

Bellefonte, Pa., May 10, 1929.

P. GRAY MEEK, - - Editor

To Correspondents.—No communications published unless accompanied by the real name of the writer.

Terms of Subscription.—Until further lotice at the following rates:
Paid strictly in advance - $1.50
Paid before expiration of year
Paid after expiration of year - 2.00

Published weekly, every Friday morning. Entered at the postoffice, Bellefonte, Pa., as second class matter. In ordering change of address always live the old as well as the new address. It is important that the publisher be notified when a subscriber wishes the paper discontinued. In all such cases the subscription must be paid up to date of cancellation.

A sample copy of the "Watchman" will be sent without cost to applicants.

FIFTY YEARS AGO

IN CENTRE COUNTY.

Items from the Watchman issue May 9, 1879. Mr. Calvin Meyer is reading law with R. M. Magee, one of the safest counsellors in town.

Captain Griffith Davis, of this place, died on Wednesday morning last, aged about 60 years. The Captain was a well known and highly popular man and in former days was one of the most reliable canal boat officers between this place and Phila-ity and they have an elephant that plays a fiddle with its tail.—The circus in question was the Bachelor and Doris show-Ed.

Four subscription schools opened in the public school building on Monday. They are being conducted by Miss Nannie McGinley, Miss Bella Rankin, Miss Rosa Woods and Miss Annie Mc-Caffrey.

Miss Fannie May's Royal Blonde troupe, consisting of 20 beautiful young ladies, with the Parisienne Cancan will show in Reynolds' hall next Monday evening.

As Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Shuey and John Wurtz of College township, were returning home from Bellefonte, on Monday last, the front axle of their wagon broke, frightening the horses which began to kick and raise the deuce, generally. Wurtz jumped Tuesday morning, of neuralgia of the from the wagon and fell, breaking his leg. Then he could not assist Mr. Shuey and while the latter was trying to get the team quieted one of the animals kicked him on the leg and

Bellefonte on Saturday. Among those

been hauled away and buried. Chairman Ardell, of the Fire and Police committee, reported that the Logan fire company needed new hose. said the Undine hose was not so bad but that it would need some darning pretty darned soon. The Nuisance committee reported that it had or dered the removal of those two in months and 7 days. As a young man teresting back-houses on Spring he taught school but later engaged creek. And here we would just take in farming and was quite successful. the only back-houses we have ever known to occupy sites in front of the front-houses

The breath of winter is still in the air and everything is dry and dusty. What we need most is a good, soak ing, warm rain.

Mr. R. H. Duncan, of Spring Mills, was in town on Tuesday and very much set up because that place has became the terminus of a railroad.

STATE COLLEGE CATERER BEFORE COURT FOR FRAUD.

A special session of court was of the case against Henry F. Bosley, topic being, "Life's Decisions. a former caterer for a fraternity Zant, meat dealer at the College, and Albert Osman and Ralph Haag. H. A. Fye, of Fye's grocery. The acto a woman of $109. both in court and stated that it was boys are Capt. Paul Gallagher, Joe their desire to have Mr. Bosley plac- Gingery, Jackson Spangler, Dean Geted on parole on condition that he go tig, Vincent Bauer, Dick Baney, Dick to work and pay his bills at a stated Heverly, Jim Haupt and manager sum a month; that he could get a po- Robert Geiswhite. G. M. Singer, sition at the College which will en- physical director, then gave a brief three act play, will be staged at the the coroner's jury returned a ver- Mrs. Laura Woleslagle.

the care of the parole officer with the bers of the club were present. understanding that he pay $40 per month toward the liquidation of his mission to do so.

found against him by the grand jury ed States. and he was then given a suspended sentence upon his promise to make and brought him back to Bellefonte.

-The State highway oiling schedule for this week included the bor- man alive with an income of millions of this community about an opporough of Millheim and from Millheim and no "interest, direct or indirect" tunity to help young people who are DUEY.-Mrs. Anna Eliza Duey, OIL BURNERS GROWING widow of Robert C. Duey, of Tyrone, died at the Philipsburg State hospital, Saturday afternoon, followcomplication of diseases.

