D. R. Thomas has been re-appointed tower man for the forest fire observation tower located in the Snow Shoe district of the Sproul forest. It is needless to say that Dave will attend to these duties with great fidelity.

WILLARD.—The passing away of Mrs. Nellie Hayes Willard, widow of the late D. I. Willard, at the Centre County hospital, at 11:15 o'clock last Thursday night, was a distinct shock to her many friends in Bellefonte. She had been ill but one week and her death followed within five days after her removal to the hospital.

Mrs. Willard was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Hayes and was born in Union City, Pa., on September 9th, 1859, hence was in her seventieth year. She married Mr. Willard when a young woman and the early years of their married life were spent in Union City. The family came to Bellefonte about twenty-five years ago and this had been her home ever since. During her residence in Bellefonte Mrs. Willard took an active part in the social and economic life of the town. She was an active member of the local W. C. T. U. and filled various offices in the organization. She was also a member of the Woman's club of Bellefonte and was president of that organization at her death. For a number of years she was chairman of the Charity committee of the club and looked after that branch of the work with painstaking care and earnestness; frequently relieving cases of distress through her personal generosity. At the time of taking ill she had almost completed the remodeling of her home into a six apartment house, which, when completed, she hoped would permit her the enjoyment of more leisure with its consequent pleasant diversions but she did not live to see or enjoy the fruition of her plans.

Her husband passed away a number of years ago but surviving her are the following children: Mrs. B. G. Whalley, of Erie; Paul F. Willard, of Wilkensburg; Milton H., of Erie; Roger E., of East Orange, N. J.; Mrs. R. E. Kirk, of Rows Run; Robert P., of Bellefonte; Mrs. H. L. Ludwig, of Wilkensburg; and Minot L., of Bellefonte. She also leaves five brothers, Charles W. Hayes, of Union City; Robert E., of Pollock, S. D.; John M. and Fred L., of Toronto, Canada, and Leslie T., of Montreal, Can.

Funeral services were held at her late home, on north Thomas street, at 10:30 o'clock on Monday morning, by Rev. Robert Thoma, of the Reformed church, burial being made in the Union cemetery.

GRIFFITH.—Mrs. Annie Griffith, widow of the late S. H. Griffith, died quite suddenly, last Saturday evening, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Arthur Green, at Angelsea, N. J.

Along about Christmas she underwent an operation in a hospital at Camden, N. J., and later suffered an attack of pleurisy but had recovered therefrom and last week went from Philadelphia to Angelsea to spend some time with her daughter. Her death, on Saturday evening, was quite sudden and unexpected.

Mrs. Griffith was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Eckley and was born near Tyrone 78 years ago. When she was a young girl her parents moved to Bellefonte and most of her life was spent here. As a young woman she married John Dawson who died thirty-six years ago. Nineteen years ago she married S. Harvey Griffith, who passed away two years ago. Since that time she had made her home with her children to her first husband, with frequent visits among friends in Bellefonte. Her survivors include two sons and one daughter, John C. and Harry Dawson, of Philadelphia, and Mrs. Arthur Green, of Camden and Angelsea, N. J. She also leaves one sister, Mrs. Mina Lauthers, of Philadelphia.

The remains, accompanied by the sons and daughter, were brought to Bellefonte on Wednesday morning and taken direct to the Union cemetery for burial, Rev. Homer C. Knox making the commitment prayer.

ROMBERGER.—Mrs. Minerva Romberger, wife of Rev. J. W. Romberger, a former pastor of the Evangelical church, at Madisonburg, died last Wednesday, at Pinellas Park, Fla., following an illness of some months. Her maiden name was Minerva Rhinehart and she was born near Woodward, Centre county, at her death being 68 years, 10 months and 2 days old. She is survived by her husband and three sisters, Mrs. Almetta Smith, of Kamore, Ohio; Mrs. J. W. Smith, of Altoona, and Mrs. A. W. Winters, of Rebersburg.

The remains were brought north and taken to Woodward where funeral services were held in the Evangelical church, on Tuesday afternoon, by Rev. Klepfer, burial being made in St. Paul's cemetery, at that place.

PARSONS.—Edward Parsons died on Tuesday morning of last week, at the home of his sister, Mrs. Edward Iddings, at Unionville, as the result of complications developing from a broken hip he sustained when he fell down a flight of stairs almost three months ago. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. James Parsons and was born on Dix Run in 1855, at his death being 73 years, 3 months and 9 days old. He was a laborer by occupation and his only survivors are one brother, Samuel Parsons, of Blue Ball, and a sister, Mrs. Iddings, with whom he had made his home for some years. Funeral services were held in the Methodist church, at Unionville, on Friday afternoon, burial being made in the Oak Ridge cemetery.

PARSONS.—Sylvester Marion Parsons, a retired employee of the Pennsylvania Railroad company, and a veteran of the Civil war, died quite suddenly, last Wednesday night, at his home in Tyrone, as the result of an attack of angina pectoris.

