

Democratic Watchman

Bellefonte, Pa., February 7, 1930.

NEWS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

The ladies of the Bellefonte Presbyterian church will hold a food sale at the Variety shop, on Allegheny street, tomorrow, Saturday morning.

The Bellefonte Academy won its return boxing meet with Cook Academy, in the Bellefonte Y. M. C. A. gymnasium last Friday night, by the score of 5 to 3.

Robert G. Goheen, of Ferguson township, has been appointed mercantile appraiser for Centre county for the year 1930, and started out on his work on Wednesday.

Col. Theodore Davis Boal, of Boalsburg, and Prof. J. A. Ferguson, of State College, have been re-elected members of the council from Centre county of the State Forestry association.

If you haven't seen "The Four Feathers" now showing at the State theatre we can recommend it as exceptionally good entertainment. It is really as interesting and as thrillingly presented as "Beau Geste." We are sure you would enjoy it.

An effort is to be made to secure compensation insurance for Mrs. Angeline Parks, widow of James F. Parks, a borough employee who dropped dead two weeks ago while shoveling snow on the street. According to the rate of pay received by Parks during the last year the widow will be entitled to about eleven dollars a week, if the claim is allowed.

George Vitray, leading actor on the Parisian stage and professor of diction and dramatic art, will be the visiting lecturer for the seventh annual French Institute at the Pennsylvania State College next summer. The other instructors are all native. Among the instructors is Louis Cons, the former French tutor to the family of the former German Kaiser.

The fourth diphtheria immunization clinic was held in the W. C. T. U. room, in Petriken hall, on Monday afternoon. These weekly clinics have been conducted by Dr. Harold B. Wood, of the State Health Department, assisted by the local nurses. More than 400 children were given the benefit of toxin-antitoxin. A similar clinic was held at Snow Shoe, Clarence and Moshannon on Tuesday.

Caldwell and Son have bought the Blackford property on east Bishop street and will occupy it on or about April 1st. It is their present intention to use the restaurant room in the property as a sales and work room for their plumbing business and both the Thomas and James Caldwell families will occupy the residence part of it. The passing of the Blackford restaurant is the breaking of another link that binds the Bellefonte of today to that of yesterday. It might also be said that the removal of the plumbing shop from its present location in the McClain block is another incident of the same sort.

Group Six of the Pennsylvania Banker's Association will meet at the Penn-Alto hotel in Altoona, next Wednesday, February 12, for their thirty-fifth annual gathering. Several notable financiers will be in attendance. Among them will be the Geo. W. Norris, governor of the Federal Reserve bank, Philadelphia; Dr. Paul Atkin, economist of Ames, Emerich and Co.; and O. Howard Wolfe, cashier of the Philadelphia National bank. Those from Bellefonte banks who expect to attend are: N. E. Robb, Earl S. Orr, Fred Witmer, Mrs. Helen R. Williams, Miss Rose Carpeneto, Robert Thompson, Leroy Resides and Guy Brown, all of the Bellefonte Trust Co.

Mary Gertrude Barlett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Barlett, entertained a number of her school friends at her home on east Curtin street, last Saturday evening. Games, music and dancing were on the program. Refreshments were served during the evening. Guests present included Georgette Purnell, Sarah Bullock, Loraine Murphy, Elinore Murtorf, Wilma Heineman, Rachel Van Pelt, Elizabeth Herr, Mary Louise Walker, Mabel Sasserman, Betty Casebeer, Leonore Morgan, Mary Harvey, Margaret Hassinger, Ralph Wasson, Ralph Haag, Alexander Morris, Andrew Engle, Jack Mabus, James Hyslip, Robert Heverly, James Williams, Hassell Lose, John Musser, Lyman Zimmerman, William Scott, Jack Guthrie and William Culverson.

