

NEWS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

Only six truck growers lined up at the Bellefonte curb market, on Wednesday morning, and it won't be long until the market will close for this year.

Frederick Daggett has resigned his position as chief electrician for the American Lime & Stone Co., a job he has filled most efficiently during the past six years.

W. Harrison Walker Esq., was signally honored by his alma mater, last week, when he was elected a member of Incorporators of Dickinson School of Law at Carlisle.

Paul W. Waite, of Half Moon valley, is a member of Penn State's dairy cattle judging team, and has gone to St. Louis, Mo., where the national dairy exposition will open tomorrow. The State team of four men will compete in the judging contests there.

Melvin Gillette, fifteen year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Gillette of Clarence, sustained a bad flesh wound on the right knee, on Tuesday, when a shot gun he was handling was accidentally discharged. He was brought to the Centre County hospital for treatment.

Two trucks and a car confiscated by police officials some months ago for carrying contraband liquor were sold at public sale, on Saturday, by order of the court. E. J. Gehret bought one of the trucks for $85; Henry Kline paid $130 for another and Clarence Ziegler bought the car for $5.00.

Landlord M. A. Landsy has had the word "Bellefonte" painted on the roof of the Brockhoff house, in letters ten feet high and eight wide. Also an arrow pointing the way to the aviation field and the figure "3" to indicate the distance in miles. The sign was painted for the benefit of airplane pilots new to this route.

With Penn's cave, the Woodward cave and Velled Lady Cavern right at their doors Centre county people are evidently fed up on underground attractions, as not one ticket was sold at the Bellefonte depot, Saturday night, for the Pennsylvania railroad's Sunday excursion to the Luray caverns and Grand caverns in Virginia.

Trustees of the Pennsylvania State College have granted indefinite leave of absence to Dr. Gerald L. Wendt, assistant to president Ralph D. Hetzel in institutional research. Dr. Wendt was dean of the school of chemistry and physics at the college from 1924 to 1928. He plans to devote himself for some time to private business interests.

Many appointments to positions that will run from one to two years will soon be made by the government. The work will have to do with the coming census and salaries will range from $1260 to $1440 per year. Applications will be received by the U. S. Civil Service commission until Nov. 2, 1929. Positions are open to both men and women. Full information can be obtained from any post master.

Announcements were received in Bellefonte this week of the marriage of Wallace James Ward, teacher of physics and chemistry in the Bellefonte High school, and Miss Lucille Stetler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Stetler, of Ripley, N. Y., the wedding having taken place on August 21st. Mrs. Ward had previously engaged to teach at Union City, Pa., the coming school year, and will make good her contract.

Miss Margaret Jones, daughter of Mrs. Louise Jones, of Bellefonte, and who is a trained nurse in Pittsburgh, was quite seriously injured in an auto accident in that city, one day last week, according to word received in Bellefonte on Monday. A trolley car ran past a red light signal and wrecked the auto in which Miss Jones was a passenger. She sustained various cuts and bruises as well as concussion of the brain, but is now improving.

On Sunday afternoon J. Dorsey Hunter, of Bellefonte, walked out to the Advent cemetery, on "The Divide," and just as he reached the point where the roads fork, one leading to Runville and the other to Yarnell, he saw a mother bear and three half grown cubs crossing an open field nearby. Several dogs were giving tongue on the ridge nearby and the old bear was leading her cubs out of the neighborhood where the dogs were. Mr. Hunter watched them for several minutes before they left the field and disappeared in the woods to the north.

HARRY C. MUSSER IS APPLYING FOR PARDON.

An application will be made to the Board of Pardons, at its October meeting next week, for a pardon for Harry C. Musser, of Centre county, convicted in September, 1924, of second degree murder for killing his uncle, William E. Musser, and sentenced to serve not less than ten nor more than twenty years in the western penitentiary.

The case was the last one of any importance tried before the late Judge Henry C. Quigley and attracted unusual attention. William Musser was murdered in a secluded spot in little Sugar valley on the evening of July 20th, 1924. The body was found the next day (Sunday) by D. O. Dorman, of Nittany valley. Harry Musser and Herbert Heaton, who had been seen in Bellefonte with William Musser on the evening of the 20th were arrested charged with the murder, and Seymour Stover was arrested as an accessory after the fact.

