

PINE GROVE MENTION.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Kennedy are sitting the Dean Kennedy family, Reading, this week. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sasserman are taking in the sights at the national capital this week. Mrs. Michael Woomey is away on several week's visit with her son, ale Woomey, at Jersey City. Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Hoy spent Christmas with their son, George and family, in Clearfield. James Keller has taken over the job of butcher block and is in shape to render good service to all customers. Prof. Ford Stump and family, of Unionville, Chester county, spent the holiday among friends in this section. Joseph Meyer, six year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Meyer, is seriously ill with an attack of pneumonia. J. H. Bailey went up to Juniata to visit his uncle, Warren Bailey, who had been quite sick but is now improving. Prof. and Mrs. Frank Gardner had holiday guests their son, Prof. F. Gardner and wife, of College Park, Md. John H. Bailey recently delivered a load of fat hogs to a Phillipsburg tcher for which he received 10c a pound. Herbert Goss, of Pittsburgh, was here during the week visiting his other, Mrs. Cyrus Goss, who is in a stable health. Hugh L. Dale, wife and four children, of Mifflinburg, spent their Christmas at the Dale parental home in the Branch. The Keller brothers, Milton, William and Irvin, were all in from Pittsburgh for the funeral of the late George W. Koch. Prof. Richard Fletcher, wife and daughter, of Norfolk, Va., spent the Christmas season with her parents at State College. Fred Rossman, now in the oil and gas business in Altoona, spent the last part of the week with his family at Rock Springs. N. K. Corl made his appearance at the Albert Corl home, on Christmas eve, and the family decided to call him as a real Christmas presence. Miss Alda Louck and Miss Roxana English, both employed in the office in Harrisburg, were here for a few days Christmas vacation. Emory Johnson, chief of police of Donald, Ohio, called here by the death of his brother, the late W. E. unson, remained for a few days it among relatives. A turkey dinner was served at the F. Fry home, on Fairbrook, on Christmas, the guests being relatives. A family dinner was also held the W. C. Frank home. Miss Leah Dunlap came home from New Jersey and Miss Edith, cher in the New Castle school, s also here to spend Christmas h their sister, Miss Kathryn Dun-

BOALSBURG.

Jacob Felty, of Altoona, was a week-end visitor in town. Mrs. Katharine Gray Philips and Mrs. John Martin, of State College, were callers in town on Friday. Mrs. E. E. Stuart closed her home, before Christmas, and went to Pittsburgh to spend the winter with her sons. Prof. Leroy Freeby spent his vacation at his home near Steelton, and Miss Helen Geer with her parents at Lock Haven. Mrs. Bloomquist and two children and Mrs. Mary Bartley, of Bellefonte, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kuhn on Friday. Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Kuhn and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kuhn enjoyed Christmas eve and Christmas day with friends in Williamsport. Joseph Shutt, of Franklin and Marshall and Paul Derner, teaching at Jacksonsville, are spending their vacation at their homes in town. Miss Gladys Hazel, instructor in the Willow Grove High school, near Philadelphia, spent the holiday season with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hazel. Master William Hess and sister Marie, of Shingletown, spent several days last week at the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Hess. Mr. and Mrs. John Kimport and Misses Flora and Augusta Murray attended the Christmas services in the Presbyterian church in Centre Hall, Thursday evening. Dr. and Mrs. George C. Hall have closed their home on Main street and gone to Reading for a short visit, expecting later to go to their home in Wilmington, Del. Russell Ishler, of Washington, D. C. was among the home comers at Christmas time, spending the week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Ishler, and other friends. The newly organized banjo band, under the direction of Mr. Smith, of State College, made their first public appearance at the lecture by Dr. Gordon, last Thursday evening. Rev. W. W. Moyer has resigned as pastor of the local Reformed church, to become effective in February. Rev. and Mrs. Moyer have many friends who regret their departure. Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Dale are entertaining little Miss Jean Blaney, of Bellefonte, while her parents are spending the week in Chicago. Miss Rachel Hunter, of Pittsburgh, was also the guest of her sister, Mrs. Dale, during the holiday season. William Tennis is a patient in the Centre County hospital, owing to a severe injury to his right hand, which got caught in the cogs of a corn grinder operated by an electric motor. It was found necessary to amputate three fingers. Mr. and Mrs. Luther Dale, Misses Margaret and Marian Dale, and Messrs. Ralph and Frederic Dale, of Oak Hall; and Mr. and Mrs. Clement G. Dale, of Pleasant Gap, spent Christmas at the home of Misses Ellen and Cathryn Dale. Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Hess and Mr. and Mrs. John Ishler and family, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Coxe, at Phillipsburg. Returning home, Sunday evening, they were accompanied by Miss Virginia Hess, who had been a guest of the Coxes for several days. Rev. and Mrs. John H. Wagner and children, of Garrettsville, N. Y., enjoyed a few days visit with Rev. and Mrs. W. J. Wagner. Mary, their three-year-old daughter, remained for a visit with her grandparents, the remainder of the family leaving Saturday morning for the return drive to New York. Prof. and Mrs. O. F. Smith and baby daughter and Mrs. William R. Ham and Miss Anna Sweeney drove to Danville on Tuesday of last week. Prof. and Mrs. Smith have been making frequent trips to the Geisinger hospital for treatment for their daughter and Miss Sweeney remained at the hospital for observation and treatment.

