Aentocratic Watchman. Bellefonte, Pa., August 2, 1929. Editor GRAY MEEK,

To Correspondents.—No communications published unless accompanied by the real name of the writer.

Terms of Subscription.—Until further otice at the following rates: Paid strictly in advance - $1.50 Paid before expiration of year - 1.75 Paid after expiration of year - 2.00

Published weekly, every Friday morn-ing. Entered at the postoffice, Bellefonte, Pa., as second class matter.

In ordering change of address always five the old as well as the new address. It is important that the publisher be no-tified when a subscriber wishes the paper discontinued. In all such cases the sub-scription must be paid up to date of can-cellation.

A sample copy of the "Watchman" will be sent without cost to applicants.

FIFTY YEARS AGO

August 1st, 1879.

Jonathan Harper are off on a trip to negligent of her duties in the social contain in experiments, results and Milton formerly of Bellefonte, is visiting the terian church and an active worker the public will hasten to take ad-family of Adam Hoy Esq., in this in the congregation. She was a mem- vantage of this splendid offer giving place. Her many friend are glad to see her back.

Joe, took in the seashore last week, reaching home on Monday.

who has one of the finest places and most delightful residences in the county, was in town on Wednesday. The Doctor has retired from the practice of his profession but will attend in critical cases. He is a fine physician and a most hospitable gentleman. His house is the resort of many visitors who are always handsomely entertained by the Doctor and Mrs. Stewart.

The police raided a house of ill fame on Thomas street, Monday while sitting in an arm chair on the night, and arrested three or four ne- front porch of his home, as the regroes and two white women. At the hearing next morning 'Squire Rankin sent Bill and Alec Delige to jail for trial at court and when he did so some negro women who were present at the hearing started a free-for-all fight. When it ended the 'Squire sent within forty-five minutes. them to jail, too.

There was a pleasant parlor hop at the Bush house Tuesday evening.

her home Tuesday evening.

The new brick building on High street being erected by Judge Irvin, will be quite a handsome structure

MAIRS .- Mrs. Charlotte M. Mairs, STATE TO BE REPRESENTED wife of Professor Thomas I. Mairs, AT GRANGE ENCAMPMENT. of State College, passed away at the

The premium book for the big Centre County hospital, on Wednesday evening of last week. She had Grange Encampment and Fair, which been ill for several months but her will be held at Grange Park, Centre hour, on Tuesday, when she was hit ecuted the papers are all drawn and condition did not develop into a seri- Hall, the week of August 24th to and knocked down by a Dodge tour- ready for the signatures. The Mcous form until a week previous to 30th, will be distributed within the ing car driven by John Barnes, of Coys and Van Pelts will move to the her death. In fact it was not until next week or ten days. From it will Pleasant Gap. The accident happen- old McCoy mansion at the "Iron Sunday, July 21st, that she was be seen that the management has been fortunate, this year, in securbrought to the hospital.

Mrs. Mairs was a daughter of ing six different State departmental Elijah E. and Maria Shrader Riley exhibits which will add to the interand was born at Coatsburg, Ill., on est of the gathering.

December 4th, 1875, hence was in A portion of the large and well arher 54th year. When she was a ranged building erected two years planned to drive to State College then young girl her parents moved to ago and given to special exhibits, will on to Milton. Their car was parked Missouri and she was educated at be reserved for the State, and repre- in front of the Markland and having equipped with a fire escape, which is the State University, in Columbia, sentatives from the various depart- eaten luncheon at the Brockerhoff graduating in 1898. The following ments will be in charge and ready to house they took a short cut through and built by George S. Denithorne, of year she spent in preparation for render information and service to the Cherry alley to get to their car. On the Bellefonte Engineering and Conteaching and in 1899 accepted a posi- public in order that this big feature the way Mrs. Katz stopped to speak struction company, and offers the tion as teacher in the High school at may be of the real educational value to a friend while Mr. Katz and Joe easiest possible means of escape from Hermann, Mo. She taught there two intended.

years and one at Tracy, Minn., and The Agricultural Department nat-IN CENTRE COUNTY. on July 30th, 1902, married Thomas urally will occupy the greatest Spring street, one of which was close resident of State College. and economic life at State College. benefits to the farm will be brought Mrs. Lydia Cherry, of Brookville, She was a member of the Presby- to mind. It is hoped and expected ber of the Woman's club at the Col- free service to the farms of Centre lege, and a charter member of the county and bringing, for the first men. In addition to her husband interest of agriculture.

being made in the Pine Hall ceme- ern methods in forestry as applied to perficial. Barnes was held for a hear-

PLETCHER.-James F. Pletcher, freight agent for the Pennsylvania Railroad company, at Clearfield, died quite suddenly, on Sunday afternoon, sult of a rupture of the large tube which carries the blood from the aorta of the heart to the blood vessels of the body. He was stricken just as he finished luncheon and died tery.

