

NEWS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

The Centre county teachers' institute will be held the week of October 14th.

A festival for the benefit of Wetzler's Junior band will be held on the green adjoining Scholl's garage, in Milesburg, this (Friday) and tomorrow evenings.

Tune in on W2XAF Sunday morning and here Judge Rutherford, president of the International Bible Students Association, in his talk, "Health and Life for the People."

According to a report from Harrisburg Centre county's allocation of $375,088 from the State highway fund under the Wheeler-Flynn act will be used to build the six miles of road from State College to Wadde.

The story to the effect that Centre Hall is entirely without water is not true. While the supply is low there is still enough in the borough's supply and reservoirs to provide for reasonable needs.

The Odd Fellows of Pennsylvania are going to have a great picnic at Hershey Park, Hershey, Pennsylvania, on Saturday, August 31st.

As a further argument Mr. Hunter added that there is just a possibility that an airplane factory may be located in Bellefonte in the near future, and a proper sign or marker might have some influence in obtaining the new enterprise.

Airplanes, fast railroad trains, motor busses and automobiles are being used these days to expedite delivery of the United States mails, and on Monday the regularly mailed copy of the DuBois Express dated "Tuesday, February 26," just reached this office.

N. E. Hess' stuffed Kodiak bear was removed from the Schaeffer hardware store, on Wednesday morning, and taken by motor truck to State College, where it will become an important acquisition to his museum of mounted animals.

The George I. Thompson company, of Clearfield, was low bidder for rebuilding 1.68 miles of concrete highway between Milesburg and Bellefonte, at the State highway letting last Friday.

Samuel Solt, well known Spanish-American war veteran of Bellefonte, Williamsport or wherever his old Ford happens to take him, was arrested at Grampian, Sunday afternoon, by State motor patrolmen, on the charge of driving his automobile while intoxicated.

M. W. Williams was granted a permit to erect a one story garage of concrete blocks on Pike alley, in the rear of his residence.

Bills totalling $1981.96 were approved for payment after which council adjourned.

On Saturday night, August 10th, eleven chickens valued at $18.00 were stolen from a resident of Millheim.

The drawing for position on the primary ballot will take place at the county commissioner's office, in the court house, Bellefonte, tomorrow (Saturday) morning, at 10 o'clock.

COUNCIL ASKED FOR AID TO ERECT AIRPORT SIGN.

No Decision Reached in Dairyman's League Request for Land for Building Site.

Arguments were presented to borough council, at the regular meeting on Monday evening, of the advertising advantages of an airport sign, by Robert F. Hunter, postmaster John L. Knisely and others, and in conclusion, council was asked to appropriate an approximate sum of $1000 toward the expense of erecting the sign and also bear the expense of the light for same, which was estimated at about $90 a year.

Mr. Hunter stated that the proposition to erect a complete sign had been abandoned because of inability to get a proper location, but Thomas Beaver has agreed to permit the erection of a sign on the old hangar and will make no charge therefor. His present proposition was to erect a Neon sign, 60 feet in length with letters six feet high.

As a further argument Mr. Hunter added that there is just a possibility that an airplane factory may be located in Bellefonte in the near future, and a proper sign or marker might have some influence in obtaining the new enterprise.

Secretary Kelly presented a bill from the Auditor General for $746.32 tax on bonded indebtedness, and it was referred to the Finance committee for investigation.

The Finance committee reported receipt from the State of $929.28 in State tax on foreign insurance, which goes to the Fireman's Relief Association.

Mr. Emerick reported the borough tax duplicate completed, which shows a total of $20,811.84 borough tax, $20,811.84 for street purposes, and $10,405.62 for interest.

Mr. Cunningham presented a letter from the Dairyman's League and Farmer's Cooperative Association in which it was set forth that the League has given up the idea of renting a building for a plant here, but submitted a proposition for the purchase of a piece of ground 200x75 feet in size, on the north-east corner of the old Phoenix mill dam site on which to erect a plant.

On Saturday night, August 10th, eleven chickens valued at $18.00 were stolen from a resident of Millheim.

CHICKEN THIEVES AT MILLHEIM ARRESTED.

An announcement from Harrisburg states that a site in Williamsport has definitely been decided upon as headquarters for the new Troop D, State highway patrol.

CANDIDATES TO DRAW FOR PLACE ON BALLOT.

