P. GRAY MEEK, - - - Editor

To Correspondents.—No communications published unless accompanied by the real name of the writer.

Terms of Subscription.—Until further office at the following rates:
Paid strictly in advance - $1.50
Paid before expiration of year - 1.75
Paid after expiration of year - 2.00 Published weekly, every Friday morning. Entered at the postoffice, Bellefonte, Pa., as second class matter.

In ordering change of address always give the old as well as the new address. It is important that the publisher be notified when a subscriber wishes the paper discontinued. In all such cases the subscription must be paid up to date of cancellation.

A sample copy of the "Watchman" will be sent without cost to applicants.

FIFTY YEARS AGO

IN CENTRE COUNTY. Items from the Watchman issue of Miss Bella Rankin, one of our excellent public school teachers, and 22 great-grandchildren. Miss Kate Green, of this place, shed Birmingham Seminary. Gov. Curtin will deliver the Fourth of July oration at Clearfield and Gen. Beaver will orate at Sunbury.

Misses Kate Heinen and S. V. Watson of Milton, are spending a few days with Mrs. A. O. Furst.

A boy by the name of James Parks has accused Harry Baney with stabbing him in the legs during a rough and tumble altercation they had over about the planing mill. Parks is heavier and older than the Baney boy and is said to have started the

The story is being told around that while the wedding of Horace G. Elder and Miss Clara VanValin was being solemnized in the Methodist horse. Just when the ring was being placed on the finger of the bride eaves dropping guest yelled: Of course he meant the horse, because it had just started to move off.

festival at Zion for the benefit of the band at that place. They are going to have a great time. There will be a fantastic parade, Prof. Phillippi will make a balloon ascenson and do tight rope walking and a blind boy will play an organ. The Bellefonte band is going down.

Gotelieb Haag celebrated his fiftieth birthday with a big dinner at his hostelry in Pleasant Gap last Sat-

new store house and hall at Pleasant Gap will be ready for occupancy a few days before the Fourth of July.

The most wonderful invention ever exhibited in Bellefonte is the Edison phonograph that was shown at Brown's corner last week and Mon- hospital early in the spring. day and Tuesday of this week. People came from all over the county laugh, cry, sing, imitate cats and ly as it is shouted into it. The contraption is a cylinder covered with tinfoil and as this cylinder revolves a fine needle travels along it makto which the needle is attached. Af- ber of the Presbyterian church and the Centre county W. C. T. U. will ter this is done the cylinder is just the Masonic lodge of Bellefonte. turned the other way and all the sounds that go into it come right out again. The instrument was purchased by Mr. Butts, a brother of David and the late Jerre Butts who C. Thompson, assisted by Rev. D. W. intends taking it to California, where he says he can make a fortune out being made in the Union cemetery. of it.

Mrs. William A. Thomas, the ven-Thomas died last Monday night in on Tuesday, following an illness of eryone might be edified by seeing it. her 87th year.

Mart Cooney's "Wild Irishman" seem to have the wind.

College, which will begin next Sunday, will be the baccalaureate sermon, an address on Martin Luther, a "musical soiree," an artillery salute Luther Ishler, of Jacksonville; Mrs. and the Junior contest for the Kaine prize.

College and will take charge on July ministrator, is capable and efficient, the Meyers' cemetery. in the opinion of Judge Dickinson, of the U.S. District court, but too zealous in some cases. This criticism

-Ambassador Dawes may not wear the clothes or employ the language of diplomacy but like the traditional bed bug "he gets there just the same."

of the courts in Pennsylvania he will be satisfied.

-The drive by civic and business leaders of Pennsylvania to compass the repeal of the "Blue Laws" is likely to make Mayor Mackey's heart bleed.

