

PINE GROVE MENTION.

W. R. Port and wife are visiting old friends at Huntingdon.

James Frank, of Williamsport, is visiting his sister, Mrs. H. N. Walker.

Guy Kocher, wife and two children, registered at the St. Elmo, on Saturday.

Morris Smith, of Altoona, spent the Fourth with his mother, Mrs. Clara Smith.

W. H. Henney and wife, of Centre Hall, spent Sunday at the James Kline home.

Ed Bowersox, of Philadelphia, has been here on his annual visit with relatives in the valley.

G. B. M. Fry is housed up as the result of an attack of heat prostration, but is on the mend.

Ralph Musser came up from Mill Hall and spent Sunday with his family, at Rock Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. Collins Noll and baby girl, of Williamsburg, were Sunday visitors at the M. C. Wieland home.

Warren R. Bailey spent his 75th anniversary, July 4th, with his sister, Mrs. Esther Gregory, in Altoona.

Mrs. Ella VanTries, of Altoona, spent several days last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elias Shoemaker.

Mrs. Alice Magoffin, of Hollidaysburg, spent the week-end at the home of her brother, Dr. G. H. Woods.

Frank Bryan, wife and son Robert, of Tyrone, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fry, at Fairbrook, last Friday.

David Markle, of Altoona, and Mr. and Mrs. Tinney, of Lock Haven, were Sunday guests at the J. A. Fortney home.

Preaching in Pine Grove Methodist church Sunday evening, at 7:30. Everybody invited and welcome to come. Special music.

During an electric storm, last Friday, lightning struck and killed the prize bull in the herd of Fred Walls, on the Branch.

Prof. M. E. Heberling and wife were here, on Sunday, to see Dr. R. N. Krebs, and took him out for a short motor trip.

Mrs. Isaac Rider, of Gatesburg, was taken to the Danville State hospital, on Wednesday, by poor overseer J. M. Campbell.

Mrs. W. R. Dale and daughter, of Lake Worth, Fla., are visiting Mrs. Dale's mother, Mrs. Morgan Reynolds, who has been ill.

Holy communion will be celebrated in the Presbyterian church at 10:30 o'clock Sunday morning. Preparatory service Friday evening.

Miss Ella Livingstone went down to Ocean Grove, last week, to spend the summer months, as has been her custom for a number of years.

The Glades school house, which has been abandoned through consolidation of schools, will be sold at public sale on July 27th, at 2 o'clock p. m.

Charles Gates, who spent last week at his parental home on Wall street, has returned to his home, at East Tyrone, where he anticipates landing a good job.

Prof. Lenhart and wife, accompanied by Misses Sue and Sadie Danley, motored to Hublersburg and spent the Fourth at the Dr. S. S. McCormick home.

Mrs. W. H. Goss is spending a month with relatives in Tyrone and later expects to go to Altoona to visit her sister, Mrs. Maggie Meek, who is 88 years old.

George and Preston Auman, of Philadelphia, are here for a fortnight at the 'Squire E. H. Auman home, getting their lungs filled with fresh Centre county air.

Miss Dorothy English and lady friend motored up from Harrisburg and spent the latter part of the week at the Lutheran parsonage, guests of Rev. and Mrs. J. S. English.

Irvin H. Keller is here from Pittsburgh, for a hot weather vacation and at the same time planning the erection of an addition to his mother's home so as to make it large enough for two families.

Mrs. Mary Meyers spent the 4th with her sister, Mrs. Whitmer, who celebrated her 67th anniversary with a big dinner. She was the recipient of a gift for each year of her life, for which she is duly thankful.

The Shoemaker Bros tried out their new moving van, last week, by taking a big fitting from State College to Harrisburg and bringing back a load of stuff for a construction company now at work at State College.

Prof. A. L. Bowersox and two daughters, Florence and Pearl, motored over from State College, on Sunday afternoon, to help swell the crowd at the concert at the Imperial Inn, given by the State College High school band.

Mr. Fore and family, of Altoona, spent the Fourth at the A. F. Fry home, at Fairbrook, where Mrs. Fry served a big dinner to a number of friends. Among the guests were Mrs. Sallie Burwell and two daughters, Mary and Ethel.

Mr. and Mrs. John S. Dale have returned from their wedding trip and are now at home to their friends, at State College. On Monday Mrs. Dale motored to Pine Grove in her new car and made a call on Mrs. Viola Smith.