A son of Mr. and Mrs. David Pletcher he was born at Howard on September 24th, 1873, hence was not quite 56 years of age. As a one of her limbs fractured by a fall in young man he went to work for the Pennsylvania Railroad company as a telegraph operator at Howard. Later he was transferred to Bellefonte but was here only a year or so when he and will be occupied as a law office was sent to Tyrone. Twenty-six

IN AUTO ACCIDENT. Mrs. William Katz suffered pain-

MRS. WILLIAN KATZ HURT

tion of Cherry alley. Mr. and Mrs. Katz and their son from Atlantic City and were stopping it to Ray White several months ago at the Markland. On Tuesday they went on and got into the car.

Items taken from the Watchman issue of I. Mairs and since then had been a amount of space, about 300 square to the alley, and as Mrs. Katz hurfeet, and, to visitors at the Farm ried out of the alley onto Spring While she was a woman of domes- Products Show last winter, some street and started to cross that Miss Lizzie Shortlidge and Mrs. tic tastes and inclination she was not realization of what this space may thoroughfare she saw the Barnes car approaching from Bishop street, and instead of continuing on her way started back, with the result that she was hit by the left fender of the car in the congregation. She was a mem- vantage of this splendid offer giving and knocked down, but fortunately was thrown to one side and the car did not pass over her. She was pick-Mr. Win Montgomery, with his son Central Pennsylvania chapter Amer- time, the knowledge of just what this ed up and taken to the office of Dr. ican Association of University Wo- department means and is doing in the Dale where a hurried examination failed to reveal any broken bones, although she was cut on the face and badly bruised. She was taken to her room at the Markland and although she has been quite sore and suffered Pennsylvania forests. This should, in ing tomorrow to determine if he is the knowledge of the use of State in any way to blame for the accident.

ERRATIC BOY THREW

BABY OUT OF WINDOW. On Monday afternoon Mrs. Angelo

Genua, of east Bishop street, Bellewent down stairs on an errand. She was out of the room only a few minutes and when she returned the baby was missing. Almost frantic she out of the bedroom window into the

An investigation disclosed the fact of the room her five year old son, The State Library will send their John Genua, who is more or less by E. & E. Blanchard. The structure years ago he was transferred to book truck which is doing such splen- erratic, had gone into the room, takin question is the present home of the Bellefonte Republican. You can was here only a year or so when he judge for yourself the Watchman's that place, a position he held until browies on not he increased in the window. Just how serious the show the ease with which the best of prove to be has not yet been deterbooks can be secured in the remotest mined because of its tender age. The back part of the chil'ds head is badly

-Miss Louise M. Valentine has practically completed plans for purchasing the John McCoy residence on west Curtin street. While the transful injuries, shortly after the noon fer of the property has not been exed on Spring street, at the intersec- Works" by September 1, if the deal finally goes through, as the Valentines agreed to vacate their present Joe came to Bellefonte, on Sunday, home by that date, when they sold

-The Markland has just been a model of its kind. It was designed the building, in case of fire. It is a A number of cars were parked on good illustration of the work that this local establishment can turn out.

IN THE CHURCHES ON SUNDAY.

ST. JOHN'S LUTHERAN CHURCH.

9:30 A. M., Bible school. 10:45 A. M., Morning service; Rev. Geo. B. Ely, of Arendtsville, Pa., will be the guest preacher. 7:30 P. M., Community service in the United Brethren church. Clarence E. Arnold, pastor.

BELLEFONTE METHODIST CHUBCH .-Rev. Watkins, D. D., superintend-Rockview, will preach the Sunday morning sermon, at 10:45 o'clock.

STORMSTOWN METHODIST CHURCH.

