

WINGATE.

Some of our people have begun their garden and farmers are doing their spring plowing.

All Fool's day gave us a better illustration of March winds than any day of the past month.

Many of our people attended the public sale of the household goods of Miss Maude McMullen, at Milesburg, during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker and daughter, of DuBois, motored here on Saturday, and spent Easter with Mr. Walker's two sisters, Mrs. Ida Witmer and Mrs. James Snyder, returning home on Monday afternoon.

SHINGLETOWN.

If in need of a girl, call Miss Neff, 33-R-21 Boalsburg.

Steve Zeloski, of Pittsburgh, was an Easter visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Campbell.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Burchfield and daughter, of Altoona, were weekend visitors at the Leech home.

George Miller, of Curwensville, was an Easter visitor at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Miller.

Miss Evelyn Neff, nurse at the Sanford hospital, at Jersey Shore, was home a short period on Sunday evening.

—Subscribe for the Watchman.

ALTOONA BOOSTER MERCHANTS SAY:

Trade in your home stores first, but come to Booster Stores for the things your home Merchants cannot supply.

You Always Receive Style, Quality, Value, Satisfaction When You Shop in Altoona Booster Stores

There never was a time in history when style was so strongly emphasized as at this period. Booster Stores were never so well prepared to show their customers all that is newest and best in style merchandise of all kinds—for the home as well as for personal use!

But Booster Merchants also give close attention to the quality of their merchandise with the result that when you buy at a Booster Store, you are sure of receiving goods of dependable quality and at prices that mean good value for the money expended.

Whatever your needs may be in new furnishings for the home or for personal wear or adornment, if your local store cannot supply them, you will be sure to find satisfaction in making selections in Booster Stores, where variety for choice is practically unlimited.

Every Wednesday IS Suburban Day
In the Stores of the Altoona Booster Association

Strand Theatre ALTOONA, PA.

Benefit Show Lions Club of Altoona Sat., Mon., Tues., April 6, 8, 9 SEE AND HEAR "Fancy Baggage"

Wed., Thurs., Fri., April 10, 11, 12 SEE AND HEAR "Red Wine" Vitaphone Vodvil - Movietone News

PINE GROVE MENTION.

Miss Betty Thompson is visiting friend at Syracuse, N. Y.

Mrs. Frank Scott is seriously ill with an attack of pneumonia.

Mrs. Mary Dale, wife of Dr. P. H. Dale, is seriously ill with pneumonia.

William Biddle is quite ill at the home of D. S. Peterson, at Baileyville.

The hard windstorm, on Monday, tore off the roof of Oscar Witmer's barn.

A. S. Walker is confined to his home with a complication of ailments.

Rev. J. H. Harkins and family spent the latter end of the week at DuBois.

Charles M. Dale and wife, of the Branch, were recent callers on friends in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ward, of Tyrone, were Easter guests of the W. S. Ward family.

Communion services will be held in the Bethel Reformed church on Sunday morning.

A. J. McWilliams motored here from Evansburg, last week, on a business mission.

W. B. Fry, wife and son were Easter guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Barto, on Tadpole.

A. L. Corl and family, of Juniata, spent Easter with relatives and friends in town.

Mrs. Daniel Irvin and Mrs. Anna Ward have returned to their homes for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Hassell had as an Easter guest Miss Ella Hassell, of Utica, N. Y.

John F. Kimpfort and wife, of Boalsburg, spent Tuesday evening visiting the sick in town.

Alber Burwell and family, of Tyrone, were over Sunday visitors at the Sallie Burwell home.

L. L. Corl, wife and three interesting youngsters, of Juniata, spent Easter with relatives in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Elliot Ward and Mr. and Mrs. John Ward, of Washington, Pa., spent Easter with relatives in the valley.

Mrs. Ida Williams and the W. J. Gardner family were guests at an Easter dinner served by Mrs. Clara C. Williams.

Rev. Brown, of Washington, Pa., will fill the pulpit in the Graysville church at 11 a. m., Sunday, and in the Baileyville church at 7 p. m.

A home talent play will be put on by members of Washington camp, F. O. S. of A., in the Odd Fellows hall, tonight and tomorrow night.

The Milton Mattern sale, on Friday, was well attended and brought to the owner a total of $5000. The Charles Lohr sale amounted to $1500.

C. M. Fry and wife and Mrs. Esther Ritchie and daughter Joan, of Altoona, were Sunday visitors at the Mrs. Osman and John F. Kimpfort homes.

Charles Gates, wife and son Harold, of Tyrone, spent the latter end of the week at the home of J. Cal Gates, who has been under the weather for some days.

