

NEWS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

We have 182 subscribers in Bellefonte whose labels do not read 1930. If each one of them were to send in only $1.50 that would help a lot.

Twenty-nine men and women braved the cold weather of Saturday night to go on the excursion over the Pennsylvania railroad to Philadelphia.

James McNichol has bought the W. J. Carroll house on east Howard street, and with his family, will move there from one of the Schads homes on Lamb street.

Mrs. Elsie Rankin Helliwell entertained with a bridge dinner, last Saturday evening, in honor of the birthday anniversary of her sister, Miss Mary Rankin. Three tables were in play.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Sloop has accepted the position in the office of the Decker Chevrolet Co., soon to be vacated by Miss Bernice Rine, who expects to leave Bellefonte to continue her work elsewhere.

A quiet and informal birthday celebration was held at the Alan Waite home on east High street, Saturday, at which Mr. Waite's mother, who was ninety-two years old, was the guest of honor.

The annual father and son banquet will be held at the Bellefonte Y. M. C. A. February 20. The following committee will be in charge of the arrangement: J. R. Hughes, S. Claude Herr, L. C. Heineman and G. M. Singer.

Owing to the death of Thomas Shipley of Williamsport, treasurer of the Grand Commandery Knights Templar, of Pennsylvania, Boyd A. Musser, of Scranton, has been appointed to fill the office until the next regular meeting of the Commandery.

The Bellefonte Academy will give as its entertainment this year the humorous musical comedy, "Aunt Lucia," in the State theatre on Wednesday and Thursday, May 14th and 15th. The announcement is made at this time in order that other organizations plan nothing to conflict.

Wm. Fox, who has charge of the beacon light at the Rattle Snake, had an exciting experience one evening recently. While getting a bucket of water, some distance from his shanty, he noticed a big bear and as they eyed each other seemingly wondering what to do two more bears appeared, but they all scampered off, leaving Mr. Fox perfectly unharmed.

The Warner-American News for January contains two pictures of interest in Bellefonte. One is a flashlight of the Christmas tree in front of the company office during the holidays and the other a full-length picture of Miss Mauris Furey stenographer in the office of G. I. Furnell. The latter represents Miss Furey as she was crowned when she was selected from a bevy of twenty contestants, in a State theatre competition as "Miss Bellefonte."

One of the biggest hauls ever made by prohibition agents in this section of the State was scooped in, on Sunday, in the Pine Creek region not far from Jersey Shore. The plant was located in an old barn and included a triple distillation outfit run by a 25-horsepower upright boiler. There were three cookers, two of 750 gallons capacity and one of 1000 gallons. Eight thousand gallons of mash and 200 ten-gallon kegs of high grade whiskey were seized. While nobody was at the plant when it was raided.

Hon. John T. McCormick, of State College, was 81 years old last Thursday, January 23rd, and a family dinner was served at his home in celebration of the event. All the children and a number of his grandchildren being present. Four score years and one, and he still enjoys good health and is as active as a man of sixty, which might be accounted for in the fact that he has always been too busy to grow old in body and spirit, even if the years continued their increasing round.

Last Friday evening, shortly after five o'clock, Miss Helen Schaeffer, on leaving the office of W. Harrison Walker Esq., started on a trip through the alley to the new postoffice on Spring street. It was already quite dusk and midway of her trip she had to step to one side to pass a big truck. It just happened that at the same point two boys came along and the larger of the two either purposely or unintentionally bumped into Miss Schaeffer. The latter was carrying on her arm a small basket in which were some letters she was taking to mail and on top of the letters was her pocketbook. When she reached the postoffice she discovered that two of her letters were missing, and though she promptly made a return trip through the alley the letters were gone. While she doesn't know definitely it is her belief that when the boy bumped against her it was with the intention of grabbing her pocketbook but missed it and got the two letters instead. The boys were strangers to Miss Schaeffer and both had disappeared when she returned to the alley. So far as the letters were concerned there was nothing in them of any value to the boys or anybody else who might get them.