A branch of the American Red Cross was organized at a meeting at the home of Mrs. Nellie Miller, on Friday evening. Twelve members were enrolled. Headquarters have been established at the home of Mrs. Ida Williams, on east Main street, where all future meetings will be held.

Plans are now being formulated for holding another reunion of students of the old Pine Grove Academy, which will be the fourth such gathering. The date has been set for Saturday, July 27th. Any information regarding the whereabouts of any such students will be greatly appreciated by the committee in charge.

John Horner and Miss Edna Crouch motored to Hollidaysburg, on Saturday, where they were married by Rev. Kemp. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Earl Louck. They returned to the bride's home, in Stonevalley, where a wedding dinner was served.

William Heninger, of Oak Grove, and Miss Anne Frank, of Stonevalley, slipped away to Cumberland, Md., last week, where they were married. Returning they went to the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alf. Heninger, where a kitchen shower was given the bride on Friday evening.

The Goss and Neidigh clans spent the 4th at the John Quincy Adams camp, near Spruce Creek, where they made the eagle scream. Of course the big dinner was the main feature, after which everybody spent the afternoon just as they chose. There were enough left-overs from dinner to furnish all an ample supper. The dean of the gathering was 85-year-old J. H. Neidigh.

Frank Goodhart and wife and Henry Potter and wife, of Centre Hall, spent July 5th at the home of the venerable W. E. McWilliams, at Rock Spring, who that day celebrated his 81st birthday anniversary. Mrs. T. E. Musser served a big dinner for the occasion. Forty-two years of Mr. McWilliams' life was spent in the employ of Uncle Sam, carrying the mail. He is still in fairly good health.

A family dinner at the Hon. and Mrs. J. W. Kepler home, on Sunday, included, J. W. Jr., of New York; Mrs. Mary Coombs, of Philadelphia, and Miss Katherine, of Washington, D. C. When the latter left for the national capital, on Monday, she was accompanied by her mother, who will spend a week in Washington seeing the sights. From there she will go to Philadelphia for a visit with Mrs. Coombs, then on to New York city and later visit Atlantic City.

HOWARD.

The band carnival at Howard week of July 22nd.

Mrs. Edith Bennison is driving a new Nash car.

The Methodists are installing their new pipe organ.

Mr. Shorhey has moved his family here from Tyrone.

Rev. Howard Robb, of Export, is home for a few days.

Mrs. Martha Stoltz, of Muncy, is at the home of Tom Stoltz.

Lester Bowes, of Cleveland, Ohio, is visiting relatives here.

Prof. Lloyd A. Kemp, of Kutztown, was a Howard visitor last week.

Miss Clara Kurtz, of Williamsport, is visiting at the home of Dr. Kurtz.

Charles Bowers and wife, of Reading, visited his father, Samuel Bowers.

I. B. Fletcher and family, of Pittsburgh, were home for the 4th of July.

Mr. and Mrs. Carey, of Harrisburg, visited Rev. and Mrs. J. F. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kunds and son, of Toledo, Ohio, are visiting friends here.

Mrs. Rachel Williams, of Harrisburg, is visiting at the home of Henry Williams.

Mrs. Albert Beighdol and daughter, of Altoona, are visitors at the Lighthamers.

John Moke, David Holter and J. W. Mays and family were at Ebensburg fair last week.

Mrs. Sarah Silleman, a missionary in India, is visiting at the home of her brother, Dr. Kurtz.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Ivons, of Langhorne, were visitors at the home of Mrs. J. S. Fletcher.

Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Cauffel, of Johnstown, were week-end visitors at the home of Mrs. Stella Williams.

Mr. Earnest Burroughs and family of Clarksburg, W. Va., visited Mrs. Burroughs' father, Mr. C. A. Walizer.

Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Worrick, of Mackeyville, and Mrs. Stover, of Mill Hall, called at the home of W. H. McDowell.

Saturday evening, July 13, our ball team will hold a festival at the play grounds. Music will be furnished by the Orviston band.

Robt Keith was injured in an auto wreck, July 4th, and was taken to the Lock Haven hospital, but was able to come home Sunday.

Guy Thompson, of Elizabethtown, and Katherine Thompson, of New York, are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Winfield Thompson.

Addison Wagner, Geo. Lucas, Harold Confer and John Moke are at Fort Howard, C. M. T. C., and Lewis Dorman and John Weber are at Fort Monroe.

Mr. Harry Williams and family, Mrs. Glenna Williams, Mrs. Conner, Ray Askins and Mr. Peters, all of Altoona, spent Sunday with Mrs. Catherine Williams.