FRANTZ.-Mrs. Mary C. Frantz, TWO EASTERN PRISONERS widow of two veterans of the Civil war, died at her home at Wilmore, Cambria county, on Wednesday of Steal a Car to Make Their Getaway. last week, following a prolonged ill-

Her maiden name was Mary C. Frantz died in 1908 and since then years for burglary. the widow had been making her and Mrs. Milton Robb, Bellefonte; was abandoned. one brother, James H. Murphy, Wil-

Funeral service was held in Camthe light of their agreeable faces ov- bria county, last Friday morning, ing was taken before Judge Fleming bark lace made by Phillipine Island- George D. Green, in Lock Haven, then er the commencement exercises at after which the remains were taken for sentence. He told the court that ers by pounding and stretching wood came on to Bellefonte, Mr. Sherer joining Howard, Saturday, and won from Oak cemetery.

> RESIDES.—Henry Resides, a well known retired farmer of Bellefonte. died at his home, on Penn street, on

He was a son of Philip and Han-June 10th, 1881, he married Miss county jail. Sarah E. Wiley, of near Frostburg, Md., and engaged in farming there SNOW SHOE PLANNING church at Unionville last Sunday a for about ten years. They then came teamster who had left his horse at to Centre county and farmed in Bufthe church door, untied, was trying to falo Run valley until his retirement watch both the ceremony and the eight years ago, when the family Fourth of July celebrations in Cen-"Who-a! stand still there, you brute." Maryolive, at home. He also leaves is planning to have. one brother and two sisters, William | It is a well known fact that they prolonged illness. Some five or six years ago he suffered a nervous team. well man since, although he was able the sale of holiday gimcracks and bration of Mrs. Haines' birthday, was have had as guests their cousins,

Sowers, of Milesburg. Thompson had charge of the funer- doing right. cemetery.

He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Hollobaugh and was born LOCAL W. C. T. U. WORKERS to see it and no wonder for it will in Benner township thirty-nine years ago. He never married but is surdogs; in fact repeat anything exact- vived by his parents and the followindentations are made by the sound Iowa; Miss Oleta and Allison, at waves working against a diaphragm home. Mr. Hollobaugh was a mem-

> Funeral services were held at the home of his parents, on Sunday af- all will gather in old chapel, State ternoon at 2:30 o'clock, by Rev. W. Caruthers, of State College, burial some weeks with heart trouble.

won the race last Saturday. His best Jemima Ishler and was born in Ben- be held in old chapel and everyone is mile was in 3:05. Isaac Lose's horse ner township fifty-five years ago. In invited to attend these public meet-'Dick" is a good goer but he didn't 1897 he married Miss Sarah Stamm, ings. who survives with the following chil-The outstanding features of the dren: Earl, Homer and Mrs. Charles commencement exercises at State Parsons, of State College; William, Fred, Robert, Dean and Budd, at home. He also leaves his father and port, and Elizabeth Roberta Stempa number of brothers and sisters, fly, of Bellefonte. Willard Dale, of Bellefonte; Harry, Ohio, and Elsie M. Potts, of Greensof Pleasant Gap; John, of Boalsburg; Benjamin Beaver has purchased Mrs. Robert Kerstetter, Mrs. W. R. | Charles W. Phillips, of Scranton, the stage line from here to State Gentzel and Mrs. C. W. Bouse, all and Anna Garber, of Refton. of State College.

Buffalo Run churuch at two o'clock State College. -Colonel Wynne, prohibition ad- this afternoon, burial to be made in