Rev. Watkins, D. D., superintendent of the Williamsport district,. Methodist church, will address members of the congregations on Half-moon charge in the church at: Stormstown at 7:45 o'clock Sunday evening. Every member is urged to attend this service.

C. E. Fuller, Pastor.

-Read the Watchman for the news

Do You Know That

Potatoes added $229,370 to the income of Centre County Farmers last year.

The county crop in 1928 was 364,080 bushels.

In 1926 there were 2,470 acres of Potatoes in Centre County, producing 274,050 bushels, worth $232.63 per farm.

Potatoes now are one of the leading field crops of the County

Get acquainted with the latest information on Potato Production, Marketing and Consumption by attending the

POTATO EXPOSITION at STATE COLLEGE August 19, 20, 21 and 22, 1929

CENTRE COUNTY BANKERS' ASSOCIATION

Used Car Values

Dr. Stewart, of Burnside township, she is survived by three sons, Thom- Forests and Waters will use a as I. Jr., John Curtis and Edward S. space twenty-four feet long and eight Funeral services were held at her or ten feet in width, and plans a late home, at State College, at two very interesting exhibit with actual o'clock on Friday afternoon, burial demonstrations and views as to mod- from shock, her injuries are all su-forests and camps at the present uni-send one of their milk trucks which contains a complete laboratory with ods used in the care of milk and its distribution to the public.

A most interesting exhibit is planned by the Department of Public Instruction and consists of projectors started a search for the infant but with slides, photographs, charts, was interrupted by the hasty apan ultra modern and other in-ter- pearance of a neighbor woman who esting informative features in con- stated that the baby had been thrown nection with our schools and school system. In addition a moving pic- yard, falling a distance of almost ture machine with a choice selection | twenty feet. of films will be used to show the activities of Pennsylvania schools and that while the mother had been out will be found of special interest.

manency had very little appeal.

Fairchild Heltman. They were attended by Miss Dora Goss and William Gettig. Owing to the recent death of the bride's mother only members of the two families witsonville last year. He is now located in Altoona and it is in that city they

Rider-Crawford.- A quiet wedding was celebrated at St. John's parish house, at 8 o'clock on Tuesday evening, when Miss Gertrude

William Crawford, of Coleville, was Crawford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.

nessed the ceremony.

August 10th.

versal rate, be a real show. The Department of Health will scientific equipment for testing milk and explaining its food value. Also, fonte, placed her two month's old the most modern and sanitary meth- daughter Phyllis on the bed and conception of what constituted a his death. "handsome" structure fifty years ago. In addition to his railroad duties -Ed.

Harry would only fish for a wife, as so many of the young ladies would like him to do, there would be general rejoicing all around.

A petition numerously signed has been sent to the Post Master Generto that town that they should carry mail only every other day.

Thomas Rhodes, of this place, was out huckleberrying on the ridge back of the Armor farm on Monday. He had twenty quarts of berries picked when a ten button rattle snake challenged his right to any more. Thomas won the resultant fight, but not before the reptile had bitten his dog. The animal was swollen to twice its natural size before he brought it back months and 25 days. As a young man to town, but he said it wouldn't die because rattle snake bites are not locating at Aaronsburg, followed that fatal to either dogs or hogs.

Charles and George Rawley, who say they are from Tioga county, are in was a member of the Reformed jail awaiting trial for horse stealing. They sold an awful good horse to Eli Baney for $20 and officer Montgomery thought they wouldn't have done that if they had come by the animal honestly.

BIG BARN BURNED

Fire, believed to have been the result of spontaneous combustion, completely destroyed the large barn on the William Richards farm, near Martha Furnace, about nine o'clock on Sunday night. Burned, with the barn, were two horses, three cows, most of the farming implements and all the season's crops. The Richards family were away from home at the time and the fire had gained considerable headway when discovered. The thousand dollars, which is partially covered with insurance.