Duey in February, 1883, and they matic oil burners. took up their residence in Tyrone. Mr. Duey, a railroad conductor, was kill- Mr. Crawford went on to say "answer ed in an accident in the Tyrone yards a growing demand for clean, automaher are the following children: John years have definitely proven their E. Duey and Mrs. Ira Wighaman, of right to a place in every modern Cuyahogo Falls, Ohio; Mrs. O. P. home." Vieard, Jeremiah and Robert J. Duey, home of her daughter, Mrs. F. M. a far better way." Dorman, at Laurelton, on April 26th, following a prolonged illness.

Philipsburg, and George, of Waddle. day at the home of her daughter, that place.

Everybody is now on the tip-toe of and Sarah Williams and was born in ing furnace. It is the perfect servant, expectation for the circus. They say ago. Most of her married life was spent in Walker township. Her husband has been dead for some years but surviving her are the following GOLF TOURNAMENT children: Mrs. Dorman, of Laurelton; Mrs. M. I. Wise and Mrs. Gertrude Martz, both of Berwick; I. C. Robb, of Wildwood, and Merle Robb, of Lock Haven. She also leaves four opened, last Saturday, with four conbrothers, Thomas and David Wil cests. Nine clubs are represented in liams, of Nittany; Grant, of State College, and Leid, of Harrisburg.

Funeral services were held in the April 28th, by Rev. Yingling, of Howard, burial being made in the Sny dertown cemetery.

WOODRING.-Mrs. Murley Woodring, wife of Marvin J. Woodring,

She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Crain and was born at Warriorsmark over 48 years ago. Most of her girlhood life was spent The Pleasant Gap band serenaded in at Port Matilda and her married life in Philipsburg. She is survived by honored was Governor Curtin and the Watchman office. The band plays son, Mrs. Margaret Hughes, of Phil-Huntingdon; Nittany at Centre Hills. splendidly and it was a real treat to ipsburg; Hazel, Janet and William, all at home. She also leaves the fol-At a meeting of council Monday lowing sisters and brothers: Mrs. W night chairman Shortlidge of the Wa. T. Hoover, Mrs. P. B. Woodring, Mrs. ter committee reported that the dead W. J. Woodring, Mrs. Daniel Funk, cats, dogs and chickens that had accumulated around the reservoir had been hauled away and build Chair learning that the dead w. J. Woodring, Mrs. Daniel Funk, Saturday, July 20—Cricket club at Nittany; Tyrone at Clearfield; Huntingdon at Philipsburg; Blairmont at Clinton. cumulated around the reservoir had Crain, all of Port Matilda. Burial will be made in the Philipsburg cemetery this afternon.

> ASKINS.—Wesley Askins, father of John Askins, of Unionville, died ipsburg. last Friday, at his home at Clymer, Indiana county, aged 78 years, 6 COL LEITZELL'S SQUAD His wife died several years ago but

INTERESTING MEETING

OF THE HI-Y CLUB. The weekly meeting of the Bellefonte Hi-Y club, held at the Y. M. C. $100,000. A. on Thursday evening, was of un-without funds in bank to meet them. contest to the following members: J. of danger of raid. The complainants were M. H. Van- Wayne Morrow, Thomas Caldwell.

counts at issue were $200 and $524.52 dent of the Board of Directors, was caped. Colonel Leitzell was assisted of his disappearance Humphrey had of Williamsport, made a short visit respectively. In addition to the above introduced and gave a splendid ad in making the raid by a detail in been at a private home, at Point with their aunt, Mrs. Clara Leathers, Bosley has other debts at the College dress on "Clean Sportsmanship." Mr. charge of prohibition agent Schultz Lookout, playing cards, and his comtotaling $1800 and a personal account Johnston presented nine members of and it took until midnight to take panions in the game stated at the Messrs. Fye and VanZant were beautiful emblem, each. The nine Lewisburg. The court agreed to place Bosley in served. Thirty-eight of the 72 mem- a group of young people from the Charney, who found the body, will be good. But he left the jurisdiction of wondering what influence wrecked zations working together for a the court without doing so. Located the future of Governor Fisher. Some worthy cause, one to raise funds with in Ticoneroga, N. Y., county detec- blame Mellon and others blame Grun- which to repair their church, which tive Leo Boden went there last week dy. But the best guessers think Fish- is sadly in need of repairs; the other, er had most to do with it.