The case went to trial on September 25th before Judge Quigley, District attorney Arthur C. Dale was assisted in the prosecution by John G. Love Esq., while Musser was represented by S. D. Gettig and N. B. Spangler. Musser was tried first and the case was given to the jury on the afternoon of September 29th, which was Monday. After being out several hours the jury returned a verdict of "guilty and recommended to the mercy of the court." Judge Quigley sent them back with instructions to name the degree of guilt. Shortly after ten o'clock at night they returned a verdict of "guilty of murder in the first degree and recommended to the mercy of the court." Again the Judge sent them back with instructions that they could not under the law make any recommendations.

It was after twelve o'clock when they again reported and this time their verdict was "guilty of murder in the second degree." Incensed at the jury for changing their verdict from first to second degree Judge Quigley administered a scathing rebuke and then promptly sentenced Musser to not less than ten nor more than twenty years in the penitentiary, the maximum sentence. Musser is probably the only man in the State who heard a jury pronounce him guilty of murder in the first degree and two hours later listened to the same jury say he was guilty only of second degree murder.

Whether his application for a pardon will be contested before the Board, at Harrisburg next Wednesday, has not yet been determined.

ALTOONA HIGH DEFEATS BELLEFONTE KICKERS.

Before a crowd of eight thousand football fans in the new Mansion park stadium at Altoona, on Saturday, the Bellefonte High school football team went down in defeat before the more experienced Altoona kickers, in the first conference game of the season, by the score of 20 to 6. Defeated though they were the Bellefonte players fought valiantly to the end of the game. During the game Bellefonte made nine first downs to eight for Altoona. Capt. Confer and fullback Kelly were the principal ground gainers for Bellefonte. Tomorrow Bellefonte High will play at Mount Carmel.

The Bellefonte Academy defeated the Villa Nova Freshmen, in a hard fought game on Hughes field, Saturday afternoon, by the score of 20 to 0. The visitors came to Bellefonte primed to win and fought hard all through the game. The Academy made two touch downs through playing straight, hard football, while one touchdown was made when an Academy player intercepted a forward pass and evading the Villa Nova backfield made a long run to the goal line. Twice Villa Nova got within scoring distance but the Academy line held and they lost the ball on downs. The Academy will journey to New York where they will play the New York University Freshmen tomorrow.

Up at State College, on Saturday, Penn State defeated Lebanon Valley 15 to 0 in a game that gave coach Bezdek an opportunity to try out a number of men, and it is quite probable that more changes will be made in the lineup for the game with Marshall College tomorrow.

HOSPITAL MEETING ON MONDAY EVENING

Six trustees for the Centre County hospital are to be elected at the annual meeting of that institution to be held at the court house on Monday evening of next week, at 8 o'clock. A full report of the progress of the hospital during the past year will be read by manager W. H. Brown, together with other routine reports. Trustees whose terms will expire are William J. Emerick, Edward R. Owens and Calvin Troup, of District No. 1; John L. Holmes and Prof. Thomas E. Gravatt, of District No. 2, and J. R. Miller, of District No. 4. The public is cordially invited to attend this meeting.

Patients at the Centre County hospital feasted on wild turkey, on Sunday. The bird, which had been illegally killed in Decker valley, was presented to the hospital by game protector Thomas Mosier.

FRENCH MARIONETTES TO BE SHOWN HERE.

Owing to an open date on October 30th the Bellefonte public schools have been able to secure the largest traveling marionette stage in the world for exhibition in Bellefonte afternoon and evening of that date.

Until a few years ago marionettes were presented on very small stages ranging from six feet to ten. The puppets were small, generally about twelve to eighteen inches high. The result was that for years the marionettes made appearances only in the vaudeville theatres where they were regarded as a novelty that could be looked at for a period of eight or ten minutes.

