

UNIONVILLE

Bertha Williams is still very ill in the Geisinger hospital.

Mrs. George Bauder, of the week-end visitors at the home of his mother, Maggie Keatley, and Forrest at the home of his sister, Mrs. F. W. L.

Meeting here of representatives of the Agricultural Extension and the Grange, on Friday, proved to be interesting. County agent, R. C. Dickey, of State, were the leaders and principal speakers at the men's meeting. Miss Lovelace conducted an interesting session on food for the ladies in the afternoon.

Eighteen people went from Altoona to New York city on Saturday night.

Altoona Booster Merchants Say

Invite You to Come to Booster Stores For The Needs Your Home Merchants Cannot Supply

ALTOONA
Booster Stores
FEATURE
Quality
Value
Service

There are three fundamentals that are important to every prospective merchant as they assure satisfaction and protect the interests of the customer.

Dependable Quality is assured in merchandise sold by Altoona Booster Stores because only merchandise that comes under that classification is handled in Booster Stores.

Price is of equal importance as quality, and patrons find that Booster merchandise for home use, as well as personal needs, is always in stock with the latest styles.

Using efficient methods in buying, Booster Merchants secure advantage of every possible price combination, which together with efficient store management, enables them to sell their merchandise at prices that always represent good value.

Satisfactory Service is assured because employees of Booster Stores are loyal co-workers and realize the importance of giving courteous service to patrons. This is one reason why Booster Merchants unflinchingly guarantee satisfaction in every transaction!

Always Pays To Shop In An Altoona Booster Store!

Why Booster Stores are Showing New Spring Merchandise for the convenience of those who find it necessary or desirable to do their Spring Shopping

Every Wednesday is a Suburban Day in Altoona Booster Stores

Good day to meet your friends, call as to shop!

GOOD ROADS
Lead to Altoona from all sections of Central Pennsylvania. Follow us 36 or 264 into the Business Hotel District.

CLOSED PARKING: The Wil. F. Gable Co. Garage, Rear of Avenue Building or at Fleck's Alto Garage, 1409 13th Avenue.

PARKING UNDER POLICE PROTECTION at the Municipal Garage, Avenue, between 11th and 12th streets, for 15 cents.

FREE PARKING on all Streets, Time Restrictions in some sections.

Altoona Booster Association

Strand Theatre
Altoona, Pa.
Week Starting Friday, Feb. 21
Richard Barthelmess
in
"Son of the Gods"
A Rex Beach Story
Partly in Natural Color

Talking Vitaphone Comedy
Vitaphone Acts and Sound News

PINE GROVE MENTION.

J. Foster Musser is driving a new Reo two ton truck.

Ralph Davis, of Oklahoma, is visiting friends in the valley.

Mrs. C. E. Fye spent the week-end with friends in Centre Hall.

John H. Bailey is steering a new Buick sedan. It's a beauty.

J. Harry McCracken has invested in a new two ton Ford truck.

Earl Shively, of Annapolis, Md., is visiting Centre county relatives.

Hon. J. W. Kepler is spending the week with friends in Johnstown.

The mercury dropped to 18 degrees below zero, here, on Sunday morning.

Deemer T. Pearce made a business trip to Huntingdon, last Wednesday.

State Senator Harry B. Scott passed through town on Monday afternoon.

Ralph E. Musser, of Mill Hall, transacted business in the valley last week.

H. H. Goss and wife, of State College, were here on Tuesday calling on friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Henry and son Henry were Sunday visitors at the H. A. Elder home.

J. W. Henszey and wife left, on Friday, on a several weeks trip through the South.

Joseph H. Gilliland has been appointed an overseer of the poor for Ferguson township.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Homan had with them during the week-end their son, Bruce, of Philadelphia.

Isaac Harpster, one of Tadpole's up-to-date farmers, is planning to enlarge his barn this spring.

Word from the Centre County hospital is in effect that Mrs. Carey Shoemaker is improving slowly.

Oscar B. Krebs and wife, of Altoona, are visiting their brother, Dr. R. M. Krebs, and other friends.

Miss Rita Ward, school teacher at Petersburg, spent the latter end of the week at the Ward home here.

The recently elected officers of the P. O. of A. were installed at a regular meeting last Thursday evening.

Mrs. Ruth Frank entertained a number of friends, last Friday evening, at a Lincoln's birthday party.