LINDEN HALL RESIDENT A VICTIM OF SUICIDE

Shoots Self in Head After He Had Eaten Dinner

John L. Harshbarger, for many years a well known resident of Penns Valley, committed suicide by shooting himself in the head, at his home at Linden Hall, just after he had eaten his dinner, last Thursday afternoon. The shot was not immediately fatal as he lived an hour and a half but never regained consciousness. He had not been in good health most of last summer and had been unable to get much work this winter, and this combination is the only cause that can be assigned for his act. Mr. Harshbarger owned a comfortable home, at Linden Hall, and so far as known was not financially embarrassed.

He was a son of Abraham and Mary Fulton Harshbarger and was born in Potter township 57 years ago. All his life had been spent in Potter and Harris townships. He was a laborer by occupation and for a period of twenty years was a member of a gang of threshermen operating through Penns Valley. He was a member of the Reformed church of Boalsburg, a kind father and loving husband, and his tragic end is cause for deep regret among all who knew him.

As a young man he married Miss Elizabeth Bohn who survives with two daughters, Mrs. Alfred H. Walker, of Boalsburg, and Miss Bertha, at home. He also leaves one grandson, John B. Walker of Boalsburg, and the following brothers and sisters: Elmer Harshbarger, of Spruce town; James, of Linden Hall; Calvin, of Altoona; David, of Youngstown, Ohio; Mrs. Milton Kline, of Tusseyville and Mrs. Calvin Coble, of Oak Hall.

Funeral services were held at his late home, at 1:30 o'clock on Monday afternoon, by his pastor, Rev. W. W. Moyer, burial being made in the Boalsburg cemetery.

Members of the family hereby express their thanks and appreciation to friends and neighbors for their kind services during the time of their bereavement.

SCHOOL DIRECTORS HOLD THEIR ANNUAL MEETING

Exactly 111 out of 175 school directors in Centre county attended the 43rd annual convention held in the court house, Bellefonte, on Thursday of last week. S. Ward Gramley, president of the association, presided. The speakers for the day were William M. Dennison, deputy superintendent of public instruction; C. R. Foster, president of the Indiana State teachers' college, and county superintendent F. G. Rogers.

Two resolutions were passed, one recommending that the annual teachers' institute be held the first full week in September, and the other that the date for the directors' convention be changed so as not to conflict with the State Farm Products Show, in Harrisburg.

Officers elected for the ensuing year were as follows: President, S. Ward Gramley; Millheim; first vice-president, Miss Besse Miles, Milesburg; second vice president, Georg. McCormick, Spring Mills; secretary, Guy W. Stearns, Lemont; treasurer, F. P. Geary, Centre Hall. Miss Besse Miles was elected delegate to the State convention to be held in Harrisburg in February.

STATE'S WRESTLERS AND BOXERS BOTH WIN

At State College last Saturday afternoon the Penn State boxing team defeated the mitt men from the University of West Virginia by taking six out of the seven bouts. There were three technical knockouts, two of them having occurred in the first round.

At the same time the wrestling season was opened and the State grapplers defeated the University of Pennsylvania team, 28 to 8. Penn won only two of the eight bouts and both of them were by decisions. Five of State's victories were falls.

TYRONE MAN VICTIM OF AUTO ACCIDENT

Gilbert O. Mitchell, member of the firm of Mitchell & Campbell, Tyrone druggists, died at the Altoona hospital, about 6 o'clock Saturday morning as the result of injuries sustained a few hours previous when his automobile was wrecked a short distance north of the Triangle in Bald Eagle valley.

According to the Blair county coroner's investigation Mitchell was on his way home from attending a social gathering in Clearfield and, so far as known, was alone in his car. The theory is that on his way down the mountain, about two o'clock in the morning, Mitchell dozed at the wheel with the result that he failed to notice a sharp curve in the road and his machine ran down over an embankment and crashed into a tree, Mitchell either attempted to jump or was thrown from the car, his head striking a boulder and fracturing his skull. He was found shortly after two o'clock by a resident of Osceola Mills who conveyed the unconscious man to a physician in Tyrone. After being given emergency treatment he was sent to the Altoona hospital but died without regaining consciousness.