-Among those who have finished their college work in the honor might be applied to other enforcers. class and with flattering recognition Mills developed a throat affection of their popularity as a student, is which finally became so bad that he Miss Helen J. Boyle, daughter of was unable to swallow. Two weeks Mrs. Hugh J. Boyle, of Hazleton, and ago he was taken to the Geisinger where the Elks entertained them for granddaughter of Mrs. C. D. Tanner, hospital for observation and a possi- the day. The weather was exceed- angel invaded the home of Mrs. of Bellefonte. Miss Boyle, while at ble operation but physicians advised ingly hot, but that proved no draw David Musser taking with it the College, served as president and vice- a course of treatment. After remain- back for the lake was there to cool spirit of Mrs. Musser, who about two president of the Women's Student ing at the hospital a week he came off in and ice-cream and cool drinks Government association, was a mem- home and is now slightly improved. -General Atterbury doesn't ask ber of the Campus clubs council, Y. much. If he is allowed to select the W. C. A. cabinet, Archousai, the Sen-Senators in Congress and the judges | ior Girls Activities society, the Alpha | Meek, wife of Dr. Meek, of Avis, has Omicron Pi Sorority and a Slipper again become critical, through a regirl of the class of 1929. She was a cent accident in which, while atdelegate in 1928 to the U.S.G. A. tempting to stand and put her weight when the tariff fight will be resumed. convention in Northfield, Minn., and on her feet she fractured her hip and in 1929 to Norman, Oklahoma. Miss leg below the knee. Mrs. Meek has Boyle will enter the U. P. the first been ill for two years or more, with the time of year for that kind of ed that the lemon crop it is culti- now it is accused of starting a $100,of July for a six week's course in an illness which has never been sat- weather, and what's the use of com- vating for the farmers will be ready 000 fire in a paper mill near Bloomsteaching work.

ESCAPE FROM ROCKVIEW. One Recaptured.

Murphy and she was born in Centre Rockview on June 7th after being tile museum in the Woman's buildcounty on April 25th, 1846, hence had transferred to the western peniten- ing at the Pennsylvania State Col- their daughter, Mary Katherine, left reached the age of 83 years, 1 month tiary from Philadelphia county, lege. Miss Ruth E. Graham, of the early Tuesday morning on a drive to and 17 days. Early in 1865 she mar- made their escape last Friday. They Home Economics department, is in ried John Flick, a soldier home on a were Peter Evangelist, serving a five charge.

home with her two sons, James H. wire stockade and right at hand interesting articles which are always Flick, of Conemaugh, and John E. found a Ford car belonging to C. E. kept here. Flick, of Wilmore. She also leaves Emert, of Lock Haven, who had There is Tapa Cloth made from during her stay in Detroit. the following step-children: Daniel driven to Rockview to visit a prison- Honolulu wood-fibers, bright peasant Frantz, Bluefield, W. Va.; William B. er. The ignition key was in the car embroideries from Austria and Switz- returned, on Sunday, from his trip to Frantz, Ashville; Mary Frantz, Ty- and the two prisoners jumped in, erland, and ropes made of pineapple Los Angeles, Cal., as a delegate to the rone: Mrs. Henry H. Spotts, Port started the car and drove away with- leaves. Better still—there is an in- annual convention of the Order of the Matilda; Mrs. Frank Page, Cone out being seen. They went west as spiration for a new style hat, made maugh; Alexander Frantz, Altoona, far as Warriorsmark where the car in Japanese fashion from wood chips:

Evangelist was arrested in Lock of those in Senegal; for Turkish Walk, Tyrone; 11 grandchildren and fused to tell how he got there. He blouses. was brought to Bellefonte early Sun- Beautiful, too, are the lovely Arbrought him anyway.

His reason failed to carry much soles. weight with the judge who gave him The textile museum is open for Thursday morning of last week, fol- he has completed his original sen- at State College are urged to inspect lowing almost three month's illness tence. Cole, the other prisoner who it. as the result of a stroke of paralysis. escaped, has not yet been caught.

