

NEWS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

There is no question but that the new Bellefonte postoffice will stand on a solid foundation as bed rock has been reached in digging out for the basement of the building.

The Bellefonte Woman's club will meet on Monday evening, October 28, in the director's room of the High school building.

Don't forget the concert to be given in the Bellefonte Methodist church tonight. The Altoona R. R. shop men's chorus of fifty voices will be the feature and it will be supplemented by Marimba and a harp soloist.

The pageant to be staged in the principal cities of Pennsylvania by the P. O. S. of A., of which the Watchman gave a full prospectus several weeks ago, will prospect in Williamsport on October 28 and in Altoona on October 29.

Last Friday night some unknown individual stole William Garis' Chevrolet coupe from in front of his home, on east High street, and got away with it undetected.

At a special session of court, last Saturday, attorney N. B. Spangler presented a petition for the parole of John Smay, of Boggs township, sentenced by Judge Fleming on May 20th, 1929, to pay a fine of $750 and serve a term of two years in the county jail for a violation of the liquor laws.

Tonight's showing at the Cathaum, State College, will be "Oh Yeah." It is an all talking comedy melodrama, with laughs and thrills packed in every inch of the reels.

On Saturday evening a son of former county auditor Herbert H. Stover, of Smulton, was driving along the Smulton road in his auto and along the Charles Stover farm a big five-point buck jumped the fence out of a field right in front of the automobile.

Thirteen-year-old Doris Moltz, who has been a member of the Charles Bartholomew family, at Centre Hall, since she was three years old, was taken to the Lewistown hospital, on Sunday, and on Tuesday underwent quite a serious operation for the removal of a cystic tumor in the abdomen as well as her appendix.

A test of the reservoir has been made in order to determine whether there are leaks in it that might account for the abnormal amount of water being pumped in Bellefonte daily.

Seven Penn State students enroute to New York to witness the State-N. Y. U. football game, were injured in an auto collision on the road near Lancaster, early Saturday morning.

FIRE MARSHALL BOWER WANTS NEW FIRE ALARM.

West Penn Power to Test Bellefonte Water System for Leaks.

Fire marshal John J. Bower appeared before borough council, at the regular meeting on Monday evening, and, after stating that the present fire alarm is badly in need of repairs, and that it will probably cost $75.00 or more to put it in condition to operate successfully, suggested that it would probably be wiser to install a new alarm system, one on which the location of the fire could be given by definitely arranged signals.

A committee of the Undine Fire company, with George Carpeneto as spokesman, appeared before council to express their thanks for the borough's assistance in the purchase of their new quadruple combination.

Superintendent Walter T. McCormick and R. P. Lightner, of the West Penn Power company, with D. C. Morrow and H. E. Beckwith, expert water engineers, appeared before council and submitted a lengthy written proposition which they maintained would help solve the high cost of pumping water in Bellefonte.

The mill was a landmark in Pine Grove. It was built by Henry Weaver either in 1779 or 1780 and had been in almost continuous operation ever since.

The annual meeting of the Order of the Eastern Star, District No. 10, held in the auditorium at Hecla park, last Friday, was a success in every particular.

The meeting was under the direction of Mrs. Daisy B. Henderson, of Bellefonte, district deputy of District No. 10. The honor guest was Mrs. Jessie K. Berlin, of Allentown, worthy grand matron, of Pennsylvania, while other visitors included Mrs. Adeline W. Barnes, of Pittsburgh, grand secretary and past grand matron; Lee Wiser, Wilkingsburg, District No. 10; Mrs. Mary B. Stouch, grand representative of Porto Rico, and the following district deputies.

During the business meeting, which occupied all of the afternoon session, Mrs. Berlin was presented with a gift of gold from the members of the district, a silver flower vase from the Bellefonte chapter, a hand painted bowl and was given an honorary membership in the Bellefonte chapter.

Following the meeting a box banquet was served to about five hundred guests by a State College caterer after which a reception was held for the visiting officers.

SUPERVISORS WILL MEET THURSDAY OF NEXT WEEK.

The annual convention of the supervisors and township auditors' association of Centre county will be held in the court house, Bellefonte, on Thursday of next week, October 31st.

SEVEN PENN STATE STUDENTS HURT IN AUTO COLLISION.

Seven Penn State students enroute to New York to witness the State-N. Y. U. football game, were injured in an auto collision on the road near Lancaster, early Saturday morning.

