

F. GRAY MEEK, Editor

To Correspondents.—No communications published unless accompanied by the real name of the writer.

Terms of Subscription.—Until further notice at the following rates:

Paid strictly in advance - $1.50
Paid before expiration of year - 1.75
Paid after expiration of year - 2.00

Published weekly, every Friday morning. Entered at the postoffice, Bellefonte, Pa. as second class matter.

In ordering change of address always give the old as well as the new address. It is important that the publisher be notified when a subscriber wishes the paper discontinued. In all such cases the subscription must be paid up to date of cancellation.

A sample copy of the "Watchman" will be sent without cost to applicants.

TRUCKENMILLER.—Mrs. Rebecca S. Truckenmiller, wife of H. L. Truckenmiller, passed away at the Centre County hospital, at 3:50 o'clock on Monday morning, following a prolonged illness with a complication of diseases. She had been a patient in the hospital for three months.

She was a daughter of William and Caliska Corman and was born near Coburn on September 21st, 1877, hence had reached the age of 52 years, 4 months and 26 days. When she was four years old her parents moved to Nittany valley where she grew to womanhood. She had been a member of the Lutheran church for twenty-eight years, was a loving wife and mother and a good neighbor and friend.

On July 25th, 1901, she married Harvey L. Truckenmiller, of Hublersburg, who survives with the following children: Otis Truckenmiller, of Williamsport; Willard and Nevin, of Nittany; William, of Lock Haven; Melvin, Paul, Louise, Mabel and Helen, at home. She also leaves three brothers, Harry, Otto and Earl Corman, all of Bellefonte.

Funeral services were held in the Lutheran church at Snyderport, on Wednesday afternoon, by her pastor, Rev. Paul Keller, burial being made in the Zion cemetery.

FRANK.—Mrs. Tessie Grace Frank, wife of Thomas A. Frank, prominent Millheim merchant, died at the Lock Haven hospital, on Sunday evening, February 9th, as the result of collapse following an operation. She had been in ill health for several years.

A daughter of Frank and Ella Peck Yearick, she was born at Madisonburg on March 13th, 1897, making her age 32 years, 11 months and 26 days. She married Mr. Frank on February 14th, 1917, who survives with three children, Richard, Catherine and Marian. She also leaves her father, one sister, Mrs. Catherine Bartsch, of Millheim; a half sister, Mrs. William Yearick, of Mill Hall, and three half-brothers, John P. Eckel, of Bellefonte; Samuel Yearick, of Madisonburg, and Evans Yearick, of Akron, Ohio. Mrs. Frank was a member of St. John's Lutheran church, at Millheim, and was a woman with a host of friends who sincerely mourn her untimely death.

Funeral services were held at her late home, in Millheim, on Wednesday afternoon of last week, by her pastor, Rev. L. V. Lisher, assisted by Rev. H. C. Keffel, burial being made in Fairview cemetery.

KLINE.—John A. Kline died on Wednesday afternoon of last week, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Margaret Godshall, in Centre Hall, following an illness of five weeks with a complication of diseases.

He was a son of George D. and Elizabeth Kline and was born at Oak Hall on August 20th, 1851, making his age 78 years, 5 months and 23 days. He lived in the neighborhood of his birth until six years ago when he gave up his home and had since been living among his children. His wife died in 1920 but surviving him are the following children: Mrs. Margaret Godshall, of Centre Hall; Mrs. Annie Caun, of Johnstown; George W., of Salona, and Arthur E., of Altoona. He also leaves four brothers and three sisters, Simon Kline, of Wayland, Ohio; Calvin and Cornelius, of State College; James O., of Phillipsburg; Mrs. Mary Bohn, of Oak Hall; Mrs. Elizabeth Weibly, of Juniata, and Miss Anna Kline, of Scranton.

He was a member of the Methodist church for many years and his pastor had charge of the funeral service which was held on Saturday afternoon, burial being made in the Boalsburg cemetery.

HARRISON.—Robert Bruce Harrison died at his home at Boalsburg, on Monday, as the result of a nervous breakdown. He was a son of John and Matilda Harrison and was born at Pleasant Gap sixty-eight years ago. For many years he taught school in Centre county. He married Miss Laura Hook, who died some years ago but surviving him are one daughter, Miss Rhoda, at home; and these brothers and sisters: William Harrison, of State College; Charles, of Bellefonte; Mrs. William Rimmer and Mrs. William Hoy, of State College, and Mrs. Charles Ross, of Niagara Falls. Burial will be made at Boalsburg this morning.