Another prisoner sentenced on KIWANIANS PICNIC IN nah Reese Resides and was born in Monday morning was Joseph A. Benner township on March 31st, 1856, Love, of Altoona, arrested at Osceohence was 73 years, 2 months and 13 la Mills on June 2nd for driving a days old. His boyhood life was car while intoxicated. He drew a was entirely without any special pro-

While there will be several larger moved to Bellefonte. He is survived tral Pennsylvania we are sure none by his wife and two daughters, Mrs. will offer more opportunities for real B. C. Benner, of Fillmore, and Miss enjoyment than the one Snow Shoe

E. Resides, of Bellefonte; Mrs. Ellie do things well in Snow Shoe, because Tomorrow night there will be a big Sellers, of Pittsburgh, and Mrs. Mary they are hospitable and enthusiastic folks out there and when they go in Mr. Resides was a member of the for anything it is with the conviction Presbyterian church and Rev. W. C. that anything worth doing is worth al services which were held at two They are going to start their jamo'clock Saturday afternoon, burial bouree Wednesday evening with a being made in the Bellefonte Union festival, dancing and a big boxing Hollabaugh passed away at the Cen- dinner and supper and have two ball C. F. Arnold, of the Lutheran church. Mrs. William Guisewite, on Main tre County hospital, at 8:45 o'clock games. One will be between Belle- The ceremony was witnessed by of- street. It is expected that W. H. Noll's last Thursday morning, following a fonte and Snow Shoe. The other ficials at the court house. between Altoona and an all star > breakdown and had never been a Refreshment stands and booths for of the David Haines family, in celeto be around until admitted to the lots of music will give the grounds a a more enjoyable affair Wednesday Mrs. Bitzel and Miss Margaret Forsregular carnival appearance.

A large group of the state young ing brothers and sisters: Fred, of people's branch of the W. C. T. U. Bellefonte; Mrs. Harry Crissman, of will hold their encampment on the State College; Mrs. H. H. Zeigler, campus of the Pennsylvania State ing indentations in the tin foil. The of Clearfield; Ivan H., of Burlington, College from Monday, June 24, until Saturday, June 29, inclusive.

> be held on Tuesday evening, June 25, in cooperation with this group and College, at eight o'clock that evening. On Thursday at 2:30 p. m. the picture "Deliverance" will be shown at the Cathaum theatre as part of the week's interesting program. It ISHLER.—William J. Ishler died is based on Dr. Irvin Fisher's book erable mother of Jacob and Isaac at his home in Buffalo Run valley, "Prohibition at It's Worst" and ev-

> Thursday evening at eight o'clock He was a son of John P. and the grand "gold medal" contest will

Mariage Licenses.

Emmet Paul Bigelow, of Williams-

Ralph R. Newguist, of Cleveland, burg.

Percy E. Pierce Jr., of Cleveland,

About a month ago Quinn

-The condition of Mrs. R. H. isfactorily diagnosed.

THE TEXTILE MUSEUM

AT STATE COLLEGE.

Gay red Morocco slippers, rainof hand loomed silks, and real lace Two of the prisoners brought to greet the eye of the visitor at the tex-furlough. He died twelve years lat- to ten year sentence for breaking There is a fat Chinese bowl, around er and in 1889 she married Jacob and entering and larceny, and which nine golden mandarins, with Frantz, of Worth township. Mr. Charles Cole, also doing five to ten slanting eyes and folded hands, walk tirelessly. It recently came 11,000 The men cut a hole through the miles to take its place among the for sandals made after the fashion

by auto hearse to Port Matilda he told prison officials not to bring fiber until it is soft and fine as our where burial was made in the Black him to Rockview as the temptation real laces. There are also satin to escape was too great, but they shoes from China, tiny things hardly large enough to carry their inch thick

SEVEN MOUNTAINS.

The Kiwanis luncheon, of Tuesday, events in those days. at that time, and on Thursday evening of this week a joint picnic was and the general ease that prevailed is to come from. fitted in beautifully with the atmospheric conditions. The guests of the hour were Kiwanians "Corny" Sullivan, Lock Haven, David B. McCalmont, of Franklin, and K. E. Ben- trip to Bloomsburg and other places. tients, at Milesburg with an average nett, of State College.