At a brief session of court last Saturday, probation officer Roy Wilkinson presented a petition for the parole of William McLaughlin, one of the young men implicated in operating the "101 Ranch" last summer and who was sentenced to pay a fine of $200 and serve four months in jail. One of the reasons set forth by Mr. Wilkinson in asking for a parole was the fact that McLaughlin is a young married man and since he has been in jail has become a father. His wife and baby were in court as material evidence. Judge Fleming did not take very kindly to the request for a parole and stated that the defendant no doubt knew he was to become a father before he engaged in his unlawful business, and it was no time now to come and ask mercy of the court. Therefore the parole was refused.

BUSINESS TRANSACTIONS BY BOROUGH COUNCIL

Every member of council was present at the regular meeting Monday evening. J. Kennedy Johnston appeared in behalf of the men who constructed the aviation sign on Reservoir hill. He stated that the location and sign cost over seven hundred dollars. That a little over half that amount had been paid and he had been commissioned to ask council for an appropriation to pay the balance, $336. The appropriation was made on motion of Mr. Cobb.

The Street committee's report was confined to the routine work done on streets.

The Water committee reported some minor repairs and the collection of $15.50 on the 1927 water duplicate, $33.00 on the 1928 and $451.50 on the 1929. The committee also presented a list of exonerations asked by the collector on the 1925, 1926, 1927 and 1928 duplicates, amounting to a little over $1,200, the largest portion of which was on account of errors in assessment, and the same was granted.

The Finance committee reported a balance of $1767.81 in the water fund, and $383.33 in the borough fund. Request was also made for the renewal of five notes aggregating $6,500 and a new borough note for $1000, which was authorized.

The committee also presented a final statement of J. Kennedy Johnston, tax collector for the year 1921. Mr. Johnston gave his check for $370.03 and asked that he be exonerated of the balance of the taxes charged against him, which totalled $1486, most of which he claimed was because of errors. Council voted to accept the check and allow the exonerations.

The Sanitary committee presented the monthly report of Dr. S. M. Nissley in which he stated that he had taken his final examination as a qualified milk inspector.

The Special committee presented the new borough code and recommended its enactment. It will be taken up at the next meeting of council.

Mr. Emerick stated that a new light should be installed on Spring street, between High street and the postoffice, and the matter was referred to the Street committee.

N. B. Spangler was re-elected borough solicitor and H. B. Shattuck borough engineer.

The Street committee presented a blue print of a new sewer map prepared by Mr. Shattuck and it was referred to the Street and Water committees to check up and bring it up to date before it can be approved by council.

Mr. Cobb stated that Nittany valley farmers are again anxious to secure a site in Bellefonte for a milk shipping station. The matter was discussed but as no request or proposition had been made to council the matter was left in the hands of the Water committee.

The total of $2711.79 in bills approved for payment included $1567.21 in the borough account and $1144.58 in the water account. Among the latter were the pumping bill for January of $550 and a second payment to the Pitometer company on account of finding leaks in the water lines of $350. Council then adjourned.

SEVEN CENTRE COUNTIANS GRADUATED AT STATE.

Sixty-eight seniors received their bachelor degrees and six graduate students received master's degrees in the seventeenth mid-year commencement at the Pennsylvania State College last Friday night. The speaker, Dr. John M. Thomas, president of Rutgers University and former president of Penn State, referred admiringly to the hard fight the college has had to maintain her rightful position as the State College of a great Commonwealth. The fight has been her joy and strength. But there is no satisfaction," he concluded, "like that of a hard contest and coming out the winner."

Those from Centre county to receive degrees were as follows: Margaret B. Bracken, State College, education.

Agnes H. Dahle, State College, arts and letters.

Sara S. Jefferies, State College, education.

Francisco M. Rexach, State College, civil engineering.

Mary K. Mitchell, State College, education.

Sara E. Snyder, State College, education.

Richard A. Goheen, Boalsburg, civil engineering.