—Subscribe for the Watchman.

NOLAN.—Mrs. Mary Nolan, widow of Edward A. Nolan, one time resident of Bellefonte and Snow Shoe, passed away at her home in Chicago, on Monday, as the result of an attack of pneumonia. She had been in poor health for several years and last Friday developed an attack of pneumonia which resulted in her death.

She was a daughter of William A. and Mary Weaver Davidson and was born on what is now the Fisher farm, near Snow Shoe intersection, about 77 years ago. When she was sixteen years old she married Edward A. Nolan and the first few years of their married life were spent in Bellefonte. Mr. Nolan was conductor on the Snow Shoe railroad and after living here a short time they moved to Snow Shoe. In 1878 Mr. Nolan was seriously injured in the collapse of a big trestle on the Snow Shoe road and being incapacitated for railroad service took charge of the Mountain house, at Snow Shoe. There he died a few years later.

Thirty five or more years ago Mrs. Nolan, with her two children, left Snow Shoe and located in Atlantic City. A year or two later they went to Philadelphia where they spent several years then moved to Chicago, and that had been her home ever since. Her only son, James Nolan, died in 1918, but surviving her is one daughter, Mrs. Levy Johnson, of Chicago. Mrs. Nolan was a member of the Methodist church all her life.

Mrs. Nolan was a woman whose many graces made her a favorite everywhere. She was interested in everything and enjoyed life so much that advancing years seemed to make no impression on her will to be always the charming, hospitable woman that she will be remembered as by every one who ever had the honor of knowing her.

The remains were brought to Bellefonte on the 1:20 p. m. train yesterday and taken direct to the Union cemetery for burial, Rev. Homer C. Knox officiating.

WEAVER.—Mrs. Alice C. Weaver, widow of John A. Weaver, died on Wednesday of last week, at the home of her son, C. E. Weaver, in Altoona, following a long illness.

She was a daughter of Jonathan and Matilda Musser and was born at Pine Grove Mills on January 27th, 1855, hence was 75 years and 16 days old. All her married life was spent at Pine Grove Mills but since the death of her husband in 1900 she had made her home in Altoona. She is survived by the following children: Rev. John J. Weaver and Mrs. Daisy Plummer, of Harrisburg; Mrs. H. E. Cutchall, of Lincoln, Neb.; Mrs. W. L. Musser, Mrs. W. F. Conrad and C. E. Weaver, of Altoona, and E. L. Weaver, of Duncansville. She also leaves four brothers and four sisters, L. N. Musser, of Kansas City, Mo.; Roland Musser, of Pittsburgh; Mrs. C. R. Pearce and Mrs. Calvin Detwiler, of Verona; Samuel J. and George H. Musser, Mrs. O. B. Krebs and Mrs. C. S. Fortney, of Altoona.

Funeral services were held in Christ Second Lutheran church, of Altoona, of which she was a member, last Saturday afternoon, the remains being taken to Pine Grove Mills for interment.

VAN SCOYOC.—Mrs. Mary Isabelle VanScoyoc, widow of the late Theodore VanScoyoc, died last Friday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Lawrence Miller, in Tyrone, as the result of general debility.

She was a daughter of John and Jane Antes Holter and was born at Curtin on September 1st, 1844, hence was in her 86th year. She married Mr. VanScoyoc in December, 1864, and for a few years lived in Phillipsburg. Later they moved to Tyrone where she had lived ever since. She was a member of the Methodist church from girlhood. Her husband died twenty-five years ago but surviving her are seven children, Mrs. Howard D. Cree, of Tyrone; Mrs. A. H. Griffith, of Cincinnati, Ohio; Thomas Jr., of Sault St. Marie, Can.; Mrs. Della V. Camp, Dayton, Ohio; Harry A. and E. Lloyd VanScoyoc, and Mrs. Lawrence Miller, of Tyrone. She also leaves two sisters and a brother, Mrs. Virginia Curtin, of Curtin; Mrs. H. M. Walker, of Philadelphia, and C. C. Holter, of Patton.

