

WINGATE.

Robert Garman and lady friend were brief visitors in our village on Thursday evening.

An 11½ pound daughter arrived in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reese, on Sunday.

The regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held at the home of Mrs. Ida Witmer, last week.

Mrs. Mary McLaughlin is recovering from an attack of illness sustained last Saturday night.

Merrill Reese, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reese, was housed up, last week, with an attack of measles.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Witherite and daughter, of Osceola Mills, visited friends here and at Runville, on Sunday.

Rev. A. G. Herr will begin evangelistic services in the Baptist church, at Milesburg, on Sunday evening. The public is invited to attend all the services.

Gray Murray and his repair crew were called to the lime kilns, near Bellefonte, to help make repairs where a car jumped the track and tore up a short stretch of road.

Owing to ill health Mrs. Florence Lucas has withdrawn from the W. C. T. U., in this place, and her mother, Mrs. Irwin, has also withdrawn owing to absence from home a good part of the time. They both regret having been compelled to take this step, but it seemed the best thing to do under the circumstances.

PINE GROVE MENTION.

John E. McWilliams is driving a new Buick Six sedan.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Harpster were recent visitors in Bellefonte.

Mrs. Lemuel Fleck, of Altoona, is visiting Centre county relatives.

J. T. Leathers left, last week, on a business trip through the South.

Mrs. Clair McGinley, of Cleveland, Ohio, is visiting relatives in town.

Mrs. P. H. Ziegler spent several days last week, in New York city.

Joe B. Goss had as a guest, over Sunday, Frank Fisher, of Altoona.

D. L. Fleming and wife are now snugly located on Chestnut street.

Mrs. W. E. Reed, who has been ill with the grip, is now on the mend.

The venerable John B. Goheen is suffering with a badly infected eye.

Fred Corl, of Altoona, spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Ella Corl.

Harold Fisher will occupy the C. M. Dale farm, at Sunnyside, this season.

Mrs. H. L. Stuart has returned from a two week's stay in Philadelphia.

Miss Nannie Houser is reported quite ill at her home at State College.

Holy Communion will be administered in the Presbyterian church, on Sunday.

N. C. Neidigh, of State College, is now able to be around by using crutches.

A little son arrived in the Carl Powley home, at Oak Grove, last Thursday.

Mrs. H. D. Meek is visiting her brother, Dr. H. Clay Campbell, in Philadelphia.

Frank Wieland, wife and two sons are here from the Buckeye State visiting friends.

Dr. L. E. Kidder went over to Huntingdon, on Thursday, to visit his brother John.

W. R. Port and family have moved from east Main street to the Mrs. Susan Goss home.

Frank Henninger, of State College, was a caller on old friends in this section, on Friday.

George Woodring, of Tyrone, was in town, Saturday, soliciting orders for the spring trade.

M. C. Wieland expects to have his new house ready for occupancy by the middle of April.

Albert Slagle and George Harper have returned home from a week's trip to Detroit, Mich.

The Neidigh brothers have installed a new stone crusher in their quarries near State College.

Mrs. Ruth Frank entertained a number of friends at a St. Patrick's day dinner, last Friday.

Roy Barto and family are planning to move to Clearfield, where Mr. Barto has secured a good job.

Mrs. Lloyd Frank, of Wilkesburg, spent the latter end of the week with friends at Graysville.

LeRoy Bloom has purchased a new truck which he will use in his farming operations in the Glades.

Collins C. Mulbarger, road supervisor of Spring township, attended the Oscar Struble sale on Friday.

Sherman Henry and family motored up from Philadelphia, last week, for a visit at the Henry family home.

The Baileyville Presbyterian Sunday school will have a special program on Easter Sunday, at 7:30 p. m.

Joe Gilliland and wife, of Pennsylvania Furnace, had as guests over the week-end Earl Moffit and family.

The degree team of Washington Camp P. O. S. of A. were entertained at the Foster Musser home, last Friday.

George Woods, wife and son motored in from Pitcairn and spent the latter end of the week at his parental home.

Joe H. Gilliland is handling the ribbons over a mated team of black horses bought from Scott Bressler, of Marengo.

Samuel Hess Tate and wife and Miss Brisbin, of Lewistown, were visitors in this section the latter end of the week.

