JACKSONVILLE.

George and Kathryn Fisher have both been on the sick list. Mrs. Fred Haines spent Monday afternoon at the William Weaver home. Mr. Glossener, Mr. Monteith and Mr. Weaver are all able to be out and around again. Fred Haines is taking advantage of the nice weather and is filling his ice house this week. The men have been busy hunting foxes the past few weeks, and have captured quite a few so far this winter. Mrs. Hogan Long and son George spent Monday afternoon with Mrs. Long's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ephriam Lucas. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mackey are rejoicing over a son, born Sunday, January 26th. Both mother and babe are doing fine. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lucas are the proud parents of a son, born last week, this being number 3. Both mother and baby are getting along fine under the excellent care of Mrs. Lucas' mother, Mrs. Gallagher. The Watchman doesn't guess. It goes to the source for its news.

BOALSBURG.

John Hess, of Altoona, was a visitor in town last week. Mrs. Jane Close spent several days, last week, at State College. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Coxey, of Indiana, were week-end visitors in town. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heverly, of State College, were guests of friends in town on Sunday. Mrs. W. A. Rockey and Mrs. James Irwin were confined to their homes by illness during the week-end. Dr. W. W. Woods is spending some time at the home of his sister, Mrs. Thomas Glenn, at Bradford. Mr. and Mrs. George Homan and daughter Jean and Mrs. Harry Hoy, of State College, spent Thursday in Tyrone. Russell Bohn, of Lock Haven Teachers' college, spent the week-end at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Bohn. Harrison at Danville, on Saturday. Mr. Harrison is very ill with no hopes of recovery. Katherine Tussey, who has been quite ill with pneumonia, is improving under the care of her uncle, Dr. Geo. Woods, of Pine Grove Mills. Miss Rachel Hunter, of Pittsburgh, arrived in town, on Saturday to spend some time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Dale, while convalescing from a recent illness. The local I. O. O. F. entertained their friends at a banquet, on Thursday evening. J. Kennedy Johnston Esq., of Bellefonte, was the speaker of the evening. Music, a short play and speeches by some of the guests were features of the evening's entertainment.

UNIONVILLE

Mrs. C. K. Brugger is on the sick list. Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Lucas, of Juniata, are rejoicing over the arrival of a little son. The Women's Foreign Missionary society met, Monday evening, at the home of Mrs. Geo. Bullock. Mrs. J. B. Craig and son Phi, of Julian, were callers, one evening last week, at the home of Mrs. J. H. Finch. The revival services are continuing each evening in the Free Methodist church. Interesting messages are given by the pastor, Rev. Kerry. Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Askins accompanied their little niece, Eleanor Ruth Snoke, to the Centre County hospital, on Monday, where she had her tonsils removed. The Pomona Grange, which met here last Saturday, had a very interesting and instructive meeting. Among the number were several prominent men who gave interesting addresses. Ex. master Hill, of Blair county, and John Dale, of State College, took an active part in the meeting. About 130 people were served dinner. A parent teachers' meeting was held in Maple Grove school house, on Monday evening. Mrs. Metta Miles, teacher of that school, and Mrs. Martha Hall, teacher of Cherry Grove school, with their pupils, contributed very much to the entertainment of the evening. Quite a number of visitors were present from Unionville. Governor John S. Fisher has appointed Mrs. Esther M. Tressel, of Bellefonte, a notary public, and she will now be in a position to render legal assistance to her husband, J. L. Tressel, a justice of the peace in Spring township, and who also conducts an insurance business at his office on east Bishop street. The condition of Mrs. Jennie Holter Curtin, who has been ill at her home at Curtin, during the winter, has become very critical, with little hope of recovery.