ALTOONA BOY VICTIM OF COASTING ACCIDENT

Robert Miller, twelve year old school boy of Altoona, was killed in a coasting accident in that city, on Tuesday evening of last week, when his sled collided with an automobile. He was a son of Chester and Sue Daily Miller, his father having formerly lived in College township, Centre county. In addition to the parents two brothers and a sister survive. The funeral was held on Friday morning, the remains being taken to Pine Hill cemetery for burial.

Centre county has 89 patients in the Danville State hospital, according to latest reports. Twenty of the above number were admitted during 1929, which was three more than were sent to the institution the year previous.

WOMEN RENDER REAL AID TO COUNTY HOSPITAL

As in all such organizations the Auxiliary of the Centre County hospital has maintained the standard of devoted service that organized women always render when called upon.

No better proof of this can be presented than the report of Mrs. W. Harrison Walker, secretary, as to what the Auxiliary did for the hospital last year. It follows:

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Centre County hospital have furnished to the hospital from January 1, 1929, to January 1, 1930, the following linens:— 36 abdominal bands, 80 bed blankets, 220 bed shirts, 156 bed spreads, 36 bureau scarfs, 5 pairs cu. tains, 65 diapers, 12 dish cloths, 6 doctor's operating gowns, 89 linen towels, 30 yards muslin, 36 napkins, 6 nurse's operating gowns, 12 operating masks, 168 operating towels, 162 pillow cases, 173 sheets, 8 table clothes, 40 tea towels, 158 wash cloths.

During the year just passed the auxiliary has spent the sum of $1,341.33 for linens.

At the nurse's home it installed electric light fixtures at a cost of $29.70. In the nurse's home and hospital we had painting and papering done at a cost of $144.00. Bought a new rug and table for the nurse's sitting room at a cost of $28.25. Had the davenport and chair re-upholstered at a cost of $75.00. We have purchased a mattress for Miss Eckert's room at a cost of $16.75.

We furnished pins for all graduate nurses, invitations for commencement, refreshments and music for the commencement dance at a cost of $127.22. The Christmas presents given the superintendent, student nurses and nursing staff amounted to $18.15.

The operating towels are furnished by the ladies of Pleasant Gap, and other sewing was done by the ladies of the Reformed church, of Bellefonte.

We helped with the membership drive and in tabulating the names after the drive.

The following officers have been elected for the year 1930:—President, Mrs. W. Harrison Walker; first vice president, Miss Mary Miles Blanchard; second vice president, Mrs. J. Laird Holmes; third vice president, Mrs. John Knarr; recording secretary, Mrs. Richard Brouse, Jr.; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Charles R. Kurtz; treasurer, Miss Margaret Stewart.

The Bellefonte branch of the Needlework Guild of America collected 719 articles for the year 1929, which have been distributed to the Centre County hospital, the Mother's Assistance, Children's Aid society, the School Nurse and many needy families. There are no dues connected with his organization, and anyone wishing to join can call either Mrs. M. H. Brouse or Mrs. W. Harrison Walker.

$125.00 buys an excellent quality jacquard velour three piece over-stuffed living room suite during February sale, at W. R. Brachbill's Furniture Store. 6-11

STUDENTS OFFER BLOOD TO SAVE THEIR PROFESSOR

Four Penn State students, selected from 31 volunteers, went to the Clearfield hospital on Tuesday morning to offer blood in transfusion to assist in saving the life of Dr. Oswald Frederick Boucke, head of the college economics department, who has been critically ill with a kidney ailment for several months at that hospital. There was a series of operations, the last of which was Tuesday a week ago, and it is reported that on that occasion it was impossible to remove troublesome stones. Dr. Boucke is one of the most popular members of the college faculty and seniors and juniors deem it a great privilege to attend his lectures in economics.