The drawing for position on the primary ballot will take place at the county commissioner's office, in the court house, Bellefonte, tomorrow (Saturday) morning, at 10 o'clock.

REMONSTRANCE AGAINST OPENING BURNSIDE STREET.

At a brief session of court, on Tuesday morning, Arthur C. Dale Esq., presented a remonstrance against the opening of Burnside street, Bellefonte, for which viewers have already been appointed.

Mr. Dale also presented a petition asking for a preliminary injunction against the Lord Construction company, the borough of Milesburg and the State Highway Department to prevent them from taking thirty feet off of lots owned by O. E. Miles in Milesburg, for a distance of 150 feet, for the purpose of widening the highway in that borough.

A petition was also presented for the appointment of a guardian for John and Martin Grove, minors and feeble minded children of the late John W. Grove.

Kelley-Morgan.—A very pretty wedding took place in St. Michael's Catholic church, at Clarence, at 8 o'clock last Saturday morning, when Miss Catherine Morgan, daughter of James J. Morgan, of Snow Shoe, and Elmer Kelley, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Kelley, of Altoona, were united in marriage, the Rev. Mr. Palfy performing the ceremony.

Following the nuptial mass a wedding breakfast was served the bridal party and immediate relatives at the home of the bride, after which the young couple left for Altoona where they will make their future home, the bridegroom being associated with his father in the coal business in that city.

Alexander-Artz.—Charles M. Alexander, son of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben M. Alexander, of Julian, and Miss Marie Artz, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Artz, of Port Matilda, were married at the Methodist parsonage, at State College, by the pastor, Rev. C. W. Rishel.

Barto-Graham.—On Tuesday of last week Melvin Barto, of Pennsylvania Furnace, and Miss Helen Graham, of Boalsburg, were married at the Methodist parsonage, at State College, by the pastor, Rev. C. W. Rishel.

Neidigh-Smith.—Clayton N. Neidigh, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Neidigh, of Ferguson township, and Miss Carrie Smith were married at the Reformed parsonage, in Boalsburg, on Wednesday of last week, by the pastor, Rev. W. W. Moyer.

STATE HIGHWAY PATROL GOES TO WILLIAMSPORT.

An announcement from Harrisburg states that a site in Williamsport has definitely been decided upon as headquarters for the new Troop D, State highway patrol.

Potato growers from all over the State invaded State College, on Tuesday, for the potato grower's exposition, so that the crowd looked like a football rush at a championship game.

AXE MANN GIRL DIES FROM AUTO ACCIDENT INJURIES.

Horribly injured when run down by an automobile, at Axe Mann, last Saturday morning, Christina Solt, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Solt, died at the Centre County hospital at 5:30 o'clock on Sunday evening.

The accident occurred when Harry Biddle, of Tyrone, sixteen years old, a cousin of the girl who was on a visit at the Solt home, was in the act of taking her for a ride on his bicycle. The Solt home stands up on the bank south of the highway and a flight of steps leads down to the road.

Mr. Eckley stopped as quickly as possible and picking up the injured child, brought her and the boy, who was knocked unconscious, to the hospital. Everything possible was done to save the life of the girl but in vain.

The unfortunate victim of the accident was a daughter of William and Esther Solt and was born on January 7th, 1919, hence was 12 years, 7 months and 10 days old.

101 RANCH RAIDED BY COUNTY DETECTIVE BODEN.

Last Friday evening county detective Leo Boden, assisted by local officers, raided the 101 Ranch, in Union township, and seized a complete outfit for the making of home brew, an unusually large number of empties, and a gallon of liquor hid in the bushes outside of the building.

COUNTY DETECTIVE ASSAULTS BUSINESS MAN

On Tuesday afternoon county detective Leo Boden assaulted John P. Eckel, merchant of Bellefonte, and is said to have ordered him out of his office in the court house.

The altercation between the county law officer and the father of the accused son became rather acrimonious. In fact it reached the point where Eckel says Boden struck him a terrific blow in the face, knocking his glasses off and stunning him for a moment or more.

ATTENTION, COMRADES!

The 55th annual meeting of the Centre County Veteran Club will be held at Grange park, Centre Hall, in connection with the Grange fair and encampment, on Wednesday, August 28th.