He was a son of Linn and Lillie Mitchell and was born at Unionville, Centre county, on October 3rd, 1891. While yet a boy his parents moved to Tyrone where he was educated in the public schools. His first employment was as a time clerk for the Pennsylvania Railroad company. Later he held a clerical position with the West Virginia Pulp and Paper company, and in 1920 joined Floyd Campbell in starting a drugstore under the name of Mitchell & Campbell. He was a member of the Presbyterian church, Tyrone Kiwanis club, Allegheny Gateway lodge, I. O. O. F., and the Knights of Pythias.

He is survived by a small son, Wendell Mitchell, his father, living at State College and three brothers, Loraine Mitchell, of Fort Wayne, Ind.; Thomas and Verne, of Tyrone. Burial was made in Eastlawn cemetery, Tyrone, on Tuesday afternoon.

WARRIORSMARK CHURCH TO BE DEDICATED

Two weeks of evangelistic and song service will mark the dedication of the new Methodist Episcopal church, at Warriorsmark, which has just been completed, to take the place of the one destroyed by fire a year ago. The dedicatory service proper will take place on Sunday morning. Dr. W. L. McDowell, of Philadelphia, will preach the sermon and the dedicatory service will be in charge of the Altoona district superintendent, Rev. J. McKendree Reiley. Dr. Reiley will preach in the evening when there will also be an organ recital on the new $4000 pipe organ by Miss Margaret Nearhoff, of Tyrone.

On Monday evening of next week Rev. H. J. Schuchart, of York, will be the preacher and on Tuesday evening, Rev. W. L. Armstrong, of Harrisburg, on Wednesday evening there will be an organ recital by Eugene Dayton, of Tyrone, and on Thursday evening the organ will be dedicated with a recital by Mrs. C. E. Govier, of State College.

Other ministers who will preach during the two weeks services include Rev. E. H. Witman, of State College; Rev. G. H. Ketterer, Milton; Rev. E. C. Koch, Harrisburg; Rev. E. C. Keboch, Clearfield; Revs. D. Y. Brouse and W. W. Willard, of Harrisburg; Rev. M. C. Piper, Milesburg, and Rev. H. W. Hartsock, Tyrone. The services will end Sunday, February 16th.

HIGH SCHOOL GLEE CLUB TO GIVE "SPRING MAID"

The annual high school glee club play is scheduled for Thursday, February 27th, at the Richelleu theatre.

Fine scenery and costumes were selected by the director, Mrs. Krader, on her recent visit to the leading scenic studios and costumers of Philadelphia and New York city.

This same play, "Spring Maid," will open in New York city the first week in March and promises to be the outstanding show of the season there; so the students of the club deserve credit for their courage and effort to bring to the local audience a play of such merit. It is the most difficult piece of dramatic work the club has yet attempted.

There is a large caste, well selected, at work now, although strenuous rehearsing will not begin until February 3rd. Much new talent has been discovered and is being developed and present showings promise a very interesting performance. Price of admission will be 75c.

The ladies of St. John's Catholic church will hold their annual bazaar February 12th to 15th inclusive. It will open with a sauer kraut supper on Wednesday evening, the 12th, from 5 to 8 o'clock, in the rooms of the Catholic Daughters of America. The bazaar proper will be held in the rooms over the Bellefonte Trust Co., where many beautiful and useful articles will be on display. Refreshments will be served. There will also be games and amusements in abundance. Everybody invited. 5-2t

Forty-seven crippled children of Centre and Clearfield counties were given treatment at the orthopedic clinic held in Phillipsburg on Thursday of last week. Dr. John H. Galbraith was the surgeon in charge.

STEEL WORKERS GIVEN TWO YEARS IN JAIL

Walter Melton and Leo Keenan, the two structural steel workers from State College, who became quite pugnacious when they were arrested two weeks ago for driving an automobile while under the influence of liquor and wrecking two other cars, entered pleas of guilty before Judge Fleming, on Saturday, and were each sentenced to pay the costs, fine of one dollar and imprisonment in the county jail for a period of two years, but the judge qualified the sentence by telling the men that after they had spent enough time with sheriff Dunlap to seriously consider the possible consequences of their unlawful actions and decide to make good the damages to the cars they wrecked they might apply for a parole and the court would then give their cases further consideration.

The men were not represented by counsel but before their cases were called the contractor at the College in whose employ the men were talked privately with the court. In sentencing the men Judge Fleming told Melton that he could send him to the penitentiary for eight years and Keenan six, if he were inclined to do so, but he intended giving them a chance. He then imposed the sentence noted above.

