

PATIENTS TREATED

AT COUNTY HOSPITAL
Mrs. Ida Willis, of Union township, surgical patient, was discharged Wednesday of last week.
Miss Elizabeth Wolfe, daughter of Amner Wolfe, of Howard, underwent surgical treatment last week, and was admitted on Thursday and discharged on Friday.
Miss Emily Keatley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Keatley, of Union township, was a surgical patient last week, having been admitted on Thursday and discharged on Friday.
Algy Henderson, of Bellefonte, became a medical patient on Thursday last week.
Carlton Hickok, of Benner township, had a hernia operation on Thursday last week, having been admitted on Thursday and discharged on Friday.
Fearon Struble, of College township, was discharged on Thursday of last week, after having been a medical patient for the past month.
Mrs. Robert Shive, of Snow Shoe, was admitted on Friday for surgical treatment.
Madeline Witmer, eight-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Witmer, of State College, was admitted on Friday for surgical treatment.
Miss Helen Schreffler, of Pleasant Gap, a student nurse at the hospital, was admitted on Saturday for medical treatment.
Scott Houser, of State College, was admitted on Sunday for surgical treatment.
Charles Butler, of Bellefonte, was admitted on Saturday for medical treatment.
Daniel Moore, of Julian, was discharged on Saturday after having undergone surgical treatment for the last several weeks.
James F. Vonada, of Coburn, was discharged on Saturday after having undergone medical treatment.
Mrs. Norma Gotwalk, of Buffalo, N. Y., was discharged on Saturday after having undergone several weeks' surgical treatment.
John Mangino, of Snow Shoe, was admitted on Saturday for medical treatment.
Raymond Long, seven-year-old son of Mrs. Sallie Long, of Madisonburg, was admitted on Saturday for surgical treatment.
Mrs. Rosie Immel, of Bellefonte, was discharged on Sunday after having a surgical patient.
David Keatley, of Unionville, was discharged on Saturday after being a medical patient for a week.
There were thirty-four patients in the hospital at the beginning of this week.
Miss Beatrice Myers, of State College, is a surgical patient, having been admitted on Tuesday of last week.

AARONSBURG.

Edna Taylor, of State College, is the guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Bower, on Main street.
Sunday evening and night we were blessed with a delightful rain, which was much needed and gratefully received.
H. C. Stricker spent Sunday with his family here. He was accompanied by a party of relatives from Yeagertown.
Mrs. Warren Bower, after a few weeks' visit with her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. A. Bower, in Bellefonte, arrived home Saturday evening.
Homer Hosterman and family are now occupying their recently purchased property, that of Mrs. Josiah Rossman, on west Main street.
The community festival held on the school grounds, Saturday evening, was a success. Those who had charge are to be congratulated.
George Spayd, of Clyde, Ohio, was seen in town, Monday. While here he called on his uncle, R. E. Stover, and his aunts, Mrs. Gramley and Mrs. John Durst.
Mrs. Samuel Mowery, Miss Yarger and Miss Amanda Haines are enjoying their short vacations, having come down from State College, to which place they expect to return soon.
Mrs. John Rupp, son and daughter motored down from State College, Sunday, and were supper guests at the home of Mrs. Rupp's nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Hines, on Main street.
Mrs. C. C. Bell, Mrs. F. B. Patton, Margaret Bell and C. Earl Bell motored over from Huntingdon, Sunday, and spent a few hours at the home of Mrs. Bell's sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hull.
The Children's day services held in the Evangelical church, Sunday evening, were a great success. Those who had charge of the program and those who took part are to be congratulated on the manner in which the work was done.
The Woman's Missionary society of the Reformed church entertained the Girls Guild at a picnic dinner, Thursday of last week, at Halcy John's park. The day was spent in the usual manner, everyone seeming to enjoy the great outdoors.
Mr. and Mrs. John Haines accompanied Mrs. Haines' brother, Mr. and Mrs. George Hosterman, of Milton, Ohio, where they were guests from Friday until Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Haines.
Mr. and Mrs. John A. Weimer, of Los Angeles, Cal., are guests for the summer of Rev. and Mrs. G. A. Fred Greising, at the Reformed parsonage. Mr. and Mrs. Weimer are the parents of Mrs. Griesing and are natives of Hazleton, Pa. They have for the past nine years been located in Los Angeles, and this is their first trip to Pennsylvania since going to California.