Rev. E. M. Frear, of State College, was the speaker at the Tuesday evening meeting of the Ferguson township Brotherhood.

The John O. Harpster home, on Tadpole, was burned to the ground, on Monday afternoon, with practically all its contents.

Henry McWilliams, who has been spending the winter with his sister, Mrs. Alice Buchwalter, at Lancaster, is reported as being ill with a complication of diseases.

After spending the winter at the H. A. Elder home Mrs. Lydia Sunday has opened her farm home on Tadpole. She is now 82 years of age but in fairly good health.

The Lutheran Sunday school gave a delightful St. Patrick's day entertainment in the church, last Friday evening. There were music and recitations, readings and choice refreshments. Quite a number of quaint costumes were in evidence.

Many of the farmers in this section have been busy attending public sales during the week. At the C. D. Houtz sale horses sold up to $145 and cows $150. The sale totaled $3,710. The Henry Illingworth sale amounted to $4000. His best team of horses brought $450. Cows up to $156. Chickens $1.75 and shoats went high. The Gibboney sale aggregated $3300 and the Raup sale $5650. The Oscar Struble sale was a small one, but the receipts totaled $2000.

HOWARD.

Miss Geraldine Lauth is visiting at the home of George C. Painter.

On Monday afternoon the Misses Nell and Loretta Weber left for New York where they met two of their sisters and the four of them sailed, on Wednesday, for a three month's tour of Europe.

The First Reformed church will observe Holy Communion on Easter at 10:30 a. m., and at Jacksonville on Easter at 2:30 p. m. Confirmation services at Jacksonville in connection with Communion service.

UNIONVILLE

Mrs. Estella Parsons is moving into part of Elmer Roller's house.

The stork visited Mr. and Mrs. Russell Reish, on Monday night, and left a little daughter.

Mrs. Harry Elway, of Altoona, was a guest at the home of Mrs. Frances Hall, last Wednesday.

Little Elizabeth Ann Fisher is still in the hospital and suffering quite seriously from tonsillitis.

Mrs. Emily Miles, of Milesburg, was a Sunday visitor at the home of her sister, Mrs. David Keatley.

Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Way and little son Joseph, of Milesburg, visited among relatives here last Sunday.

Edward Parsons, who has been on the sick list for sometime, is very poorly, with little hope for his recovery.

Miss Laura Rumberger was the delegate from Milesburg and Unionville charge to M. E. conference at Clearfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Updegraff, of Williamsport, were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bauder, on Sunday.

Mrs. Aaron Hall visited over the week-end with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Houtz, of State College.

Misses Sarah Holt, Emily Keatley and Nell Williams attended the young people's banquet at Clearfield, last Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Waite and Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Waite, of Stormstown, were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Brugger.

Thomas McClellan became very ill, one day last week, and was taken to the Centre County hospital, where he had a serious operation for Appendicitis.

The cooking demonstration given by a representative of the Aluminum club, at the Hotel Union, on Monday evening, was very interesting and enjoyed by all who had a sample of the eats.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell DeLong and little daughter, of Bristol, arrived, on Saturday, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Holtzworth, where Mrs. DeLong and daughter will visit for a week.

Mr. DeLong returned on Monday to his work, expecting to come again over the week-end and accompany Mrs. DeLong back to their home.

BOALSBURG

Rev. Mr. W. J. Wagner spent Thursday at State College.

Samuel Everhart and son William, of the Branch, were callers in town on Monday evening.

The members of the Rebekah Lodge enjoyed a social time in their hall, Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Coxey and children, of Altoona, were visitors at the Coxey-Ishler home on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Brouse and children and Mrs. Mary Condo spent Sunday afternoon with friends in Tusseyville.

Harry McCracken and sister, Miss Clara, of Ferguson township, were visitors at the Elmer Bloom home on Tuesday.

Rev. Wagner will preach the last series of Lenten sermons on Friday evening, and Communion services will be held on Palm Sunday at 10:30.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Tennis and Miss Augusta Murray attended a missionary meeting in the Presbyterian church, at Centre Hall, on Thursday evening.

Wilbur Houtz has erected a garage on the lot recently purchased from Alfred Lee, along the state road between Boalsburg and Oak Hall, and will build a family residence this summer.