On Thursday evening, November 14, the ladies aid of the Bellefonte Lutheran church will serve a chicken and waffle dinner.

THE OLD ARD WILL AT PINE GROVE BURNED

Pine Grove Mills had a conflagration Tuesday night that, had it not been for the fact that everything was soaking wet because of an all day rain, might have destroyed most of the town.

About 11:30 fire was discovered in the flouring mill of E. H. Auman in that place and as it was already beyond control the entire building went up in flames. The pine logs with which it was framed in 1779 were dry as tinder and made a raging fire. High winds swept the flames and sparks in every direction spreading such alarm that State College and Tyrone fire departments were appealed to for aid.

The new Tydol filling station recently erected beside the mill property by John Krumrine, of State College, was wiped completely off the landscape.

The fire started in a rubbish room adjoining the mill, supposedly, from spontaneous combustion, and was discovered by Miss Maude Krepis, who lives nearby, and sent in the alarm.

The mill was a landmark in Pine Grove. It was built by Henry Weaver either in 1779 or 1780 and had been in almost continuous operation ever since.

SUCCESSFUL MEETING OF ORDER OF EASTERN STAR

The annual meeting of the Order of the Eastern Star, District No. 10, held in the auditorium at Hecla park, last Friday, was a success in every particular.

The meeting was under the direction of Mrs. Daisy B. Henderson, of Bellefonte, district deputy of District No. 10. The honor guest was Mrs. Jessie K. Berlin, of Allentown, worthy grand matron, of Pennsylvania, while other visitors included Mrs. Adeline W. Barnes, of Pittsburgh, grand secretary and past grand matron; Lee Wiser, Wilkingsburg, District No. 10; Mrs. Mary B. Stouch, grand representative of Porto Rico, and the following district deputies.

During the business meeting, which occupied all of the afternoon session, Mrs. Berlin was presented with a gift of gold from the members of the district, a silver flower vase from the Bellefonte chapter, a hand painted bowl and was given an honorary membership in the Bellefonte chapter.

Following the meeting a box banquet was served to about five hundred guests by a State College caterer after which a reception was held for the visiting officers.

SUPERVISORS WILL MEET THURSDAY OF NEXT WEEK.

The annual convention of the supervisors and township auditors' association of Centre county will be held in the court house, Bellefonte, on Thursday of next week, October 31st.

SEVEN PENN STATE STUDENTS HURT IN AUTO COLLISION.

Seven Penn State students enroute to New York to witness the State-N. Y. U. football game, were injured in an auto collision on the road near Lancaster, early Saturday morning.

On Thursday evening, November 14, the ladies aid of the Bellefonte Lutheran church will serve a chicken and waffle dinner.

BELLEFONTE HIGH SCHOOL DOWNS WINDBER HIGH.

For real nerve-racking, high-tension thrills the football game between Bellefonte High and Windber High, on Hughes field, Saturday afternoon, was a record breaker.

Windber, a much heavier team than Bellefonte, and up until last Saturday undefeated, came here touted by all football experts as a sure and easy winner, but the first few minutes of play demonstrated the fact that Bellefonte had the superior team.

When the period was about half over Morran, of Windber, snaked down a forward pass and scored another touchdown, but again the goal was missed.

The meeting was under the direction of Mrs. Daisy B. Henderson, of Bellefonte, district deputy of District No. 10. The honor guest was Mrs. Jessie K. Berlin, of Allentown, worthy grand matron, of Pennsylvania, while other visitors included Mrs. Adeline W. Barnes, of Pittsburgh, grand secretary and past grand matron; Lee Wiser, Wilkingsburg, District No. 10; Mrs. Mary B. Stouch, grand representative of Porto Rico, and the following district deputies.

During the business meeting, which occupied all of the afternoon session, Mrs. Berlin was presented with a gift of gold from the members of the district, a silver flower vase from the Bellefonte chapter, a hand painted bowl and was given an honorary membership in the Bellefonte chapter.

SUCCESSFUL MEETING OF ORDER OF EASTERN STAR

The annual meeting of the Order of the Eastern Star, District No. 10, held in the auditorium at Hecla park, last Friday, was a success in every particular.

The meeting was under the direction of Mrs. Daisy B. Henderson, of Bellefonte, district deputy of District No. 10. The honor guest was Mrs. Jessie K. Berlin, of Allentown, worthy grand matron, of Pennsylvania, while other visitors included Mrs. Adeline W. Barnes, of Pittsburgh, grand secretary and past grand matron; Lee Wiser, Wilkingsburg, District No. 10; Mrs. Mary B. Stouch, grand representative of Porto Rico, and the following district deputies.

