Bellefonte, Pa., December 21, 1928.

NEWS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

-This is the shortest day of the year and the beginning of winter. Water street, Bellefonte, was closed by sheriff Dunlap, on Tuesday.

-A Christmas service will be held in the church at Linden Hall, at 7:30 o'clock tomorrow (Saturday) evening. The public is invited.

$1.00 to $5.00. Come in and see them. he was first lodged in jail. -Carpeneto's.

-The condition of Mrs. E. H. B. family are very hopeful as to her re-invited.

-And now, it is reported, game wardens have been notified not to give out any reports as to the number of deer killed, legal and illegal, but to make such reports to the State Game Commission alone.

-All the school children of Bellefonte assembled in front of the court house at 11:30 o'clock, on Wednesday morning, and sang the oldtime Christmas carols, under the direction of Mrs. Krader.

—Don't forget the beautiful Christmas cantata, "The Glory of Bethlehem," which will be rendered in the Reformed church, at four o'clock on Sunday afternoon, by an augmented choir under the direction of Mrs. Alberta Krader.

Fred Loveland has resigned his position in Joseph Thomas' cigar and confectionery store and on Wednesday went to work for W. J. Emerick same hotel.

-A little daughter was born to fered a voluntary non suit. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cruse, of Clearfield, on Sunday. Both Mr. and Mrs. Burke, his wife, a co-partnership Cruse lived in Bellefonte until the transfer of the State highway district Hunter, being an action in assumpsit. offices to Clearfield a year ago. Mrs. The plaintiff in this case was reprefonte, was arrested on Tuesday morn- burg, and the local counsel, John G. ing by chief of police Harry Duke- Love, was ill in bed. The defendant man on the charge of stealing a white declined to make a motion for comgold wrist watch, at Blair's jewelry pulsory non suit on the ground of C. M. Watts, president of the Centre brothers, Arnold, of Conneaut, and Warstore, on Monday night. The watch counsel being ill and the cause was county Interscholastic Athletic Assoren, of New York city, who are coming

-The many friends of W. L. is quite ill at his home in State Col- material witness for the plaintiff, lege. One of the pioneer business men of that town he has always been actively engaged in promoting its growth and welfare generally and his and Stone company, an action in treswise counsel will be missed during pass. Continued. such time as he is unable to give attention to business affairs.

-Going to the barn to feed his stock, before daylight last Thursday morning, John W. Briggs, who lives up near Warriorsmark, fell through the hay hole with a lighted lantern in his hand. The glass on the lantern broke, the hay caught fire and the barn, with all the season's crops, farm machinery, etc., were destroyed. Mr. Briggs managed to get the stable doors open and saved all his stock.

Robert Burton, a Philipsburg nesday morning. young man, was arrested on Saturday night on the charge of starting the fire which destroyed the Odd Fellows hall at Hawk Run, one night last week. He not only admitted the charge but confessed to having been implicated in five fires in Morris for bids for a new postoffice in Belletownship, Clearfield county. He was fonte. The present location in the turned over to Clearfield county offi- Brockerhoff house block is regarded cers and lodged in the Clearfield coun- as too small for the present ty jail.

-Guests at the borough home will fare well on Christmas day as Mrs. Keen, matron in charge, will serve for dinner roast duck with cranberry sauce, scalloped oysters, mashed potatoes, creamed corn, cold slaw, is asking for bids on either a five or celery, bread and butter, plum pudding with hard sauce, pumpkin pie, later than January 15th. ice cream and cake, candy, oranges, nuts and coffee. After writing the above we are almost persuaded to go to the borough home.

basket sale at the J. O. Heverly store, need of a basket, buy one and give it from Tyrone to Bellefonte. away, and show your good will toward these boys, who sacrificed everything they had. The sale is under the supervision of the Legion auxiliary.

took Vilus Ream to the Allegheny will meet in the grand jury room, in ed, crocheted, plaited rugs, and numcounty workhouse last week, the the court house, on Saturday, Decemyoung man, who hails from State ber 22nd, at 10 o'clock a. m. Officers College, where he has been short or- will be elected and delegates chosen der cook at the club diner, told him to attend the State convention to be that while he naturally hated the im- held in Harrisburg on January 24th prisonment part of his sentence yet and 25th. A full attendance is desir- has just placed on the market one of he was on a furlough and his wages ed as other important business will be the very best electric cleaners, at a would be paid for the full time he is considered. The latest rulings on very low price. See it demonstrated