IN GENERAL POPULARITY.

Nearly a million American homes ing an illness of some weeks with a will be heated by oil burners this year. "The amazing strides, taken by She was a daughter of Jeremiah the oil burner industry, can be exand Anna Susan Kelly and was born plained in only one way—automatic at Fillmore, Centre county, on heat has proven its worth," said Mr April 20th, 1860, hence was 69 years Frank Crawford of Centre Oil and and 14 days old. She married Mr. Gas Co., local dealers for Silent auto-

"The latest types of oil burners," less than two years ago but surviving tic heat, and in the space of ten

No other home appliance can apof Tyrone. She also leaves the follow- proach the best types of oil burners ing brothers and sisters: Edgar Kel- now on the market, for dependability ly, of Bellefonte; Mrs. Robert Reed, and service. The oil burner industry Stormstown; Philip Kelly, of Lock has gone as far in perfected perfor-Haven; John, of State College; Mrs. mance in ten years, as the automotive Daniel Stone and Samuel Kelly, of industry went in twenty five. "New developments in engineering, preci-Funeral services were held on Tues- sion of manufacture an mass production have produced something more Mrs. Vieard, in Tyrone, burial being than mere mechanical perfection, made in the Grandview cemetery, in however, said Mr. Crawford. "The modern oil burner owes its rapid rise to popularity-not to the fact that ROBB.-Mrs. Jennie Robb, widow it burns oil instead of coal-but beof Benjamin F. Robb, died at the cause it performs a definite service in

Automatic oil heat has not only come to stay-but is rapidly supple-She was a daughter of Zacharias menting the old fashioned coal-burnstandards of living, provided by Am-

OPENED ON SATURDAY.

The annual tournament of the Central Pennsylvania Golf association the association, namely: the Altoona Cricket club, Blairmont Country club, of Hollidaysburg; Tyrone Golf club, Evangelical church, at Nittany, or Centre Hills Country club, of State College; Clearfield Country club, Clinton county Country club, Nittany Country club, Bellefonte, and the Philipsburg Country club. The officers of the association include S. Reed Morningstar, Philipsburg, presidied at her home in Philipsburg, on dent; J. Rand Miller, Millheim, vice president; Ralph D. Noe, Huntingdon, secretary treasurer. The schedule for the season is as follows: Thursday, May 16—Philipsburg at Cricket club; Huntingdon at Blairmont; Centre Hills at Clearfield; Clinton at Nittany. Saturday, June 1—Cricket club at Clinton; Tyrone at Huntingdon; Blairmont at Centre Hills; Clearfield at Nittany.

Saturday, June 29—Cricket club at Clearfield; Tyrone at Clinton; Huntingdon at Nittany; Centre Hills at Philipsburg.

Thursday, July 11—Centre Hills at Cricket club; Clinton at Huntingdon; Nittany at Tyrone; Philipsburg at Blairmont.

Saturday, July 20. Cricket club at Nite. Thursday, August 1—Tyrone at Cricket club; Nittany at Blairmont; Philipsburg at Clearfield; Clinton at Centre Hills. Saturday, August 10—Cricket club at Huntingdon, Centre Hills at Tyrone; Clearfield at Blairmont; Clinton at Phil-

Col. Wilbur F. Leitzell and his squad of enforcement officers, of he is survived by seven children. Bur- Lewisburg, pulled off a spectacular ial was made at Clymer on Monday raid, on Monday, when they invaded Philipsburg, who mysteriously disthe Rauchtown district, in Sugar appeared on Saturady night, March tis. valley, and captured one of the 16th, was found last Friday morning biggest moonshine distilleries ev- in Moshannon creek, near the troler found in this section of the State ley bridge which crosses the stream, Estella Showers.