PINE GROVE MENTIONS.

Rev. J. S. English made a motor trip to Harrisburg, on Monday.
Our ball team was enriched $100 by their festival, Saturday evening.
Mr. and Mrs. Guy Kerstetter are receiving congratulations over the arrival of a son.
Mr. and Mrs. George W. Detwiler, of Altoona, were Sunday callers at the L. Dale Musser home.
Dr. and Mrs. Henry Clay Campbell, of Philadelphia, were recent visitors with friends in the valley.
Alonzo Ke'ler, son of J. M. Keller, of Pittsburgh, with one of his chums, is here on a vacation with relatives.
A. W. Struble has recovered sufficiently from a long illness to be able to be up and around his home.
Children's day services in the Pine Hall Lutheran church, Sunday morning, attracted a large congregation.
After a three week's visit among relatives hereabouts Paul Roop and family have returned to their home at Pitcairn.
Miss Anna Mary Corl, who was recently discharged from the Clearfield hospital, is visiting friends in Dauphin county.
The Ladies Aid of the Pine Hall Reformed church will hold a festival tomorrow evening. The Citizens band will furnish music.
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kustaborder, of Warriorsburg, passed through here, on Sunday, on their way to visit friends at Reedsville.
A number of motor accidents took place in this section during the week. Fortunately no one was badly hurt but there are a number of damaged cars.
Mrs. C. C. Williams entertained Miss Mary Gardner's junior class of the I. W. T. missionary band at her home on the Branch, on Wednesday afternoon.
A terrific wind and rain storm passed over the White Hall section, on Monday, uprooting large oak trees on the J. H. Bailey farm and doing other damage.
Grant Ellenberger came up from Duncasville, Sunday morning, and took home his two daughters, Thelma and Doretha, to take part in Children's day services that evening.
Mr. and Mrs. Randall Dunlap and family, of Cherry Tree, were Sunday visitors with relatives in town, leaving their daughter Ruth here with her aunt, Miss Kathryn Dunlap.
Samuel E. Goss and wife, of Reading, attended commencement exercises at Penn State, where their son Jack was one of the graduates. The young man had a job awaiting his return home.
Mr. and Mrs. George Rudy and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rudy and son Charles spent the week-end with Misses Isabel and Mary Louise Henderson, at their summer home near the Cook forest.
Dr. S. S. McCormick and wife motored up from Hublersburg, on Sunday, and enjoyed the cool breezes and sparkling waters at Tussey Lodge. Later they were guests at a family dinner served by the Dannie sisters.
A large swarm of honey bees came to rest on one of the shade trees at the Dr. Woods home, Sunday afternoon, and for several hours had full possession of that portion of the grounds. Finally Mr. Heffner, bee expert, came to the rescue, hived the bees and as no claimant appeared, added them to his bee colony.
David Reed, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Reed, has gone to Mont Alto for a six week's course in forestry. He was accompanied there by his parents, who visited the Gettysburg battle field before returning home. The elder Reed, by the way, had five brothers in the Civil war, all of whom have answered the last roll call.