Mr. and Mrs. John Patterson took their son, John Jr., aged 4, to the Centre County hospital, Saturday, where he underwent an operation for appendicitis. He is reported getting along as well as can be expected.

JACKSONVILLE.

Mrs. Hogan Long and son spent Monday at her home.

Mrs. Mary Deitz is still on the sick list, but somewhat improved.

Mrs. Harry Hoy and son Mervin were Bellefonte shoppers last week.

John Glossner has purchased a new saw mill and expects to be busy in the near future.

Sunday school will be held next Sunday at the usual time and preaching service in the evening.

Dorothy Korman returned home, on Friday evening, after spending a week with her sister, Mrs. Mervin Hoy.

Ellsworth Waite and William Weaver spent a day, last week, at Hershey, and report a nice time, and ready to go again soon.

Movings are all the rage now. Matthew Conaway moved last week into the Bill Orr home. John Tressler has been moving some of his things to the Gust Armor place, where he will locate later.

Ray M. Decker, living near Tusseyville, has gone into the pig raising business, but not the kind of pigs that grow into pork. His preference is guinea pigs which he is raising as a source of supply for hospitals using the little animals for experimental purposes. The pigs are shipped out at the average age of three weeks and Mr. Decker hopes soon to be able to deliver one hundred pigs a month.

Governor Fisher has issued a proclamation designating Friday, April 12th, as Arbor day, and Friday, April 26th, as Bird day.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

TIMBER LAND FOR SALE—A 50 acre tract of land, well timbered and underlaid with iron ore, located in Marion Twp., Centre county, is for sale. Address inquiries to Mrs. Rebecca McCaffrey, Exec., 325 West Water St., Lock Haven, Pa. 74-12-31*

CHARTER NOTICE—Notice is hereby given that an application will be made to the Governor of the State of Pennsylvania on Thursday, the 28th day of March, 1929, under the Act of Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, entitled, "An Act to Provide for the Incorporation and Regulation of Certain Corporations," approved April 29, 1874, and the Supplement thereto, for the Charter of an intended Corporation to be called "THE BELLEFONTE COAL COMPANY." The character and object of which said Corporation is formed is for the purpose of mining of coal and manufacture of its by-products, and for these purposes to have and possess and enjoy all the rights, benefits and privileges of the said Act of Assembly and its Supplement.

GETTIG & BOWER, solicitors.
11 East High street, Bellefonte, Pa.

NOTICE IN DIVORCE—In the Court of Common Pleas of Centre County, Penna. No. 208 December Term 1928, Madeline Y. Mullen vs. Andrew Joseph Mullen. To Andrew Joseph Mullen, Respondent. WHEREAS Madeline Y. Mullen, your wife, has filed a libel in the Court of Common Pleas of Centre County, praying for a divorce from you, to which a return of "Not in the County" was made by the Sheriff, and an alias writ issued to which a like return was made now, therefore, you are hereby notified and required to appear in said Court on or before the first Monday of May, May 6th, 1929, next to answer to complaint of the said Madeline Y. Mullen, and in default of such appearance you will be liable to have a divorce granted in your absence.

HARRY E. DUNLAP, Sheriff of Centre Co., Pa.
March 5th, 1929. 74-10-4t.

$4.25 Sunday
Round Trip
Excursions
NEW YORK
Sundays, March 31, May 5
Direct to Pennsylvania Station,
7th Avenue and 32nd Street
Special Through Train
Leave Saturday Night preceding Excursion

	Standard Time
Lv. Port Matilda	7.55 P. M.
Lv. Julian	8.05 P. M.
Lv. Unionville	8.15 P. M.
Lv. Bellefonte	9.10 P. M.
Lv. Howard	9.39 P. M.
Lv. Mill Hall	10.00 P. M.

Returning, leave New York, Penna.
Sta. 5.10 P. M. Newark (Market Street) 5.33 P. M.

Pennsylvania Railroad

You'll Hear Them All in this Famous Talking Picture

Three Love Stories

in this gripping, colorful
Drama of Carnival Life
—the love of a grizzled leader for one of the Show's attractions—the love of his timid son for a girl-about-town—and linking these together the greatest love of all, that of the Father for his Boy!

