

PINE GROVE MENTION.

Prof. Lenhart and wife spent Sunday with the Dannley sisters.

C. M. Fry and wife, of Altoona, made calls on friends here, on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Noll, of Williamsport, were Sunday callers at the Milt Wieland home.

Curley Randolph has moved to State College to make his home for the present.

Recent showers replenished cisterns but had little effect on wells and streams.

Fred Gearhart is gunning for the motorist who ran down and killed his prize fox hound.

Fred B. Goss and wife, of Harrisburg, are visiting Mr. Goss' mother, Mrs. Cyrus Goss.

George Bell, an employee of the highway department, was seen in town on Saturday.

Mrs. Kaufman, of McVeytown, spent several days, last week, at the S. E. Fleming home.

Thomas Wogan and family, of Juniata, circulated among friends in this section, on Saturday.

W. S. Ward and wife, of Baileyville, visited W. S. Jr. and family, at Lewistown, last week.

The Ferguson township public schools will open, on Labor day, with a full corps of teachers.

C. M. Dale and son Hugh motored to Carlisle, the latter end of the week, to attend a stock show.

Charles Blake, a Civil war veteran, has returned from a five week's tour of the middle west.

John G. Love and wife, of Bellefonte, were among the picnickers, at Baileyville, on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rosenberg, of Halfmoon, were visitors at the M. C. Wieland home, on Friday.

Dr. George H. Woods and family took a pleasure drive over the Snow Shoe mountains, on Saturday.

Mrs. Margaret Dale has been discharged from the Geisinger hospital and is now at her home in Mifflinburg.

B. F. Burd, who has been laid up for several weeks as the result of an attack of heart trouble, is on the mend.

Harry Collins, wife and son William motored in from Pitcairn and spent Sunday at the W. A. Collins home.

The many friends of Samuel E. Fleming will be glad to know that he is now able to get around in his house.

Prof. Leslie Krebs, of Shippensburg, was here the latter end of the week visiting his many relatives and friends.

Members of the Kline family, of McClure, were entertained at the home of the James Kline family, on Sunday.

W. K. Goss, wife and two daughters, Mary and Ruth, were dinner guests at the J. F. Kimpport home, on Sunday.

Fred and Clayton Cori came down from Altoona, Saturday, to blow their horns in the Citizens' band at the Baileyville picnic.

Mrs. Ella Powell, of Morgantown, W. Va., is visiting her father, Isaac Harpster, at Gatesburg, as well as friends at Baileyville.

The annual banquet of the Baileyville sportsmen's club, which was to have been held last Thursday evening, was postponed indefinitely.

R. B. Stamm and wife motored up from Philadelphia, the latter part of the week, and attended a family reunion on Saturday evening.

Jimmy Rudy, son of James Rudy, was taken to the Centre County hospital for treatment for a badly fractured elbow sustained in a fall.

On her way home from Sunday school, Sunday morning, Miss Maude Gearhart, slaughtered a weasel that was hot on the trail of a rabbit.

Mrs. Ira G. Burkett, of Stormstown, spent Saturday at the William Biddle home, at Baileyville. Mr. Biddle has been quite sick but is now improving.

Mrs. W. G. Gardner and daughter Mary entertained at dinner, on Sunday, Robert Gardner and wife, of Pittsburgh, and Thomas Gates and wife, of Altoona.

Rev. J. S. English has returned from his three week's vacation, spent in New York State, and will hold preaching services at the regular hours, on Sunday.

Dewey Krumrine and wife took Mrs. Ellis Auman to Three Springs, Md., the latter part of the week, to see her husband, who holds a position in a large flouring mill there.

Milt Cotel, who left here twenty-three years ago and had not been heard from since, returned, last week, to visit his mother and friends. He is now located at Akron, Ohio.

The Fred Rossman and Isaac Harpster families have returned from a two week's fishing trip on Lake Michigan. Roy Rossman made the largest catch, a 28-inch lake trout.

Among those from a distance who attended the Baileyville picnic, last Saturday, were Mrs. Frank McFarlane, of Bellefonte; Dr. Harry Archey, of Plymouth, Pa.; Dr. Frank Bowersox and Mr. Reifsnnyder, of Millheim; Warren Bailey and wife, of Saxton.

About one hundred descendants of John and Mary Peters attended the 7th annual family reunion held at the Pine Grove park on Sunday. Mrs. Sue Peters, 77 years old, was the oldest person there and the youngest a baby four months. An elaborate dinner was served. Next year's reunion will be held at the Fromm cabin.