Seven students went to Clearfield on Sunday, but it was found that their blood did not match that of Dr. Boucke. The College department of bacteriology on Monday tested 24 students under the direction of Professors Knutsen and Anderson. They found only four possessing the peculiar type of blood required. They were Kenneth Fitzsimmons, Chester; H. A. Corre, Portage; Richard McGuire, Wormleysburg, and Thomas J. Powers, Williamsport.

Dr. Boucke has been a member of the college faculty for 21 years and head of the economics department since 1923.

A mail box has been put up on the southwest corner of the new postoffice building and marked "for use only between 8 p. m. and 7 a. m." That includes the time that the postoffice is closed at night, but with no light in that immediate neighborhood the box is not easily located, while the notice cannot be read. A light placed over the box would not only attract attention to it but would also give some illumination along the south side of the building, which is quite dark at night.

Dr. Edwin Erle Sparks, former president of the Pennsylvania State College, has been honored by the Phi Kappa Phi. honorary scholastic fraternity, through the establishment of the Sparks memorial scholarship endowment. Dr. Sparks was instrumental in extending the sphere of the society during his life, and served as president general and regent general.

NEXT WEDNESDAY WILL BE DOLLAR DAY IN ALTOONA.

The stores connected with the Altoona Booster Association are planning to hold their quarterly dollar day on Wednesday, February 12, according to their announcement, which will be found on page 5, of this issue.

Dollar day will take the place of suburban day next week. Wednesday is also Lincoln's birthday, but Booster Stores will be open all day, from 8:30 a. m. to 5:30 p. m.

It is the policy of the Altoona Booster Stores to urge the people in the surrounding communities to give their home stores the first opportunity to supply their needs, going to Altoona Booster Stores for the things their home merchants cannot supply.

This policy applies to dollar day, as well as to all other days, but there will be such a large variety of goods offered at special dollar day prices that all are invited to go and inspect the offerings, purchasing those things that they can use to advantage and which they are not able to buy at home.

According to the advertisement, there will be goods offered for home needs, as well as for personal requirements, as merchandise of all kinds is on sale in the stores of Booster Merchants.

For the convenience of those who visit Altoona on dollar day, the city officials have removed all parking restrictions in the business district.

This means that there will be unlimited parking throughout the day, so that customers may take as much time as they desire to shop in Booster Stores.

The only restrictions in the matter of parking apply to alleys and other places where fire hazards require no parking.

There will be a special dollar day musical program broadcast over station WFBG on Tuesday, February 11, from 6:15 to 7 p. m.

Booster Stores broadcast programs are always worth tuning in for.

CENTRE COUNTY BOY WINS $100 HARMON AWARD.

Richard L. Weaver, a freshman in the nature education course at the Pennsylvania State College, is one of the four winners of Harmon Foundation Scholarship awards for 1929 in the region embracing Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Maryland, and Delaware, the executive board of the Boy Scouts of America has just announced.

As an Eagle Scout, Weaver has merited the award of $100 because of his outstanding service and achievements. He was recommended by the court of honor of the local Boy Scout council to the executive board of the Boy Scouts of America for the award. The board in turn referred the recommendation to the national court of honor which reviewed all applications and recommended to the executive board the winners.

Weaver, like the other 51 winners in the United States, qualified for the award by actually putting into practice in his daily life the principles of the scout oath and law, the motto "Be prepared," and the daily "good turn" to others. Under the conditions of the award, it must be used for higher study. The recipient also gets a badge denoting the nature of the award. When he reaches his junior year in college, Weaver will become eligible for the Harmon Boy Scout loan fund.

Before taking up his residence in State College Weaver lived at Zion.

VERDICT OF GUILTY AGAINST COAL POLICE.

A jury in criminal court at Franklin, on Saturday returned a verdict of guilty of involuntary manslaughter against Walter J. Lyster and Harold P. Watts, former coal and iron police, for causing the death of John Barcoski, near Pittsburgh, about a year ago, while a third officer, Frank Slapakis, was acquitted. The maximum sentence for involuntary manslaughter is two years, but the court has discretionary power and can send the men to the penitentiary, Allegheny county workhouse or to jail, or can dispose of the case with a fine.

