

PINE GROVE MENTION.

Miss Mary Rudy was a Sunday visitor in Lock Haven.

James A. Gummo and mother spent Sunday with friends at Centre Hall.

E. L. Brown and family made a business trip to Huntingdon, on Tuesday.

Mrs. S. E. Ward has been confined to her bed, the past week, with illness.

M. C. Wieland has broken ground for a new house on south Church street.

Mrs. Mollie Gordon, of Altoona, visited relatives in this section the past week.

W. R. Bailey has recovered from his recent illness and is able to be up and around.

Miss Esther Inhof was taken to the Clearfield hospital, last Thursday, for an operation.

Roy Peterson reports the arrival of a new son in his family, last Friday. He is No. 3.

John Bowersox and wife motored to the county seat, last Thursday, on a business mission.

Mrs. Harry Eyer is quite ill with a complication of diseases, at her home at Baileyville.

J. Cal Gates, assessor for Ferguson township, is making his final roundup for the fall assessment.

James I. Reed, accompanied by H. B. and Ette Ward, made a motor trip to Bellefonte last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Bowersox, of State College, were callers on friends here on Sunday afternoon.

County superintendent F. G. Rogers, was here during the week-end visiting our public schools.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wogan and son Eugene, of Juniata, were Sunday visitors with friends in town.

Mrs. John Keller has about recovered from a two week's illness and is able to be up and about the house.

Eugene and Mac Fry carted a truck load of nice porkers to the butcher's block in the Mountain city last week.

Mrs. Lee Krebs and son Donald, of State College, spent several days, last week, with relatives in town.

Mrs. Josephine Alexander spent last week visiting her son Kyle and family, on the old home farm near Julian.

J. B. Snyder, fur dealer of Spring Mills, was in town, on Saturday, and bought up all the pelts our trappers had on hand.

Rev. J. S. English went to Stoyes-town, last Thursday, where he assisted in the dedication of a new Lutheran church.

About every hunter in this section is planning to go to the mountains today (Friday) to be on hand for the opening of the doe season tomorrow morning.

Mrs. J. A. Ferguson and Miss Lucia T. Simmons, of State College, made a motor trip to Danville, on Sunday.

Robert Reed and wife and George Fry and wife, in the latter's new car, motored to Altoona, on Saturday, to do some shopping.

Fred R. Fry, in his new sedan, took Mrs. Sallie Burwell and Mrs. Margaret Reed to Bellefonte on a shopping trip, last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Miller, of Johnstown, were callers with friends here last week, having come in to attend the funeral of the late Mrs. H. N. Walker.

Butchering is now on in this section and the squeal of the porker can be heard almost daily. It is a sure forerunner of buckwheat cakes and sausage.

Preaching services have been held in the Presbyterian church every evening this week, while communion services will be celebrated on Sunday, at 10:30 a. m.

M. M. Liss and children went down to Danville, last week, to see Mrs. Liss, a patient in the Geisinger hospital, then went on to Harrisburg to visit his parents.

Mrs. James Williams, Mrs. John Glenn, Miss Ella Bottorf and Roy Williams spent the week-end in the Mountain city making the rounds of the bargain counters.

Owing to the absence of Rev. C. M. Rishel, who officiated at a funeral on Sunday afternoon, Paul Campbell, a divinity student, filled the pulpit in the Franklinville Methodist church.

Mrs. T. J. Burke and Mrs. Clara Robb, of Marsh Creek, were recent visitors at the W. R. Port home, where their sister, Mrs. Mary Wycokoff, has been quite ill but is now improving.

George P. Irvin attended the annual meeting of the State Milk association, in Philadelphia last week, and cast the proxy ballots of 150 members for Harry Stewart as the member of the board of directors from this section.

Robert Koch, our truck man, moved Ed Kocher's household goods over the Seven mountains to Shaver's Creek, where the Kochers expect to spend their sunset days with their son Guy and family, who have taken over the old farm.