D. M. Waite and family, of Pittsburgh, spent the week-end with Mrs. Waite's mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Confer. Mrs. Confer returned to Pittsburgh with them for a visit.

Thursday, June 27th, Howard played Rebersburg and defeated them 15-4. J. Pletcher was leading batter with 4 hits. Saturday, June 29, Howard journeyed to Clintondale and beat them 9 to 0. Cummings pitched a nice game, holding Clintondale to 5 hits. Sunday, June 30, Howard went to Snow Shoe and took over the fast traveling Snow Shoe team 6 to 5. Kline stuck out 12 men and held Snow Shoe to 4 hits. Last Saturday Blanchard came to Howard and were victorious 10 to 4.

—A refrigerator below and a gas range above, freezing and cooking on the same floor space. See this combination marvel operating in our show window now. Central Penna Gas Co.

AARONSBURG.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Armagast had as a guest Mr. Armagast's son John, of Buffalo, N. Y.

Mrs. Anna M. Stover had as a guest her niece, Mrs. Fred Cranson, of Plainfield, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Stover, of Williamsport, were recent callers at the home of Mrs. John Wolf.

Harold and Bright Orwig came up from Northumberland and spent the 4th with their mother, Mrs. W. E. Orwig.

Mrs. Paul Krape has returned home from the Geisinger hospital, Danville, where she underwent a tonsil operation.

Mrs. A. W. Winkleblech, who had been a surgical patient in the Lock Haven hospital, returned home, much improved in health.

Paul Stover, who occupied one part of Mrs. Harry Lane's house, has moved to the Meyer farm, which his father expects to tenant in the spring.

Mrs. Emma Beaver, her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Osman, of Williamsport, were guests, Sunday, of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Stover.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Vonada and children, of Bellefonte, and Mrs. Campbell, of Lock Haven, were Sunday callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Crouse.

Mrs. William Guisevite went to New York city, Saturday night, and returned Sunday night. She spent the time while there with her daughter, Mrs. Fred Rachau.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Weaver and family, of Buffalo, N. Y., were week-end guests of Mr. Weaver's sister, Mrs. Blanche Ard, and other relatives in and about town.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Irely and children, of Milwaukee, Wis., arrived in town, Sunday evening, and are guests of Mr. Irely's mother, Mrs. A. J. Irely, at the Musser homestead.

Mrs. George McKay and daughter, Miss Florence, of Philadelphia, motored up, on Saturday night, and are guests of Mrs. McKay's mother, Mrs. W. H. Phillips, on Main St.

Mrs. George Weaver accompanied her brother-in-law, E. E. Artery and family, of Bellefonte, to Akron, Ohio, where they are visiting their only brother, Clymer Stover and family.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. King had as guests, on the 4th, their son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Henry and four children, of Milroy; Mrs. King's sister, Mrs. Sadie Witherite, and Mr. and Mrs. Smith and four children, and Russell Green, of LaJesse, Mr. and Mrs. Graham, of Clearfield.

Mrs. Charles Wolf had with her her children and grandchildren, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Miller and two sons, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cummings and daughter of Woodlawn; Carl Frazier, Ellsworth Frazier, Mrs. William A. Gettig and son Martin and Miss McCandless, of Ellwood City.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Stover has as recent guests their granddaughter, Miss Elizabeth Stover, of Dauphin; their nephew, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kreamer and son and Mrs. Kreamer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Helvy, of Jersey Shore, and Mr. and Mrs. William Odenkirk and two daughters, of Centre Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hull had as callers, on Sunday, Mr. Hull's brother-in-law, J. W. Adams and daughter, Mrs. Helen Holder and son, John Robert, and Mr. and Mrs. Prough, of Huntingdon; Mr. and Mrs. G. Z. Kern, of Madisonburg; Mrs. William A. Gettig and son Martin and Miss McCandless, of Ellwood City.

Mrs. Walter E. Orwig received word, Monday, of the serious condition of Mr. Orwig, who more than a week ago was badly burned while at work. He is in the Sacred Heart hospital, Allentown, and is receiving the best possible attention. His many friends hope the next word received he will be greatly improved.

Clarence Eisenhauer and nephew, Billy Auman, of Youngstown, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Philip Eisenhauer and their sons, Kenneth and Robert and Mrs. Ripka, of Akron, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Merrill T. Eisenhauer and two sons, Francis and Richard, of Bellefonte, were recent guests of their mother, Mrs. J. G. Eisenhauer, on Main St.