David Saucerman and Kate Krebs took Greely's advice a half century ago and went to Kansas city. Now they are back on a visit and have a hard time recognizing the place. On Saturday evening they were guests at a supper served on the Academy lawn by Mrs. Anna Saucerman and —Mr. and Mrs. Edward Robb and their two sons, are spending Mr. Robb's two weeks vacation at Cape Cod, having left Bellefonte, Sunday.

ADDITIONAL PERSONAL NEWS.

—Mrs. Blanche Houser Ferguson came in from Meadville last week to occupy her apartment in the Cassidy home on Spring street, expecting to be in Bellefonte indefinitely.

—The Rev. Malcolm DePui Maynard, of Ridgway, former rector of St. John's Episcopal church, of Bellefonte, was here Tuesday, to officiate at the funeral of John N. Lane.

—Miss Katherine Allison is entertaining Miss Anne Dashiels, a former instructor in the schools of Bellefonte. Miss Dashiels is now teaching at the George school at Newtown.

—Miss Nina Lamb has resumed her work in the First National bank, after a vacation visit with Mrs. O. B. Mallin, at the home of her parents, at Spring Lake, where Mrs. Mallin and her children have been spending much of the summer.

Mrs. Ada Krebs, F. E. Saucerman and wife were among the guests.

Misses Sue and Sadie Dannley were hostesses at a party given at the Dannley lodge, in Tussey mountain, last Saturday, in celebration of the sixth birthday anniversary of their grand nephew, Randall Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Randall Miller, of Millheim. In addition to the Miller family the guests included the child's grandparents, Dr. and Mrs. S. S. McCormick, of Hublersburg; Dr. G. S. Frank and family, of Millheim, and Prof. and Mrs. Lenhart, of State College.

UNIONVILLE.

Harold Keatley, of Washington, D. C., is spending a few days here with his parents and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Holtzworth and family are visiting their parental homes, the H. E. Holtzworth and Daniel Buck families.

The Blair family reunion was held, on Sunday, at the old homestead of the late Dr. Blair, up the pike, now owned by J. B. Stere.

Rev. McCherry, of Mifflinburg, and Frank Bower, of York county, were over Sunday visitors with their sister, Mrs. Arista Lucas.

Joseph Bing, a former resident of our town, spent a few hours here, one day last week, among friends while out on an auto trip.

The W. F. M. society held its mite box, opening in the borough hall, on Monday afternoon. The devotional service was followed by a social hour and luncheon. A nice sum was realized from the boxes.

The Rev. James Pratt, of New York City, and brother Seth, of Baltimore, were over Sunday visitors with friends and acquaintances here. Rev. Pratt gave a very interesting discourse in the the Presbyterian church on Sunday evening.

The entire Hall connection is going to have a reunion on Saturday, August 31. It will be held at the Robert Hall place on Dix Run and all members of the family, whether through direct descent or marriage are cordially invited to be there.

Mrs. Alfred Brower, of Pittsburgh, accompanied her niece, Katherine Resides, to her home here, on Tuesday, from a visit of six weeks, which was a most delightful event for the little girl, who had the pleasure of going to the Zoo and many places of interest.

Last Saturday Allen Rumberger, of Tyrone, accompanied by his sister, Miss Laura and J. E. Brugger, went by automobile to DuBois to see their brother George and wife, who are both sick. George is very seriously ill and not expected to recover. Miss Laura will stay with her sister-in-law for an indefinite time.

IN THE CHURCHES ON SUNDAY.

ST. JOHN'S LUTHERAN CHURCH.
9:30 A. M. Sunday school
7:30 P. M. Community service in Methodist Church.
Clarence E. Arnold, Pastor.