Lyster, one of the men convicted, was formerly a state policeman and at one time was stationed in Bellefonte. At that time he was haled into court for beating up a man but the grand jury ignored the case. He was then transferred to Cambria county where he was mixed up in a case where a man was badly beaten. In the case near Pittsburgh Barcoski was beaten so badly that he died. The officers were tried for murder in the Allegheny county courts and acquitted, and on a change of venue the case was tried in Venango county, last week, which resulted as above stated.

NOTICE TO CUSTOMERS.

Owing to the fact that I am making preparations to move my store to another location all persons having repair work with me are requested to get it out promptly. Under the circumstances I cannot assume responsibility for any such work more than ninety days.

W. E. CROSSLEY, Jeweler
5-1f

—10% to 30% reductions on living, dining and bedroom suits during February sale at W. R. Brachbill's Furniture Store. 6-11

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL

—Mrs. W. F. Reynolds, who has been among those ill during the winter, was taken east yesterday to be under the care of specialists in Philadelphia.

—Mrs. William Grauer will go to Philadelphia, Sunday, to visit for a month or more with her son Edward and her two sisters, Mrs. Leichten and Mrs. Gordon.

—George McNicol will be here from Harrisburg for his first week-end visit with his parents Mr. and Mrs. James McNicol, in their new home on Howard street.

—Mrs. G. Murray Andrews, who has been spending several weeks in Philadelphia, will be joined there by Mr. Andrews for the remainder of her stay, intending to return to Bellefonte together.

—Mrs. Tom Patterson and her aunt, Miss Margaret Stewart, went over to New York, yesterday, from where Mrs. Patterson will sail, tomorrow, for her home in Seattle after a seven month's visit in the east.

—Judge and Mrs. M. Waru Fleming entertained Miss Marjorie Womelsdorf, who is a student at Wilson, and Miss Fitch, at school at Columbia University, over the week-end, the girls coming here from Phillipsburg.

—Mrs. Frederick Daggett and her small son went to New York, a week ago, for an indefinite stay with Mrs. Daggett's sister, Mrs. A. W. J. Woche, and to join Mr. Daggett, who has been in New York for several weeks.

—Mrs. Thomas A. Shoemaker returned to Bellefonte, Wednesday, from Philadelphia, where she had been with Dr. Brockert until he had partially recovered from the operation which he underwent there ten days ago.

—Capt. Webb, head of the airport at Altoona, and Mrs. Webb spent the week-end in Bellefonte, as house guests of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Beezer. Mr. and Mrs. Beezer's son, Herbert and Capt. Webb have been friends of long standing.

—Harold Hoag, who had been home from Penn State with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hoag, for a part of his mid-winter vacation, left Bellefonte, Tuesday, on a hike to Philadelphia to spend the remainder of the time with a college friend.

—Miss Sara Bayard of Atlantic City, arrived in Bellefonte last night, having come up for the funeral of Miss McManus, which will be held from the McManus home this afternoon. Miss Bayard is a native of Bellefonte and a relative of the McManus family.

—Miss Anne McCormick, Miss Marie Sells and Miss Mary Cameron drove up from Harrisburg a week ago, in Miss McCormick's car, took lunch here with Miss Mary and Henry S. Linn and returned home in the afternoon, accompanied by Miss Linn who spent the week-end with Miss McCormick.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Emerick left Tuesday for a month's stay in Florida. Going from here to Harrisburg, they were joined by Mr. Emerick's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Emerick, for the trip south, which was made along the eastern coast to Miami, where they planned to spend most of the time.

—David Barlett, retired employee of the Pennsylvania railroad, celebrated his 83rd birthday anniversary, on Monday. A year or so ago he had quite a sick spell but he is now enjoying fairly good health and is up and around his home every day.