THE BARKER

with
MILTON SILLS and DOROTHY MACKAIL

BETTY COMPSON — DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS Jr

CATHARUM
STATE COLLEGE

Mon. and. Tues.
March 25, - 26
Matinee Daily at 1:30
Last Complete Showing begins at 3:00
Evening Opening at 6:00

Added Sound Acts

GERTRUDE LAWRENCE
Songs

WILL MAHONEY
in
"Why Be Serious"

Fox MOVIE TONE News

Come to the "Watchman" office for High Class Job work.

DO YOUR
Easter Shopping
IN ALTOONA
Booster Stores

For the needs your home merchants cannot supply.

Everybody, Men, Women and Children, will want something new to wear for Easter, while the housewife will want something new with which to adorn the home to change the sombre winter atmosphere to the more cheerful spirit of spring that should pervade the home at Easter time.

Booster Merchants were never better equipped to supply your every Easter need.

Assortments are complete. Variety for choice is practically unlimited.

Styles in apparel and articles for personal adornment were never more beautiful, while the very newest effects in furnishings for the home are being shown by Booster Stores that specialize in that kind of merchandise.

The 500th Suburban Day

Will Be Observed by Booster Stores on Wednesday

March 27th

This Important Event Will Be Featured By Special Displays Of New Easter Merchandise Of All Kinds For Personal Use And For The Home.

Plan to Visit Booster Stores on Wednesday

It Pays to Shop In Booster Stores

Altoona
Booster Association

Strand Theatre
ALTOONA, PA.

WEEK STARTING
Saturday, March 23

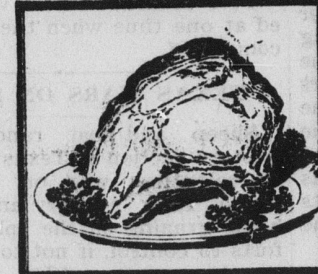

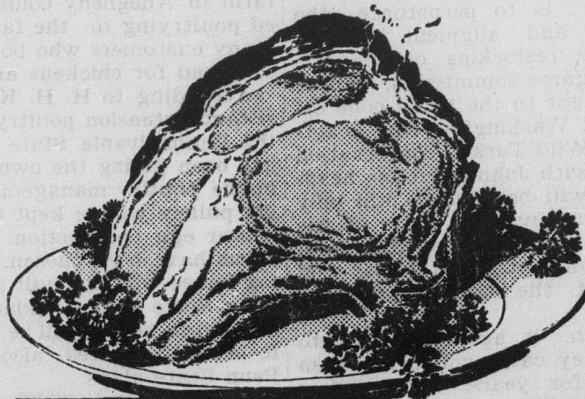

SEE AND HEAR
"Me Gangster"

With Movietone All Star Cast

Week Starting Sat., March 30

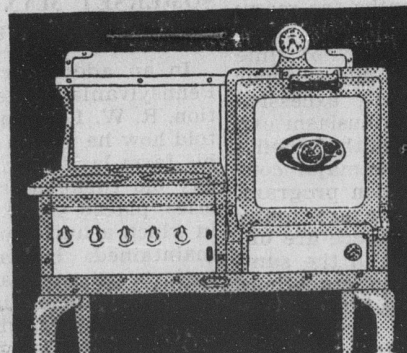

Davey Lee in "SONNY BOY"

STATE COLLEGE COOKS ELECTRICALLY ... here is why!

Food goes further...
when it's cooked electrically

Just put your entire meal in an electric oven and it will cook without any attention from you. You can be out of the kitchen all afternoon and still serve a deliciously browned roast, succulent vegetables and a spicy pudding for dinner. Your family will say that they never tasted better food. And best of all, your food bills will show a marked saving. Cook electrically for economy.

WEST PENN POWER CO
Keystone Division

ANY friend who cooks electrically can tell you how economical of food her range is. Because the electric oven is thoroughly sealed, almost no moisture evaporates from it. Meats and vegetables retain all the important food elements that make them appetizing and nourishing. And everything goes much further because there is about 20% less than ordinary shrinkage. Roasts require no basting to be juicy and richly flavored. You do not have to keep adding water to vegetables. All that endless watching that used to make cooking such a chore becomes a thing of the past.