

LOSE.—Mrs. Mary Anne Lose, widow of the late George Lose, passed away at 7:10 o'clock on Sunday morning following an illness dating back to January 29th when she suffered a stroke of paralysis. Several weeks after she was stricken she was taken to the Centre County hospital where she spent four months, when she was moved to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Gilbert A. Boyer, where she remained until passing away.

She was a daughter of John and Mary Garity and was born in Dublin, Ireland, in August, 1851, hence was 78 years old. When she was but three years old she came to this country with her father and grandmother, who located in Altoona, her father becoming an engineer on the Pittsburgh division of the Pennsylvania railroad. She lived there for some years then came to Bellefonte and when only seventeen years of age married George Alfred Lose, and this had been her home ever since. She was a member of the Catholic church all her life. For eleven years she was housekeeper in the W. T. Kelly home. Her husband died nine years ago and her only surviving children are two daughters, Mrs. Thomas Jenks, of Atlantic City, and Mrs. Gilbert Boyer, of Bellefonte. Her only son, Joseph Lose, died four years ago. She also leaves two grand-children, Joseph Lose Jr. of Cleveland, Ohio, and Miss Elizabeth Labe, of Bellefonte.

Funeral services were held in the Catholic church at ten o'clock on Wednesday morning, burial being made in the Catholic cemetery.

SHARP.—William Stanley Sharp, a native of Centre county and a veteran of the Civil war, died last Thursday, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Mary O'Mara, in Tyrone, as the result of general debility.

He was a son of George and Ruth Sharp and was born near Bellefonte on March 12th, 1847, hence had reached the age of 82 years, 7 months and 19 days. For many years during his early life he worked as a forgerman at the old Valentine forge and when it closed he moved to Tyrone. He was a member of the Methodist church and the Col. D. M. Jones post, No. 172, G. A. R., of Tyrone. In 1872 he married Miss Bridget Flack, of Bellefonte, who died twenty eight years ago, but surviving him are three sons and two daughters, William Sharp, of Brownsville, John, of Olean, N. Y.; Charles, of Minneapolis, Minn.; Mrs. Mary O'Mara, of Tyrone, and Mrs. Warren G. Reighard, of Altoona. He also leaves two sisters and a brother, Mrs. Sarah Waite, of Bellefonte; Mrs. Elizabeth McCafferty, of Harrisburg, and James Sharp, of Pittsburgh.

Funeral services were held at his late home, in Tyrone, at three o'clock on Saturday afternoon by Rev. H. Willis Hartsock burial being made in the Grandview cemetery.

STOVER.—Mrs. Jennie Catherine Stover, widow of Sumner V. Stover, died at her home at Flemington, at 11 o'clock last Friday night, as the result of a heart attack, although she had been in poor health for several years.

She was a daughter of John F. and Emma J. Haagan and was born in Gregg township, Centre county, fifty years ago. In addition to her husband she is survived by one son and three daughters, Harry Stover, of Buffalo, N. Y.; Mrs. Edgar Miller, of Flemington; Emma and Arline, at home. She also leaves her father, living at Farmers Mills, and the following brothers and sisters: Russell Haagan, of Pittsburgh; William, of Penn Hall; Bruce, Merrill, Blanche and Mrs. Harry Ream, of Bellefonte; Charles, of Shamokin; Archibald and Verna, at home.

Funeral services were held at her late home, at Flemington, at one o'clock on Tuesday afternoon, by Rev. Ellsworth Kreps, the remains being taken to Rebersburg for burial.

WEAVER.—Mrs. Esther Musser Weaver, wife of William P. Weaver, died at her home in Tyrone, on Saturday afternoon, following two year's illness with a heart affection.

She was a daughter of William and Martha Musser and was born at State College on February 12th, 1882, hence was in her 48th year. She married Mr. Weaver in 1902 and three years later they moved to Tyrone where they have lived ever since. In addition to her husband she is survived by a daughter and one son, Mrs. Eunice Higgins, of Altoona, and Harold C. Weaver, in Nicaragua. She also leaves three brothers, Daniel Musser, of Chester Hill; Carl and Olin Musser, of Phillipsburg.

Funeral services were held at two o'clock on Tuesday afternoon, the remains being taken to Phillipsburg for burial.

HARM.—Miss Gladys S. Harm died at her home, at State College, on Tuesday of last week, following two week's illness with pneumonia. She was a daughter of Harry and Mary Shope Harm and was born at Snow Shoe twenty-seven years ago. The Harm family moved to the College about four years ago and during the past year Miss Harm had filled the position of stenographer in the registrar's office. In addition to her parents she is survived by one sister, Isabelle, at home. Funeral services were held at the home, last Thursday afternoon, and on Friday he remains were taken to Snow Shoe for burial.