Funeral services were held at her late home at 2:30 o'clock on Sunday afternoon, by Rev. H. Willis Hartsock, burial being made in the Grandview cemetery.

MEYER.—Mrs. Sarah Meyer, widow of the late Daniel Meyer, died at her home at Coburn, on Tuesday morning, following an illness of some weeks with general debility.

She was a daughter of Andrew and Mary A. Geary Stover and was born in Penn township on May 5th, 1855, making her age 74 years, 9 months and 13 days. In 1877 she married Daniel Meyer and practically all of their married life was spent in Penn township and at Coburn. She was one of the organization members of St. Andrew's Reformed church of Coburn, which she faithfully attended for many years. Her husband died in 1915 but surviving her are a son and a daughter, Irvin A. Meyer and Mrs. Mary E. Hosterman, both of Coburn.

Funeral services will be held this (Friday) morning, in the Reformed church at Coburn; burial to be made in the Reformed cemetery at Aaronsburg.

COLE.—Mrs. Mary Newell Cole, widow of the late Robert Cole, died at the Centre County hospital, shortly before five o'clock yesterday morning, as the result of a cerebral hemorrhage. She was stricken on Sunday morning while on her way home from the Presbyterian church and never regained consciousness.

She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Newell and was born at Red Bank, Clarion county, where her father was in charge of a furnace. When a child she came to Bellefonte to make her home with her aunts, Mrs. Joseph Miles and Miss Nancy Newell, so that practically all her life was spent in Bellefonte. She was a member of the Presbyterian church for many years and a woman whose life was replete with kindly acts to those near and dear to her. She married Robert Cole, a well known Bellefonte architect, who died about twenty years ago. An only brother, Thomas Newell, also died many years ago and her only survivors are step-children, as follows: Mrs. Ida Edmiston, Mrs. John Barnhart, and Mrs. Mary Heverly, of Bellefonte; Robert Cole, of Atlantic City, and Ralph Cole, of Bellefonte; Mrs. Edmiston's children, Ralph and Miss Freda Edmiston, both of Bellefonte, and one cousin, Mrs. Edward Holt, of Franklin.

While definite arrangements for the funeral have not been made it will likely be held on Sunday afternoon, with Rev. W. C. Thompson officiating.

WALKER.—Mrs. Martha E. Walker, wife of John Walker, died at her home at Runville, Saturday night, following several months illness. She was a daughter of Michael and Ellen Friel and was 69 years old. In addition to her husband she is survived by the following children: Mrs. Clair Poorman, of Hornell, N. Y.; Mrs. Claude Poorman, of Bellefonte; Boyd Walker, of Runville, and Mrs. Newton Lauck, at home. She also leaves two sisters, Mrs. E. Flick, of Altoona, and Mrs. William Watson, of Bellefonte. Rev. G. W. Miller had charge of the funeral services which were held on Tuesday afternoon, burial being made in the Advent cemetery.

The grand jury convened on Monday morning to consider the various bills of indictment presented by district attorney John G. Love. M. T. Hubler, of Miles township, was appointed foreman by Judge Fleming.

Seventy-five years ago tomorrow, on February 22, 1855, Governor James Pollock affixed his signature to the document that chartered the Pennsylvania State College.

BOALSBURG.

Mrs. Henry Reitz, who had been ill, is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. John Weber and family, of Bellefonte, visited friends in town on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Segner have returned home after spending some time in Philadelphia.

Edgar Hess and family, of Shingletown, were visitors at the E. W. Hess home on Thursday.

Mrs. Catherine Saunders returned to State College, Wednesday, after spending six weeks in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Williams, of Houserville, attended services in the Reformed church on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerre Zettle and daughter, of Pleasant Gap, spent Sunday with friends in town.

The farmers institute in the vocational school building, Thursday and Friday, was well attended.

The hat social given by the Reformed Sunday school, on Friday evening, was an enjoyable affair.

Mr. and Mrs. Graham, of the Blue Spring farm, are receiving congratulations on the birth of their tenth child.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Kuhn spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. Warren Cupp, and family, of Williamsport.

Mr. and Mrs. Finn McGirk and Mr. and Mrs. Harry McGirk, of Altoona, were guests of Miss Anna M. Dale on Sunday.

Ed. Isenberg and family are making arrangements to go to Detroit, Mich., where Mr. Isenberg has secured employment.