CASES DISPOSED OF

IN COUNTY COURT. Civil Cases On the List Being Heard

This Week.

rendition of a verdict of not guilty as -The Model laundry, on south shot and Lee Arisman, who had plead guilty to the breaking and entering of the Gill store, were called before the court and each of them sentenced to pay costs of prosecution and sixty days in the county jail. A Christmas entertainment will ecutor Leo Boden, county detective. clusive, on account of repairs. be held at the Advent church on Sun- Verdict of guilty and sentenced to day evening, December 23rd, at 7:30. pay the costs of prosecution, a fine of Everybdoy is invited to be present. $25 and undergo imprisonment in the -What could be sweeter than a county jail for a period of two basket filled with luscious fresh fruit, months, to be computed from the time

50-1t | Commonwealth vs. Carl Markle, ization is demonstrated in the splen--Preaching services will be held charged with operating a motor vehiin the Dix Run Baptist church at 11 cle without license. Prosecutor, W. J. o'clock on Sunday morning, instead of Graham, State highway patrol. The tee in charge of raising the money to 7:30 in the evening. The public is defendant was sentenced to pay the costs and fine of $200.

Callaway, who is a surgical patient charged with passing another vehicle in the Jersey Shore hospital, is at going in the same direction near the To date $1650 of the necessary $2500 pares for that day. crest of a hill and crossing the has been either pledged or paid, and white line. Prosecutor, T. B. Kleck- the first payment of $500 has been ner, State highway patrol. This hap- made. pened on the road to Lewistown on to try civil cases. The first case called was not on the list. The Bituminous National Bank of an action on a mortgage given by the which will be spent right here in defendant to the plaintiff to secure Bellefonte for materials and labor. sundry notes and endorsements. There was no contest in this case and a ver- are as follows: dict was rendered by the jury, as directed by the court, in favor of the plaintiff for $24,464.25, and an attorney's commission of $1163.50.

CASES ON THE CIVIL LIST.

J. C. Arnold, attorney from Clearfield, was present in court on Monday. George Searson vs. Boalsburg Esas clerk at the Bush house. Ralph action in assumpsit. This case went Moerschbacher has given up driving to trial and owing to the condition of the pleadings and testimony that were offered by the plaintiff, he suf-

Antone H. Burke and Mary L. trading as Burke Brothers, vs. C. W. Cruse, before her marriage, was Miss sented by foreign counsel, one of whom was discovered to be in Florida -Edward Thompson, of Belle- and the other in court in Hollidays- Centre County Soccer League Being action in trespass. This case was con Foster will learn with regret that he tinued on account of the illness of a business as Neidigh Brothers Lime

T. R. Griffith vs. Western Union Telegraph company. Continued. Traveler's Insurance company vs. William Slee Sr., William Slee Jr., and Herschel Slee, doing business as William Slee and sons, an action in assumpsit. Continued.

Plummer Flick vs. C. J. Decker, trading as Decker Chevrolet company, an action in replevin. Continued.

Court adjourned on Monday afternoon owing to cases being continued on acount of sickness, etc., until Wed-

BIDS WANTED FOR

The Postoffice Department is asking this paper. demands and the specifications state that a building with not less than 3000 square feet of floor space is required. The lease on the present site will not expire until September 1st, 1929, and the department ten year lease. Bids must be in not

The department is also asking for bids for carrying the mails on all star routes in Centre county for a term of four years, from July 1st, 1929, to July 1st, 1933. Such bids must be in -When you are spreading hand by Tuesday, January 8th. At Christmas cheer, don't forget the present there are five star routes operating in Centre county. One from for the benefit of disabled war veter- Bellefonte to Lock Haven, one from ans. These baskets are all hand Bellefonte to Millheim, one from Comade and woven by the soldiers at burn to Brush valley, one between later able to deliver his cargo of mail Perry Point, Md. If you are not in Bellefonte and State College, and one in New York.

Meeting of Threshermen.

-When deputy sheriff Sinie Hoy and Farmers Protective association ladder-back chairs, foot-stools, hook-

No Paper Next Week.