Baylets-Corl.-Lewis W. Baylets, of Bellefonte, and Miss Madeline A. On the Fourth they will have races, in the law library, at the court

The annual family gathering the institution. than ever before. Although eighty- ter, of Dillsburg, Pa. seven years old, Mrs. Haines was the ideal honor guest and hostess, small child, of Milroy, spent Satur-TO MEET WITH STATE GROUP entire day. The guests included her and Mrs. A. S. King. son, Charles Haines, of McKeesport; delphia; Mrs. John Barry, Mrs. Kel- on Main street. ler Barry, Mrs. Jack Barry, Mrs. Jer-The regular monthly meeting of ry Barry and Mrs. Creeder, of Altoona; Miss Agnes Derstine and Margaret Haines, her granddaughter, pects to occupy it early in July. of Bellefonte. Mrs. Haines received many presents, among which was a birthday cake, baked by Mrs. Paul Fortney.

> -It is estimated that close to four thousand people attended the N. have as very welcome guests Mrs. near the Diamond. Y. C. picnic held at Hecla park Griesing's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John last Saturday. One of the principal features was the ball game between Clearfield and Jersey Shore, the latter winning by the score of 19 to 5. Every man who went to bat for Jerthe game. The Essex-Challenger where they remained until early in toona, were guests of Miss Anna M. that was given away went to Alex the week, guests of another of Mr. Dale, on Thursday. Miss Dale and Spence, of Clearfield.

-We have been using the new "Nittany" blend coffee in our home for a week and up to this writing no and paying six cents more a pound friends in Snyder county. for. "Nittany" is the coffee that Funeral services will be held in the Ohio, and Elizabeth M. Bowser, of home merchants are specializing in dered, Sunday evening, by the young Kathryn Dale enjoyed a day's out-Lewis W. Baylets, of Bellefonte, After all, good coffee depends very and Madeline A. Corl, of State Col- much on the way one makes it.

-Over 1800 children accompanied by Wetzler's boy's band of Milesburg, gathered in front of the Elk's ing to be transported to Hecla park ed. were free. It was a grand day in the isis. lives of the little folks.

adjourned for a recess on Wednesday to reassemble Sepember 19th, Fred Griesing.

plaining?

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

-Misses Mary Rankin and Winifred Up where the garter used to clasp'er, M. Gates motored over to Huntingdon, coats from Igorot, a gorgeous array on Wednesday, to attend the annual com- Up where 'twould shock the old-time mencement exercises at the Huntingdon reformatory, as guests of assistant superintendent and Mrs. A. B. Sutherland.

-Mr. and Mrs. Willis M. Bottorf and Wilkinsburg, for a one day's visit with Mr. Bottorf's brother, Hall, who has been Up, where it one time wasn't decent, considered seriously ill for a month or

-Mrs. Frank Warfield will leave today for Detroit, Mich., to spend an indefinite time there with her sister, Dr. Edith Schad and the Chaney family. Mrs. Chaney is Dr. Schad's daughter, at whose home Mrs. Warfield will be a guest

-Superintendent Walter T. McCormick Mystic Shrine, and is overflowing with jubilation over the many vonders of the burgh, has been visiting at the home west coast, as well as the trip out and

-Mr. and Mrs. J. Norman Sherer, of more, and one sister, Mrs. Clara Haven late Saturday evening but re- style scarves or even bright Balkan Reading, were here during the week, visiting with relatives and attending comwas brought to Bellefonte early Sun-Beautiful, too, are the lovely Armencement. Mrs. Sherer had been spend- of Jersey Shore, spent the week-end day morning and on Monday morn-menian laces and the bit of queer ing a short time with her sister, Mrs. at the home of W. F. Hall. her here at the home of her cousins, Mrs. Beach and Miss Blanchard.

