THE MOUNTAIN LEAGUE BASKET BALL SCHEDULE.

With football out of the way coach "Shorty" Watson called out his squad of basket ball candidates at the Bellefonte High school this week, and started intensive training for the opening of the Mountain League season on January 3rd. From all indications Bellefonte High should have a good team this year, as several old men from last year's team are out again and a number of this year's football team will also try for positions.

At a recent meeting of league officials State College High was admitted as a member, which makes nine High schools now in the league. The following schedule for the season was also adopted.

- January 3.—Lewistown at Houtzdale, Philipsburg at Bellefonte, Tyrone at Mount Union, Huntingdon at State College.
- January 4.—Lewistown at Philipsburg, Houtzdale at Holidaysburg.

The Leech farm was sold last week, to a hunting party for $3000. The purchasers plan to make it an up-to-date camp.

Paul Ward, of Tyrone, and Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Ward, of Baileyville, visited Max Ward, at the Centre County hospital on Saturday.

Miss Charlotte Hoy, assistant librarian at Dickinson Seminary, Williamsport, was a guest, last week, of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Hoy.

Mrs. Anna Houser, of Baileyville, expects to close her home soon, and after a visit with friends in Lock Haven, will go to Jacksonville, Fla., for the winter.

J. Milo Campbell and family moved into their new home, at State College, on Friday, leaving their son Charles and his bride of a few weeks in charge of the farm.

Although he has passed his four score mark A. Stine Walker is the champion head butcher in this section, and there are few days when he is not engaged somewhere.

Mrs. Mary Brown, wife of Rev. Brown has been discharged from a Pittsburgh hospital and will spend some time with relatives there before returning to her home at Baileyville.

Last Saturday night the big straw stack in the barnyard at the C. M. Dale farm on the Branch, toppled over burying several fat porkers underneath. The hogs were dead when found on Sunday morning. Sixteen other hogs and twenty head of cattle in the yard at the time escaped the avalanche of straw.

BOALSBURG

Mrs. Israel Reitz is spending some time with friends in Youngstown, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. William Harris and family spent Sunday with M. Harris' parents, near Port Matilda.

A number of the Maytag salesmen corps enjoyed a banquet served by Mrs. E. W. Hess, on Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John Isenberg and daughter, Miss Marian, and Mrs. Isenberg's mother, Mrs. Clark Herman, motored down from State College, Sunday, and spent several hours at the home of Mrs. Herman's brother, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Stover.

Mrs. C. C. Bell Mrs. F. E. Patton, Earl Bell and Margaret Bell, of Huntingdon, spent a short time, Saturday, with Mrs. Bell's sister-in-law, Mrs. Thomas Hull. Mrs. Hull and daughter, Miss Jennie, will leave soon for Huntingdon, where they will spend the winter with Mrs. Hull's niece, Mrs. Patton.

On Saturday morning Miss Fannie Stover passed away at her home here. Though in falling health for some time her death was a distinct shock. Her loss will be greatly felt in her family and in the church and Sunday school of which she was a devoted and faithful member, and for many years a teacher in the school.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bright and small daughter Vivian, of Akron, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Harter, of Toledo, Ohio, and W. E. Orwig and son Bright, of Allentown, have been recent guests at the Orwig and not difficult to know what brings this family home at this time, as they are all hunters and greatly enjoy the sport.

The residents of our quiet little village were greatly shocked when the news flashed over the wire of the death of a former resident, namely, Clynn H. Stover, of Kenmore, Ohio. It has been quite a number of years since the Stover family left this place going to Lewistown, then to Carlisle, from where they moved to Ohio. Mr. Stover will be missed in his home, the church and community, and though away from here for many years he kept in close touch with those whom he had learned to love. Mr. Stover was the only brother of Mrs. Geo. Weaver of this place.

IN THE CHURCHES ON SUNDAY.

UNITED BROTHERS CHURCH.

Many activities are making this a busy season at the United Brethren church, at the corner of High and Thomas streets. The pastor and wife, the Rev. and Mrs. William Snyder have been very successful in their work here. This Sunday morning and evening Communion will be observed. Next Wednesday evening, December 18, at 7:30, the Intermediate society will present a Christmas play with the setting in an unusual mountain mission school. The following Sunday, December 22, will be featured in the morning service by the Sunday school scholars at 10:30 and in the evening at 7:30 the church choir will render a beautiful cantata on which much time has been devoted. The public is invited to attend these services. There is no admission charge. You are welcome.