No paper will be issued from the Watchman office next week. The employees are just as anxious for a holiday as everybody else and in pursuance of an old custom they will be Last Thursday morning, after the given the week. The office, however, will be open for basiness as usual to Alfred Mulholland, Elmer Hender- and we will be pleased to see our friends at any time. And we take this occasion of wishing one and all in their Christmas celebration. a very Merry Christmas and a Happy and Prosperous New Year.

---The Brockerhoff house dining Commonwealth vs. Max Russell, in- room will be closed to the public from dicted for possession of liquor. Pros- December 22nd to January 1st, in-Bellefonte Responding Liberally Towards Purchase of Armory Site.

That Bellefonte is anxious to redid response being made by the busipurchase the new armory site just

The officers and members of Troop B the Seven mountains, and after hear- are much encouraged with the pros-Court adjourned on Thursday noon. modern cavalry post in the near future. The new site comprises ten Court convened on Monday morning acres and is admirably located for a tions for license as insurance agents. The cavalry post. When it has been fin- former will go into accident and health ally secured and turned over to the insurance, while the latter has taken up State Bellefonte will have done its life. Winburne vs. Jacob Smutzinger, R. part. It is estimated that the cost of the P. Sommerville and Charles E. Greist, armory, stables and all will approxiguardians of Jacob Smutzinger, being mate $150,000, a good portion of

> Contributions to the fund to date
>
> are as follows:
> Friend of the Troop
> $ 500.00
>
>
> From Men of Troop
> 200.00
>
>
> American Legion
> 100.00
>
>
> First National Bank
> 50.00
>
>
> Bellefonte Trust Co
> 50.00
>
>
> Bush House
> 50.00
>
>
> Kiwanis Club
> 50.00
>
>
> George A Beezer
> 50.00
>
> Kiwanis Club
> George A. Beezer
> Potter Hoy Hardware.
> Cohen & Co
> Hazel & Co.
> City Conl Yard
> C. Y. Wagner
> Robert F. Hunter
> Bellefonte Hardware.
> John S. Sommerville.
> F. W. West Co
> F. P. Blair & Son
> Gross Pharmacy. Gross Pharmacy.
> Zeller Drug Store.
> Montgomery & Co.
> Centre Oil & Gas Co.
> Beatty Motor Co.
> Sim Baum.

was found in his possession and recontinued at the cost of the plaintiff. ciation, met at Centre Hall Monday to Bellefonte to complete the Christmas J. E. Weaver vs. B. C. Dotterer, an night. All schools now playing soc- day family home party, to be entertained cer, except one, were represented.

Organized.

The meeting was held primarily for -Edward Shields, who took his wife the purpose of suggesting such points to Philipsburg ten days ago, where she Harry K. Resides vs. J. G. Neidigh of importance in operating the soc- is under treatment in the Philipsburg and M. W. Neidigh, trading and doing cer league now in formation. A great hospital, is expected here from Reading, many things were discussed and as a Sunday, to be with his two children over result a rather full set of rules were visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Shields' par-

> "Bill" Jeffrey, Variety soccer coach Bellefonte.

frey following the Christmas recess. mother, Mrs. Spangler, since the late sum-NEW POSTOFFICE SITE. rules of the league and the work of her sister, Mrs. Blackburn, for the Holideath or injury on Monday. Flying east with heavy cargoes of mail they got above the clouds and lost all sense kept on flying until his gas was exhausted when he jumped from his plane at an altitude of five thousand feet and landed safe with his parachute near Suffield, Conn. His plane careened to earth and was wrecked in a swamp.

Little flew around until he saw a hole in the bank of clouds which he dove through and landed on a hill top near Owego, N. Y. Neither he nor -Clever Hats, $1.00 to $5.00, for son was the piece de resistance. X-mas at Elizabeth T. Cooney's Hat The Centre county Threshermen er scarfs, hand bags, handkerchiefs, Shop. Also negligees, knitted dresserous other gifts. 49-2t

The New Singer Cleaner.

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL

-Miss Mary Underwood will spend her vacation in Erie, a guest of her brother, Irvin Underwood and his family. -Miss Josephine White will be up from West Chester, to spend Chritmas and the Holiday week, with her aunt, Miss Charlotte Powell.