During the business meeting, which occupied all of the afternoon session, Mrs. Berlin was presented with a gift of gold from the members of the district, a silver flower vase from the Bellefonte chapter, a hand painted bowl and was given an honorary membership in the Bellefonte chapter.

Following the meeting a box banquet was served to about five hundred guests by a State College caterer after which a reception was held for the visiting officers.

SUPERVISORS WILL MEET THURSDAY OF NEXT WEEK.

The annual convention of the supervisors and township auditors' association of Centre county will be held in the court house, Bellefonte, on Thursday of next week, October 31st.

SEVEN PENN STATE STUDENTS HURT IN AUTO COLLISION.

Seven Penn State students enroute to New York to witness the State-N. Y. U. football game, were injured in an auto collision on the road near Lancaster, early Saturday morning.

On Thursday evening, November 14, the ladies aid of the Bellefonte Lutheran church will serve a chicken and waffle dinner.

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Murray Andrews are in Philadelphia, having gone down Tuesday, intending to spend several weeks in the city.

Mrs. Catherine Turner left, last Saturday, for a ten day's or two week's visit with her daughter, Mrs. Frank Hadley, at Passaic, N. J.

The Misses Grace and Virginia McCurdy went to Atlantic City, Tuesday, expecting to be at the shore until some time in November.

Mrs. Louis Carpeneto and her daughter, Miss Rose, are arranging to spend a week of Miss Carpeneto's vacation with friends in New York.

Mrs. Hiram Fetterhoff went to Harrisburg, Monday morning, where she intended spending a part of the week with a sister of Mr. Fetterhoff.

Miss Helen McLean, dietitian at the Centre County hospital, left a week ago to drive to her home in Boston, where she is spending her vacation.

The J. W. Blairs will leave the Cobb house, on west High street, the first of November, to make their home in Milesburg, where they have bought a home.

Mrs. John Puff, who was over from Centre Hall, Thursday of last week, for a day in Bellefonte, is a niece of Mrs. William Derstine and was Mrs. Derstine's guest while here.

The Kurtz Houser family of St. Michaels, was in Bellefonte for the week-end, on one of their frequent visits with Mr. Houser's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Houser, of Water street.

Mrs. Frederick Kurtz, of Lewisburg, who is a house guest of Mrs. Charles R. Kurtz, of Bellefonte, entertained her hostess and the Misses Hart at dinner at the Nittany Inn, Wednesday evening.

Mrs. George M. Gamble, with Mrs. Frank E. Naginay as a motor guest, left Tuesday for Bedford Springs, expecting to go north from there then across New York State. No definite time was set for their return.

Mrs. Theodore Gordon, Mrs. George Lawrence and Miss Sara Graham were all day guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Benner, in Centre Hall Wednesday, Mr. Benner having driven to Bellefonte for his guests in the morning, bringing them back to Bellefonte in the evening.

Mrs. John W. Harper, of Schenectady, N. Y., and Miss Marion Woodbury, of Great Barrington, Mass., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. James K. Barnhart, of Linn street last week. On Friday they left to continue their motor trip to Parkersburg, W. Va., where they are visiting a friend.

Ira D. Garman came up from Philadelphia, Saturday, to join Mrs. Garman, who had been in Bellefonte for three weeks visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Edwin F. Garman. Driving to Harrisburg, Monday, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Garman went on home from there by train, while Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Garman motored back to Bellefonte the same evening.

Guests entertained by Mrs. William Keen, of south Potter street, on Sunday, included Mrs. George Allendorfer, Mr. and Mrs. George Howe, Mrs. Howe being a sister of Mrs. Keen; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Allendorfer and daughter, Jean Howe Allendorfer, all of Johnstown; Mr. and Mrs. Matthew McCully and Mrs. Edith Lee, also a sister of Mrs. Keen, of Philadelphia.