The congregation of the Union chapel at Pleasant View (Red Roost) will hold a festival at the chapel Saturday evening, August 31st.

FESTIVAL AT PLEASANT VIEW.

A meeting of the creditors of the Centre County Banking company will be held at the office of W. Harrison Walker Esq., on August 28th, when a trustee will be erected to close up the bank's affairs.

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

W. M. Bortoff and sister, Miss Ruth Bortoff, motored out to Wilkensburg, last Friday, to see their brother, Linn Bortoff, who has been quite ill for some months, and whose condition is not at all improved.

Carl Gray, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Oscar Gray, of west High street, left for Kearny, N. J., Wednesday morning.

Mrs. Henry C. Quigley returned to Bellefonte, Tuesday from a ten day's visit with her sister-in-law, Mrs. W. D. Horne, at the summer home in Beech Creek.

Miss Henrietta Quigley is at West Port, Conn., for a three week's vacation visit, as a guest of her cousin, Mrs. Mary Horne Eschweiler, of Milwaukee and West Port.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Kustaborder motored down from Warriorsburg in their new Whippet car, on Sunday, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kustaborder for dinner, then loading up with a number of Bellefonte friends drove to Hecla park for the concert by Wetzler's Junior band.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest W. Tanner, of north Spring street, with their children, Bobbie and Anne, and Miss Sara Lindenmuth, motored to Ocean City, N. J., on Tuesday, expecting to remain at that resort for the duration of Mr. Tanner's vacation from duty as superintendent of the National Air Transport field here.

Miss Florence W. Love drove over from Hollidaysburg, Monday, and has been a guest for the week, of Dr. and Mrs. M. A. Kirk. According to her plans, she will go on to Centre Hall tomorrow, spend picnic week there as a house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bradford, and then return to Bellefonte to continue her visit.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Witbeck, of New York, were guests at the Brockhoff house most of the past week, having just recently returned from a trip to Panama, Cuba and Porto Rico.

Mrs. Lewis Daggett and Miss Helen Scull, drove up from Wyncote, Tuesday in Miss Scull's car, visiting here until yesterday morning with Judge and Mrs. Ellis L. Orvis, Miss Scull and Mrs. Daggett, on leaving yesterday for the return drive, were accompanied by Mrs. Daggett's three children, Jane, Orvis and Carloline, who had been visiting with their grandmother, Mrs. Wells L. Daggett for three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Linn Murphy, of Ithaca, N. Y., were Bellefonte visitors the early part of the week, having come to Centre county on a motor trip as part of Mr. Murphy's vacation.

Unexpectedly, on Saturday morning, friend Bob Lyon breezed in from Buffalo and all was excitement about the sanatorium for about half an hour.

The Drs. Wm. S., and Nannie Glenn, of State College, were in town for an hour or so Tuesday afternoon.

A Watchman office caller, Saturday evening, was Mr. G. Packer, of McKean county, who, with several members of his family, was on a brief motor trip back to his old home locality in the foothills of the Alleghenies in Howard township.

Corrected Weekly by C. Y. Wagner & Co. Wheat 1.25 Corn 1.10 Rye 1.10 Oats .50 Barley .75 Buckwheat .90

Mrs. H. E. Fenlon has had as house guests during the past week, Mrs. Roberts, of Lansford and her grandson, Thomas Brew Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kirk will go over to Lewisport tomorrow, where they will be joined by Mr. and Mrs. Amos Cole, for a drive to Harrisburg and a visit with Mrs. Kirk's and Mr. Cole's sister, Mrs. Earl C. Tuten and her sons.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Way will come to Bellefonte, Monday from Coatesville, to locate here permanently. Mr. Way having occupied the position of accountant with the Federal Match corporation, at their plant in Bellefonte. Mrs. Way was formerly Miss Evelyn Troup.

Miss Marie Roder, of Washington, who has been with the family at Eagles Mere this summer, will come to Bellefonte today, to spend several weeks as a guest of Mrs. T. A. Shoemaker and the family, several of which drove to Eagles Mere, to bring Miss Roder to Bellefonte.

Graham Hunter has severed his connection as sales manager for the Central Pennsylvania Gas Co., and, with Mrs. Hunter and their child, will go to Roanoke, Va., for a short time before entering upon one of the several fine positions elsewhere that have been tendered him.