Court then took a recess until 1:30 o'clock when Albert Ward, alias Elmer Weaver, an escaped Rockview penitentiary prisoner, was brought before the bar for sentence. Weaver, who was quite youthful in appearance, was originally sent up from Allegheny county in December, 1925, for five to ten years for burglary. After serving three years and four months he escaped from Rockview penitentiary on April 20th, 1929. He eluded all efforts at recapture until January 15th a little over two weeks ago, when he was arrested in Oil City, after robbing a private residence and a school house. He was taken to the Franklin county jail and an investigation disclosed the fact that he was an escaped Rockview prisoner.

Judge Fleming gave him an additional sentence of five to ten years to date from the expiration of his original sentence.

CENTRE CO. LAMB CLUBS WIN $150.00 PRIZE MONEY

While the Centre County 4H Lamb Feeding Club failed to win the grand championship with their exhibit at the State Farm Products Show, in Harrisburg last week, they captured the reserve grand championship and won $150.00 in prize money.

All told twenty pens of lambs were on exhibition at the show, fourteen of them being the product of the Centre county club. The grand championship went to a Clinton county boy with his pen of three grade Southdowns. In addition to winning the reserve grand championship Edwin Bitner, of Centre Hall sold his pen of three Southdowns to Swift & Co., of Harrisburg, for 16 cents a pound, or $49.28.

Every member of the club attended the show and their comfort was looked after by the club leader, George Luse, of Centre Hall, and county agent R. C. Blaney. Arrangements for their entertainment had been looked after by the 4H Club department of State College. The members attended group meetings, toured the city, visited the capitol buildings and were guests at the banquet of the State Sheep and Wool Growers association.

Following is a list of awards made to the club members: Reserve Champion—Edwin Bitner, Centre Hall.

Cheviot Class—First place, Alice Foust, Centre Hall; third, Florence Brooks, Centre Hall; fourth, Fred Luse, Centre Hall; fifth, Harold Homan, State College.

DON'T MISS "SUNNY SIDE UP" AT RICHELIEU NEXT WEEK

An entirely new Janet Gaynor and Charles Farrell will be revealed at the Richelleu theatre Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of next week, when this famous pair of screen sweethearts make their debut in "Sunny Side Up," Fox Movietown musical comedy.

Miss Gaynor, who reveals a voice of rare charm, sings three songs, including "If I Had a Talking Picture of You," in the role as a duet with Charles Farrell.

Farrell, in the role of a society man from Southampton, acquires himself creditably in a light comedy part and sings in a manner that stamps him as a real find in the talking picture musical comedy field.

DeSylva, Brown and Henderson, long known for their musical comedy hits on Broadway, have contrived a story that holds interest from the opening scene to the final fade-out. The comedy is smart sophisticated and of the sort that frequently sets the audience off in spontaneous bursts of laughter. The dance ensembles, surprisingly novel, are the work of Seymour Felix, while David Butler was the pictorial director.

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL

Miss Grace Shope will leave today to go to Virginia, where she will continue her study of music through the spring.

Mrs. Charles Mensch spent the weekend in Williamsport as a guest of Dr. and Mrs. George Klump, former residents of Bellefonte.

Carl Gray, with the Western Electric Co., of New York city, was home over Sunday, on his first visit to Bellefonte since last fall.

Dr. J. J. Kilpatrick, Bellefonte's well known dentist, has not been in his office this week. He has been spending the time in Altoona where he has been taking a course in prosthetic dentistry, which we understand is a new and very advanced manner of doing bridge work.

Mrs. J. Will Conley, of Atlantic City and Pittsburgh, is a guest at the Brockhoff house, having come up from the shore to look after some business interests here, which required her personal attention. Mrs. Conley's stay in Bellefonte will be indefinite.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. D. Fortney, of Boalsburg, were Bellefonte visitors on Wednesday. They motored down to do a little shopping and transact some other business here. During their stay in town they gave the Watchman office the honor of a pleasant but all too brief a call.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Warner and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Shalcross, will leave today for New York from where they will go by water to Florida, for a two week's visit at the Miami home of Mr. Warner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Warner. Mrs. Fred Warner before her marriage, was a resident of Miami.

