The Supreme Court, on Tuesday, granted the request of W. J. Lyster, Harold Watts and Frank Slapikas, the three special officers of the Pittsburgh Coal company for a change of venue in their trial on the charge of involuntary manslaughter for brutally beating and causing the death of John Barokowski, of Allegheny county, last February. The three men were tried for murder and acquitted and are now under indictment for involuntary manslaughter. The case will be certified to Venango county for trial.

The regular session of argument court, which was scheduled to be held on Tuesday of next week, has been continued until December 23rd, by order of Judge Fleming. The Judge is holding court in Pittsburgh this week and will be there all of next week; in fact is booked for other places in the State up to December 23rd, although he will be at home tomorrow for the usual Saturday session of court.

The annual Christmas bazaar will be held in the Episcopal church Thursday, December 5, opening at 1 o'clock. All kinds of fancy work, bake sale, etc.

UNIONVILLE

There is very little, if any, change noticed in the condition of Mr. John Holt.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Stonebraker, of Osceola Mills, are visiting relatives here this week.

Miss Edith Williams, of Martha Furnace, spent the week-end with her school friend, Miss Helen Parsons.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Waite spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brugger, parents of Mrs. Waite.

Mrs. Harry Kerchner and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fisher attended the football game at State College, last Saturday.

The Standard Bearer society met at the home of Miss Madeline Stere, last Friday evening. During the social hour refreshments were served.

The chicken and waffle supper and bazaar held by the Ladies Aid society, last Friday evening, was well patronized and a nice sum added to their treasury.

A message was received here by relatives of the death of Fred Schiele at his home in Lewistown, on Monday. He lived for a number of years in Philipsburg. After the death of his wife, whose maiden name was Viola Hall, the family moved to Lewistown.

Last Wednesday Hearley Sult, of Berwick and Betsy M. Hall, daughter of Charlie Hall, of this place, quietly motored to Bellefonte and were married, then came to the home of the bride's parents where a reception and dinner was given them by the family. Congratulations and best wishes are extended by their friends.

The special service for the opening of the Presbyterian church, on Sunday evening, was very interesting and the edifice was crowded with an attentive audience. Music was furnished by the Community orchestra. Address by Rev. J. M. Kirkpatrick, of Centre Hall. Vocal solo, by Mrs. Harry Potter of Centre Hall. The deficit of their improvement fund was $160, and they received in subscriptions and offerings $357, which was very much appreciated.

BOALSBURG

Mrs. George C. Hall spent Tuesday in Bellefonte.

Mrs. Nannie Coxey returned from a month's visit with her sons, Roy and Harold, in Altoona.

Mrs. E. W. Hess and Mrs. Edgar Hess, of Shingletown, spent Thursday at the home of Luther Dale, at Oak Hall.

Rev. and Mrs. W. W. Moyer have been spending some time at Howard, at the home of Rev. Moyer's mother, Mrs. O. T. Moyer.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Meyer, Mrs. Tressler and S. J. Wagner drove to Centre Hall, Sunday afternoon, to call on Mrs. Samuel Durst, who is quite ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Charles, of State College, and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Smetzer, of Pleasant Gap, attended the Thanksgiving service in the Reformed church on Sunday evening.

Mrs. Martha Tressler has returned to the S. J. Wagner home after a three weeks visit with friends in Erie. Mrs. Tammie Keller, of Milesburg, accompanied Mrs. Tressler on the trip.

Misses Marian Dale and Martha Wert, of Indiana teachers' college, Miss Margaret Gingrich and Messrs. Russell Bohn and William Sweet, of Lock Haven teachers' college, are enjoying the Thanksgiving vacation with their parents and friends.

The primary class of the Reformed Sunday school gave a farewell party at the home of their teacher, Miss Fortney, in honor of little Miss Eileen Kant who, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Kant, expect to leave town to locate in Franklin.

WINGATE

Mrs. Lydia Irwin went over to Philipsburg, last Wednesday, where she has accepted employment as cook in a hotel.

Mrs. Catherine Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Fisher, Mrs. Florence Lucas and Donald Irwin motored to Beech Creek, Sunday, and spent the day with friends.

Chicken thieves are again abroad in this locality. On Friday night they invaded the hen house of Mrs. Irwin and carried away several of her flock of poultry. Suspicion points to several young men and they had better desist in their night work.

—Read the Watchman for the news

Thanksgiving morning dawned in a snow storm. The thermometer was at 28 degrees and the ground was white. It didn't look promising for those who anticipated spending the afternoon on a football field.

FINE GROVE MENTION.

Mrs. John Glenn is convalescing from a recent spell of sickness.

Mrs. Rachel Campbell, of Altoona, is visiting relatives in the valley this week.

Mrs. Sue Peters has so far recovered from her recent illness as to be up and around.

The venerable Wilson Cummings, stock buyer of Tyrone, was here on Monday in quest of cows.

Mrs. David Ewing and Mrs. Estella Harpster visited friends in Lewistown over the week-end.

We regret to note the illness of the venerable Philip Dale, one of the few Civil war veterans in this section.

L. D. Musser and crew of State highway workmen are now at work putting Main street in better condition.

Mrs. James Williams left, last week, to spend several months with her son Donald and family at Lansing, Mich.

Ralph E. Musser has moved his family from Rock Springs to Mill Hall, where he is in the gas and oil business.

Word received here is in effect that J. Hall Bottorf is recovering from a long siege of illness, at his home in Wilkinsburg.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Harper had as week-end guests Dr. E. E. Harper, of Philadelphia, and Leslie Harper of Harrisburg.

At their chicken supper and bazaar held in the I. O. O. F. hall, Saturday evening, the Ladies Missionary society cleared $235.00

Three of the Reed brothers, Arthur, Roland and Ralph, motored up from Patterson, N. J., and spent the week-end with relatives.

Rev. C. W. Rishel is planning to go to Philadelphia and enter the Methodist hospital for observation, and possibly an operation.

The I. W. T. missionary band held its annual supper and bazaar in the Presbyterian church at Grayville, last Friday evening. The band cleared $132.00.

Many hogs are now dying of a knife thrust and the butchering at the Ellen M. Ripka home, on Monday, was renewed for the big dinner served.

William Alexander Corl, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Corl, was rushed to the Centre County hospital and underwent an operation for appendicitis on Sunday morning.

Claude Williams and Fred Fry gathered up the donation for the Presbyterian home, at Hollidaysburg, on Monday, and on Tuesday delivered it to that worthy institution.

While attending an entertainment in the "own hall," last Saturday evening, Mrs. Viola Smith was taken violently ill and had to be removed to her home. She is now much improved.

The Moore-Laird sale, last Thursday drew only a fair crowd and bidding in general was not brisk. Horses sold as low as $26 while the best cow brought $180. The sale totalled $2200.

George W. Rossman, wife and son Ralph, motored to Cumberland, Md., and spent Sunday with George Elder and family. Mr. Elder, by the way, has a splendid business stand for oil and gas in that city.

Prof. S. C. Miller and wife motored up from Chester to spend the Thanksgiving season with their son Russell, at State College. The professor has already made plans for rebuilding the barn on his farm in the Glades early in the spring.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hemphill and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Mallory motored down from Altoona, Tuesday, in the hope of picking up a turkey for Thanksgiving but their quest was in vain and they took as good substitutes four 9-pound roosters and a quantity of eggs. About the only turkeys in this section were wild ones, and twenty of them were killed during the hunting season, so that quite a number of our people had turkey feasts.