WILLIAMS.—Mrs. Ella Josephine Williams, wife of Frank C. Williams, former residents of Bellefonte, died at her home in Altoona, at three o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, following an illness of three years with a complication of diseases.

She was a daughter of George W. and Catherine Love Coffman and was born at Lock Haven on April 23rd, 1873, hence was in her 57th year. When a child her parents moved to Bellefonte and all her life was spent here. She and Mr. Williams were married about thirty years ago and spent the first years of their married life in Bellefonte. They moved to Altoona about twenty years ago and that had been her home ever since. In addition to her husband she is survived by two sons and one daughter, Mrs. J. S. Ehringer, F. Carl and Leslie Williams, all of Altoona. She also leaves her mother, three brothers and three sisters, William A. G. and Alden Coffman, Mrs. Herbert Reidebaugh and Mrs. D. W. Ullery, of Altoona, and Mrs. H. E. Morris, of Juniata.

Funeral services will be held in the Third Presbyterian church, Altoona, at three o'clock on Saturday afternoon, by Rev. W. L. McClure, burial to be made in the Rose Hill cemetery.

EMERICK.—Mrs. Clara Elvina Emerick, widow of the late George W. Emerick, passed away at 9 o'clock on Sunday morning, at the home of her son, W. J. Emerick, on west Linn street, Bellefonte, following an illness of some weeks as the result of a general breakdown.

She was a native of Northumberland county and was 80 years, 8 months and 7 days old. She had made her home with her son and family, in Bellefonte, for several years. Her husband died a number of years ago but surviving her are two sons, W. J. Emerick, of Bellefonte and Harry, of Harrisburg. She also leaves one brother, Wesley Vankirk, of Milton.

Funeral services were held at the Emerick home at 11:15 o'clock on Wednesday morning, by Rev. Clarence Arnold, after which the remains were taken to Sunbury where final services were held in the Zion Lutheran church, by Rev. Arnold, assisted by the pastor, Rev. Charles A. Bowers. Burial was made in the Sunbury cemetery.

REED.—Mrs. Elizabeth Reed, wife of Edward R. Reed, died at her home at Beech Creek, on Saturday, following an illness of two weeks with gall stones.

She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter C. Gould and was born near Beech Creek, fifty years ago. She is survived by her husband, two daughters and two sons, Mrs. Joseph Kriessley, Elizabeth, George and Fred, all at home. She also leaves one brother, Harry Gould, of Punxsutawney. Burial was made at Blanchard on Tuesday afternoon.

Every kind-hearted American will sympathize with Queen Marie of Rumania if she is turned out of her home.

Mussolini may be in favor of peace but he "tells the world" that he is willing to fight.

BOALSBURG.—Jacob Felty, of Altoona, was a week-end visitor in town.

Miss Geer, accompanied by a State College friend, spent Saturday and Sunday at Lock Haven.

Rev. Delas Keener, of Centre Hall, will occupy the pulpit in the Reformed church on Sunday evening.

A. J. Hazel returned home, last week, after spending the summer in New York State, where he was employed.

The Civic club held their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Grant Charles, at State College, on Friday evening.

Dean and Donald Ross, of Linden Hall, were guests of their aunt, Mrs. George Mothersbaugh, several days last week.

Mrs. J. D. Mayes and daughters, Misses Agnes and Helen, and son William spent the week-end among friends in town.

George Mothersbaugh visited his daughter, Mrs. Henry Bubeck, at Willow Grove Park, last week, going down with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ross and daughter Margaret.

Millard Shreffler and Miss Margaret Swartz, of Pleasant Gap, were united in marriage by Rev. W. J. Wagner, at the parsonage on Saturday morning at ten o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Noll were the attendants.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ott, Mrs. Geo. McFarland, Misses Daisy Gruver, Alice Rowe, Jessie McBurney, Laura Russell, of Altoona, and Miss Janet Beaty, of Reedsville, were guests of Miss Anna Sweeney on Saturday.

Mrs. W. J. Wagner and her daughter, Mrs. Harkins, of State College, went to Aarandtsville, Wednesday, to the home of Rev. Geo. Ely and, accompanied by Mrs. Ely, continued their trip to Garrettsville to visit at the home of Rev. John H. Wagner.

WINGATE.—Mack Murray has moved from the Davidson house into his own new home.

Lew Davidson has recovered sufficiently to be at his store part of the time every day.

Mrs. Harry Fetzer and three children came down from Oak Hall, on Saturday, and remained over Sunday with relatives.

