

PHILADELPHIA NEGRO ELECTROCUTED MONDAY.

William Weston Jr., negro, of Philadelphia county, was electrocuted at Rockview penitentiary, on Monday morning, the first man since the 24th. Only one contact was used to cause death and four minutes after the current was applied Weston was pronounced dead by Dr. L. McLaughlin, prison physician, who succeeded Dr. C. J. Newcomb. The doomed man was accompanied by the chair by the prison chaplain, v. P. N. Osborne, and made no statement. His body was unclaimed and was buried in the penitentiary cemetery.

Weston was a World war veteran, having served in the navy at New London, Conn. There he met Mrs. Helen Coles, negro, with whom he became enamored. A friendship developed which continued until December 20th, 1928, when they quarreled. Mrs. Coles hit Weston on the head with a laundry iron and he killed her with an axe. His case was carried to the Supreme court and the award of pardons to both bodies refused to intervene. Weston was 30 years old and leaves a wife and three children. He was the 11th man electrocuted at Rockview this year and the 199th since the death house was built.

Harvey Feathers, 17-year-old youth of Bedford county, was also scheduled to go to the chair, on Monday morning, for the murder of Huston Croyle, but was granted a respite cause the board of pardons concluded the hearing in his case to the tober meeting.

EXAMINATIONS FOR WEST POINT ACADEMY.

Congressman J. Mitchell Chase announces that he has arranged with U. S. Civil Service Commission to hold a preliminary competitive examination on October 26, 1929, for the selection of one cadet for admission to the U. S. Military Academy July 1, 1930.

Owing to the large number of applicants Congressman Chase has decided that this is the fairest plan, giving every candidate an equal chance. Those receiving the highest grades, as certified to Congressman Chase by the Civil Service Commission, will be designated by him to take final examinations to be held by the War Department next March. Candidates must be of good moral character, residents of the 23rd Pennsylvania Congressional district, physically sound, and not under 17 nor over 22 years of age on July 1, 1930; and not less than 5 feet, 4 inches in height.

The examination may be taken on above date at 9 a. m., at any of the following post offices: Clearfield, Bellefonte or Bradford. As the Commission must be notified promptly as to the number of prospective applicants it is requested that all candidates notify Congressman Chase, at an early date, when they will be given further information.

Please be sure to state where you desire to take the examination, also give date of your birth. Address, J. Mitchell Chase, M. C., House of Representatives, Washington, D. C.

—We do your job work right.