WINGATE

Mrs. Frank Peters is ill with an attack of heart trouble.

Florenz Walker, wife and daughter Helen, of DuBois, were Wingate visitors on Sunday.

Mrs. Walter Johnson and little son Boyd, of Tyrone, were brief visitors here on Monday evening.

George Confer and little granddaughter, of Blanchard, spent a short time with friends here on Monday evening.

The condition of Ralph McLaughlin, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis, at the Centre County hospital, is very much improved.

While on a motor trip through this section of the State Mr. and Mrs. Fasnacht, of Akron, Ohio, spent a brief time with Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Davidson, on Monday.

Mrs. Irwin and two daughters, Mrs. Florence Lucas and Miss Edna Irwin, and Donald Irwin, motored over to Osceola Mills, last Thursday, to witness the Fourth of July celebration held there.

On Monday morning, about 10:30 o'clock, a big truck said to be from Clearfield, crowded a Ford coupe, in which were two young men, off the road at the intersection of the mountain road with the Bald Eagle highway. The driver of the Ford, in an attempt to avoid a collision, ran into an oak tree with the result that his car turned turtle and landed upside down. Fortunately neither of the young men were injured to any extent but the Ford was badly wrecked. The driver of the truck did not stop and got away before the number of his license tags could be ascertained.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

IRA D. GARMAN
JEWELER
1420 Chestnut St.,
PHILADELPHIA
Have Your Diamonds Reset in Platinum
74-27-1f Exclusive Emblem Jewelry

NOW
You can visit
Washington
traveling quickly and comfortably by Motor
Coach for $700

over the scenic and historic National Highway, or Baltimore
for $625
Reduced Rates for Parties of Five

Special circular tours
arranged to
GETTYSBURG
ANNAPOLIS
ARLINGTON
SHENANDOAH VALLEY

Write For Illustrated
Booklet T
The
BLUE
RIDGE
TRANSPORTATION
COMPANY
972 LIBERTY AVENUE
PITTSBURGH

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

FOR SALE—Great bargain. Buick sport Roadster, 1928 model, good condition. Good reasons for selling. Inquire at Hafer Garage, State College or Beatty Garage, Bellefonte, 74-15-1f

A. W. KEICHLINE
Registered Architect,
74-23-4m
BELLEFONTE, PA

Used Cars!

YOU can find the Greatest Dollar to Dollar Values in our Used Car Department that this vicinity has ever known. Remember, all Cars listed below are in running condition, good for many miles of service. You can be the proud owner of one of these Fine Used Cars at the price you want to pay.

All have a Guarantee.

1923 Star Touring	$ 15.00
1925 Jewett Sedan 4-Door
1923 Nash "6" Cyl. Touring	40.00
1927 Ford Coach
1924 Ford Coupe	50.00
1926 Chrysler Coupe	250.00
1925 Chevrolet Coach
1923 Chevrolet Coach completely overhauled	65.00
1927 Chevrolet Coach fully equipped
1923 Hudson Coach all good tires	50.00
1927 Ford Coupe	175.00
1926 Chevrolet Roadster	140.00
1926 Overland Coach "6" cylinder down-payt.	110.00
1928 Chevrolet Coupe looks like new
1926 Ford Roadster small down payment	64.00
1928 Chevrolet 1 1/2 Ton Truck 4 wheel brakes 4-speed transmission, looks like new, run only 2000 miles, fully guaranteed. (Open Express) Down-payment $210. Balance GMAC terms.

If You Want an Automobile
Do Not Miss These Bargains

Decker Chevrolet Co.

Cor. Spring and High Sts.,
BELLEFONTE, PA
Phone 405

BELLEFONTE COOKS ELECTRICALLY
.. here is why!

Electric cooking cuts food costs . . .

The food in your market basket goes farther when it's cooked electrically. For the electric oven is so tightly sealed against evaporation that about 20 per cent less shrinkage takes place. Meats retain their savory juices, fruits and vegetables their most appetizing and nourishing elements. Your family will compliment you on the richly browned, juicy roasts . . . the tempting vegetables . . . the fruity desserts that make up your electric oven-cooked meals. And you can pride yourself on cutting food costs. Economy of food, however, is just one saving that electric cooking makes for you. It saves your time and energy by watching and tending itself. Once the meal is in the oven, the time and temperature controls set, you do not need to go into the kitchen again until serving time. It saves current by storing up heat. Cooking goes on after the current is automatically shut off. Cook electrically for economy!

WEST PENN POWER CO