A number of Hallow-eeners in this section were unable to pull off pranks of consequence, as people were on watch all the time.

ABONSBURG.—Mrs. Thomas Hull had as recent callers Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Rote, of Axe Mann.

Mrs. Charles Flickinger, of Brooklyn, N. Y., was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Acker.

Kennitt Orwig, after having been in Allentown for several weeks, where he was employed, returned home last week.

Rev. and Mrs. G. A. Fred Griesing had as a guest Mrs. D. R. Keener, wife of the pastor on Centre Hall Reformed church.

Miss Ardrea Harman, of New York City, after a two weeks visit with her mother, left to resume her work in the great metropolis.

Charles Boyer, of Akron, O., has for the past week been the guest of his brother, Frank Boyer, and other relatives and friends in and about town.

Mrs. Reese and Mr. and Mrs. Welsh, of Williamsport, were dinner guests, Sunday, of Mrs. Reese's sister-in-law, Mrs. John M. Otto, on Main St.

Mrs. A. J. Irely and son, Philip Irely, accompanied by Mrs. Anna M. Stover and Mrs. John M. Otto, motored to Danville, Wednesday last, on a business trip.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Krape and baby daughter Jean, motored to Sunbury, Thursday last, having gone down that their child might receive special medical attention.

Miss Emma Bower, who has for many years lived by herself in the old homestead, was taken to the home of her sister, Mrs. James Holloway. Miss Bower has been quite feeble for some time and as cold weather approaches it was found to be the best that she have better care.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Musser had as recent guests Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bartz and three children, Mrs. Hannah Shutt and two children, of Youngstown, Ohio. Mr. and Mrs. Young Tressler and family and Mrs. Emma Tressler, of Bellefonte; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hackenberg, of Runville.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Stover and son John, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burd motored to Milroy, recently, where they made a brief call at the home of Mr. Stover's niece, Mr. and Mrs. Shem Aurand. Miss Laura Beaver motored down from Altoona, recently, and was a brief guest with her uncle, A. S. Stover.

The Hallow-een social given by the girls Missionary Guild of the Reformed church, at the home of Miss Sara Cunningham, was well attended and a decided success. Everyone present expressed themselves as having had a pleasant evening. The girls and their splendid leader, Mrs. G. A. F. Griesing, are to be congratulated for their efforts and the splendid out-come.

UNIONVILLE.—Mrs. Mary Eckley is on the sick list, having suffered a slight stroke.

Latest report of Mr. John Holt is that he is slowly gaining in strength. Election went off very quietly here with a reasonably good turnout of voters.

Mrs. J. C. Shirk, of Bellefonte, was an over Sunday visitor with her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kerchner.

Joe Spotts has sold his property up the lake and expects to move to town after the necessary arrangements are completed.

November 22 is the date planned for a chicken and waffle supper and bazaar by the Ladies Aid society to be held in the Grange hall.

Friends of Mrs. Arvilla Adams, who was a resident of our town for several years, but now of Swissvale, are sorry to hear of her serious illness at the home of her son Everett.

Miss Ruth Lucas, who has been at home on a vacation for sometime, returned to Easton, on Wednesday, where she has been employed since last winter.

Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rollie Williams were their daughters and families from Clearfield, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nasson and Mr. and Mrs. Linn Durst and children.

Last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. George Bullock and Mrs. Pauline Peters, sister of Mrs. Bullock, motored to Luthersburg where they spent the day with their daughter and husband, Rev. and Mrs. Robert Keeler. Mrs. Peters remained there until Tuesday when the Keelers brought her to the home of Mr. Bullock where they were guests for the evening, Mrs. Keeler staying with her parents for a few days' visit.

JACKSONVILLE.—In spite of the rainy weather the beginning of hunting season the fields and woods were full of hunters.

Harry Hoy and son Mervin spent Thursday in Bellefonte, at the Centre county convention of supervisors and auditors.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shepperd and Clifford Peck spent the week-end at Harry Hoy's, the men going hunting Friday and Saturday. They returned to their home in Bellwood Sunday afternoon.

The ladies Aid of the Reformed church met at the home of Mrs. Annie Harter, on Saturday evening, and made of the gathering a masquerade party. Those present were: Mrs. Nevin Yearick, daughter Nanna, Mrs. N. H. Yearick, Mrs. John Beck, Mrs. William Dixon, Mrs. John Condo, Mrs. Charles Yearick, Mrs. O. P. Smith, Mrs. Charles Shepperd, Mrs. James Bartley, Mrs. Harry Hoy, Mrs. Elmer Swoop, Mrs. Willard Harter, Mrs. George Ertley, Mrs. Elsworth Weight, Mrs. James Vonada, Mrs. Edward Bartley, Mrs. Homer Yearick and son John. Mrs. Tillie Ertley, son George, daughter, Lorela, Misses Nora Weight, Jane Yearick, Isabel and Violet Ertley, Gladys Houser.

