

To Our Customers

PAST DUE NOTES AND OVERDRAFTS

Effective April 1, 1929, there will be a charge on past due notes of 50 cents for the first day a note is past due and 25 cents for each day thereafter until settlement is made.

If settlement is not made within a reasonable time the note will be charged to the account of its endorser.

Overdrawn checking accounts will not be permitted.

Please do not overlook this important notice

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK,
BELLEFONTE TRUST COMPANY,
THE FARMERS NATIONAL BANK,
Bellefonte, Pa.

AARONSBURG.

Frank Armagast has gone down to Danville to help his brother-in-law, Mr. Moser, get ready for his farm sale.

C. E. Musser has been confined to bed, suffering from a heavy cold, and a hard fall while tearing down an old building.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Meyer and son, of Millheim, spent Sunday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Meyer's aunt, Mrs. John Wolf.

Miss Mable Crouse came up from New York city and is at present with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Crouse, on Main street.

Ray Bressler and family motored over from Burnham, Saturday, and remained until Sunday, guests of Mrs. Bressler's mother, Mrs. H. C. Stricker.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Hines motored to Williamsport, recently. They also spent a brief time with Mr. Hines' sister, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Beaver, of Pottsgrove.

We are pleased to note that Mrs. W. J. Krape, who has been quite ill for some time, is slowly improving; so much that she was able to sit in her chair for a time.

Mrs. C. C. Bell, her daughter and son, Mrs. F. B. Patton and C. Earl Bell, of Huntingdon, spent Wednesday afternoon with their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hull, on North 2nd street.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Hosterman and small daughter have vacated the R. E. Stover home, on Main street, and have moved their household effects into the Mrs. O. J. Auman house on North 2nd street.

Mrs. A. S. King has returned home from Bellefonte, to which place she had been called by the illness of her daughter, Mrs. Fount Smoyer, who had a bad case of measles. However, she is again able to resume her household work.

Wm. Guisevite took advantage of the Saturday night excursion to New York City. He returned home Monday morning, being accompanied by Mrs. Guisevite, who had been in New York with their daughter, Mrs. Rauchau, since December.

Mrs. Verna Walter has been quite ill during the past week. For some time she has been suffering from nervous trouble and then contracted a heavy cold which settled on her lungs. However, she is improving and we trust may soon be about her home as usual.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Boob, of Millmont, motored to town, Sunday afternoon, and took supper with their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Stover. They motored on to Millheim and spent a short time in that place with old friends, that having been Mrs. Boob's former home.

The bake sale and chicken and noodle supper held, Saturday, in Mensch's hall, by the High school, was a success, notwithstanding the snow which kept steadily falling. Eighty some dollars was taken in, the greater part of which they will have as clear money. They are to be congratulated upon their success.

Mr. Daye, of Smulton, has had three club aluminum demonstrations. The first one was given at the home of his brother, in the west end of town. The second at Mrs. George Weavers, on Main street, and the third at W. J. Smith's home. Mr. Daye deserves much credit for the manner in which he handles the proposition. The food which he prepared was most delicious. We wish him much success.

WINGATE.

March came in like a lamb but let us hope if it goes out like a lion it will not be a wild one.

Robert Garman, of Bellefonte, and lady friend, were callers on friends here on Monday evening.

Lew Davidson is having his gas tanks and pumps removed from his old ice cream factory to his new store building.

Toner Holt, with his mother and three nephews motored down from Tyrone and spent Sunday afternoon with the Irvin family.

Oscar Summers is confined to his bed, at the home of Harold Davidson, with an attack of pneumonia. His condition is not serious and his friends hope for a speedy recovery.

The Ladies Aid society held a chicken and waffle supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Snyder, last Tuesday evening. A nice sum was realized for the benefit of the church here.

UNIONVILLE

Miss Grace Smith, of State College, is visiting friends and relatives here this week.

Freddie Hall, little son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Hall, is very sick with pneumonia.

Miss Dorothy Lucas, of Bush Hollow, was a Sunday visitor with her school friend, Miss Ethel Parsons. The new baby at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Brugger has been named Flora Elizabeth. She is number six.