Miss Sara Jane Brachbill and Miss Alice Saxon drove to Bellefonte in the former's car, Sunday, to see Miss Brachbill's grandmother, Mrs. Wilbur T. Twitmore and Mr. Twitmore, before she leaves for Jersey City, to go in training for a nurse. Miss Brachbill is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Brachbill, of Williamsport.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Twitmore motored up from Harrisburg, on Saturday, to see Mr. Twitmore's father, W. T. Twitmore, who has been housed up with a cold. They were accompanied to Bellefonte by Miss Blanche Underwood, stenographer in the Department of Forestry and Mr. Twitmore, before she leaves for Jersey City, to go in training for a nurse. Miss Brachbill is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Brachbill, of Williamsport.

Due to illness of her daughter Mrs. F. L. Bullock has been in Baltimore since last November. This week she will leave there and visit for a few days with her other daughter, Mrs. W. F. Entekin, of Belleville, New Jersey. Mr. and Mrs. Bullock are planning to go to housekeeping the second week in February in one half of the Cobb house, on High street.

The Graham Hunters shipped their furniture Tuesday to Harrisburg, where they will now be permanently located, Mr. Hunter working from there over the territory of which he has charge, in his new work. Mrs. Frank McFarlane, who will occupy the apartment in Petriken Hall which the Hunters vacated, will move there this week from the Harris house on Allegheny street.

SIXTY GUESTS PRESENT AT MANAGER BROWN'S DINNER

Sixty guests attended the second annual dinner given by manager W. H. Brown, of the Centre County hospital, at the Penn Belle on Tuesday evening. Judge M. Ward Fleming presided as toastmaster and manager Brown gave a brief resume of the fourth-coming annual report of the hospital which will for the first time in its history show an excess of receipts over expenditures, although the balance was small. The figures given were as follows:

Table showing financial figures: Receipts from patients $33,940.68; State Appropriation 9,000.00; County Appropriation 1,000.00; Other receipts 5,078.34; Total receipts $49,018.68; Expenditures 48,908.00; Balance $104.68

Mr. Brown further stressed the importance of the work done by the trustees, the medical and surgical staff, the county medical association, the nursing staff, the Women's Auxiliary, and the individuals and firms who have contributed both time and money to the welfare of the hospital. He also touched briefly on the need of a new nurse's home and stated that there is a possibility one may be built during the coming summer. Four one thousand dollar pledges toward such a home have already been made.

Other speakers were Benjamin Eynon, of Harrisburg; Charles E. Dorworth, Dr. M. J. Locke, W. Harrison Walker and John Blanchard Esqs., and Hon. J. Laird Holmes.

At a recent meeting of the Pioneer club of the local Y. M. C. A., the following officers were elected: Bud Cadwell, chief ranger; Homer Knox, deputy ranger; Paul Emerick, recorder; Kenneth Miller, keeper of the seal. The club meets weekly at the Y. M. C. A.

THE BELL TELEPHONE CO. TO GIVE CORRECT T

Effective March 1 the Bell Telephone Co., will give the correct toll to any of its patrons who call exchange controlling the line which they are talking.

No matter when the call is made day or night, the service will be rendered and a charge of 5 cents will be made.

The innovation is not being met with the idea of increasing the rates of the company, because a service is so rarely called for as to amount to scarcely nothing in the aggregate. Rather it is to differentiate between purely telephone service, which the Bell Co. contracts to render its patrons and a gratuitous service of a public information nature which is in no way connected with the company's real litigation or objective.

Asking operators such questions as: "Where is the fire?" "What is it?" and many others that frequently pour into a busy exchange certainly take up time, thereby work against the dispatch with which they can make connections for patrons who are calling use of lines on the real business which they are intended.

We don't know just what the step means. Whether, as we have intimated, it is to discourage seeking information at a telephone exchange or an experiment that might ultimately lead to the establishment of a telephonic information bureau.

However, the proposed charge sets for calls for correct time is an unreasonable one and ought to be so regarded by a person who clock has run down just about time he or she ought to be starting to make a train or a bus or get dinner, or keep an import business engagement.

The charge is so small that work of making a record of it rendering the bill would seem leave no profit in it for the Bell