the president, Edmund McCafferty, 750 gallons of distilled liquor in con-Secretary Heineman conducted the densers; seventy-five gallons in kegs; clothed. held, last Friday morning, to dispose Bible study discussion group, the thirty- horsepower boiler; three two-Prof. D. C. Cochrane, faculty ad- pumps; twelve vats of 500 gallons' was removed from the stream and house at State College, who was visor, then presented certificates won capacity which were destroyed and an examination and inquest held by

ENTERTAINING PLAY

AT Y THIS EVENING.

Filmore M. E. church. Those who entitled to the reward of $100 offer- and Mrs. Arametta Miles, closed last have witnessed the performance else- ed for its recovery. 18-2t tertainment.

Here are two groups of young peo--Politicians of the State are ple from different Christian organito raise funds to spread world-wide brotherhood among boys. Surely we -Uncle Andy Mellon is the only need say no more to the good people so interested in helping others.

Mother's Day,

What a charming custom it is, this plan of giving flowers to Mother, on her day. Would'nt it be fine idea for your family to adopt if you have not already done so. Mother is always doing lovingly thoughtful things for us, so Sunday we should show her our love, and

"Say It With Flowers"

You will find at our Greenhouses a gorgeous lot of fresh cut ROSES LILIES CARNATION SNAPDRAGON DELPHINIUM Gladiolas, Sweet Peas, Tulips, Etc., at reasonable prices. In pots we have Hydrangeas, Tulips, Hyacinths, Geranium. Gift boxes from $1.50 up. We deliver, are open day and night and telegraph flowers anywhere in the United States.

Bellefonte, Penna.

Telephone 531

IN BIG LIQUOR RAID. FRANK HUMPHREY'S BODY FOUND IN MOSHANNON.

The body of Frank Humphrey, of

The value of the plant and product about five hundred yards from Hawk Philip Alexander, who is in service the Primary school and J. C. Fox was estimated at from $75,000 to Run. The gruesome discovery was in the Navy, is home on a visit with teacher of the Grammar school. made by Andrew Charney, of Pardee, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Alex-The seizure included two 750-gal- while on his way to Philipsburg. A ander. usual interest because of the regular lon stills which were taken to Lewis. foot sticking out of the water near and special features presented. Af- burg; 36 one-hundred pound sacks of a clump of underbrush attracted his ter the regular business conducted by rye and barley; 2500 gallons of mash; attention and investigating he dis-

Philipsburg authorities were notigallon condensers; three water fied and as soon as possible the body charged with fraud in issuing checks in the recent State-wide Bible study electric wires to points of warning coroner W. R. Heaton. The body was in a fair state of preservation The plant was a fully equipped dis- and so far as could be ascertained noon. tillery located in a secluded hollow there were no evidences of foul play. J. Kennedy Johnston Esq., presi- with only one man in charge who es- It will be recalled that on the night ville, and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Furl, the Hi-Y basket ball team with a the liquor and distillery equipment to time he left he had put his money in his trouser's pocket. A search of his clothing disclosed a $5 and $2 bill in the watch pocket of his trousers. Other articles in his pockets fully established his identity, and "The Path Across the Hills," a there being no evidence of foul play ternoon, at the home of her aunt, talk after which refreshments were Y. M. C. A. this (Friday) evening by dict of accidental death by drowning.

The white carnations for Moth- where are loud in their praise of the Humphrey was a son of Charles several terms very successfully. debts, and that he does not leave the er's day, also a large assortment of production and the very splendid way and Lovenia Humphrey and was born jurisdiction of the court without per- cut flowers, will be on sale at the in which the various characters take in Clearfield county over fifty-seven birthday (which really was on Mon-George Miller hardware store, Satur- their part. It is a mirth-provoking years ago. He is survived by his day) on Sunday. His daughter and Mr. Bosely's case dates back to day, May 11th. Gift boxes of assort- play, and in addition there are some wife and six children, also three husband, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Waite. 1927, when he was first arrested on ed flowers from two dollars up. Flow- fine musical selections. The Belle- brothers and one sister. Burial was and his son, Cornelius and family. the above charges. A true bill was ers telegraphed anywhere in the Unit- fonte Hi-Y club is sponsoring the en- made in the Philipsburg cemetery on Sunday afternoon.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

George Winfield Hamer Jr. and Rhoda Geraldine Chaplin, both of Philipsburg.