JACKSONVILLE.

William Weaver is on the sick list again. We wish him a speedy recovery. The Christmas entertainment held in the Jacksonville church, by the school children, was very good. There was a large attendance. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Neff and family spent Christmas with Mrs. Neff's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hoy, and also called on the Mervin Hoy family. John Glossner, who has been under the doctor's care is much improved at this writing. Mrs. Resides is bedfast at the home of her daughter, Mrs. L. S. Monteith. Miss Dorothy Korman, who has been visiting with her sister, Mrs. Mervin Hoy, spent Christmas at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Korman, of near Curtin. Mrs. Harry T. Fisher and son George motored in from Connellsville, last Thursday, and spent the remainder of the week with relatives, most of the time being spent at the Luther Fisher and Harry Hoy homes. The county auditors will begin their job of auditing the county accounts for 1929 next Monday. A lar program. Quite a number of children took part and did exceedingly well. The collection amounted to $23.00. The joint choir of the Centre Hall and Pine Grove Mills Presbyterian churches thrilled a large congregation with a cantata in the church here on Sunday before Christmas. They were directed by the pastor, Rev. J. Max Kirkpatrick, with Mrs. Kirkpatrick presiding at the piano. A collection was taken up to cover expenses and a voluntary cash donation was also given. The next morning he left to spend Christmas with his folks in Philadelphia while Mrs. Kirkpatrick spent the Christmas season with her folks at State College.

UNIONVILLE.

A Happy New Year to all the readers of the "Watchman." Little Freddie Hall is recovering from several week's illness with pneumonia. Mrs. Gilbert Parsons, who has been on the sick list for several weeks, is slowly improving. Mrs. Myrtle Craig, of Julian, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Finch, last Sunday. Miss Mary Turner, of Washington, D. C. spent the holidays at the home of her sister, Mrs. John Askins. Perry Hall, of Dix Run, is very critically ill at his home. His friends are very much alarmed over his condition. Santa Claus very kindly surprised Mr. and Mrs. William Summers, on Christmas eve, by leaving a sack of flour on their back porch. Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Updegraff and two children, of Williamsport, spent Christmas at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Bauder. Mrs. Frances Hall and Eugene Hall were guests of relatives in Howard, on Christmas day, taking dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Fletcher. Rev. Watkins, superintendent of the Williamsport district M. E. church, preached a very interesting sermon, on Sunday evening, in the church here. The prettiest Christmas tree in town was the one on the lawn at the residence of J. E. Hall. It is an ornamental evergreen and he had it beautifully decorated with electric lights during the X-mas season. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Holtzworth and three children, of Fairmont, W. Va., spent X-mas with their parents at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Holtzworth and Mr. and Mrs. D. Buck. Rev. M. H. Crawford started his revival services Tuesday evening, with a watchnight service. He is being assisted by Rev. Julian Park, a Korean, who is located at Martinsburg, and pastor of the Presbyterian church there. Last Friday Mrs. Harry Kerchner, accompanied by Mrs. John Resides, motored to Williamsport. Mrs. Resides stopped off at Jersey Shore with relatives and Mrs. Harry Smith, sister-in-law of Mrs. Kerchner, continued the journey to Williamsport. They had a very pleasant time. Mr. and Mrs. George Thompson, of Sandy Ridge, when on their way to Bellefonte, one day last week, to visit their father, Lot Thompson, who is seriously ill in the hospital stopped here a short time and called on their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Finch and Mrs. Frances Hall and Eugene Hall. Christmas day at the J. E. Brugger home was greatly enjoyed by a home gathering of all their children and grand children. George, with his wife and two daughters, of Canonsburg; Cornelius, wife and six children, of Fleming; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Waite, of Stormstown, and Miss Flora, of Camden, N. J. Miss Etalka Keiffer and friend, Miss Margaret Matthewson, of Seattle, Wash., who are teaching in Spring Arbor, Mich., motored to Williamsport and spent the X-mas vacation with the Dr. C. A. VanValin family. On their way they stopped a short time at the home of their friend, Mrs. Harry Kerchner.

WINGATE.

