, and it being his wife's birthday, a big surprise was prepared and all had a good time. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. William Confer, of Yarnell; Mr. and Mrs. John Bottorff and daughter Vera, of Altoona; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shope and family, Ruth, Jack, Frank, Gerald, Max and Glenn, of Snow Shoe; Mrs. Clarence Thompson and family, Billy and Ralph Howell, Audrey and Leona Marie, of Snow Shoe, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bottorff.

DON'T GET UP NIGHTS

Rev. D. Lee, Portsmouth, N. H., says: "Come or write to 101 Crescent Way, and I will tell you how in a short time the bladder irritation was relieved by Lithiated Buchu (Keller Formula). My case was of long standing and painful. Was bothered 4 to 5 times each night." It acts on bladder as epsom salts do on bowels. Drives out foreign deposit and lessens excessive acidity. This relieves the irritation that causes getting up nights. The tablets cost 2 cents each at all drug stores, Keller Laboratory, Mechanicsburg, Ohio or locally at Parrish's Drug Store.