Ruth and Eleanor Hoffer as well as their cousins, Dorothy and Susanne, all of Philadelphia, spent last week in Bellefonte. The former were with their aunt, Louise Hoffer, who spent the week with Dr. and Mrs. M. A. Kirk, while the latter were guests for the school vacation, of Mary Fleming, at the home of her parents, Judge and Mrs. M. Ward Fleming, on east Linn street.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Shields, of Reading, with their two children, Mary Elizabeth and Michael, motored here last Friday and remained until Sunday evening visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Shields, of Logan street, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Galbraith, of Bishop street. Miss Agnes Shields accompanied them as far as Milton on the return trip. She will make a little visit with Mrs. Curtin Fortney, in Milton, and then go on to Williamsport for a few days with Mrs. Penny.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Sutherland motored over from Huntingdon, last Friday morning, Mr. Sutherland returning home by train the same evening. Mrs. Sutherland, who is a charter member of the Bellefonte chapter of the Eastern Star, attended the district meeting of that order held at Hecla park, on Friday, prolonging her visit in Bellefonte until Tuesday as a guest of Miss Windber M. Gates and other friends. Mr. Sutherland, by the way, has had repeated offers from the United States Department of Justice to go to the federal prison, at Leavenworth, Kansas, but prefers remaining at Huntingdon as assistant superintendent of the reformatory.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Rumberger, with their son J. Paul Rumberger and his wife and little son, Joseph Jr., spent most of the past week visiting relatives in the county. Paul is in business in Canonsburg and having been off on a motor trip ran over to DuBois, picked up his father and mother and headed for Centre county. The party spent Saturday night and Sunday with the Waites near Stormstown. On Monday they came down to Pleasant Gap for a visit with the Sam Rumbergers, and Tuesday they all went up to Unionville where they stayed until yesterday. Mr. Rumberger Sr. is in the wholesale grocery business in DuBois and from the rarity of his visits back to the place where he was once so well known it would seem that his business demands his very close application.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Wallace Reeder, of Pasadena, Cal., arrived in Bellefonte, Monday, spent the day and night here visiting with friends and left Tuesday morning, to resume their six weeks motor trip. Coming east by train as far as Detroit they then bought a car, continuing the trip on over through Canada, then south through New England and on over into Pennsylvania for the visit to Bellefonte. Upon leaving they went east to the Atlantic coast, expecting to go to Florida then back west over a southern trail. Mr. Reeder, who is in the ice business and has been very successful since going west, is the only son of the late Col. Wilbur F. Reeder, a prominent member of the Centre county bar, and Mrs. Reeder, now also of Pasadena. Wallace left Bellefonte more than twenty-five years ago and has made but one visit back home, that being twenty-four years ago. During their over night stay in Bellefonte, Mr. and Mrs. Reeder were home guests of Mr. and Mrs. George R. Meek.

Mr. and Mrs. Shirk, who have spent the summer at The Markland, will return to their home in Pittsburgh before the first of November, with plans for going from there to Florida for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Craft and their two children drove down from Buffalo Saturday, for an overnight visit with Mrs. Craft's mother, Mrs. Jerre Nolan, who is thought to be seriously ill, at her home on Logan street.

Mr. and Mrs. John Garthoff with Miss Mary Wetzel and Miss Katherine Houser, as motor guests, drove to Reading Friday of last week visiting there until Sunday, with Mrs. Garthoff's niece Mrs. Heflinger and her family.

Miss Annie McLaughlin went over to Tyrone, yesterday, to be with her niece indefinitely, while recovering from a long illness. During her absence Miss Pearl will occupy Miss McLaughlin's apartment in Petriken Hall.

Mrs. H. M. Wetzel will return tomorrow from a three weeks visit with her mother in Bethlehem, expecting to drive up with her nephew and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schueller, who are coming up for the State-Lafayette game Saturday.