In the past seven or eight years a number of companies have attempted to enlarge the idea of presentation, but it was not until Jean Gros, producer of the famous Jean Gros Marionettes, bravely started to tour with his stage, that covers about thirty feet of space, that the American public was able to realize that marionettes could be taken seriously as an integral part of the theatre and capable of presenting truly great plays with effectiveness.

Whereas other companies have carried up to two thousand pounds of baggage the French marionettes have astounded seasoned theatre managers by daring to carry over four thousand pounds, representing a complete miniature theatre, miniature however only in the thought that the equipment is set upon another stage.

A complete lighting equipment is carried, backdrops, wings, spotlights, curtains of every description, famous transformation scenes and over one hundred and fifty puppets.

With the company is also to be found Mr. Gros' marionettes-phonograph, not to mention singers and actors. It is interesting to note that while the art of working marionettes is perhaps the most difficult work in the theatre, that these artists have been working together for years and through their long effort they are able to accomplish effects with the figures which other companies have vainly attempted to copy.

When Mr. Gros presents Uncle Wiggly, Skippy and the Illuminated Ballet at the Richelleu theatre on Wednesday, October 30, both afternoon and evening, he will conclude the program at the evening performance by showing the audience just home the marionettes are operated. Don't fail to take the children to see them.

EASTERN STAR TO MEET IN AUDITORIUM AT HECLA

The annual meeting of the order of the Eastern Star for District No. 10, will be held in the spacious auditorium at Hecla Park on Friday, October 18th, with a business session in the afternoon and a reception to the State officers in the evening.

District No. 10 includes nine chapters in the central part of the State, No. 350, of Bellefonte; No. 275, of Lock Haven; No. 321, of Williamsport; No. 28, of Jersey Shore; No. 322, of Renovo; No. 207, of Centre Hall; No. 387, of Philipsburg; No. 379, of Clearfield, and No. 388, of State College. Mrs. Daisy Barnes Henderson, of Bellefonte, is the district deputy grand matron and is in charge of the arrangements for the meeting. The Bellefonte chapter, of which Mrs. Bertha W. Runkle is worthy matron, will be host to the gathering.

In the entire State there are over two hundred officers in the various chapters and quite a number are expected to attend the meeting, among the number being Mrs. Jessie R. Berlin, of Allentown, worthy grand matron of Pennsylvania, and Mrs. Adeline W. Barnes, of Pittsburgh, worthy grand secretary. All told about four hundred members of the order are expected to attend the meeting.

The business session will be held at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon, a luncheon at six o'clock to be served by caterer Mateer, of State College, and a reception for the grand officers in the evening.

CURFEW RINGS AT "Y" AT 8 EACH EVENING

In order to cooperate with home, school and social conditions in the lives of the younger boys and girls of the community the Y. M. C. A. has found it necessary to announce that the building will be closed to all Junior and Cadet boys and girls after the hour of eight each evening, with the exception of Friday, when the children may remain until nine. This rule will affect boys and girls under the age of fifteen. The parents are asked to cooperate. Your boys and girls under fifteen have not been at the "Y" after eight o'clock. In view of the fact that Halloween will soon be here, let's not forget to plan another evening at the "Y's" annual Halloween party. The date will be announced later. The invitation is for every person in the community.

Mrs. Lucretia Davis, of Munson, and Margaretta Rodgers, of Philipsburg, were brought to the Centre county jail, last week, in default of $500 bail to await trial at the next term of court on the charge of larceny. The two women were arrested on the alleged charge of stealing from the home of Dr. and Mrs. A. G. Lynn eleven sheets, fifty towels a linen tablecloth, fifty-four napkins, an electric iron and seven chickens. A quantity of the stolen property was found in the home of the Davis woman.

CENTRE WILL NOT VOTE ON VOTING MACHINES

The question of adopting voting machines in Centre county will not be submitted to the voters at the November election, according to the decision of the county commissioners this week.

It will be recalled that the voting machine amendment, when submitted to the voters a year ago, was defeated in Centre county by about 900 majority, even though it carried in the State. The latter fact gave to the voters of every election district in the State the right to petition the county commissioners to put the question of the adoption of the machines up to the people at the forthcoming election. Only one district in the county has filed a petition, the Third ward in Philipsburg. Because of this fact the voting machine question will not be carried upon the ballots to be printed for the November election, but a special ballot will be printed for Philipsburg only, which will enable the voters there to express their sentiments in favor or against the machines.