—Miss Virginia Hughes, home from State College for her mid-semester vacation, went to Palmyra, New Jersey, on Sunday, for a short visit with her brother, James Hughes and his family. From there she will go to Mt. Vernon, N. Y., to spend the rest of her ten days vacation with a college friend, Miss Katherine Diefendorf.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Ward, with their son J. E. Jr., were in Bellefonte, Tuesday morning, for an hour or so, having motored to Centre county for the funeral of Mrs. Samuel Harpster, of Gatesburg, who was Mrs. Ward's sister. Mr. Ward was unable to tarry as long with his Centre county friends as might have been expected he would because he is an engineer for the National Tube Works and while business in the industry has felt a considerable let-up, it has not affected his work at all. He doesn't get back to Centre county often and regretted the necessity that made their stay this time so short.

—Norman Kirk left, Monday, to go to Overbrook, to enter a school for the blind. Norman is a graduate of Penn State, following which he did agronomy work for the government until losing his eyesight, a number of years ago. Since that time he has kept himself occupied doing work on the outside and in weaving and canning. Now he hopes to make use of his College training by turning to an occupation which would come from the higher education or mind development for the blind. Norman will be east for an indefinite time and during his absence Mrs. Kirk and their two sons will be with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. M. A. Kirk.

—E. C. Riley, of Boalsburg, was in town last Friday and during the course of his stay here we had the pleasure of a little chat with him. Mr. Riley has not been well for the matter of a year or more and consequently has been unable to do much. In fact he couldn't even get out for a deer hunt last fall. We refer to that because from our earliest recollection the "Riley Hunting Club" has featured stories of the chase that came from the Harris and Ferguson township sections and that brings to mind another thought that often engages it. How scarce the old names about Boalsburg and Pine Grove are becoming. Old families are moving out and new ones moving in so that so far as names are concerned, when we read the weekly items that appear in the Watchman from correspondents at the two towns, we sometimes wonder whether they really do refer to residents of Boalsburg and Pine Grove.

While Mr. Riley is a son of the late Judge Thomas Riley he is a nephew of Calvin Riley who is still living, at the age of 88, with his nephew. We mention the Judge and Calvin because they were fine men and in their active days Democrats who had the courage of their convictions to stand up and tell it to the world. Calvin was the drummer in the Boalsburg band the time it won the contest here. A silver cornet was the prize and the organization was so elated over the victory that on the way home the driver of the band wagon got infected and didn't keep his mind on his business. The result of this defection was an upset in which most of the horns were badly battered and the coveted trophy almost wrecked.

—Miss Dorothy Bateman, an instructor at Cornell, spent much of the week in Bellefonte, as a guest of Robert S. Walker. Miss Bateman has been a schoolmate of Mrs. Walker.

A GREAT SHOW COMING TO RICHELIEU NEXT WEEK

Ziegfeld's "Glorifying the American Girl" will be shown at the Richelieu theatre Monday, Tuesday Wednesday of next week in all gorgeous splendor that one would expect from any production, stage screen, bearing the magic name of Florenz Ziegfeld.

With many of its spectacle reproduced in full colors by the proved technicolor process, w scores of stunningly beautiful in the singing and dancing ensemble with lavish settings, with comedy drama and a heart-grIPPING s this moving panorama of wom pulchritude moves across the talking silver screen in a cont parade of highly absorbing am ment.

Mary Eaton, dancing star of 2 field shows on Broadway, and is the leading woman in "The Co nuts" with the Four Marx Brot on the talking screen, is the a tious young dancer who finally m good and becomes a glorified b with Ziegfeld following a serie glamorous experiences.

In a special revue scene, a s within the big show, audiences treated to the inimitable per ances of Eddie Cantor, who app in a hilarious skit; Helen Mor who sings a typical blues song; Rudy Vallee, who croons in the Valdey manner, accompanied by band.

It is all too gorgeous to att a description in this limited sp But it is a safe bet that anyone sees and hears "Glorifying the A ican Girl" will be a Ziegfeld fan i then on.