-Mrs. M. A. Dreiblebis and her son ing at the home of Christy Schenk. Bruce spent part of Tuesday in Bellefonte attending to some business and to raise funds for new equipment and many reminders of olden times that Mrs. in receipts of over $300. from five to ten years to serve after inspection at any time, and visitors Bowersox has in her home on College Ave., is a copy of the New York Herald, of April 15, 1865. It is the edition of that paper that announced the assassination of President Lincoln. Aside from its value as an historic relic it is interesting as an exhibit of the manner in which newspaper makers "played up" startling

-Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Rote and spent on the homestead farm and on fine of $200 and three months in the gram, due to the fact that on Mon-their daughter Alice Anne, motored up day evening of next week an inter- from their home in Chestertown, Md., club meeting is to be held at the last Sunday and remained until Tuesday Centre Hills Country club, the clubs afternoon, visiting Mr. Rote's mother of Philipsburg, State College and and his brother and his wife at the old FOR A GLORIOUS FOURTH. Bellefonte planning for a gala night home at Axe Mann. Harry started to learn the printing trade in this office, but something switched him off to the held in the Seven mountains between now has a fine jewelry establishment in jeweler's bench, with the result that he at the piano and with various games. the Lewistown and Bellefonte clubs. Chestertown; whereas, if he had stuck here Refreshments were served and all de-The noon hour passed very pleas- he might only have worked up to a condiparted with many protestations of antly in a social and musical way, tion of concern as to where his next meal

AARONSBURG.

Mrs. Frazer, an old friend and former neighbor.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Hines had as match that will present seven bouts. Corl, of State College, were married uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Krell, of Altoona. week-end guests Mr. Hines' aunt and A. P. Maize, of Allentown, is at HOLLABAUGH.—Elliott Lytle dancing afternoon and evening, serve house, at noon on Saturday, by Rev. present the guest of his daughter,

> Mrs. A. J. Irey attended commencement at Bucknell University, Lewisburg, she being a graduate of

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Henry and keeping right with her party for the day with Mrs. Henry's parents, Mr.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Ardery and Charles Jr., Mr. and Mrs. George daughter, Miss Verna, of Bellefonte, Rhinhold and Miss Ethel Gotshall, of were brief callers at the home of Mrs. Sunbury; Mrs. M. C. Barry, of Phila- Ardery's sister, Mrs. George Weaver, > Mrs. Josiah Rossman will have public sale of her household goods, greeted friends in town over the Saturday. Her home she recently sold to Homer Hosterman who ex-

Mrs. Harry Haffley and children, of Altoona, were recent guests at the at Harford. homes of Mrs. Haffley's grandmother, Mrs. Jacob Harter and her parents-three of his children, Henry Stover, and prizes. sey Shore scored a run, even to the Mrs. Harry and Mrs. Stover Durst, two subs put in toward the end of motored to Akron, Ohio, Friday, Stover's daughters, Mr. and Mrs. her sister, Mrs. H. F. McGirk, spent Sterle Frazer.

roy, were brief guests, Sunday, of Aurand's uncle and aunt, Mr. one in our family has been able to and Mrs. A. S. Stover. Mr. and Mrs. discover that it isn't as good as an- and were enroute home from their Dale and daughters, Misses Marga-Aurand were but recently married other brand that we had been using honey-moon which they spent with

now. Take our advice and try it. people of the Reformed Sunday school, was well attended. Those who took part and those who had charge of the rehearsing and arrangement of the program are to be commended and congratulated for the manner in which the splendid program was brought out. It was one of home on High street yesterday morn- the very best the writer has witness-weeks ago was stricken with paraly-She leaves to mourn her passing two daughters, Misses Lottie and Larilla, a number of grand-children and other relatives. The funeral was -The special session of Congress held on Wednesday afternoon, conducted by her pastor, Rev. G. A.

-Congress is on vacation until the for the harvest then.

UP WHERE THE DRESS BEGINS

That's where the dress begins, jasper,

That's where the dress begins, Up, till the knee-cap is below it, (Knee-cap was there, though we didn't know it, Back in the days ere she chose to show it),

That's where the dress begins. That's where the dress begins,

Up higher yet in the days more recent, That's where the dress begins. Up where the mud will never splash it, Up where the -up where the-oh, well, dash it-

That's where the dress begins. -Strickland Gillilan in West Penn Life.