Merchant Homer C. Fluke, of Bar-to, Berks county, with his wife and son, will arrive here today for the opening of the deer season tomorrow. Last year Mr. Fluke came here on the last day of November, went out alone on the opening morning of the season, shot a buck before nine o'clock and left for home the same day. He's going to try and repeat his trick this year.

Eugene Irvin bagged a 17 pound turkey gobbler on Tussey mountain, last Friday, and had thirty of his friends in for a turkey dinner, on Sunday. Musser Corl, a school boy, also brought in a nice turkey on Friday, and the family had it for dinner on Sunday.

While working at the stone crusher, at State College, on Wednesday of last week, Newton C. Neidigh had his clothing caught in the machinery and was whirled around several times until rescued by a fellow workman. His left leg was broken and he suffered other injuries but is now resting quite comfortably at his home in State College, where his daughter Ethel is taking good care of him.

WINGATE.

Ralph McLaughlin was housed up several days during the week with a heavy cold.

The new store building of Lewis Davidson is almost completed and will soon be ready for occupancy.

We had quite a snow storm here, last Wednesday night, but the rain which followed melted the snow.

John Shawley has had some very decided improvements made to his already comfortable home in Boggs township.

Most of the farmers are through with their fall work and the next thing in order will be the family butchering.

Roy Fisher and mother and Miss Anna Taylor motored down to Howard, on Sunday, and visited the Christ Pletcher home.

Charles Stambaugh departed on Monday, on a two week's trip to West Virginia, expecting to visit in Fairmount, Clarksburg and Charleston. In the meantime his painting work is at a standstill.

JACKSONVILLE.

Mrs. Mary King and sister, Laura Meckley, called at the Mervin Hoy home on Sunday.

Everybody is thinking about big dinners, butchering and storing their meat away for future use. James Vonada killed some fine porkers on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Neff and sons, Joseph Jr., and George, motored down from State College, on Saturday night, to the home of Mrs. Neff's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hoy, where Mrs. Neff and children expect to stay for a week. Mr. Neff motored back home on Sunday evening to go to work on Monday morning.

—Subscribe for the Watchman.

PLEASANT GAP.

Miss Ethel Noll is home from Lock Haven Normal for the Thanksgiving vacation.

Mrs. Harry Ishler entertained some friends from Toledo, Ohio, over the week-end.

Mrs. T. E. Jodon entertained with three tables of cards, at her home Friday evening.

Miss Margaret Smeltzer is home from Lock Haven Normal for the Thanksgiving vacation. She was accompanied home by a school friend.

Rev. Bert A. Salter, pastor of the M. E. church here thirty-five years ago, attended the Sunday services and was a week-end guest of Rev. Metzger.

The reopening of the Methodist church, on Sunday, was largely attended. Rev. Metzger was greatly pleased with the sum raised toward the church debt. About $1000 was taken in at the services. The church has been recaptured, redecored, new lights put in and a beautiful painting in the pulpit alcove was the gift of the Marshall Piper class.

Mrs. Jack Noll entertained with three tables of cards, at her home on Monday evening. Those present were: Mrs. Ray C. Noll, Mrs. R. S. Melroy, Mrs. Samuel Noll, Mrs. Jessie Mowery, Mrs. Margaret Showers, Mrs. Lettie Irvin, Mrs. Grace Bilger, Mrs. T. E. Jodon, Mrs. Rena Bilger, Mrs. Henry Noll and Miss Helen Noll. Mrs. Henry Noll was the prize winner.

BOALSBURG.

Mrs. Mary Baylett, of State College, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Markle, on Sunday.

Charles Faxon and family attended the funeral of Mr. Faxon's sister, Mrs. Pitts, at Alexandria, Va., on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mothersbaugh and son, Charles Jr., of State College, spent Saturday evening among friends in town.

John Ishler and William Nevel escaped injury when the stock truck they were driving was struck by a train, at the Lemont railroad crossing on Wednesday morning. The cattle were thrown from the truck and the truck was badly wrecked.