David Keatly, who was operated on for goitre last Wednesday, in the Clearfield hospital, is reported as getting along fine.

Quite a number of our people attended the lecture in Bellefonte, on Monday evening, by Bishop Hughes, and report being very much pleased.

Mrs. Sadie Alexander returned home on Tuesday afternoon from a visit with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Rogers, of Cannonburg, Pa.

The St. Patrick's party which was held in the borough hall by the Standard Bearer Society Saturday evening was quite interesting and enjoyable. The receipts of the evening were about eight dollars.

The inaugural program was heard over the radios of a number of our citizens, and was much enjoyed. The different speakers could be heard very distinctly. The writer was a listener in the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Stere.

Merrill Winters, a student at Reading, liked off for a week's rest and vacation which was spent mostly with his relatives, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Hall and family, where he has visited quite often during the past years. We noticed there was quite an attraction up the Pike, too, and no one finds any fault about that either.

The Methodist congregation were pleased to have with them, last Sunday, Rev. Piper, of Milesburg, who gave a very interesting and instructive sermon. Mr. Winters was also present and Rev. Piper, knowing he was a student minister, took him with him into the pulpit and he made an impressive opening prayer. And as some one remarked, "what a picture of youth and old age. Rev. Piper, very sincere and enthusiastic in his retiring years and Rev. Winters earnest and enthusiastic in his youthful starting out."

HOWARD.

John F. Lucas, of Moshannon, is visiting at the home of his brother, Clyde C. Lucas.

On Sunday, March 10th, Rev. Neilson will start a two week's evangelistic campaign at the Church of Christ.

The people who did not get to see the Senior class play, last week, will be able to see it on Saturday, March 9th, in the old school building.

Due to the revival services in the Church of Christ, the Presbyterians will worship in the Reformed church Sunday evenings, March 10th and 24th.

On Sunday morning the Reformed congregation elected and ordained as elders, Samuel Hoy and John Zeigler, and as deacons, Walter Yearick and Clarence Yearick.

Mrs. E. C. Bechtel and daughter Ruth, of Elizabeth, Dauphin county, have returned home after a visit with Mrs. Bechtel's father and mother, Rev. and Mrs. Moyer.

The Parent Teachers' association held their monthly meeting at the high school, Friday evening, and were entertained by Mrs. Miller's grammar school class with songs, recitations and drills.

The Isaak Walton League is well represented along the banks of Bald Eagle every day that it is fit to go fishing. Hen and Lou Williams have been the most successful so far, getting fourteen one day last week.

PINE GROVE MENTION.

Allen Wieland lost one of his best horses, last Thursday.

Prof. A. A. Borland is on a business trip to Erie this week.

Mrs. John Gummo is a patient in the Lock Haven hospital.

Mrs. J. W. Henszey left on Monday on a month's trip to Florida.

Mrs. Ruth Kapp has been visiting friends in Washington, D. C.

The new arrival at the H. A. Grubb home, at White Hall, is a son.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Orton are spending the week in New York City.

Roy Snyder, of State College, interviewed friends in town on Wednesday.

Fred B. Goss, of State College, was a Sunday visitor at the Joe Goss home.

Pearse O'Byran, of State College, spent Monday, with his mother, in this place.

Alvin Way is nursing a fractured left shoulder, sustained in a fall on an icy walk.

Walter Dreibelbis is having a Perfection milker installed in his dairy barn at White Hall.

W. Brooks Fry was laid off the truck, several days last week, as the result of a heavy cold.

The Ferguson township Brotherhood will hold its next meeting on the evening of March 12th.

J. B. Hoover and wife were guests at the George C. Burwell home the latter end of the week.

Hon. J. Will Kepler is busy, this week, helping figure up the income tax of people hereabouts.

Guy Wieland, one of Spruce Creek's up-to-date farmers, transacted business in town, last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rosenberg, of Stormtown, were recent callers at the Milton Wieland home.

It is reported that Oscar Struble will quit the farm in the spring and will be succeeded by Fred Cox.

Supervisor S. M. Hess and his handy man, pathfinder Glenn, are doing jury duty in Bellefonte this week.

Ad Hartwick was here the early part of the week looking up old chums he had not met for some years.