Mrs. George Irvin and Mrs. Eugene Irvin entertained the Ladies Aid and the Missionary Band at their home at Pennsylvania Furnace, on Thursday evening.

The Ferguson township Brotherhood will hold its next meeting in the Methodist church here on April 9th. Rev. Greenhoe, of Centre Hall, will make the address.

Warren R. Bailey, who spent the winter with his sister, Mrs. Ross Gregory, in Altoona, returned home two weeks ago and is at the J. H. Bailey home, on Wall street.

Installations of officers of Pennsylvania lodge No. 276, I. O. O. F., will take place on the evening of April 9th, at 8 o'clock. H. M. Hosterman will be the presiding genius.

Special Easter exercises were held in the Presbyterian church on Sunday evening. Ed Isenberg had charge of the choir and Mrs. Rudy presided at the piano. G. B. Fry was in charge of the program. Every one who took part did splendidly and the entertainment was a complete success.

The new officers of Lady Ferguson Rebekah lodge, No. 137, were installed, on Monday evening by district deputy Josephine Pennington, assisted by Emma Eplison, Bertha Albright and Estelle Heberling, as follows:

Past President—Helen Peterson.
Noble Grand—Mary Walker.
Rec. Sec'y—Pearl Clark.
Warden—Helen Kline.
Conductor—Sarah Wieland.
Trustee—Mary Homan.
Outside Guard—Twila Peters.
R. S. to N. G.—Caroline Peterson.
L. S. to N. G.—Mary Ward.
R. S. to V. G.—Viola Barto.
L. S. to V. G.—Anna Elder.
Chaplain—Elizabeth Goheen.

The treasurer's report showed a very satisfactory condition of the finances. Following the installation refreshments were served and a delightful social hour enjoyed by all.

HOWARD.

Mrs. Philip Holter is still a patient at Lock Haven hospital.

Mrs. Fred Day is a surgical patient at the Lock Haven hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Kost and children are visiting Mr. Kost's parents, at Smoke Run.

Thomas Fletcher will take over the management of our electric light plant this week.

The Win One class of the Reformed Sunday school will hold their regular monthly meeting, Thursday, April 11th, at the home of Gregg Wensel.

The parent teachers association held an egg hunt for the grade pupils, last Friday, on the High school grounds and the kiddies had a royal good time.

—Subscribe for the Watchman.

UNIONVILLE.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bauder are on the sick list, but at last reports were better.

Charles Keatley spent his Easter vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Keatley.

Paul Tomlinson and friend, of Pittsburgh, were over Sunday visitors at the Hotel Union.

Prof. J. C. Fox was on the sick list during the Easter season, suffering from a very sore throat.

Henry Aaron, who went to Detroit, Mich., about two weeks ago on a business visit, returned on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Milford Spotts, of north Chili, N. Y., were over Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Houtz.

Mrs. Bessie Alexander and son Dallas, of Milesburg, were over Sunday visitors with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Way.

Mrs. Bessie Wagner and daughter Geraldine, of State College, spent the Easter vacation with her mother, Mrs. Susan Stere.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Rowan had the pleasure of a visit from their children, John Rowan and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schaffer and son Bobby, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ardell and daughter Gaynell, and Mrs. Mary A. Davidson, of Tyrone, were guests at the home of Mrs. Francis Hall and son Eugene, on Sunday.

The Free Methodists held their district quarterly meeting, over Sunday, which was well attended and interesting. It was presided over by the district superintendent, Rev. Lindsey.

Mr. and Mrs. William Summers, who have been visiting at Sharon for several months with their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Miller, returned Tuesday afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. Miller bringing them in their automobiles.

Mrs. Harry Elway, of Altoona, was a business visitor on Monday, overseeing the renting of his houses. Elwood Way and family, of Milesburg, moved into the old Post Office building, on her lot, which had been vacant for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Stere were pleasantly surprised, on Sunday, by an unexpected visit of Mrs. Stere's father, Harrison Stine, of Phillipsburg, and her sisters, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Grimm, of Juniata, and Mrs. Dorothy Grimes and friend, Mr. John Greer, of Philadelphia.

The wind storm, on Monday, did considerable damage in town and vicinity, blowing down two large trees on the lawn at C. K. Bruggers, cutting off the electric light until the repair crew could get here, while the barn on the Shadrack Parsons farm was wrecked and some small buildings along the pike.

Miss Flora Brugger arrived here, last Friday evening, from Camden, N. J., to spend the Easter vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brugger. They also entertained their son George and family, from Canonsburg, and daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Waite, of Stormstown; Mrs. Carrie Rumberger and son John, of DuBois, and Miss Laura Rumberger and nephew Pierce, at dinner on Sunday.