BUCKS COUNTY MAN ELECTROCUTED MONDAY

The first electrocution for 1930 Rockview penitentiary, and the in four months, took place on Monday morning, when Giuseppe G of Bucks county, went to the c. He was convicted for conspiring secure the murder of John Till of Bristol, Pa., in order that might marry the widow. Till was murdered on the evening December 29th, 1928, and at Gu trial in February, 1929, it shown that through his cousin had paid $500 to three New York men to put Tillotta out of the v. The gunman never were caught.

Guida was the 200th victim the electric chair since it was in commission in Pennsylvania February, 1915, and a coincid is that the first man electroc was from Montgomery county, w adjoins Bucks county. Guida's l was claimed and was shipped t to Bucks county for burial.

THREE HURT IN ACCIDENT AT PLEASANT

About 9:30 last Saturday night Oakland touring car driven by L ris Larimer crashed into a tele pole, about 100 ft south of the ir section of the Lewistown and S College highways, in Pleasant (and Larimer and the Misses S and Pearl Garbrick suffered se injuries in consequence. Che Houser, the other occupant of car was uninjured.

The four young folks, all f Pleasant Gap, were driving s toward Lewistown when Wa Wood backed out of a blind alle to the highway. It was too late them to stop and Larimer swung car to the right to avoid a collis He went head on into a tele pole. The car was badly dama Larimer suffered cuts on his h and both the young ladies were verely cut about the face and h In fact it required eight stitche close up Miss Sara Garbri wounds.

—The William McGowan fa will celebrate their mother's ei eth birthday today, at their hom Spring Creek, where Mrs. McGo has spent the greater part of married life. Mr. and Mrs. J. B Case, of Washington, D. C., planned to join the family for occasion, but on account of wea conditions the drive was abando

—During 1929 a total of 139 idents of Centre county underv treatment of some kind at the C inger hospital, Danville. State lege led with 69 patients, Bellef 25, Aaronsburg 5, Boalsburg 3, tre Hall 5, Coburn 2, Howard 3, mont 2, Madisonburg 1, Milesbu Millheim 4, Moshannon 3, Nittan Rebersburg 7, and Spring Mills 5

Corrected Weekly by C. Y. Wagner &

Wheat
Corn
Oats
Rye
Barley
Buckwheat

Corrected Weekly by C. Y. Wagner &

Wheat
Corn
Oats
Rye
Barley
Buckwheat

Wheat
Corn
Oats
Rye
Barley
Buckwheat

Wheat
Corn
Oats
Rye
Barley
Buckwheat

Wheat
Corn
Oats
Rye
Barley
Buckwheat

Wheat
Corn
Oats
Rye
Barley
Buckwheat

Wheat
Corn
Oats
Rye
Barley
Buckwheat

Wheat
Corn
Oats
Rye
Barley
Buckwheat

Wheat
Corn
Oats
Rye
Barley
Buckwheat

Wheat
Corn
Oats
Rye
Barley
Buckwheat

Wheat
Corn
Oats
Rye
Barley
Buckwheat

Wheat
Corn
Oats
Rye
Barley
Buckwheat

Wheat
Corn
Oats
Rye
Barley
Buckwheat

Wheat
Corn
Oats
Rye
Barley
Buckwheat

Wheat
Corn
Oats
Rye
Barley
Buckwheat

Wheat
Corn
Oats
Rye
Barley
Buckwheat

Wheat
Corn
Oats
Rye
Barley
Buckwheat

Wheat
Corn
Oats
Rye
Barley
Buckwheat

Wheat
Corn
Oats
Rye
Barley
Buckwheat

Wheat
Corn
Oats
Rye
Barley
Buckwheat

Wheat
Corn
Oats
Rye
Barley
Buckwheat

Wheat
Corn
Oats
Rye
Barley
Buckwheat