Henry Illingworth is retiring from the farm because of ill health and will have a clean-up sale on March 18th.

George Reed is constructing the foundation walls for M. C. Wieland's new bungalow, on south Church street.

Dr. W. S. Glenn Jr., H. L. Stuart, Carlisle Taylor and C. G. Aikens have been away for two weeks on a southern trip.

E. C. Musser and wife motored to Bellefonte and spent Sunday with their son, Earl C., who is housed up with an attack of rheumatism.

While at work on a lumbering job, last week, Harry Eichel made a misstroke with his axe and almost severed the thumb on his left hand. Physicians, however, hope to save the digit.

Rev. W. W. Dennismore, of the Red Hill Presbytery, is a candidate for the vacant pulpits on the Graysville charge, and will preach at Graysville next Sunday at 10 o'clock, and in the Baileyville church at 7:30 p. m.

Anna Sunday, twelve year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sunday, who has been a surgical patient in the Centre County hospital the past two months, is now recovering nicely and expects to be discharged in the near future.

Bruce McElwain has been elected lay delegate to the Central Pennsylvania Methodist conference which will convene at Clearfield next week. Mrs. Margaret Sunday is spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. John Dayton, at Akron, Ohio.

The Mrs. Ella Bloom sale, on Saturday, was well attended and bidding was brisk. The best horse brought $140, while one cow sold for $165. The sale totaled $4100. The sale of J. S. Miller, at Rock Springs, figured up to $6800. Horses sold up to $250 and cows $180.

William Brooks Fry was twenty-one years old, last Thursday, and his wife gave a surprise party in his honor. When the young husband returned from work he found the house well filled with friends and, though taken by surprise, he quickly recovered. A splendid supper was served by Mrs. Fry to which everybody present did ample justice. A delightful social evening followed.

The newly elected officers of Pine Grove Mills camp, No. 307, P. O. of A. were installed last Thursday evening by past president Elizabeth Sunday, as follows:

Past President—Nora Simpson.
President—Sarah Donnelly.
Vice President—Ella M. Graham.
Asst. Vice President—M. C. Wieland.

Rec. Sec'y—Britanart Wasson.
Asst. Rec. Sec'y—Carrie Wieland.
Guard—Margaret Louck.
Sentinel—Margaret Taner.

Conductor—Mary Port.
Chaplain—Elizabeth Sunday.
Color Bearers—Florence Port, Ada Louck, Ethel Bloom, Helen Barto.
Trustee—Blanche Parsons.
Following the installation delicious refreshments were served.

BOALSBURG

Mrs. Annie Rine, of Bellefonte, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. George Fisher.

Mr. George Rowe returned home, last week, from a month's visit in Williamsport.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Bloom and children spent several days last week in Blair county.

Clayton Martz attended the inauguration ceremonies in Washington, D. C., Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Kern and son, of Lemont, were guests of Mrs. Leah Smith, on Sunday.

Harry McCracken and sister, of Ferguson township, were callers in town on Saturday.

A singing school has been organized under the direction of Prof. Crawford, of Centre Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Maxwell, of Slingsland, N. Y., visited at the home of A. J. Hazel from Friday until Monday.

Miss Margaret Ross, of Linden Hall, was a week-end visitor at the home of her aunt, Mrs. George Mothersbaugh.

Mr. and Mrs. Jared Zettle and baby daughter, of Pleasant Gap, were week-end visitors at the B. P. Lonebarger home.

Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Rishel and son, accompanied by Mrs. Charles Kuhn, Misses Mary Reish and Nora Miller, drove to Altoona to spend Sunday visiting friends.

Miss Mildred Kuhn and fiancé, Warren T. Kopp, of Williamsport, drove to Phillipsburg to visit Mr. and Mrs. Paul Coxy, and Saturday evening were united in marriage by Rev. Pee, of the Lutheran church.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

FOR RENT.—Four room apartment, partly furnished, on third floor, at 23 north Spring St. See Fred Warner at above address.