—Subscribe for the Watchman.

FINE GROVE MENTION.

John Irvin is visiting relatives in Bellefonte.

W. W. Keller is here from Pittsburgh for a week's hunting.

Ralph E. Musser is recovering from a three week's siege of illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger A. Bayard, of Tyrone, were callers on our town, on Sunday.

Mrs. Jane Ripka, of Pleasant Gap, was a Sunday visitor at the home of Mrs. Mary Meyers.

A very generous kitchen shower was given Mrs. H. S. Elder, a recent bride, on Hallow-eeen.

J. E. Elder is limping around with a badly sprained ankle and foot, received in a fall in his room.

Mrs. Ed Decker, of Bellefonte, is with her mother, Mrs. Sue Peters, who is quite ill at this time.

J. B. Heberling and Simon E. Ward, of State College, were in town on Saturday afternoon.

A spike buck came down off Tusey mountain and paraded the streets of Pine Grove on election day.

The venerable John Grimes, who spent the past six years at Avis, is back at his old home at White Hall.

Paul Martz and wife, of Cleveland, Ohio, are here on a week's vacation, Paul spending most of his time hunting.

A family dinner was served at the Dr. L. E. Kidder home, at State College, on election day. Mrs. O'Bryan was the guest of honor.

Prof. and Mrs. S. C. Miller motored up from Chester, the latter part of the week, for a brief visit at their old home in the Glades.

John Auman, of Philadelphia, and Ellis, of Three Springs, Md., spent the early part of the week with their father, E. H. Auman.

Mrs. M. C. Wieland served a special dinner, on Sunday, as a surprise for her husband, who was 47 years old that day. A few invited guests were present.

Prof. A. B. Corl, teacher of the Pine Grove grammar school, took all his pupils to Bellefonte, Wednesday of last week, to see the marionettes at his expense.

E. E. Royer and wife motored to Spring Mills, on Sunday, and for the first time in forty years visited the place of Mrs. Royer's birth, now the Harris Bloom farm.

Samuel E. Fleming, who has been ailing most of the summer, was able to go to the mountain the opening day of the hunting season and bring home his share of squirrels.

John Gummo and Andy Laird got a big bear on the opening day of the season and had it home and on exhibition early in the day. Gummo brought it down on the first shot.

Miss Verna Fleming gave a Hallow-eeen party, last week, and had as guests a number of school friends. Games were played, refreshments served and the young people had a delightful time.

Only three turkeys were brought in the first day of the season, the lucky shots being Earl Corl, Clark Harpster and Don Kepler. Quite a number of rabbits and a few squirrel were also killed.

C. L. Gooding, dean of the National Farm School, at Doylestown, with his wife and daughter Catherine, spent several days last week, as guests at the H. B. Shattuck home, at State College.

While out hunting on the first day of the season Fred Gearhart got a load of fine shot in his face and hands. The shot was fired by a young hunter. Fortunately he was not seriously hurt.

The I. W. T. missionary society held a Hallow-eeen party on the evening of the 29th, at the home of Mrs. Daniel Irvin, at Baileyville. Mrs. Mary Saucerman was awarded the prize for the best costume.

The largest engineering school in Pennsylvania is that at the Pennsylvania State College. It has 1116 students this fall, five of them girls studying to be architects. One girl aspires to become an architectural engineer.

A Dress for 10cts.

If we could pin one of these Little Romper Dresses to this Ad this store would not hold the people. 10c. from 1 to 3 yrs.

GARMAN'S

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

REFRIGERATOR—in fine condition. For sale at a bargain. Mrs. John Blanchard, telephone 4213. 74-441f

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE.—Letters testamentary having been granted to the undersigned on the estate of Clarence E. McCormick, late of the borough of State College, Centre county, Pa., deceased, all persons knowing themselves indebted to said estate are directed to make payment of such indebtedness and those having claims should present them, properly authenticated for payment.

74-41-6t. WALTER T. MCCORMICK, Adm. Bellefonte, Pa.

NOTICE IN DIVORCE.—Carrie E. Armstrong vs. Winfred B. Armstrong. In the Court of Common Pleas of Centre County, No. 10 September Term, 1929. Divorce. To Winfred B. Armstrong, Respondent:

WHEREAS, Carrie E. Armstrong, your wife, has filed a libel in the Court of Common Pleas of Centre County, praying a Divorce from you, now, you are hereby notified and requested to appear in the Court on or before the 11th day of November, 1929, to answer the complaint of said Carrie E. Armstrong, and in default of such appearance you will be liable to have a divorce granted in your absence.