A missionary program will be conducted by Centre Hall folks in the Presbyterian church on Sunday afternoon. Sunday evening, at 7:30, the Women's Missionary society and the Light Brigade of the Lutheran church will hold their public Thank offering service.

—Have your breakfast early and be at Faibles promptly at 9 a. m. Don't miss this sale. 47-11

IN THE CHURCHES ON SUNDAY.

ST. JOHN'S LUTHERAN CHURCH.
9:30 A. M., Bible school.
10:45 A. M., Morning service; Sermon: "The Kingdom of God Within You."
7:30 P. M., Evening service; Sermon: "The Deceptiveness of Sin."
Clarence E. Arnold, Pastor.

BELLEFONTE M. E. CHURCH.
Corner Spring and Howard Street.
9:30 A. M., Sunday School.
10:45 A. M., Morning Worship. Sermon subject, "Christ's desire that man have the correct idea of Him."
6:30 P. M., Epworth League.
7:30 A. M., "Is Visitation Evangelism scriptural?"
Homer C. Knox, Pastor.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

GARAGE FOR RENT.—Brick garage, within one square of Diamond in Bellefonte, concrete floor, running water and drain. Will accommodate six or more cars and especially adapted for one or two man repair shop. Possession can be given September 1st. Inquire at this office. 73-32-tf.

NOTICE.—Notice is hereby given that the following accounts will be presented to court on Wednesday, the 12th day of December, for Confirmation, and unless exceptions are filed on or before December 8, 1928, the same will be approved.

The Final account of the First National Bank of State College, Guardian for George McCurdy, of College Twp.

The account of Goldie Sterman, Guardian of Morris Sterman, of Centre county.

The First and Final account of William G. Runkle, Guardian of John A. Miller, of Spring Twp.

S. CLAUDE HERR, Prothonotary
73-45-3t

Allegheny St. Property for Sale.

The House and Lot, on north Allegheny street, Bellefonte, now occupied by W. G. Runkle Esq. is for sale and anyone interested in a home in a good residential section of the town should write for particulars to

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK, Phillipsburg, Pa.
73-34-tf.

For the Little Folks

Hobby Horse - Sleds - Wagons
Wheel Barrows - Velocipedes
Kiddy Cars - Archery Sets
Horse Shoe Games - Carrom
Boards - Pool Tables
GARMAN'S

IRA D. GARMAN
JEWELER
101 South Eleventh St., PHILADELPHIA.
Have Your Diamonds Reset in Platinum
2-48-tf Exclusive Emblem Jewelry

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

A Blanket for $1
All the pretty colors that come in the higher priced goods. Baby blankets as low as $1.00 and up.
Rugs, all at Popular Prices
GARMAN'S

HOME MADE CANDIES
Peanut Brittle Hard Candies
Turkish Caramels
DAVISON'S CANDY SHOP

KEYSTONE
COPPER STEEL
Corrugated Roofing
Copper Steel Galvanized Sheets possess an added degree of durability through the use of an alloy material known as KEYSTONE COPPER STEEL. The rust-resisting properties of this alloy have been proved by actual service and exposure tests extending over a period of years. The superiority of Copper Steel in retarding corrosion is a well established fact.

WE SELL IT
OLEWINE'S HARDWARE
BELLEFONTE, PA.

If It's a Dress
Famous Sun Tub - Chambrey Rayon
Sport Satin - Gingham - Everfast - Sailor Girl Suiting - English Print Broad Cloth
GARMAN'S

Notice!

A PRESSURE TEST IS BEING MADE

OF THE LOCAL

GAS DISTRIBUTION SYSTEM

Kindly leave your meter cocks closed. A representative of the Gas Company will call, within the next few days, to adjust your appliances and test your installation.

Please notify the Company of any leaks you have noticed in your service line.

Do not look for a leak with an open light. If an odor of gas is noticed, Call 401

Central Pennsylvania Gas Company