FOR SALE OR RENT.—Desirable home along State highway one-half mile north of Bellefonte. Eight rooms and bath, hot water heat, electric light, Bellefonte water. Inquire of Mrs. Hellhecker. Tel. 4-J. 74-10-11

FOR SALE.—Complete Fosdink manufacturing equipment. Truck, stock, building and lot. Business now operating. Established routes. Reason for selling, interested in other business. Address, Crystal Bottling Works, Milesburg, Pa. 74-9-11.

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE.—Letters of administration having been granted to the undersigned upon the estate of Henry M. Snyder, late of Ferguson township, deceased, all persons knowing themselves indebted to same are hereby requested to make prompt payment, and those having claims against said estate must present them, duly authenticated, for settlement.

HENRY S. ILLINGWORTH, Administrator.
State College, Pa., R. F. D.
Gettig & Bower, Attys. 74-8-61

NOTICE IN DIVORCE.—In the Court of Common Pleas of Centre County, Penna. No. 206 December Term 1928, Madeline Y. Mullen vs. Andrew Joseph Mullen. To Andrew Joseph Mullen, Respondent. WHEREAS Madeline Y. Mullen, your wife, has filed a libel in the Court of Common Pleas of Centre County, praying for a divorce from you, to which a return of "Not in the County" was made by the Sheriff, and an alias writ issued to which a like return was made now, therefore, you are hereby notified and required to appear in said Court on or before the first Monday of May, May 6th, 1929, next to answer to complaint of the said Madeline Y. Mullen, and in default of such appearance you will be liable to have a divorce granted in your absence.
HARRY E. DONLAP, Sheriff of Centre Co., Pa.
March 5th, 1929. 74-10-41

JACKSONVILLE.

Mrs. Mary Deitz has returned home for a few days because of illness.

There was preaching, last Sunday afternoon, in the Reformed church, with a fairly good turn out.

The Ladies Aid met, last Saturday evening, at the home of Mrs. Willard Yearick. A large attendance and all report a very nice time. The next meeting will be held at Mrs. Mervin Hoy's the first Saturday evening in April.

—Subscribe for the Watchman.

Cannel Coal

—Mine Run—

At this time we are loading the best grade of Cannel Coal since our mine opened. Why buy bituminous coal when you can buy High Grade Cannel Coal at about the same price, eliminating smoke nuisance and giving steady heat with very little attention to the furnace.

A trial will convince you that our statement is correct.

Four-ton truck loads delivered to Bellefonte at

$5.50 per Ton

Two-ton truck loads at

$6.00 per Ton

When carried in 50 cents extra

Truckers hauling own coal price $3.00 a ton and cash at mines.

Coal can be dumped in truck with out shoveling.

All coal carefully weighed at mine.

Good hard road direct to tipple, mines only 1000 feet from state highway.

O. J. HARM & SON

BELLEFONTE, PA.

The Mexican revolution borrows importance because Lindy is doing his courting there at this time.

There's Always

Danger Ahead

for the Automobilist

Serious Danger

for the man without insurance

Protect Yourself

Today

Pay

for the protection in

Convenient

Monthly

Instalments

A New Plan

offered by the Largest Multiple-line

Insurance Organization

in the World

THE TRAVELERS

Hartford, Connecticut

Standard Policies

at Standard Rates

with the small charge of 25 cents added to each

instalment

B. O. HARVEY

Temple Court

BELLEFONTE, PA.

Call for quotations and other information.

They Came, They Saw and Heard, They Were More Than Pleased!

Crowds of People from all parts of Centre County have attended

THE OPENING WEEK

OF

Sound and Talking Pictures

AT THE

STATE COLLEGE

and have thrilled to the Marvelous Tonal Qualities of this latest Wonder of the Age

Nothing Like It Before!

It Is Entertainment Supreme!

Friday and Saturday

The 1st All-Talking Feature Comedy

"The Ghost Talks"

ALSO

PONCE SISTERS, Radio and

Victor Recording Artists

CHIC SALE, Foremost Character

Star in "Marching On"

GUS EDWARDS REVUE,

MOVIETONE NEWS,

Monday and Tuesday

A 100% Talking Picture

"Wolf of Wall Street"

ALSO

"THE MELANCHOLY DAME," a

Talking Playlet.

MOVIETONE NEWS

AND OTHER ACTS

HEAR What You See!

SEE What You Hear!