-Mrs. Elsie Rankin Helliwell will be up from Atlantic City, to join her father, W. the Edison Electric Co., of New York City, B. Rankin and his daughter, Miss Mary, and Martha, a third year student at Penn

-Hardman P. Harris is arranging to -Mrs. Frank E. Naginey will spend Christmas with her sister, Mrs. George Brandon, in Scranton, expecting to go over Monday, for a Holiday visit.

-The Martin Cooney family will have as their Holiday honor guest, their sister, Miss Margaret, of Cedar Hurst, N. J., will be Mr. and Mrs. Lyon's guests for the who will be here for her entire Christ: Holiday season. mas vacation

-Miss Margaret Brockerhoff will come the Brockerhoff home on Bishop steet.

-Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Williams ex-Commonwealth vs. John F. Marks, announcement of John S. Sommer- Philadelphia, to join in the elaborate New Year program Philadelphia always pre-

-Edward Grauer will be up from Philadelphia, to celebrate Christmas with his mother and sister, Mrs. Louis Grauer and Mrs. Gideon Payne. The latter's daughter, Millicent being the only child in the family, is much of the attraction.

-J. E. Klinger, of Lemont, and Shuman S. Williams, of State College, were in Wil-

-The family Christmas party at the Fox home on east Bishop street, will include, in addition to the Fox family in Bellefonte, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gearhart, of Millville, N. J., and the Parrish family, both Mary and Joseph expecting to come home for the Holidays.

-Mrs. H. C. Valentine and Miss Mary Valentine are arranging for a family Christmas party, which will include Mr. and Mrs. Bruce S. Burlingame, of Cagenovia, N. Y; Mr. and Mrs. Stanley C. Valentine and their small son, of Lancaster, and Bond Valentine, of Philadelphia.

-At the C. C. Shuey home for Christmas, Mr. and Mrs. Shuey will have the families of their two daughters. Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Donachy with their daughter and son, Sara and Charles Jr., are to be here from Kingston, Pa., and Mr. and Mrs. W. R. North and their son "Billy" from Syracuse.

-Charles M. McCurdy, his sisters, the Misses Grace, Virginia and Mrs. J. B. Scott, with the latter's son, Charles, will all be Christmas guests at the Denithorn home in Pittsburgh, going out to celebrate the day with Charles McCurdy Denithorn, the grandson of Mrs. Scott and only child in the McCurdy family.

-Doris Cobb, a first year student at Temple University, in Philadelphia, arrivby Mr. and Mrs. Myron M. Cobb.

drawn. These rules will be placed beents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Shields and fore the league executive committee Mr. and Mrs. Frank Galbraith, during their mother's illness.

at Penn State, who has been helping will be all of Mrs. Thomas A. Shoemaker's -At the Shoemaker home on Christmas, in the formation of the league, de- children, save her oldest daughter, Mrs. livered a beautiful silver loving cup to R. W. Ebe, who with Dr. Ebe and their the committee. Through steady ef- children, will come in from Pittsburgh forts Mr. Jeffrey has obtained this cup later in the week. Augusta will be here from the U. S. Football Association from Pittsburgh, Ellen Holland in Mary from Washington where she is in from Pittsburgh, Ellen from Devon, Pa., for the county soccer league. The her senior year at Trinity college, and Mr. cup is now on display in the show and Mrs. Collins Shoemaker from Julian. -Col and Mrs. J. L. Spangler will have Rebersburg High school is the win- Miss Margaret Brisbin and Mr. and Mrs. ner of the cup this year and will be Charles Harris, all of Philadelphia. Mrs. presented with the cup by Mr. Jef- James A. McClain, who has been with her Further information regarding the mer, will go to Philadelphia to be with the committee will appear later in her daughter, Emily Eliza McClain, who is now in school at Washington.