Taking advantage of a brief transfer to Phillipsburg Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Bilger came over to Bellefonte and spent Sunday with Mr. Bilger's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Bilger, on north Spring street, their first visit since their marriage some weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Shedd and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clark, of Philadelphia, were guests at the Brockerhoff house last Saturday night. Mr. Shedd is managing editor of the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin and Mr. Clark is a staff man, writer of the "Men and Things" column, and a gentleman who was so delighted with his trip to Centre county, last May, that he told about it in a two column story in the Bulletin. In making reservations at the Brockerhoff for last Saturday night he specified a good supply of sausages and pancakes which, of course, he got.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Shedd and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clark, of Philadelphia, were guests at the Brockerhoff house last Saturday night. Mr. Shedd is managing editor of the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin and Mr. Clark is a staff man, writer of the "Men and Things" column, and a gentleman who was so delighted with his trip to Centre county, last May, that he told about it in a two column story in the Bulletin. In making reservations at the Brockerhoff for last Saturday night he specified a good supply of sausages and pancakes which, of course, he got.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Shedd and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clark, of Philadelphia, were guests at the Brockerhoff house last Saturday night. Mr. Shedd is managing editor of the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin and Mr. Clark is a staff man, writer of the "Men and Things" column, and a gentleman who was so delighted with his trip to Centre county, last May, that he told about it in a two column story in the Bulletin. In making reservations at the Brockerhoff for last Saturday night he specified a good supply of sausages and pancakes which, of course, he got.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Shedd and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clark, of Philadelphia, were guests at the Brockerhoff house last Saturday night. Mr. Shedd is managing editor of the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin and Mr. Clark is a staff man, writer of the "Men and Things" column, and a gentleman who was so delighted with his trip to Centre county, last May, that he told about it in a two column story in the Bulletin. In making reservations at the Brockerhoff for last Saturday night he specified a good supply of sausages and pancakes which, of course, he got.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Shedd and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clark, of Philadelphia, were guests at the Brockerhoff house last Saturday night. Mr. Shedd is managing editor of the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin and Mr. Clark is a staff man, writer of the "Men and Things" column, and a gentleman who was so delighted with his trip to Centre county, last May, that he told about it in a two column story in the Bulletin. In making reservations at the Brockerhoff for last Saturday night he specified a good supply of sausages and pancakes which, of course, he got.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Shedd and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clark, of Philadelphia, were guests at the Brockerhoff house last Saturday night. Mr. Shedd is managing editor of the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin and Mr. Clark is a staff man, writer of the "Men and Things" column, and a gentleman who was so delighted with his trip to Centre county, last May, that he told about it in a two column story in the Bulletin. In making reservations at the Brockerhoff for last Saturday night he specified a good supply of sausages and pancakes which, of course, he got.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Shedd and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clark, of Philadelphia, were guests at the Brockerhoff house last Saturday night. Mr. Shedd is managing editor of the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin and Mr. Clark is a staff man, writer of the "Men and Things" column, and a gentleman who was so delighted with his trip to Centre county, last May, that he told about it in a two column story in the Bulletin. In making reservations at the Brockerhoff for last Saturday night he specified a good supply of sausages and pancakes which, of course, he got.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Shedd and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clark, of Philadelphia, were guests at the Brockerhoff house last Saturday night. Mr. Shedd is managing editor of the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin and Mr. Clark is a staff man, writer of the "Men and Things" column, and a gentleman who was so delighted with his trip to Centre county, last May, that he told about it in a two column story in the Bulletin. In making reservations at the Brockerhoff for last Saturday night he specified a good supply of sausages and pancakes which, of course, he got.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Shedd and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clark, of Philadelphia, were guests at the Brockerhoff house last Saturday night. Mr. Shedd is managing editor of the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin and Mr. Clark is a staff man, writer of the "Men and Things" column, and a gentleman who was so delighted with his trip to Centre county, last May, that he told about it in a two column story in the Bulletin. In making reservations at the Brockerhoff for last Saturday night he specified a good supply of sausages and pancakes which, of course, he got.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Shedd and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clark, of Philadelphia, were guests at the Brockerhoff house last Saturday night. Mr. Shedd is managing editor of the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin and Mr. Clark is a staff man, writer of the "Men and Things" column, and a gentleman who was so delighted with his trip to Centre county, last May, that he told about it in a two column story in the Bulletin. In making reservations at the Brockerhoff for last Saturday night he specified a good supply of sausages and pancakes which, of course, he got.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Shedd and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clark, of Philadelphia, were guests at the Brockerhoff house last Saturday night. Mr. Shedd is managing editor of the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin and Mr. Clark is a staff man, writer of the "Men and Things" column, and a gentleman who was so delighted with his trip to Centre county, last May, that he told about it in a two column story in the Bulletin. In making reservations at the Brockerhoff for last Saturday night he specified a good supply of sausages and pancakes which, of course, he got.