He was a son of John and Harriet Parsons and was born near Milesburg on February 14th, 1845, hence was 84 years, 1 month and 13 days old. Forty-eight years ago he went to work for the Pennsylvania Railroad company as a fireman and in due time was promoted to an engineer, running on the Tyrone division until his retirement on January 1st, 1917. He was a member of the Col. D. M. Jones post, G. A. R., of Tyrone, the Retired Men's club, of the P. R. R., and for years had been an active member of the P. R. R. Y. M. C. A.

In 1867 he married Anna Melissa Port, who passed away four years ago, but surviving him are the following children: John Parsons, of Pottsville; Mrs. William M. Cowher, of Port Matilda; Thomas C. Parsons, of Altoona, and Miss Portia, at home. He also leaves one-half brother, George L. Parsons, of Aspinwall.

A military funeral was given the old veteran at 2:30 o'clock on Saturday afternoon, burial being made in the Grandview cemetery, Tyrone.

KRAPE.—Mrs. Susan M. Krape, widow of Johannes Krape, died at her home, in Aaronsburg, on Monday, following an illness of some weeks with a complication of diseases. Her maiden name was Susan Fiedler and she was born near Coburn on May 5th, 1850, hence had reached the age of 78 years, 10 months and 26 days. She married Mr. Krape in 1872, who passed away eight years ago, but surviving her are three children, John F. and Henry D. Krape and Mrs. William G. Hosterman, all of Aaronsburg. She also leaves one sister, Mrs. Harrietta Kerstetter, of Coburn. Mrs. Krape was a member of the Evangelical church and her pastor, Rev. H. C. Klepfer will have charge of the funeral services which will be held at 10 o'clock this morning, burial to be made in the Aaronsburg cemetery.

ESCAPED PRISONER GIVEN USUAL SENTENCE.
William Brown, prisoner, made his escape from Rockview penitentiary at 9:30 o'clock last Thursday evening, was recaptured at 3:30 o'clock on Friday morning, and when brought before Judge Fleming, on Saturday morning, for sentence was given a maximum of six years for his six bouts liberty.

Brown, who is a Hungarian by birth, was sent up from McKean county in June, 1928, for three to six years for breaking and entering. He later was transferred from Pittsburgh to Rockview and at the latter place was put to work firing the boilers at the heating plant. Last Thursday night he was on night turn, and about 9:30 o'clock he sneaked out of the boiler room, cut his way through the wire stockade with a pair of pliers and made a getaway.

Early Friday morning deputy warden W. J. McFarland and several guards were at Snow Shoe intersection when they received a telephone message from the operator at Mt. Eagle that a man had passed there walking the railroad toward Howard. The officers motored to Mt. Eagle where a guard followed the trail down the track while warden McFarland went down to Howard and took up a watch for the man. He had not long to wait, and when the man came down the track he proved to be Brown, the escaped prisoner. He offered no resistance to recapture.

In court, Saturday morning, Judge Fleming sentenced him to serve an additional term of three to six years following the conclusion of his original term.

NEW YORK CITY TALKS IN "SPEAKEASY" DRAMA.
At last, New York city talks—and how it whispers, sings, yells, growls, roars, a noisy jargon that, once heard, is never forgotten. And Fox Movietone has recreated it in "Speakeasy," the famous all-talking picture which comes to the Cathaum theatre, State College, on Monday and Tuesday, April 8 and 9.

"Speakeasy" is now on its third week at the Fox-Locust theatre, Philadelphia, at $1.50 prices. It is also one of a select few pictures to have the distinction of being held over for a third week at the famous Roxy theatre, in New York city. And it's good stuff! Bottled in bond—with a kick that will lift you right out of your seat. You'll see and hear the roar of the great city. Thundering subways, busy terminals, Madison Square Garden, the blood-thirsty clamor of 20,000 fight fans, Broadway night clubs, racketeers plying their trade behind barred doors. Gay night life in the whisper-joints. Color, speed, glamour—it is brought to you for the first time just as it really is. Paul Page, Lola Lane, Henry B. Walthall, Helen Ware, Sharon Lynn and others are in the all-star, all-talking cast of this outstanding sound picture which recreates the night life of New York as it has never been done before.

We saw "Speakeasy" at the Roxy in New York, last week and thought it one of the most thrilling pictures of its kind that we have ever seen.

FIFTY YEARS AGO IN CENTRE COUNTY.

Several cases of scarlet rash are reported in town.

An additional story is being put on Mr. Haag's hotel at Pleasant Gap. It is to be used for a ball room and a public hall.

Rev. Thomas Switzer died at his home in Philipsburg Monday night of last week.

While Grant Hoover, a son of Harvey Hoover, of Dix's Run, was attempting to turn a two horse team attached to a wagon, around at a narrow point on the Dix's Run road, the horses backed too far and fell down an eighty foot embankment. The boy jumped to safety, the wagon was completely demolished, but, strange to say, neither horse was much injured by the fall.