Miss Louise Hoffer with her two nieces, Eleanor and Ruth Hoffer, and Miss Hoffer's house guest, Miss Grace Robertson, of Philadelphia, drove over from Phillipsburg, Wednesday, in Miss Robertson's car, spending a part of the day in Bellefonte with friends of the Hoffer family.

Miss Caroline Valentine and her cousin, Miss Jane Valentine, of Chestnut Hill, arrived in Bellefonte a week ago, Miss Valentine to open her home at Burnham after spending six weeks at Ogunquit, Maine, while Miss Jane Valentine is here to spend the greater part of the fall with her cousin.

Mrs. Sara Brown and her granddaughter, Jane Wray, went over to Bellwood, yesterday, to meet the child's mother, Mrs. Robert Wray and her son Robert Jr., who came east from Cleveland for Jane, Mrs. Wray and the children visited for several days with Mr. Wray's mother in Bellwood, before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. William Brouse will drive to Long Island, Wednesday, of next week, making the trip over to bring home their two daughters, Caroline and Janet and Mr. Brouse's mother, Mrs. R. S. Brouse, who will be with Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Topel, at the cottage on the Island, since the first of July.

Maj. H. Laird Curtin and his family contemplate moving to Bellefonte for the winter. According to plans now being considered Mr. and Mrs. James H. Potter will take the apartment in Petriken hall that is being vacated by the Graham Hunters and the Curtins will occupy the Potter home on Linn street until spring.

Dr. Wilcox drove up from Norfolk, Va., this week arriving at Curtin, yesterday. Dr. Wilcox came to Centre county for Mrs. Wilcox and their daughter, Mary Carey, who have been with Mrs. Wilcox's sister, Mrs. Harry Holter Curtin, for a month or more. The Wilcox family will leave today for the return drive to Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. John Woods and their son John Jr., left yesterday for a drive to Greer, Va., where they will spend a part of Mr. Woods' vacation with his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. David J. Kelly. The remainder of their time will be spent with Mrs. Woods' sister, Mrs. Samuel D. Rhinesmith and Mr. Rhinesmith, at St. Mary's.

The near relatives of the late Mrs. Mary Laurie Gray, who were in Bellefonte, Tuesday for the funeral, included her brother, John Laurie, of Altoona, his sons, Robert and Andrew, the former's wife and her mother, Mrs. Ingot, all of Altoona; Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Eldredge, of Cape May, and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Laurie, of Houtzdale.

Harry Garman, of Coatesville, with his mother and sister, Jane, were guests the forepart of the week, of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Garman, at their home on east High street. Going over by Tyrone, Wednesday, accompanied by Mrs. E. F. Garman, they visited with the Robert Garman family, stopping in Bellefonte again on their way to Jersey Shore.

Mr. and Mrs. John Brachbill, of Williamsport and their three children, Sara Jane, John Jr., and Charles, have been guests of Mr. Brachbill's mother, Mrs. W. T. Twitmore and Mr. Twitmore, at their home on south Water street. After spending last week in Bellefonte the youngest members of the family left, leaving their parents to continue their visit. Sara Jane left in her car for a drive to New England, John Jr., in his car for a trip east and Charles by train to spend the remainder of his vacation elsewhere.

Miss Hazel Hurley and her nephew, Stanley Kirk, returned to the Kirk home at Paoli, Monday, where Miss Hurley will be until leaving next week to resume her work as a professional nurse in New York City. Miss Hurley had been in Bellefonte with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Murley for ten days, having driven up from Paoli with her mother, Mrs. Harvey Schaeffer and the latter's daughter, Miss LaRue, upon their return home from a week's visit with the Paul Kirk family. Miss Hurley's return to New York will terminate a month's vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne D. Stitzinger and their three children drove in from New Castle, Friday, Mr. Stitzinger returning home Sunday, leaving his family to visit with Mrs. Stitzinger's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Johnston until the opening of school. Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Johnston, who have been at the Johnston home for the greater part of the summer, will leave next week for Middletown, Md., to visit at Mrs. Johnston's former home, until returning to Red Lion, where Mr. Johnston will resume his work as an instructor in the schools of that place. Miss Louise Moreland, of Jamestown, Pa., a college mate of Miss Katherine Johnston, is also among the guests whom Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Johnston are entertaining. Miss Moreland having come to Bellefonte last week, to spend the remainder of August with Miss Katherine.