OLSEN.-Carl A. Olsen, quite well made last Thursday afternoon. known in Bellefonte through his residence here while connected with the Joseph's hospital, Pittsburgh, as the result of collapse following an operation.

came to this country twenty-six are ministers of the gospel. years ago and lived in Pittsburgh and Akron, Ohio, until coming to noon.

he was quite active in community af-

Harry Hale went out fishing on fairs. He served several terms as a country sections. Monday night and reported with a member of the borough council, bebig string the next morning. Now, if longed to the Clearfield Commercial club, the Elks and I. O. O. F. He is survived by his wife, his aged father, two brothers and two sisters, Walter, of Philadelphia; Howard, of Newark, N. J.; Mrs. Pat Lowney, of Vandalia, Mo., and Mrs. Bess Condo, of How-It seems a curious thing that with a ard. Funeral services were held at making than was dreamed of by our railroad running trains every day in- 2:30 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, burial being made in the Hillcrest cemetery, Clearfield.

> HULL.-Thomas Franklin Hull son of Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus M. Tice, died at his home in Aaronsburg, on Thursday, July 18th, following a brief illness with congestion of the brain. He was born at Hamburg, Clinton county, on March 23rd, 1850, hence had reached the age of 79 years, 3 he learned the carpenter trade and, occupation all his life until advancing years compelled his retirement. He church, at Aaronsburg, for sixty years, and was an active member of Millheim lodge, No. 950, I. O. O. F. On November 29th, 1879, he married Miss Sarah V. Bell who survives with one daughter, Miss Jennie Hull, at home. He also leaves one sister and a brother, Mrs. Ellen Geary, of NEAR MARTHA FURNACE. Millheim, and D. R. K. Hull, of Mitchell, South Dakota.

> Funeral services were held at his late home at 10:30 o'clock, on Monday morning of last week, by his pastor, Rev. G. A. Fred Greising, and interment in the Aaronsburg cemetery was in charge of his brother Odd Fellows.

Nora Cronister, widow of Dallas attendants were sheriff and Mrs. Cronister, former well known resi- Harry E. Dunlap. Mr. and Mrs. loss is estimated at from four to five dents of Huston township, who died Rider went direct from the church in Pittsburgh, on Tuesday of last to their own home in Coleville. The week, were taken to Martha where bride for some time past has been

Nora Kelly and she was born at Ches-Abramsen Engineering company, ter Hill, near Philipsburg, 71 years died at noon, on Tuesday, at St. ago. Most of her married life was spent on the farm in Huston township. Her husband has been dead for some years but surviving her are four He was a native of Norway and sons, one daughter, four brothers and Summers, both of Bellefonte, were gletown, on Friday evening. was about seventy years old. He three sisters. Three of her brothers

Bellefonte twelve years ago. He re- home on Lamb street at noon yester- couple will make their home in Bellemained here ten years then went to day. She had been ill only four days fonte. Pittsburgh. He is survived by his with pneumonia. Particulars next wife, one son and daughter, Lief Ol- week. Mrs. Neil Martin died at the sen, of Bellefonte, and Mrs. Abram-sen, of Pittsburgh. Burial will be made in Pittsburgh tomorrow after-l o'clock. She had been in failing sen, of Bellefonte, and Mrs. Abram- home of her son Charles, on south ers are not to blame. It was a profhealth for a long time. culpables.

Roads are of paramount import- swollen and it sleeps most of the ance so the Department of Highways | time. will bring the latest in road develop--Monday's rain helped some ment for our inspection and judgbut we need a lot more to go down ment, and show what has been done since road improvement began in to the lower roots of all vegetation. this State, and plans for the future, which include much more in road BOALSBURG A. E. Gingerich transacted business in Pittsburgh on Thursday. Mrs. James Bryson, of Derry, is visiting her mother, Mrs. M. A. Tice-Lantz.-George Dohner Tice, Woods.

Mrs. Harry Houser, of the Pittsburgh district, is visiting her sister, Mrs. George Markle. of Howard, and Miss Etta Geraldine Lantz, daughter of D. F. Lantz, of Altoona, were married at 8 o'clock Mrs. Clara Stover, of Altoona, was on Saturday evening, at the Broad the guest of her sister, Mrs. Chester Avenue Presbyterian church, Al- Kuhn, for several days. toona, by the pastor, Rev. Andrew Boal Troop left, early Saturday morning, for Mt. Gretna, for the fifteen days encampment.

Miss Elizabeth Meyer is spending some time with her sister, Mrs. Richard Goheen, at Hollidaysburg.

Mrs. W. J. Wagner entertained her sister, Mrs. George Ely, and son, of The bride is a professional nurse and has for some time been secre- Arrandtsville, over the week-end. Mr. and Mrs. Bloomquist and famtary of the Junior Auxiliary of ily and Mr. and Mrs. Bartley, of Mercy hospital, in Altoona. Mr. Tice has been one of Centre county's force Bellefonte, were in town on Saturof school teachers, teaching at Jack- day.