The firm of S. and A. Loeb was dissolved, Isaac May retiring and the business was continued by Simon and Adolph Loeb.

March went out like a lion. Prof. George Shadman closed his school in Ferguson township on Friday evening with impressive exercises. The school paper "Sleepy Hollow Vindicator" was received with uproarious applause. The Washington cornet band was there to furnish music.

The men of Valentines iron works have raised $624 toward the erection of the church building they want out there. Men of the company have promised them $200 and Samuel Miliken has offered $50 if they complete it without any debt. They say they can do it for $1000 so wont you help them with a contribution.

The Methodist conference which has been in session at Bloomsburg made the following appointments for Centre county: Port Matilda, Joseph R. King; Milesburg and Unionville, J. B. Shaver, Howard, J. B. Akers; Penns Valley, Joseph R. Whitney; Bellefonte, A. Duncan Yocum; Pleasant Gap, John A. Wood Jr.; Half Moon, Geo. Bouse; Pine Grove, Henry F. Caris; Philipsburg, Abram M. Creighton.

On the first F. C. Richard moved his jewelry store into the room on High street next to Deschner's gun store. It has been handsomely frescoed by Doak and Lonebarger.

Ex-Governor Curtin has just returned from a trip to New York and is our authority for publishing that the story to the effect that Samuel J. Tilden has been stricken with paralysis is untrue. Mr. Curtin spent Sunday with President Tilden at his residence in Gramercy Park and as it was a nice day his host proposed that they take a walk, which they did and covered fully six miles before they returned to the house. A paralytic would scarcely be capable of such a jaunt.

ALTOONA MIRROR TRUCK UPSET AND BURNED.

The truck in which the Altoona Mirror delivers its editions to this section toppled off the highway, about a mile east of Lemont Wednesday afternoon, took fire and was almost completely destroyed. The driver was not injured.

The accident happened on a perfectly straight piece of road and its cause is not known unless the driver might have lost control because of the high rate of speed which these trucks usually maintain in order to make early deliveries. He had been to Bellefonte and was on his way west to State College when the mishap occurred.

There wasn't much to salvage about the truck but the Mirror Co., sent another one down to take the undamaged parts and dumped the wreck over into the field at the side of the road.

BOALSBURG

John Irwin spent the Easter vacation with his parents, in Millinburg. Miss Beulah Fortney was the guest of State College friends on a motor drive to Philadelphia on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Tennis spent Easter with friends in Altoona, and also attended the wedding of a nephew.

Charles Segner and Charles Isenberg have been added to the list of autoists—both having purchased cars recently.

Mrs. Foster Charles attended a quilting party at the home of her sister, Mrs. Smith, in Centre Hall, on Wednesday.

Miss Blanche Rowe, of Harrisburg, and Miss Daisy Rowe, of State College, spent the week-end at the home of their father.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Corb, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Meyer, drove to Spring Mills, Sunday, to visit at the homes of John Meyer and Lee Brooks.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lucas, of Ohio, and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hosterman, of Jeannette; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Coxey and Miss Melva Jacobs, of Philipsburg; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Coxey and children, of Altoona, spent Easter Sunday at the homes of their parents.

Marriage Licenses

Miles P. Decker, of Centre Hall, and Kathryn I. Hettiger, of Farmers Mills.

John C. Bailey and Ida Overdorf, both of Millheim.

Joseph J. Korkus and Marie E. Boyle, both of Bridgeport, Pa.

AARONSBURG.

Ellsworth Frazer, of Akron, Ohio, was the guest of his grandmother, Mrs. Charles Wolf.

Miss Esther Dufford and niece, of State College, were guests, several days, of Miss Lizzie Yarger, at her home on north 2nd street.

Mrs. W. S. Chambers and daughter, Miss Martha, of Bellefonte, were Tuesday afternoon callers at the home of Mrs. Chambers' aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hull.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Stover have had as guests their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas, of Lock Haven, and Mrs. Stover's aunt, Mrs. Emma Beaver, of Williamsport.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Crouse, accompanied by their daughter, Miss Mabel, Catherine and Harry Krape, motored to Sunbury, Saturday. Miss Crouse was called as nurse to care for a patient in that city.

Mrs. Walter E. Orwig and son Kermit went down to Allentown, Friday, where they spent Easter with Mr. Orwig. Mrs. Orwig remained for the week, while Kermit returned home early in the week.

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Mingle and daughter Ruth, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mingle and two small sons, Harold and Robert, of Akron, Ohio, were week-end guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Mingle, and Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Stover, Mrs. Mingle's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Stover had as guests, Sunday, Mr. Stover's sister, Mrs. Herman; her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Isenberg and two daughters, the Misses Marian and Mildred, of State College. Also the Stover's grand-daughter, Miss Elizabeth Stover, of Dauphin.