MOVE FOR COUNTY HOME SEEMS DOOMED

The movement inaugurated some time ago to submit to the voters, this fall, the question of establishing a county home to take care of all the dependent poor in the county seems doomed to failure. Up to Tuesday of this week not a sufficient number of signers had been received to the petitions asking that the question be placed upon the ballot.

Under the law two thousand signatures of legalized voters are necessary before the question can be submitted. Only a few districts in the county displayed any favorable interest in the matter, while the majority are against it.

P. O. S. OF A. TO ERECT GREAT ORPHANAGE IN STATE

It was expected that a national home for P. O. S. of A. would be projected at the recent national encampment of the Order in Columbus, Ohio.

Pennsylvania being the largest State in the Order anticipated that there would be concurrence in the movement, but since such was not the case this State is going ahead with its own home and orphanage program.

The beginning will be made this month with a visitation to some of the larger cities of the State for the presentation of a stupendous patriotic spectacle.

The spectacle will be made up of high grade first line performers who have been engaged at the highest prices. A cast of twenty-five people will travel with the company and in addition the celebrated Bob Bennett's orchestra of international fame, having played before King George of England and other foreign rulers has been engaged for the entire itinerary. In all, this project will present to the patriotic people of Pennsylvania the highest type entertainment ever produced under fraternal auspices. The points nearest Bellefonte at which the presentation will be made are:

Williamsport on October 28. Altoona, on October 29. Invitations have gone out to all of the 110,000 members of the Order in Pennsylvania and Centre county Camps will likely all be represented.

NEW STATE ROAD TO BELLEFONTE PROJECTED.

For some time past there has been considerable agitation for an improved State highway from White Deer, on the Susquehanna river, through White Deer valley to Loganton, in Sugar valley, thence to Cedar Springs and up Nittany valley to Bellefonte. The road would naturally follow the old White Deer turnpike to Loganton, a distance of twenty-five miles, thence to Cedar Springs. From the latter place to Bellefonte the road is already improved.

That the project is likely to be put through in the near future is evidenced from the fact that a crew of men, under direction of forest ranger L. M. Stone, began work, on Monday, with a complete equipment of road making machinery, on widening the old pike from Mill Run, about a mile west of Loganton, eastward to the dam of the Watsontown Water company, touching Tea Springs, the route traversing a most picturesque country. This road when built will be of great advantage to the general public, touching as it does points in Union, Clinton, and Centre counties. It will be a direct line from the West Branch river to the Centre county capital, and a short and direct way through that section of the State.

Watch for notice of next gathering.

The Undine Fire company will receive their new Mack truck tomorrow, and next Tuesday it will be given an official test.

Miss Margaret Stewart and her sister, Mrs. Miller, will leave today for Wilkes-Barre, where Mrs. Miller will make a short visit with her brother, Dr. Walter Stewart, before returning to Hagerstown, while Miss Stewart will spend the remainder of October in Wilkes-Barre.

Mrs. Daisy Barnes Henderson, district deputy of the Order of Eastern Star, and Mrs. Heverly were in Williamsport, Tuesday night. The visit, an official one, was a trip of inspection by Mrs. Henderson, who was the recipient of some choice flowers given her by the Williamsport chapter.

Mrs. Violet Barnhart Morris is home from New York on a month's vacation, which she is spending with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Willard Barnhart. Mrs. Morris is in her first year training in one of the larger hospitals of the city expecting to locate there permanently.

Mrs. Charles Workman, of Hecla, and her nephew, "Buddy" Jones, are visiting Mrs. Workman's sister, Mrs. James McCuskey, in Pittsburgh, having gone out Tuesday to see Miss Margaret Jones, who is ill in Mercy hospital, as the result of an automobile accident a week ago, in which she was quite severely injured.