Andy Lingle, of Clarence, and Annie Chemlik, of Acosta. Robert E. McCracken, of Altoona, and Kathryne M. Stitt, of Mt. Union.

-Subscribe for the Watchman.

UNIONVILLE.

J. H. Finch spent Monday at Tycone among old acquaintances. Nancy Wright is on the sick list, suffering from bronchitis and laryngi-

Sunday visitor with her sister, Mrs

Mrs. Ada Irvin entertained a number of her friends and relatives at dinner, on Sunday, in honor of her birthday.

Harold Keatly, of Washington, D. C., was a week-end visitor at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Keatly.

Miss Charlotte Stere visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Stere, over the week-end, returning to her school at Mt. Union on Sunday after-

Mr. and Mrs. John Furl, of Run-

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pletcher, of Howard, visited friends and relatives here, Sunday, and attended preaching services in the evening at the Methodist church.

The funeral service of Irene Hanscom, year old baby girl, was conducted by Rev. Mitchell, Wednesday af-

Our borough schools, which were taught by Mrs. Margaret Calhoun, week. Both teachers have taught here

Mr. Joseph Brugger celebrated his spent the day at the parental home.

At the meeting, Tuesday evening, of the officers of the Oak Ridge cemetery Mrs. Clara Leathers was reelected president; H. M. Stere secretary, and J. E. Hall treasurer, Mrs. Estella Parsons and Mrs. Anna Finch were appointed auditors.

The first quarterly conference of the Milesburg and Unionville M. E. and at the John Korman home. churches for the year was held here Mr. and Mrs. Fred Haines arranged for later on and will likely stopped at the William Weaver home.

be group meetings. The fourth quarterly meeting was set for Milesburg. At the regular meeting of the school board, on Monday evening, they elected Mrs. Clara Bullock secretary, and Mrs. Margaret Holtzworth, treasurer. The retiring secretary, J. E. Hall, had served eight years very faithfully and conscientiously. They elected Miss Nell Williams teacher of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Roller attended the funeral of Mr. Roller's sister. Mrs. Jane Curry, in Canada, about two weeks ago and from there went to Ohio where they visited with old friends and relatives. Returning on Saturday they were accompanied by Adda Wilbert, of Ada, Ohio, sister of Mr. Roller, and his niece, Mrs. Rae McBride, of Philadelphia. Mrs. Mc-Bride went on to Philadelphia or Monday.

SHINGLETOWN.

Harold, Junior and Billy Klinger are all suffering with tonsilitis. Miss Mary Elizabeth Kline and little Richard Zeloski are quarantined for scarlet fever.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Neff, of State College, were greatly alarmed, last Saturday, by the disappearance of their three year old son, Joseph Jr. The child was last seen about ten o'clock and inquiry among the neighbors failed to reveal any trace of him. A general search was then inaugurated in which scores of people took part but it was not until five o'clock in the evening that he was found on the golf course of the Centre Hills Country club. The lad was very tired and almost famished.

JACKSONVILLE.

Mrs. Harry Hoy spent Sunday evening at the Mervin Hoy home. The Ladies Aid met, on Saturday evening, at the Reformed church. Fred Lucas and family, of State College, spent Sunday at his home here. Mrs. Hogan Long and son also spent a short time at her home on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Mervin Hoy and daughter were Bellefonte shoppers on Saturday. They also called at the Aaron Fetzer home, in Milesburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Haines and Tuesday evening, conducted by Rev family and Mrs. Mary Deitz and Watkins. The places for the second daughter spent Sunday at Samuel and third quarterly meetings will be Shortlidges, and on their way home