Two Airmail Pilots Have Thrilling both arrived home last Saturday. The former had finished her term of Kinder-J. O. Webster and H. P. Little, two Miss Eleanor was a few days early begarten work in Youngstown, Ohio, but pilots for the National Air Transport cause her school, Syracuse University, had company, had thrilling escapes from to be closed on account of the flu epidemic there. They will spend the holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. James K. Barnhart, of Linn St., who will also of direction and distance. Webster Miss Cora Campbell, of Seward, and Mr. have for Christmas day guests, Dr. and and Mrs. H. J. Loeb, of Punxsutawney.

came down to attend to some business af-Pittman, who had spent the summer and Commissioner N. I. Wilson, where venibrought Mrs. Sherry over for a little pre- to play host whenever there's an excu Christmas visit. He said, however, that for doing so and this year will be no d it will have to be very unusual work that ferent from any other, even if he will away. Ream was given a three compensation insurance and boiler in- at the Singer shop, 20 W. Bishop St., May for then his father and mother will drives his own car and a man who can month's sentence in the work house spection will be discussed by comBellefonte, or on the Diamond on celebrate their golden wedding anniver- that won't stall at a little thing like 50-1t sary, if both are spared until then.

-Mrs. W. H. Page braved the cold and windy weather, on Tuesday, to make her yearly visit to the Watchman office.

-Mrs. Charles Young came down from trains at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Gates, on north Spring street.

-At the William Chambers house, the Holiday guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Chambers' two daughters, Miss Mary, with State.

go to Harrisburg to spend the Christmas Geiss, George, with the P. R. R. Co., and child's grandfather William R. Brachbill. day with his brothers, Wilbur F. an John David, a second year student at Drexel, will come up from Philadelphia before Christmas, to spend next week at the Geiss home

-Mrs. Doblebower, of Clearfield, and her two children, Eleanor and John, who have been visiting with the children's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Porter Lyon,

-Miss Lois Foreman came home from Warm Springs, Ga., to remain over the up from Philadelphia, to join her uncle Christmas season with her parents, Mr. and brother, Dr. Joseph and Henry Brock. and Mrs. D. R. Foreman, on north Spring Spring Creek, until after the New Year. street. Her many friends will be glad to know that she is improving in health.

-It is expected that William H. Keller II, will be home from Washington, D. C., for the Christmas day party his mother, Mrs. Harry Keller will entertain, at her home on east Linn street. Mrs. Keller's guests will include the Ellis Keller family and the Orvis Keller family of State Col-

-Mr. and Mrs. Fred Seidel, of Hazleton, expect to be here to celebrate Christmas McCreery stores of Pittsburgh, will be with Mrs. Seidel's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Willard Barnhart, of E. High street. The Barnhart family party will be only the daughters at home and the Seidels as the Harpers are not coming this year. They will celebrate at their own home in Brooklyn.

-Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Bradley anticipate entertaining Mrs. Bradley's sister, Mrs. Frederick Peek, of East Aurora, N. Y., who will be here tomorrow for a visit, and Mr. Bradley's brother, John Bradley, who is coming up from Philadelphia to be a dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Bradley on Christmas day, expecting to return the same evening.

-Three of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Hoy's sons and their families will celebrate Christmas with their parents; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hoy and their daughter, Adaline, of Wilkinsburg, and Mr. and Mrs. Miles Hoy and their daughter, Adalaide of Tyrone, will drive to Bellefonte Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. John Hoy, of Bellefonte, joining the party for Christmas. -Mrs. George M. Gamble, with her daughter and son, Elizabeth and "Mac," are anticipating spending Christmas with Mrs. Gamble's daughter, Mrs. W. L. O'Brien and the family, at Phillipi, W. Should the illness now in the Gamble family not permit of their going to West Virginia, they will then go to Lancaster, to be with the Ostertag family. -Mr. John L. Knisely was brought home Wednesday, from the Huntingdon home Wednesday, from the Little And Mrs. William C. Shiertzer with hospital, where she had been a patient for have as their Christmas guests their sons, two weeks. Her daughter, Mrs. Butterworth, of Wilkinsburg, who has been in charge of the Knisely home during her mother's illness, will continue her visit in Bellefonte until Mrs. Knisely has fully recovered, Mr. Butterworth joining her here for Christmas.

-Dr. and Mrs. John Sebring's two daughters, Miss Henrietta, head of the chart department in research work of the Curtis Publishing Co., and Miss Mary, instructor in English, at the Beaver Country Day school, at Chestnut Hill, Boston, and Mrs. Sebrings sister, Mrs. Mann, will be Dr. and Mrs. Sebring's guests. Miss Henrietta and her aunt, will arrive here from Philadelphia Saturday, while Miss Mary will reach Bellefonte Sunday.