BOALSBURG

Miss Dorothy Whitecar, of Millheim, was a visitor in town Tuesday.
Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Jones, of State College, were callers in town on Friday evening.
Miss Winifred Armstrong went to Lewistown, Monday morning, for an indefinite visit.
Mr. and Mrs. Walter Korman, of Oak Hall, spent Sunday evening at the Snyder-Rishel home.
Mr. and Mrs. John Ishler and Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Meyer attended the funeral of William Ishler, on Friday.
Mr. and Mrs. Norman Dale and daughter, Jane, of Montrose, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Dale, last week.
Mr. and Mrs. David Stuart and daughter, Martha, of Crafton, were week-end visitors at the home of Mrs. E. E. Stuart.
The Children's day service in the Reformed church, Sunday evening, was well rendered, although because of the threatening storm the attendance was small.
Miss Helen Bartholomew accompanied by Mrs. Mary Weber, Miss Mary Weber and several other friends, from Centre Hall, visited Miss Annie Lohr, on Sunday. Miss Lohr is quite ill.
Mrs. Jack Norris, of Altoona, and Mr. and Mrs. Patchey were visitors at the George Fisher home, on Friday, and were accompanied home by Mrs. Annie Rine, who will visit for an indefinite time with her daughter, Mrs. Norris.
Misses Ellen and Cathryn Dale and Sarah Bohn, of the Lutheran Sunday school, and Mr. and Mrs. George E. Meyer, Misses Alice Reitz and Catherine Lucas, of the Reformed, attended the Sunday school convention at Blanchard on Friday.
The Harold Fisher home, at Sunnyside, was discovered to be on fire Thursday noon. A call was sent to the State College Fire Co. and their quick response, no doubt, saved the house from destruction. Considerable damage was done to the interior of the structure. Defective electric wiring was given as the alleged cause of the fire.

HOWARD.

Emma Tice is home for her summer vacation.
Mrs. Hoffman, of State College, was in town Sunday.
Mrs. Lucy Schenk celebrated her 75th birthday Monday.
Prof. Torrence Lyons was home from Pittsburgh, Sunday.
Prof. J. C. Weirick and wife, of Abington, were home Sunday.
Miss Nellie Watt, of Williamsport, spent Sunday at her mother's home.
Rhue DeHaas, of Lansford, is spending a few days at her mother's home.
Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kamp, of Pittsburgh, are visiting Mrs. J. S. Holter.
Charles Schenk came home from North Carolina, Monday, on a business trip.
Mr. Shirey, of Pottstown, was a week-end visitor at the home of William Schenk.
Mrs. Carrol Schenk and daughter Dorothy, of Clearfield, are visiting friends here.
Anna Muffley and Lulu Schenk were in Clearfield, Sunday, to visit Josephine Muffley.
Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Moke were Sunday visitors at the home of D. F. Smith, at Centre Hall.
Mr. and Mrs. William Smith of Harrisburg, were week-end visitors at the home of Mrs. Gass.
Mrs. Kingsley and daughter Katherine spent Sunday with Mrs. Kingsley's son, Briggs Kingsley.
Mr. and Mrs. Long and Gertrude Pletcher, of New York, are visiting at the home of Milo Leach.
Robert Swanson and Kenneth Ekendahl, of Renovo, are visitors at the home of C. F. Ekendahl.
Saturday the band will go to Clintondale and on July 4th they play at Osceola at the firemen's carnival.
Margaret Caskey, of Renovo, and Miss Kane, and brother, of Brookville, are visiting at the Smith home.
Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Mayes motored to Ebensburg, last week, to attend the Guernsey Breeder's association picnic.
Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Ekendahl and children motored to Chambersburg, Sunday, to visit Mr. Ekendahl's brother John.
Dr. Whalen, of Johnstown, who delivered the baccalaureate sermon at Howard commencement, dropped dead Sunday.
On Saturday the ball team entertained Clintondale in a heavy hitting game, and were victors nine to eight, in ten innings.
Three bus loads of children from here attended the Elks kiddies day at Hecla park, last Thursday, and surely had an enjoyable time.
Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Pletcher, Mrs. M. F. Pletcher and Mrs. D. B. Gardner motored to Altoona, Monday, to visit Henry Johnston, who is ill.
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lyman and family, of Coudersport, were Sunday visitors at the home of Mrs. Lyman's mother, Mrs. G. L. Williams.

UNIONVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Swanhack and daughter, of Wilkes-Barre, and Mrs. Sarah Wise, of Williamsport, are visiting at the home of A. M. Butler.
Mrs. Mary Etta Painter, and Miss Geraldine Lauth, of Altoona, and Miss Grace Foster, of Kittanning, are visiting at the home of George C. Painter.
Thursday evening the married men got a ball team together to play a game with our regular team, and due to the fine pitching of Marion Pletcher walked away with the game five to three.
Mrs. Clara Boileau, of Spokane, Wash., left for home, Sunday, after a visit with her sister, Mrs. Weber. She intends to stop off at Minneapolis, Minn., for a visit with her nephew, Walter Dahl.
Prof. and Mrs. R. R. Welch, of Willow Grove, were home, Sunday. Mr. Welch goes to Philadelphia, Saturday, to resume his duties as principal of the elementary department of Girard College for the summer session.
The three week's session of Bible school which has been held at the High school building, under the auspices of the various churches of Bellefonte, will close this morning. Close to two hundred children have been in attendance daily.
IN THE CHURCHES ON SUNDAY.
PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
The Honorable M. Ward Fleming, president judge, will make the "Support the President Day" address at the union service to be held in the Presbyterian church this coming Sunday evening, June 30th, at 7:30 o'clock.
Special music of a patriotic nature by the men's chorus of the Presbyterian church.
All citizens of Bellefonte and community are invited to attend.
Rev. W. C. Thompson, Pastor.
ST. JOHN'S LUTHERAN CHURCH.
9:30 A. M., Bible school.
10:45 A. M., Eighty-fifth anniversary of the beginnings of the Lutheran church in Bellefonte.
7:30 P. M., The congregation joins with other congregations in the patriotic service in the Presbyterian church.
Clarence E. Arnold, pastor.
EVANGELICAL CHURCH
Sunday school at 9:15, Wm. Osman Supt. Morning worship with sermon by the pastor at 10:30. At this time there will also be a baptismal service for children.
E. I. C. E. at 6:30, Red Arrow meeting.
Evening service at 7:30. Sermon to young people. The Misses Garbrick will play a violin duet. Everybody welcome.
A. Ward Campbell, Pastor.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

FOR RENT—5 room apartment with all modern conveniences. Call Bell phone 231J, Bellefonte. 74-26-2t

LOTS FOR SALE in Bellefonte, inquire of B. H. Shaffer, 117 east High St., Bellefonte. 73-13-1t.

WANTED—for month of July, furnished house suitable for family of four. Address Mrs. F. V. HODGES, Curtin, Pa. 74-24-2t

FOR SALE—Great bargain. Buick sport Roadster, 1928 model, good condition. Good reasons for selling. Inquire at Hafer Garage, State College or Beauty Garage, Bellefonte. 74-15-1t

WANTED—Woman for general housework in family of two, in the country, twelve miles from Bellefonte and eight miles from State College. No work in connection with farm. Apply to Watchman office. 74-25-3t.

EXECUTOR'S NOTICE—Letters testamentary upon the estate of Joseph W. Beezer, late of Bellefonte borough, deceased, having been granted to the undersigned all persons knowing themselves indebted to said estate are requested to make prompt payment, and those having claims against the same must present them, duly authenticated, for settlement. BEN J. BEEZER, RUSSELL P. BEEZER, Executors, Bellefonte, Pa. W. Harrison Walker, Attorney. 74-26-6t

AUDITOR'S NOTICE—In the matter of the estate of Joseph D. Diehl, late of Howard Boro, deceased, in the Orphans' Court of Centre county. Notice is hereby given that the said Court has appointed the undersigned Auditor to pass upon the exceptions to the second and final account of M. I. Gardner and Rena Z. Diehl, Administrators of said decedent, and to make a distribution of the funds in the hands of said Administrators to and among those legally entitled thereto, and for that purpose a hearing will be held at the office of said Auditor at No. 20, Crier's Exchange building, second floor, north Allegheny street, Bellefonte, Penna., on Monday, the 29th day of July, A. D. 1928, at 10 o'clock A. M., when and where all parties interested may present their claims or forever be debarred from coming in on said fund. WILIAM GROH RUNKLE, Auditor. 74-26-3t

A. W. KEICHLINE
Registered Architect,
74-23-4m BELLEFONTE, PA

Enjoy Summer This Year!

IT'S no longer necessary to mope through June, July and August with a grudge against the weather man; Enjoy the Summer!

Really, it's easy. Just walk into our store and we'll do the rest.

Cool, comfortable clothes that keep you in a good humor and at the peak of efficiency all through the "dog days." And without sacrifice of style or smart appearance.

Don't wait until the thermometer hits 92,—come in now and prepare.

Faule's