HOWARD.

Miss Helen Rogers is visiting at the home of S. J. Wolf.

Miss Eleanor Martin, of Pittsof J. W. Mayes.

Jason Snyder, of York, was a visitor at the home of his father-in-law, James Kane, last week.

Mrs. Barton and daughter Dorothy,

The Orviston ball team came to Howard in a very pretty game, 5 to 2. Mrs. Fort, of New Jersey, is visit-

The foot ball team held a festival doing a little shopping. Among the had a very successful evening, taking The "Win One" class of the Reformed church held their regular monthly business meeting, Wednesday evening, at the home of G. C. Painter. The class accepted an invitation to visit the Bible class of the Reformed church at Bellefonte, June 24th, and are going to hold a pie and cake sale June 29th, at the City -Mary Elizabeth Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Moore, of Howard, gave a delightful party, on Tuesday evening, to a number of her young friends in celebration of herthirteenth birthday anniversary. Her friend and school teacher, Mrs. Miller, helped entertain most successfully having spent a most enjoyable even-The Howard Public Health organization reports having held apti-toxine clinics during 1928 three times, at Mrs. J. J. Fiedler made a recent Howard, with an average of 153 pa-Mrs. Charles Wolf has as her guest of 58 patients, and at Eagleville with an average of 32 patients. A baby clinic was held every two weeks in which 53 babies were enrolled. There were 19 tonsil cases taken care of and 5 eye cases. Aid was given 7 flu cases and also to some of the sick of our community. There are 4 tonsil cases needing attention and 8 teeth cases. A festival will be held, Thursday evening, June 27th, at the High school building grounds of Howard. Everybody is urged to help make it a success. The money taken in will be used for those needing medical aid in our community. Donations in money will be gladly received to help along in the work of

the clinic. BOALSBURG

John Bricker, of State College, visited friends in town on Monday. Miss Beaulah Fortney spent last week with a party of Altoona friends, fishing in Potter county. Messrs. Paul and Frank Roberts, formerly residents of Boalsburg, week-end. Miss Gladys Hazel returned home, last week, after spending the past ten months teaching in the schools

I. J. Dreese, administrator of the estate of the late Joanna Kaup, will in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. Z. Haffley. offer at public sale, July 27th, the Rev. and Mrs. G. A. Fred Griesing Kaup residence and building lot,

The fourth annual Farmers-Kiwa-Wenner, of Los Angeles, Cal., who nis picnic was held at Boal Camp have come east on an excursion yesterday. Each family took a picwhich will be prolonged until Oc- nic dinner to the committee, coffee, sugar and cream being provided. A. A. Stover, accompanied by There was community singing, games

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. McGirk, with their son Millard and family, of Althe week-end visiting at the home Mr. and Mrs. Paul Aurand, of Mil- of Henry L. Dale, at Mifflinburg. Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Hess and daughters, Misses Anna Mary and Virginia; Mr. and Mrs. Edgar ret and Marian, and son Frederic; John S. Dale, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin The Children's day program ren- Dale, Rachel Hunter, Ellen and ing at Woodward cave, last week.

Mr. Benjamin F. Fisher, of Schenectady, N. Y., accompanied by his cousin, Mrs. Fannie Robb, was a caller in town on Saturday. Mr. Fisher was a member of the class of 1896 at Penn State and holds the position of general manager of the department of the Bell research Electric Co. In addition to the short On Sunday, about noon, the death time spent in town with his cousins, Mr. Fisher also attended commencement at Penn State.

> -Only six cars were at the curb market, Wednesday morning, and the principal offering was strawberries at 20 cents the quart. Notwithstanding the fact that the supply was large the most of them were sold before seven o'clock.

-Static has been an abomination Of course it's hot, but this is middle of September. It is presum- to radio fans for many years, and burg.