Mrs. E. M. Kuhn, Mrs. E. W. Hess and Misses Ellen and Cathryn Dale attended a quilting party at the home of L. K. Dale, at Oak Hall, on Tuesday.

Rev. Strine, of Franklin and Marshall Theological Seminary, will again occupy the pulpit in the Reformed church on Sunday evening, February 23rd, at 7:30.

The Young Ladies class of the Lutheran Sunday school held their regular monthly meeting at the home of Misses Maud and Grace Musser, on the Branch, on Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Reitz and family attended the funeral of Mrs. Reitz's uncle, John Kline, of Centre Hall, on Saturday. The body was brought to Boalsburg for burial in the L. and R. cemetery.

Several representatives of the West Penn Power Co., of Pittsburgh, have been spending some time in this vicinity, securing right of way, testing meters and transacting other business preparatory to taking over the Boalsburg Electric Co.

Returning from Oak Hall, on Friday evening, William Raymond's car skidded and was overturned in a ditch near the Perree bridge. Fortunately Mr. Raymond escaped injury, but it required the services of Paul Houser's wreck crew to remove the car.

FARBER.—Jerry Farber, a former well-known resident of Phillipsburg, died at the home of his son, Edward I. Farber, in Punxsutawney, Tuesday evening, as the result of an attack of acute indigestion.

Deceased was born at Stormstown, this county, May 30, 1852, making his age 77 years, 8 months and 19 days. As a young man he located in Phillipsburg and that was the family home until his wife died in 1927 when it was closed and he went to live with his children.

On January 19, 1872, he married Catherine Funk, of Gatesburg, and three of their children survive.

Interment will be made in Phillipsburg today.

"Penn State Jessie" the cow at the Pennsylvania State College Experiment Station that was known all over the world died on Monday. She was the cow with a "window in her side" that was used to observe the workings of her digestive tract. The opening never seemed to annoy her and she functioned just as other cows do.

James R. Guyer, lumberman and world war veteran of Warriorsmark, was placed in the Centre county jail, Monday, merely for safe keeping while friends attempt to get him located in some government institution. He was badly shell-shocked during the war and lately had been acting in a very erratic manner.

Fred Waring, formerly of Tyrone, and now the leader of a noted jazz band, has been sued for divorce. He married the lady in Los Angeles, in 1923, and she charges neglect in her libel.

Coach Bohren of the Bellefonte Academy has resigned to accept a similar position at Hobart college, Maine.

Reduced to the last analysis it seems that whatever Bill Vare says goes, and he hesitates about saying it.

In Republican councils now Governor Fisher occupies a seat in the group "among others present."

HOWARD.

Mrs. Levan Smith, of Centre Hall, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Clarence A. Yearick.

Mrs. J. H. Reynolds, of Lock Haven, visited with her sister, Mrs. J. B. Harvey, over the week-end.

The Local Workers of the Church of Christ will meet at the home of Mrs. J. E. Harvey, Friday evening, February 21st.

The Odd Fellows held a baked ham supper for their wives and friends in the lodge rooms, Thursday evening.

W. C. Thompson and wife left on the excursion, Saturday night, for New York, to visit with their daughter, Mrs. J. W. Harte.

Mrs. M. F. Dixon and her grandson, Francis Dixon 3rd, of Altoona, spent Thursday of last week with Mrs. Dixon's daughter, Mrs. J. K. Elder.

Miss Anna Muffley, Miss Nell Weber, Mrs. Briggs Kingsley and Mrs. Altenderfer attended Eastern Star meeting, at Bellefonte, Monday evening.

John Zeigler, who was taken ill on the 10th, is improving, after several serious attacks since he was first stricken. We hope he is well on the road to recovery.

Willard K. McDowell attended a bankers convention in Altoona on February 12th. At the same time Mrs. McDowell visited with Mr. McDowell's aunt, Mrs. George D. Robb.

Mrs. Alvin Pifer has returned from a nine weeks visit in Altoona. Mrs. Pifer had been in ill health for some time and her many friends will be glad to know she is very much improved.

The P. O. of A. held a Valentine party in their rooms, Monday evening. As the ladies were all called upon for a speech they each responded with a nursery rhyme. Refreshments were served.