Miss Anna Sweeny is spending some time in Centre Hall, at the will be at home to their friends after home of her aunt, Mrs. Elizabeth Jacobs. Mr. and Mrs. George Fisher accompanied Frank Fisher, of State Col-lege, on a drive to Harrisburg, on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dornsife and sons, Chester and Samuel, of Williamsport, were visitors at the home of Henry Reitz, on Sunday.

married to Clayton Rider, also of The Kaup property offered at public sale, on Saturday, was not sold, CRONISTER-The remains of Mrs. formed by Father Downes and the the highest bid offered not being satisfactory to the parties interested. Fred Reitz and mother, Mrs. Henry Reitz, Mrs. Robert and Mrs. Israel Reitz attended the Rager reunion at Hunter, Northumberland county, on Wednesday.

> Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Stuart and daughter left at 4 a. m., Monday, for their return drive to Crafton, after an enjoyable visit among friends in this vicinity.

The Young Ladies class of the Lutheran Sunday school enjoyed a weiner roast and social time at the home of Mrs. Edgar Hess at Shin-Mrs. Emma Stuart, Mr. and Mrs.

Reuben Stuart, Mrs. M. A. Woods and Mrs. Alice Magoffin were entertained at dinner, at the home of Mrs. Ellen Stuart, at State College, Thursday

Mr. and Mrs. Finn McGirk, Mr. and Mrs. Harry McGirk and Mrs. Leonard, of Altoona, attended ser-Miss Anna Dale.

THAT CANNOT BE MATCHED ANYWHERE

Save $25 to

ON ANY USED CAR ON THE MARKET

Try Us-the Cars are Right

Now is the ideal time to buy a Used Car! We have an unusually wide selection to choose from, many have been thoroughly re-conditioned by our expert mechanics, and all may be depended upon to give miles of satisfactory performance.

The Prices are Right!

The Terms are Right!

Very Small Down-payments!

Trade in your old car as part down-payment or get a discount for cash. .. Ask for a Demonstration, call or phone. See these cars before you buy elsewhere.

toos at the time to the second sector
1929 Model A Ford Coach run 6000 miles.
1927 Moon Cabriolet Excellent condition 4-wheel brakes, balloon tires, rumble seat.
1928 Chevrolet Coupe almost like new.
1927 Chevrolet 4-door Sedan Natural wood wheels.
1926 Ford Sedan Excellent condition.
1926 Ford Coupe.
1926 Nash 4-Door Sedan, all new rubber, 4-wheel brakes. A No. 1 condition.
1921 Studebaker Touring Cash	$35.00
1923 Nash "6" Cyl. Touring, Cash	40.00
1926 Overland "6" Cyl. Coach, very reasonable.
1928 Whippet Sedan. Very reasonable buy.
1922 Mitchell Touring, extra good value.
1926 Chevrolet Touring, Reconditioned thoroughly, at very low cost.
1925 Chevrolet Coach, cannot be matched for price.
1925 Ford Coupe	90.00
1926 Chevrolet Roadster, wonderful buy.
1926 Chrysler Coupe, fully equipped.
1926 Chevrolet Coach, 4-wheel brakes, new Duco, ev- everything "OK".
1923 Ford Roadster	50.00
1924 Ford Coupe	35.00
1928 Chevrolet 1½ Ton Truck, run less than 2400 miles, 4-wheel brakes, carries a full guaran- tee.

Special Sale on all Goodyear Tires and Tubes Decker Chevrolet Co. Cor. Spring and High Sts., BELLEFONTE, PA Open Day and Night Phone 405

Coleville. The ceremony was perfuneral services were held and burial cashier in Hazel & Co's store, while the bridegroom is head fireman at Mrs. Cronister's maiden name was the kilns of the Centre County Lime company.

Emil-Summers.-George Mitchell Emil, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Emil, and Miss Mary Edna Summers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Winfield married at the parsonage of the Evangelical church, Lock Haven, at noon last Saturday, by the pastor, -Mrs. John Klinger died at her Rev. G. R. Mergenthaler. The young

-----Those Missouri endurance fly-