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Shedd and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clark, of Philadelphia, were guests at the Brockerhoff house last Saturday night. Mr. Shedd is managing editor of the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin and Mr. Clark is a staff man, writer of the "Men and Things" column, and a gentleman who was so delighted with his trip to Centre county, last May, that he told about it in a two column story in the Bulletin. In making reservations at the Brockerhoff for last Saturday night he specified a good supply of sausages and pancakes which, of course, he got.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Shedd and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clark, of Philadelphia, were guests at the Brockerhoff house last Saturday night. Mr. Shedd is managing editor of the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin and Mr. Clark is a staff man, writer of the "Men and Things" column, and a gentleman who was so delighted with his trip to Centre county, last May, that he told about it in a two column story in the Bulletin. In making reservations at the Brockerhoff for last Saturday night he specified a good supply of sausages and pancakes which, of course, he got.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Shedd and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clark, of Philadelphia, were guests at the Brockerhoff house last Saturday night. Mr. Shedd is managing editor of the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin and Mr. Clark is a staff man, writer of the "Men and Things" column, and a gentleman who was so delighted with his trip to Centre county, last May, that he told about it in a two column story in the Bulletin. In making reservations at the Brockerhoff for last Saturday night he specified a good supply of sausages and pancakes which, of course, he got.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Shedd and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clark, of Philadelphia, were guests at the Brockerhoff house last Saturday night. Mr. Shedd is managing editor of the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin and Mr. Clark is a staff man, writer of the "Men and Things" column, and a gentleman who was so delighted with his trip to Centre county, last May, that he told about it in a two column story in the Bulletin. In making reservations at the Brockerhoff for last Saturday night he specified a good supply of sausages and pancakes which, of course, he got.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Shedd and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clark, of Philadelphia, were guests at the Brockerhoff house last Saturday night. Mr. Shedd is managing editor of the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin and Mr. Clark is a staff man, writer of the "Men and Things" column, and a gentleman who was so delighted with his trip to Centre county, last May, that he told about it in a two column story in the Bulletin. In making reservations at the Brockerhoff for last Saturday night he specified a good supply of sausages and pancakes which, of course, he got.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Shedd and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clark, of Philadelphia, were guests at the Brockerhoff house last Saturday night. Mr. Shedd is managing editor of the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin and Mr. Clark is a staff man, writer of the "Men and Things" column, and a gentleman who was so delighted with his trip to Centre county, last May, that he told about it in a two column story in the Bulletin. In making reservations at the Brockerhoff for last Saturday night he specified a good supply of sausages and pancakes which, of course, he got.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Shedd and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clark, of Philadelphia, were guests at the Brockerhoff house last Saturday night. Mr. Shedd is managing editor of the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin and Mr. Clark is a staff man, writer of the "Men and Things" column, and a gentleman who was so delighted with his trip to Centre county, last May, that he told about it in a two column story in the Bulletin. In making reservations at the Brockerhoff for last Saturday night he specified a good supply of sausages and pancakes which, of course, he got.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Shedd and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clark, of Philadelphia, were guests at the Brockerhoff house last Saturday night. Mr. Shedd is managing editor of the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin and Mr. Clark is a staff man, writer of the "Men and Things" column, and a gentleman who was so delighted with his trip to Centre county, last May, that he told about it in a two column story in the Bulletin. In making reservations at the Brockerhoff for last Saturday night he specified a good supply of sausages and pancakes which, of course, he got.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Shedd and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clark, of Philadelphia, were guests at the Brockerhoff house last Saturday night. Mr. Shedd is managing editor of the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin and Mr. Clark is a staff man, writer of the "Men and Things" column, and a gentleman who was so delighted with his trip to Centre county, last May, that he told about it in a two column story in the Bulletin. In making reservations at the Brockerhoff for last Saturday night he specified a good supply of sausages and pancakes which, of course, he got.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Shedd and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clark, of Philadelphia, were guests at the Brockerhoff house last Saturday night. Mr. Shedd is managing editor of the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin and Mr. Clark is a staff man, writer of the "Men and Things" column, and a gentleman who was so delighted with his trip to Centre county, last May, that he told about it in a two column story in the Bulletin. In making reservations at the Brockerhoff for last Saturday night he specified a good supply of sausages and pancakes which, of course, he got.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Shedd and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clark, of Philadelphia, were guests at the Brockerhoff house last Saturday night. Mr. Shedd is managing editor of the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin and Mr. Clark is a staff man, writer of the "Men and Things" column, and a gentleman who was so delighted with his trip to Centre county, last May, that he told about it in a two column story in the Bulletin. In making reservations at the Brockerhoff for last Saturday night he specified a good supply of sausages and pancakes which, of course, he got.