The Ladies Aid society of the Reformed church will hold a covered dish luncheon and hat social at the home of Mrs. Jennie Meyers, Friday evening of this week. Every member is requested to attend and take one guest.

Rev. Osborne, pastor of the Presbyterian congregation, will preach a missionary sermon, Sunday evening, at 7:30. The board of foreign missions have requested missionary sermons preached in all churches on that date.

The Missionary society of the Presbyterian church held their regular monthly business meeting at the home of Mrs. Will Mayes Thursday evening, February 13. After the usual business was attended to a social hour was enjoyed and dainty refreshments served.

A birthday party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Elder, Wednesday of last week, in honor of Mr. Elder's birthday. Cards were enjoyed by all the guests till a late hour when an oyster supper was served. Mr. Elder didn't just tell how old he is, but admitted to sixteen years.

"The Old New Hampshire Home," played by the students of the Senior class of the Howard High school, directed by Prof. Kemp, was given Friday and Saturday evenings to a packed house. The students played their parts exceptionally well. The glee club rendered several selections and Prof. Kemp a solo. Those who were unable to get seats will be pleased to know that the play will be repeated Friday night and Saturday of this week.

New Milk Station Site Discussed By Borough Council

(Continued from page 1, Col. 4.)

gheny street and Paul Eberhart for a house on Logan street, and the recommendation was approved.

President Walker made his appearance at this stage in the proceedings and took the chair.

The Finance committee reported a balance in the water fund of $1174.23 and borough fund $1499.21. Request was also made for the renewal of a note for $4000, which was authorized.

It was after the above report that Mr. Cobb brought up the matter of a site for a new milk shipping station which is given in detail above.

Water bills totaling $1796.00 and borough bills $850.81 were approved for payment after which council adjourned.

Get a radio free. See advertisement on page 5.

Gerald T. Evey, of Pleasant Gap, was one of the seventeen students at the Pennsylvania State College who completed the short course in market milk and milk control last week.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

NOTICE.—In the Court of Common Pleas of Centre County No. May Term, 1930. Notice is hereby given that application will be made to the above Court on Saturday, March 15, 1930, at 11 o'clock A. M., under the Corporation Act of 1874, of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and its supplements thereto, for the charter of an intended corporation, to be called the "VOLUNTEER FIREMEN'S RELIEF ASSOCIATION OF RUSH TOWNSHIP," the charter and object of which is to furnish financial relief to such of its members, who are injured while voluntarily fighting fire, by furnishing them periodic financial benefit for disability so sustained, and to make payment to the dependents of a member killed while voluntarily fighting fire; such payments to be determined by the by-laws of the corporation, and to possess and enjoy all the rights, benefits, and privileges of the said Act of Assembly and its supplements. Proposed charter is now on file in Prothonotary's office. EDWARD J. THOMPSON, Solicitor 75-8-3t

EYESIGHT
Eye Diseases
Defective vision and diseases of the eye are two entirely distinct conditions. The former is usually due to certain weaknesses of the muscles or an error of refraction, and can be overcome by wearing corrective lenses.
Diseases of the eye—and there are many of them—are more serious and require medical or surgical care.
The Optometrist is trained to recognize various eye and body diseases, as well as symptoms of certain systemic disorders, and will immediately refer the patient to a physician.
An occasional "check-up" on your eyes by a Registered Optometrist is the best possible safeguard against eye trouble. We are at your service.
C. D. Casebeer
Registered Optometrist . . . Bellefonte
Satisfaction Always Guaranteed. Established 1906
The Newest White Gold Frames from $5.00 to $10.00

OBSERVATIONS
75-8-2t
Amoco Gas
The World's Premier Gas
Sold ONLY at the
Sunflower Filling Station
ON THE HECLA DRIVE
"Motor the Amoco Way"
MOTOR OILS 100% PURE

BONFATTO'S BARGAINS!
SPECIALS FOR
Friday and Saturday
Bananas 25c. and 30c. Dozen
Oranges 29c., 33c., 43c. and 55c.
Apples—Fine Eating and Cooking, 4 lbs. for 25c
Grapefruit 4 for 25c. and up
We have New Potatoes, New Cabbage, New Peas, Strawberries, Broccoli, Tomatoes, Peppers, and anything that is possible to get in the line of Fruit and Vegetables.
G. Bonfatto
Bush Arcade BELLEFONTE, PA.