-Miss Rachel Stutsman arrived home yesterday from Detroit, Mich., to visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Stutsman for several days, on her way to New York. Miss Stutsman is an instructor in the Merrill Palmer school of Detroit, and received her degree from the Chicago University, Tuesday. Her sister, Miss Ruth, a member of the faculty of the University, of Nebraska, is also expected in Bellefonte for the Holiday vacation. James W. Swabb, of Linden Hall, was in Bellefonte, on Tuesday, looking after some business matters and made a brief call at the Watchman office. Speaking of hunting he said that about as many deer were to be seen out in the open during the season as in the woods. He perambulated two days with a gun on his shoulder but didn't get close enough to any does to get a the George Waite family, expected here shot, and didn't give a hoot, anyway, because he wasn't particularly anxious to shoot a lady deer, at that.

-Mrs. Charles Cruse and her sister Mrs. I. B. Maitland of Williamsport, will go to Tyrone the day after Christmas, spend the night there and leave early Thursday morning with their brother, Allen S. Garman, his wife and Mrs. Garman's spend three months. As it is now arrang- J. K. Johnston home will not be celebrated, the party will occupy two apartments, Mrs. Maitland and Mrs. Cruse will spend Mrs. Wayne Stitzinger, of New Castle, the time together, while Mrs. Piper will be with their children, and Mr. and Mrs. with her daughter and Mr. Garman.

-Among the college set home for the Christmas holidays, there will be, Mary -Mr. and Mrs. R. J. P. Gray, with the Harvey, from Briarcliff Manor, New York; nesday afternoon, in the person of Mr. latter's sister, Mrs. Florence Truby Pitt- Henrietta Hunter, from Wilson college, Herman Wieland, of College township, Chambersburg; Eleanor Barnhart, from Syracuse; Anne Dale and Lois Kurtz from his neighbors, the Willis Poorman family. fairs preparatory to going to Florida for Fairfax Hall; Louise and Catherine Meyer Mr. Wieland farms just north of the Colthe winter. Mr. and Mrs. Gray left for from Hood; Mary Rogers, from St. lege on the old Wieland homestead. We St. Petersburg on Wednesday and Mrs. Joseph's; Dorothy Wilkinson and Jean were just beginning to get started on Witter, from Indiana; Rebecca Dorworth, what promised to be a very enjoyable confall with them at Stormstown, went to from Miss Wrights; Betty Zerby, from versation when he realized that his friends his plane were damaged and he was lives at Hinsdale, a suburb. Before their Heverly and Merril Waite, from Gettysdeparture several farewell dinners were burg; Ivan Blanchard, from Kent, and all with a family party, will have as their given in their honor, one at the home of of Bellefonte's Penn State girls and boys.

-Hon. John T. McCormick, of State College, was a Watchman office visitor on -Mr. and Mrs. Leo Sherry came in from Tuesday, and his pre-Christmas visits are Pittsburgh last Friday afternoon and re- always marked with cheer for the editor daughters, Elaine and Margery; Mr. and mained until Sunday with the former's as well as a number of his family connecparents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Sherry, of tion. And at this particular season he aldren, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Lyons and their south Spring street. Leo is a superin- ways radiates with good humor and kind- three chidlren, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Maltendent in the finest printing plant in ness, although he admitted that he had not lory, and Eva and Frank, all of Bellewestern Pennsylvania and as they are jam- yet had time to make plans for Christmas fonte. med up with work for delivery before the day, but we'll bet a good stogie that first of the year he was fearful that he there'll be a party at his house some time The Singer Sewing Machine Co. could not get here for Christmas so he just during the Holidays. It's just his natur Christmas party.

-At the Allen Waite home, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Rhinesmith of St. Mary's will be the Christmas honor guests.

-James Cook arrived home from Colo-Altoona, on Monday, and visited between rado, Tuesday, for a Christmas visit of two weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Cook.

-Miss Martha McClure, of Wilkinsburg, who will be home Saturday to stay until Christmas afternoon, will be the guest of honor at the William McClure home.