The dues social held in the Community house, last Friday evening, by the members of the W. C. T. U., was quite a success. A very interesting program was rendered. Singing by the L. T. L., directed by their teacher, Mrs. H. M. Miles. Music by the orchestra and reading of interesting articles gleaned from different newspapers telling of the good work that has been done by the Union, and then the social hour, when refreshments were served consisting of sandwiches, pickles, cake and coffee.

C. G. Hall and family, of the township, moved into the Fink house, on the hill, and his son Benner and family moved from the Adams house along the pike to the farm. Mr. Ed. Hazzard and family moved to Tyrone, where Mr. Hazzard had been transferred by the R. R. Co. C. W. Stambaugh expects to occupy the house vacated by Benner Hall up the pike. Jesse Irwin, of Jersey Shore, has bought the Adams property, in town, where C. W. Stambaugh lives, and expects to occupy it soon. Every house in town is occupied—two families in some houses.

JACKSONVILLE.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Harter, of State College, spent Sunday in Jacksonville.

Miss Mary Weight was called to Lock Haven, last Monday, where she has accepted a position in nursing.

Franklin Weight returned to the William Weaver home, on Saturday, after spending the winter in Ohio.

Ephriam Lucas and William Weaver had their summer supply of wood sawed on Monday, by Hogan Long.

Mr. and Mrs. Mervin Hoy and daughter Grace spent Easter at Curtin, at the home of Mrs. Hoy's parents.

Mrs. Joseph Neff and sons returned home, on Sunday, with her husband, after spending a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hoy.

Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Sorgham, her granddaughter and Mrs. Mitchell, tree, and a friend, from Flemington spent Sunday at William Weavers.

Mr. and Mrs. James Carner are the proud parents of a baby girl, born the latter part of March. Mrs. Carner will be remembered as Helen Vonada.

Mrs. Mary Deitz is working for Fred Haines since last Monday. Mrs. Haines went to Clearfield for medical treatment. Callers at the Haines home, on Monday, were Mrs. Hogan Long, Mrs. Ephriam Lucas, Mrs. Harry Hoy, Mrs. Frank Mackey and Miss Jennie Glossner.

—Subscribe for the Watchman.

CENTRE HALL.

Miss Grace Wible and Miss Lacey Kirkpatrick, spent their Easter vacation with friends here.

On Saturday evening, March 23rd, William J. Twigg, and Miss Cornelia Dale, of Lemont, were married at the Presbyterian parsonage here by the pastor, Rev. J. Max Kirkpatrick. The bride is a member of the choir in the Lemont Presbyterian church and has a large circle of friends. Mr. Twigg has been an employee of the Pennsylvania railroad for a number of years and of late had been in service at Bellefonte and Lock Haven. They will live at the Dale homestead, in Lemont.

The senior missionary society of the Presbyterian church held its March meeting at the Presbyterian parsonage as guests of Mrs. J. Max Kirkpatrick. Devotionals were conducted by Miss Grace Smith after which Mrs. MacMorran and Mrs. Pepon rendered a beautiful vocal duet. Mrs. Cyrus Brungart gave some pen pictures of Japan and Mrs. F. V. Goodhart read "Betty's Trip to Japan." A paper prepared by Mrs. Spyster on "Orientals in America," was read by Mrs. Harry Potter. Rev. and Mrs. Kirkpatrick sang a duet and "The Gateway of Hope," a representation of Orientals landing at Ellis Island, was presented by members of the society. At the close of the program a social evening was enjoyed. The guests present included Miss Gussie Murray and Mrs. William Tennis, of Boalsburg; Mr. and Mrs. Joan Bailey, Mrs. Nannie Bailey, Mrs. Hamill Glenn, Mrs. Claude Williams and Miss Sarah Barr, of Pine Grove Mills; Mrs. Philip Bradford, Miss Miriam Dreese, Mrs. Mary Payne, Mrs. Charles Thompson, Mrs. George Mitchell, Miss Maude Mitchell, Mrs. Edward Glenn, Frank Wasson, Miss Cornelia Dale, Mrs. Emma Bathgate, and Mrs. Runkle, of Lemont; Mr. and Mrs. Ross Louder, Dorothy and Ross Daniel Louder, Mrs. Elmer Louder and Anna Mary Louder, of Oak Hall; Misses Ella and Margaret Glenn, of State College; Mrs. F. V. Goodhart, Mrs. John Heckman, Miss Martha Boal, Mrs. C. Brungart, Mrs. H. Potter, Mrs. G. O. Benner, Mrs. Charles Slack, Mrs. L. Lingle, Mrs. Pepon Sr., Mrs. H. Pepon, Mrs. MacMorran, Miss Grace Smith and Mrs. Emma Emerick, of Centre Hall.