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Shedd and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clark, of Philadelphia, were guests at the Brockerhoff house last Saturday night. Mr. Shedd is managing editor of the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin and Mr. Clark is a staff man, writer of the "Men and Things" column, and a gentleman who was so delighted with his trip to Centre county, last May, that he told about it in a two column story in the Bulletin. In making reservations at the Brockerhoff for last Saturday night he specified a good supply of sausages and pancakes which, of course, he got.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Shedd and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clark, of Philadelphia, were guests at the Brockerhoff house last Saturday night. Mr. Shedd is managing editor of the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin and Mr. Clark is a staff man, writer of the "Men and Things" column, and a gentleman who was so delighted with his trip to Centre county, last May, that he told about it in a two column story in the Bulletin. In making reservations at the Brockerhoff for last Saturday night he specified a good supply of sausages and pancakes which, of course, he got.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Shedd and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clark, of Philadelphia, were guests at the Brockerhoff house last Saturday night. Mr. Shedd is managing editor of the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin and Mr. Clark is a staff man, writer of the "Men and Things" column, and a gentleman who was so delighted with his trip to Centre county, last May, that he told about it in a two column story in the Bulletin. In making reservations at the Brockerhoff for last Saturday night he specified a good supply of sausages and pancakes which, of course, he got.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Shedd and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clark, of Philadelphia, were guests at the Brockerhoff house last Saturday night. Mr. Shedd is managing editor of the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin and Mr. Clark is a staff man, writer of the "Men and Things" column, and a gentleman who was so delighted with his trip to Centre county, last May, that he told about it in a two column story in the Bulletin. In making reservations at the Brockerhoff for last Saturday night he specified a good supply of sausages and pancakes which, of course, he got.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Shedd and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clark, of Philadelphia, were guests at the Brockerhoff house last Saturday night. Mr. Shedd is managing editor of the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin and Mr. Clark is a staff man, writer of the "Men and Things" column, and a gentleman who was so delighted with his trip to Centre county, last May, that he told about it in a two column story in the Bulletin. In making reservations at the Brockerhoff for last Saturday night he specified a good supply of sausages and pancakes which, of course, he got.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Shedd and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clark, of Philadelphia, were guests at the Brockerhoff house last Saturday night. Mr. Shedd is managing editor of the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin and Mr. Clark is a staff man, writer of the "Men and Things" column, and a gentleman who was so delighted with his trip to Centre county, last May, that he told about it in a two column story in the Bulletin. In making reservations at the Brockerhoff for last Saturday night he specified a good supply of sausages and pancakes which, of course, he got.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Shedd and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clark, of Philadelphia, were guests at the Brockerhoff house last Saturday night. Mr. Shedd is managing editor of the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin and Mr. Clark is a staff man, writer of the "Men and Things" column, and a gentleman who was so delighted with his trip to Centre county, last May, that he told about it in a two column story in the Bulletin. In making reservations at the Brockerhoff for last Saturday night he specified a good supply of sausages and pancakes which, of course, he got.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Shedd and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clark, of Philadelphia, were guests at the Brockerhoff house last Saturday night. Mr. Shedd is managing editor of the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin and Mr. Clark is a staff man, writer of the "Men and Things" column, and a gentleman who was so delighted with his trip to Centre county, last May, that he told about it in a two column story in the Bulletin. In making reservations at the Brockerhoff for last Saturday night he specified a good supply of sausages and pancakes which, of course, he got.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Shedd and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clark, of Philadelphia, were guests at the Brockerhoff house last Saturday night. Mr. Shedd is managing editor of the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin and Mr. Clark is a staff man, writer of the "Men and Things" column, and a gentleman who was so delighted with his trip to Centre county, last May, that he told about it in a two column story in the Bulletin. In making reservations at the Brockerhoff for last Saturday night he specified a good supply of sausages and pancakes which, of course, he got.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Shedd and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clark, of Philadelphia, were guests at the Brockerhoff house last Saturday night. Mr. Shedd is managing editor of the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin and Mr. Clark is a staff man, writer of the "Men and Things" column, and a gentleman who was so delighted with his trip to Centre county, last May, that he told about it in a two column story in the Bulletin. In making reservations at the Brockerhoff for last Saturday night he specified a good supply of sausages and pancakes which, of course, he got.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Shedd and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clark, of Philadelphia, were guests at the Brockerhoff house last Saturday night. Mr. Shedd is managing editor of the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin and Mr. Clark is a staff man, writer of the "Men and Things" column, and a gentleman who was so delighted with his trip to