HARRY E. DUNLAP, Sheriff of Centre County 74-41-4t

Ten Cents

would only be a little more than the cost of the bias binding, let alone material and labor.

GARMAN'S

—Subscribe for the Watchman.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

NOTICE.—Our attention has been called to the fact that there are still outstanding considerable unpaid taxes, both county and borough. It is imperative that these taxes be paid no later than December 1, 1929. Mr. D. A. Barlett has been authorized to collect the same.

B. P. COSTELLO, Inspector Philadelphia, Pa. American Surety Co. of New York 74-43-2t

Blankets

Our Blanket Stock Complete—Why not use them in place of sheets and save your coal pile—Start at 98c. Only compare

GARMAN'S

—Subscribe for the Watchman.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE.—Estate of Harry F. Gerberich, late of Bellefonte borough, deceased. Letters of Administration on the above estate, having been granted to the undersigned, all persons indebted to the said estate are requested to make payment, and those having claims to present the same without delay to

JOHN C. HOFFER, Adm., Phillipsburg, Pa. or to GEO. W. ZEIGLER, Atty., Phillipsburg, Pa. 74-39-6t

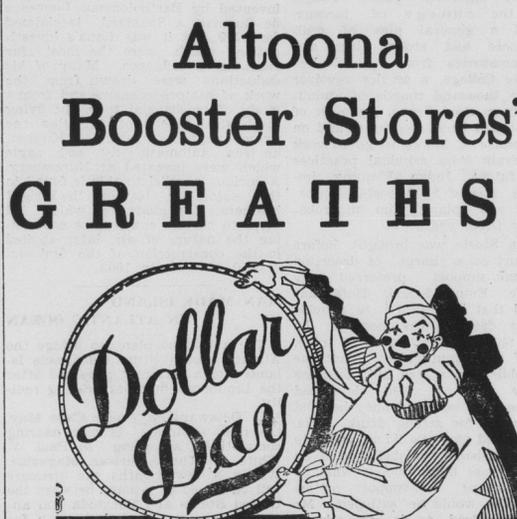

Hosiery

Silk and Wood Hose, a famous quality, 50 c. to $1. The 50 c. quality—our special—our full line of Hosiery can not be beaten.

GARMAN'S

Altoona Booster Merchants Say:
Trade in your home stores first, but come to Booster Stores for the things your home merchants cannot supply.

Tune in for the Special Dollar Day Program to be Broadcast over Station W. F. B. G. Tues., Nov. 12, a 8 p. m.

WILL BE HELD WEDNESDAY
NOVEMBER 13
AND You Are Invited.

This is an announcement of great importance to every home in Central Pennsylvania. It means much money saved for every housekeeper who accepts the invitation and shares in the Wonderful Dollar Day Values to be Offered by Booster Stores

There will be Big Values in NEEDS FOR PERSONAL USE AND FOR THE HOME. All goods are of that Dependable and Satisfactory quality that you always find at Altoona Booster Stores. No matter what your requirements may be, you will be able to fill them at Booster Stores on Dollar Day!

DOLLAR DAY WILL BE A GOOD TIME TO SELECT CHRISTMAS GIFTS! Many Booster Stores Now have New Christmas Goods on Display and many of the Dollar Day Specials will be in Goods that will make suitable gifts. Come prepared to spend the entire day Shopping in Booster Stores— from 8:30 A. M. to 5:30 P. M. The more money you spend in Booster Stores, the more you save!

Look for the Stores Displaying the YELLOW DOLLAR DAY WINDOW CARDS—They Direct You to the Official Booster Stores. Take Lunch at a Booster Hotel or Restaurant. Attend a Booster Theatre for Entertainment After the Day's Shopping.

UNLIMITED PARKING FOR DOLLAR DAY VISITORS For the convenience of Dollar Day Visitors, Altoona City Officials have removed the One Hour Parking Restrictions for the One Day, so that visitors may park their cars anywhere on Dollar Day for as long a period as necessary.

UNLIMITED PARKING ANYWHERE IN ALTOONA FOR DOLLAR DAY! Excepting In Alleys and at Other Places Where Fire Hazards Require Restrictions.

Altoona Booster Association

STRAND THEATRE, Altoona, Pa
WEEK STARTING FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 8
George Arliss in "DISRAELI"
Warner Bros. all talking Vitaphone Production. Selected Short Subjects