—Subscribe for the Watchman.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

LOTS FOR SALE in Bellefonte, inquire of E. H. Shaffer, 117 east High St., Bellefonte. 73-13-1f.

INN'S HISTORY of Centre and Clinton counties for sale to the highest bidder. It is in splendid condition. Nothing under $15 considered. Make offer to this office. 73-14-3t.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

FOR SALE—Complete Feedink manufacturing equipment. Truck, stock, building and lot. Business now operating. Established routes. Reason for selling interested in other business. Address, Crystal Bottling Works, Milesburg, Pa. 74-9-1f.

ASK FOR BIDS.—Calling for removal of all old paint, and apply two coats on all outside wood work of the Sheriff's dwelling. bids to be opened Friday, April 12th, 1929, at 10 a. m. The Commissioners reserve the right to reject any or all bids.

HOWARD M. MILES JOHN S. SPEARLY N. I. WILSON Commissioners of Centre County. FRED B. HEALY, Clerk 74-13-2t

EXECUTOR'S NOTICE.—The undersigned executor of the last will and testament of Hannah E. Green, late of Milesburg borough, Centre county, Pennsylvania, decd., hereby notifies all persons knowing themselves indebted to said decedent to make immediate payment of such indebtedness and those having claims to present the same, properly authenticated for settlement. GEORGE E. JOHNSON, Executor 6316 Germantown Ave Philadelphia, Pa. W. Harrison Walker, Philadelph., Pa. Atty. for Estate 73-13-6t

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

IMBER LAND FOR SALE—A 50 acre tract of land, well timbered and underlaid with iron ore, located in Marion Twp., Centre county, is for sale. Address inquiries to Mrs. Rebecca McCaffrey, Exec., 326 West Water St., Lock Haven, Pa. 74-12-3t

Used Electric Ranges

We have traded in, for new Gas Ranges, a number of electric ranges, many in good condition. These are for sale to those in the outlying districts, not reached by gas. Many of these ranges originally sold for $220 to $275.

Your Choice at $60.00 Each.

Central Penna. Gas Co.

Private Passenger Automobile Owners

10% Reward

for Careful Driving.....

Now you can buy Automobile Public Liability and Property Damage Insurance at lower premium costs.

If you have established a record for safety for 24 months, you are entitled to a reduction under

THE TRAVELERS MERIT RATING PLAN

You can enjoy lower premiums, pay for them on easy terms and buy the very best insurance and service from the largest multiple-line insurance organization in the world.

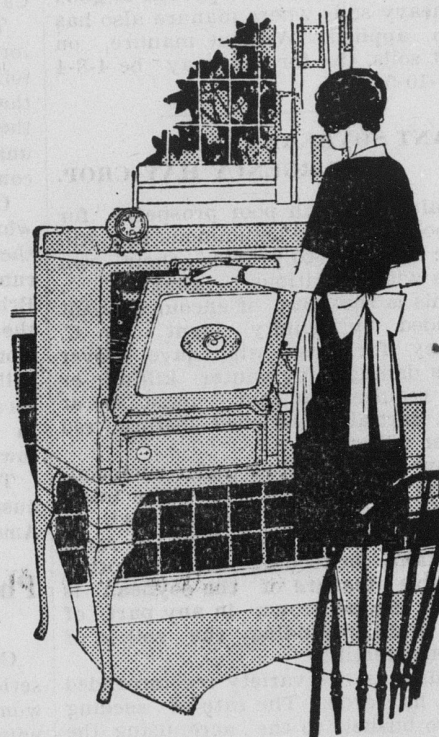

Telephone, write or call at my office for full information—no obligation.

B. O. HARVEY

PHONE 506J BELLEFONTE, PA. Temple Court

BELLEFONTE COOKS ELECTRICALLY
.. here is why!

Set the clock

Adjust the thermostat

.. and dinner cooks by itself

It's a simple matter to cook a nourishing, appetizing dinner when you cook it in an electric oven. You merely set the clock and adjust the thermostat... then you don't need to touch the range again until meal time.

The day of basting and turning and tasting is gone forever. For the electric oven heats so evenly that the entire surface of the food is uniformly browned. And because very little moisture is lost from this closely sealed oven, roasts are not dried out or vegetables shriveled. Everything you cook in it retains the juices that add so much not only to flavor but to healthfulness.

After a pleasant afternoon away from the kitchen, it is a joy to return and find such a perfectly cooked meal awaiting you. All you have to do is dish it up and put it on the table. Then listen to your family's enthusiastic compliments. Cook electrically for economy!

WEST PENN POWER CO
Keystone Division