The two year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Summers is recovering from a serious illness. Mrs. H. B. Witherite and daughter Ruth, of Osceola Mills, were Sunday visitors at the Mrs. Irwin home. Mrs. Katherine Fisher has been housed up for a week with heavy cold but her condition is now somewhat improved. Santa was a busy fellow in this place, the night before Christmas, bringing the kiddies many things to delight their little hearts. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Fisher, Mrs. Florence Lucas and Donald Irwin spent Christmas day at the Witherite home, at Osceola Mills. Mrs. Irwin returning home with them in the evening.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

FOR SALE.—Desirable residence on Elm street. Enquire of Mrs. W. L. Daggett. Tel. 543-R-49-21
FOR RENT.—The third floor apartment, with light house keeping, in the Jennie Morgan home, on East High street. 60-1
NOTICE is hereby given that application for clemency will be made to the Board of Pardons of the Department of Justice of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, at Harrisburg, at the regular meeting of said Board in January, 1930, on behalf of Arthur V. Gearhart, sentenced Sept. 26, 1928, from Centre county, Pennsylvania, to two and one-half to five years in the western penitentiary, in Pittsburgh, Pa. Charge forgery. 74-50-21
SHERIFF'S SALE.—By virtue of the writ of Levam, Facias issued out of the Court of Common Pleas of Centre County, to me directed, will be exposed to public sale at the Court House in the Borough of Bellefonte on FRIDAY, JANUARY 24, 1930. The Following Property: ALL the certain message, tenement and lot of ground situate in the Township of College, County of Centre and State of Pennsylvania, bounded and described as follows, to-wit:— BEGINNING at the Northeast corner of lot of Mrs. Annie E. Rosenberger, formerly of Jacob R. Hoy in a Southwesterly direction to a corner to be established between the said Hoy and Stover, on a line of land of R. G. Brastler, Westerly a distance of 75 feet to corner of lot of Mrs. Annie E. Rosenberger, formerly Eva Lee, being the Southeast corner of Annie E. Rosenberger, a distance approximately 217 feet to the place of beginning. Seized, taken in execution and to be sold as the property of Harry Stover and Margaret Stover, his wife. Sale to commence at 1:30 o'clock P. M. of said day. H. E. DUNLAP, Sheriff Sheriff's Office, Bellefonte, Pa. 76-1-31

SHOWING 2-7 AND 9 P. M.

CONTINUOUS SATURDAY 2 TO 11 P. M.

RICHELIEU THEATRE

Western Electric Vitaphone Equipment

Now Showing - - - Thursday and Friday

George Bancroft "The Mighty" Positively the Greatest of All Bancroft Pictures! The great star of "THUNDERBOLT," "UNDERWORLD," and "WOLF OF WALL STREET," now for the first showing in Centre County—

Saturday .. First Pennsylvania Showing .. Hoot Gibson in the Talking Out-Door Production "THE LONG, LONG TRAIL"

Monday, Tues., Wednesday, Next Week Harold Lloyd Next Week

"WELCOME DANGER" In his Newest All-Talking, Sizzling Super Comedy— You've never laughed so much in your life as you will at this one—it's 11 Reels of Solid Laughs and the most expensive comedy ever produced—but our prices remain always the same.

Coming--Thursday, Friday--Next Week

"SWEETIE"

With Nancy Carroll, Helen Kane, Stanley Smith, Jack Oakie. Co-ed beauties making whoopee. Catchy song hits. New dances. And the "BOOP BOOPA DOOP" girl, Helen Kane, cooing romance. You'll roll off your seat laughing. Hear the latest heart-throb, "Sweeter than Sweet." See the newest dance craze, "The Prep Step." And a hundred other thrills that will make you feel great.

STATE THEATRE

Showing 7 & 9 P. M. Admission 10-25 & 35c. If we told you we were going to show MARY PICKFORD in her latest picture of course you would know you were going to see a good picture.

"TAMING OF THE SHREW" Not only does it have DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS and MARY PICKFORD as the leading characters but it has also a great supporting cast and its ALL-TALKING. This production will be shown ALL NEXT WEEK at the STATE and effective now our new low admission prices Children.....10c; Adults Balcony.....25c; Adults Main Floor.....35c From now on the STATE is going to show you real pictures.

The coming year of 1930 will be the greatest year of good pictures you have ever seen. You will see the greatest of all talking pictures FIRST at the RICHELIEU and STATE and at the lowest prices anywhere—Producers have learned how to make real talking pictures and we have contracted for the greatest and most expensive of all, the great Paramount and Fox Movietone productions which guarantee you a good show always. Look at the above pictures and here is what the next week has in store for you.

RICHELIEU --- Mon. - Tues. - Wed. --- January 13, 14 and 15 All Talking "HOT FOR PARIS" All Talking The same cast as in the "Cockeyed World" with more pep—more fun—more snap.

THURSDAY - FRIDAY, Jan. 16-17 A Paramount All Talking Picture Buddy Rogers in "Half Way to Heaven" Supported by JEAN ARTHUR. First showing in Central Pennsylvania.

SATURDAY, JAN. 18-For those who love the outdoor adventure; thrills, comedy. 1st Pa. showing All Talking HOOT GIBSON in "Courtin' Wildcats" All Talking

Another feature is the first run news—REMEMBER—our news is first run anywhere—day and date with the worlds finest theatres—comes to us direct from the laboratory. Then there are Vitaphone Acts—All talking Comedies—Grantland Rice's Sport Review—Aesops Fables—Pathe Reviews all in sound. We wish you a HAPPY NEW YEAR and know it will be so if you attend our shows—they will make you happy. We promise you the greatest attractions—brand new—at the lowest admission anywhere.