-Mr. and Mrs. N. F. Wagner and their -The two sons of Mr. and Mrs. Wagner Sunday, to visit for the day, with the small son, drove up from Watsontown

-The D. M. Kline's Christmas party, to be given at their home on east Linn street, will be a family party, at which Mr. and Mrs. William Ott will be guests. -Mrs. J. E. Ward's guests next week, will include her son Arthur, of New York City, and a friend of Miss Isabell Ward, Charles Warren, of Starkey Seminary,

Lakemount, N. Y. -Mr. and Mrs. Barry Case drove up from Washington, Tuesday, to spend Christmas and visit with Mrs. Case's mother and sisters, at the William McGowan home on

-Mr. and Mrs. Nelson E. Robb's two daughters, Miss Leila, from Ardmore, and Mary, a student at Wilson college, Chambersburg, will both be home for the Christmas holidays.

-Miss Olive Mitchell left, yesterday, for Clifton Springs, N. Y., where she will take a course of treatment for the benefit of her health. Her present plans are for staying two weeks or longer.

home Sunday, to visit until Christmas afternoon, with her mother, Mrs. Charles Moerschbacher and her daughter, Mrs.

-To complete the Christmas family party at the parsonage, Mr. and Mrs. Knox's oldest son, John and his fiance, Miss Blanche Filson, will drive up from Harrisburg, Saturday, to remain until Tuesday evening.

-Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Kelly, with their daughter and son, Mary and Frank, will arrive in Bellefonte tomorrow from Greer, W. Va., for their customary Holiday visit at Mr. Kelly's former home, as guests of William T. Kelly. -Miss Janet Potter, a district field worker, at Polk, will be home so spend Christmas day with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Potter and to help with the family party entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Potter that day. -J. Harris Hoy, who has made it a custom since leaving Bellefonte, to spend a part of the Holiday season with his sisters, the Misses Anna and Mary Hoy, and Mrs. W. F. Reynolds, arrived home from Chicago yesterday. -James H. Carpeneto, son of Mrs. Louis

Carpeneto, is expected home tomorrow, to spend his Christmas vacation with the family. James has been located in Fairmont, W. Va., but expects to be transferred to Wheeling, after the first of the

Norman Smeltzer, of the General Electric company, Schenectady, N. Y., and Prof. Clarence Smeltzer and wife, of Philadelphia. Prof. Smeltzers is a faculty of Temple University. -J. Harvey McClure, vice president and general manager of the Cincinnati Hamilton and Dayton Railway Co., will come to Bellefonte today, for a Christmas visit of a day or more, with his father, James McClure. Mr. McClure always makes a visit back home at this time.

-T. B. Hamilton and his nephew, Clarence, who has been in Bellefonte with his uncle for some time, will be Christmas day guests of Mrs. Broderick at State College. The following day, Mr. Clarence Hamilton will leave to spend several days with his brother and friends in New York City. -Mrs. R. G. H. Hayes, who has been with her daughter, at Syracuse, N. Y.,

for the past two weeks, will drive to Atlantic City with Ellen and a friend for the Holiday week, expecting her two sons, John and Thomas, to go over from New York, to join them there for Christmas. -Mrs. Oscar Wetzel's Christmas party will include her entire family, Mr. and Mrs. McCoy and their small daughter, of Ambridge, Pa., and Mr. and Mrs. Merle Wetzel, of Waterbury, Conn. It being Mrs. Merle Wetzel's first visit to Bellefonte, since her marriage several months ago, she will be the guest of honor at the family house party. -Among the twenty-one numbers of for Christmas are Mr. and Mro. John Waite and their small daughter, from Johnstown; Gilbert Waite, from Jersey Shore; Fred, from Trafford City; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Waite and their family and Mr. and Mrs. George Waite with their family, from Williamsport.

-Katherine Johnston, a student at Westminister college, New Wilmington, armother, Mrs. Piper, in the Garman car, for rived home last Saturday for her vaca-Miami, Florida, where they expect to tion, however, the Holiday party at the ed until New Years. At that time Mr. and Hugh Johnston, of Red Lion, will all be in Bellefonte.

> who had come down to Bellefonte with "might want to be going" and departed.

-Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lyons, who will guests, their children; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lyons, of Tyrone, and their daughters, Ethel and Olive; Mr. and Mrs.

Bellefonte Grain Markets.

TT C			wheelmedicrossingship
ise	Corrected	Weekly	by C.	Y.	Wagner & Co.
if-	Wheat			360	91 40
De	Corn			3000	60
ill	Oats
ob	Rye				1.10
a	Barley	(X.028)(A.5). 46.		•••
- 1	Buckwhood			• • • •	