Wetzel accompanied her daughter and son, Mrs. Farrell and Howard Wetzel, as far as Bethlehem yesterday, expecting to spend a week or ten days there with her mother, who will shortly celebrate her ninetieth birthday. The others will continue on from Bethlehem to their home at Coalwood, West Virginia.

Miss Elizabeth Morris, who will come east from Searcy, Arkansas, about the middle of the month, is expected in Bellefonte early in November to spend several weeks with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Morris. C. Mingle family. Miss Fiedler is the only daughter of the late James Fiedler, the family having been residents of Bellefonte for a number of years.

James I. McClure will be eighty-two years old tomorrow, Columbus day. Four hundred and thirty-seven years ago Christopher discovered America, so that it is really an eventful day. At eighty-two James is discovering that there is a great "kick" in life if one only knows how to get it. He spent the most of the summer in a bathing suit at Atlantic City and grew so fond of the crowds and the excitement that he is thinking of spending the winter there.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Cromer landed in New York, Monday, and will be there for a short time, while Mr. Cromer is in business conference relative to his three years work in Japan, after which they will come directly to Bellefonte, for a visit with Mrs. Cromer's father and sister, W. Homer Crissman and Mrs. Broderrick. The Cromers left the States in May of '26, having spent three years in Tokyo, where Mr. Cromer was in charge of the building of a bank, put up by the Stewart contracting company, of New York city, the past summer being spent in completing a trip around the world, visiting places in the Orient and Europe, wherever their fancy might lead.

Wednesday we had the pleasure of chatting for a few moments with an old friend whom we don't see often and one who is an outstanding illustration of what good judgment will do for anybody who has the will to work and the wit to see that he shares in its results. We refer to E. F. Homan, of State College, who was in town for an hour or so with his son, D. J. Homan, of Freeport, Ill. Mr. Homan has been retired and living at State College for twenty years or more and hasn't a thing in the world to worry him. His son came east ten days ago for his first visit in ten years and expects to leave next Monday. Mr. Homan is interested in prison building, consequently visited Rock View. The men stopped here enroute to Pittsburgh to consult with specialists at the Mellon Institute, concerning the making of cheaper brick for specially designed houses. It seems that President Hoover has become interested in a contention that under prevailing prices no person working for the average wage can afford to build a four room house. Also, that capital can not build a four room home and rent it at a rate that the average wage earner can afford to pay. The challenge has gone out and architects all over the country have taken up the study of the problem with a view to designing a house that will be within the reach of a person of modest means who desires to own a home.

Mr. and Mrs. Horatio S. Moore had as guests this week, their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William Dodds and their small son, of Tarentum.

Elder Ralston-Henry S. Elder son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Edward Elder, and Miss Catherine Ralston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Ralston, both of Pine Grove Mills were married at six o'clock on Wednesday evening, in their own newly furnished home, at Pine Grove Mills by Rev. John S. English. The young couple were attended by Miss Alice Ralston, sister of the bride, as maid of honor, and Earl Musser, best man. The ring ceremony was used.

Mr. Conser is stationed at Sangli in Western India. It is seventeen miles from the equator and the mercury may go as high as 160 deg. F. However, it is a dry heat. Here Mr. Conser supervises the activities of twenty-three schools and five churches. The area within which he works is 2,300 square miles made up of seventy-five villages. As Mr. Conser is engaged primarily in the evangelistic phase of the missionary enterprise he must constantly itinerate among these villages. Recently the response from high caste Indians has been unusually encouraging. Mr. Conser says the missionaries are being invited to visit in the better Indian homes.

The Centre county teachers' institute will be held next week, which will mean a week's vacation for all the school children. The institute of today is a much different gathering from the institute of a quarter of a century ago. In those days all the teachers spent the week in Bellefonte and the evening lectures and entertainments were the drawing card of institute. But the high cost of lecturers in these days makes that feature prohibitive, and with no evening entertainments most of the teachers come to Bellefonte in the morning in automobiles and return home at the close of the afternoon session.

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Centre County hospital will hold a rummage sale for the benefit of the hospital, in the Valentine property, corner of High and Spring streets, on Wednesday afternoon, October 23rd.