UNITED BRETHREN CHURCH.
There will be no preaching service Sunday morning, Aug. 25th, but Sunday school will be held at the regular hour, 9:30.
Official board will meet Monday evening, Aug. 26th, at church.
Prayer service Wednesday evening, Aug. 28th.
Sunday morning, Sept. 1st, will be the morning on which the children's sermon will again be delivered and the junior choir will sing. Be sure to come.
Wednesday evening, Sept. 4th, a splendid program will be rendered in the church under the auspices of the prayer meeting committee. Mr. Thomas Filer, the blind singer of Altoona, will be on hand to thrill and inspire the people with his wonderfully helpful vocal selections. Irvin Martin will also be there with his musical saw, and those who heard him before will want to hear him again. In addition to these Franklin Stover will play a cornet solo, and a playlet, "Thanksgivin' Ann," will be put on to emphasize the principle of tithing. You cannot afford to miss this program. A silver offering will be taken to apply on church repairs. Don't forget Wednesday evening, Sept. 4th.
Sept. 8th, evening, Supt. Wilson will be with us to hold the last quarterly conference. All officials are requested to bring written reports to submit to the superintendent at this time. It is likely that Holy Communion will be observed on this date also. Evening service to be in charge of Supt. Wilson.
All U. B.'s, please be loyal to the above services.
Rev. William Snyder, Pastor.

—It would hardly be fair to blame Senator Borah for declining to meet Governor Ritchie in joint debate. Ritchie is a master controversialist.

SHINGLETOWN.

Miss Helen Behrer, of State College, who taught school here last year and will teach again the coming year, made brief calls on a number of her pupils, on Monday.

A very pleasant young folks party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Horner during the week. Games were played and refreshments served. Those present included Mrs. Horner and her children, Gus, Robert, Paul, LeRoy, Gerald, Gladys and Irma Horner, Clarence Maurer, May Dearmit, Gerald Campbell, Gene Moore, Ethel and John Miller, George Homan, M. Whitehill, John Wagner, Norman and William Callahan and Miss Cora Neff.

C. E. COOKE
ANTIQUES
and Second Hand Goods. Telephone 73-33 65 J 3, Bellefonte.

IRA D. GARMAN
JEWELER
1420 Chestnut St., PHILADELPHIA
Have Your Diamonds Reset in Platinum 74-27-1f Exclusive Emblem Jewelry

Certified Used Cars

BEEZER'S GARAGE

BELLEFONTE, PA

Come in and see the fine Used Cars that we will certify as to condition and sell on easy terms

- Studebaker "Commander" Sedan
- Hudson Sedan Chandler Sedan
- 2 Essex Coaches
- Pontiac Sedan Dodge Touring
- Ford and Dodge Trucks

Official Brake Testing

This Garage has been designated an Official Brake Testing Station. We have installed an approved "Jumbo" Brake Tester and can check your brakes accurately and certify them.

GEO. A. BEEZER

North Water St.

BELLEFONTE

Monday was the last day for candidates to withdraw nominating petitions, and the only one in Bellefonte to withdraw was Hugh M. Quigley, as a candidate for school director.

The pajama girl has made her appearance in Bellefonte, as one of the tender maidens was seen out promenading, on Tuesday morning, clad in a pink-checked garment and wearing a knee length coat.

56th ANNUAL
Encampment and Fair
OF THE
Patrons of Husbandry
of Central Pennsylvania
GRANGE PARK
CENTRE HALL, PA
on the Bellefonte to Lewistown Highway
August 24 to 30, 1929

Encampment Opens August 24th

Exhibition Opens August 26th

The largest and best Fair in Central Pennsylvania: by farmers and for farmers. Grounds increased to seventy acres. Beautifully located. Shade and Pure Water. Electric Light. Telephones.

A large display of farm Stock and Poultry, Farm Implements, Fruits, Cereals, and every product of farm and garden.

Liberal Premiums - - Free Attractions
Come and Have One Big Time!

Admission (for Entire Week) 50 Cts.

Fifty cents will be charged for parking automobiles.
ALL TRAINS STOP AT GRANGE PARK.

JOHN S. DALE, Chairman

1879 • Light's Golden Jubilee • 1929

FRIGIDAIRE

See it now... TODAY!

There is a complete line of FRIGIDAIRE . . . all sizes, all prices . . . ready for your inspection. On our display floor, you will undoubtedly find just the one to suit your needs . . . the FRIGIDAIRE you have been wanting.

Every one of these household models of FRIGIDAIRE is equipped with the exclusive Cold Control. And into every unit is built the beauty, strength, and efficient operation developed from the building of more than 1,000,000 FRIGIDAIREs.

When you come in, ask to see one of our "all-porcelain" models which sell for as low as

$205.00

EASY PAYMENT PLAN!

If you need FRIGIDAIRE, yet do not have sufficient money handy to pay cash, ask about our Easy Payment Plan. It enables you to have FRIGIDAIRE in your own home for only a few dollars down. Then you pay the balance in small monthly installments.

WEST PENN
ELECTRIC SHOPS