Mrs. Harry Pennington and Mrs. Earl Kline visited the Fred Roush family in Altoona, over the week-end.

Ira Hess, a retired railroader of Altoona, made brief calls on a number of friends in this section, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Aikens and Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Stuart departed, last week, for a month's sojourn in Florida.

Harold Walker was discharged from the Centre County hospital, on Tuesday, and will soon be himself again.

Ed Harpster and G. B. Fry motored to Bellefonte, Friday, in quest of some machinery for the former's saw mill.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel A. Homan, of Baileyville, had as their guests, over Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Luther David Fye.

John W. Miller is swinging the brush on the interior of the S. A. Homan mansion among the pines, at White Hall.

The new arrival at the Ralph Walker home, last Thursday, is a son, making a family of four girls and two boys.

Miss Grace Fye, who was home for the mid-winter vacation, has returned to her studies at the University of Pittsburgh.

A German police dog came to the home of William Dillon, near Pennsylvania Furnace, where he can be secured by the owner.

J. H. Harpster and son Roy, of Mill Hall, spent Thursday in town on the hunt of a house, as they expect to move here April 1st.

George Irvin, A. L. Albright, S. A. Homan and Scott Bressler attended a meeting of the Dairyman's League, at Rebersburg, last Tuesday.

Mrs. G. W. Ward went to Johnstown, last week, where she will spend some time with her daughter, Mrs. Belle Thomas and family.

This is the evening for the third annual banquet of Washington camp P. O. S. of A., which will be held in the I. O. O. F. hall at 7:30 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Meyers, Mr. and Mrs. John Hoffer and Dr. and Mrs. W. M. Neidigh are spending several weeks in the Lone Star State.

Mrs. Ella Gardner has returned to her home at Rock Springs after spending several weeks with Mrs. Frank Crosthwaite, at State College.

Merchant E. C. Martz is driving a new International two ton truck which enables him to handle all his goods and produce more conveniently.

Lady Ferguson lodge of Rebekahs held a Washington's birthday and Valentine party combined, last Wednesday evening, with a large attendance.

Rev. John F. Harkins attended a church conference in New York, last week, and also visited his brother-in-law, Rev. John Wagner, at Brooklyn, N. Y.

Sunday by the pastor, Rev. English, as follows: Elder, Elmer C. Musser; deacon, James Kling; trustee, H. S. Elder.

Mr. and Mrs. Randall Pfoust entertained members of the P. O. of A. at their home on Tadpole, last Thursday evening. Various games were played and prizes given the winners. Refreshments were served.

Our mutual friend, Daniel W. Meyers, who is spending the winter with his daughter, Mrs. Gertrude Wagner, in Altoona, is here for a brief breathing spell of his home county air, making his headquarters at the Harry Lonebarger home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Fye entertained a family gathering, last Wednesday, in honor of the 78th birthday anniversary of Mr. Fye's mother, Mrs. Adaline Fye. A delicious dinner was served. Mrs. Fye is still enjoying remarkably good health.

Miles Walker found one of his best horses dead in its stall, on Friday morning. Some time ago he lost a valuable cow, which is hard luck for a beginner on the farm. George Reed also lost a good cow. Charles Snyder lost a horse the same night and Charles Lohr a mule.

William Grant Gardner and daughter Mary attended the funeral of his twin brother, Robert B. Gardner, at Pittsburgh, and later visited his uncle, Prof. Samuel P. McWilliams, at Cannonsburg, whose health is not very good and who has been compelled to give up teaching for an indefinite time.

While coasting in the foothills of Tussey mountain with a number of college students, last week, Donald Kepler, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Will Kepler, was painfully cut and injured about the head and face by being thrown from the sled. A doctor sewed up the cuts and he is now coming along all right.

The regular monthly meeting of the Ferguson township Brotherhood was held in the Methodist church here, on Friday evening. Rev. John S. English was the speaker and his talk was worth hearing. Quite a number of ladies were in attendance. Rev. J. Max Kirkpatrick will be the speaker at the March meeting.

On Sunday last William Russell Port was 59 years old and in celebration of the event his wife served a chicken dinner to which a few friends were bidden. Later in the day a number of neighbors called and extended congratulations. Mr. and Mrs. Port have one daughter, Miss Florence, a member of the Senior class at the State College High school.

The Misses Gertrude and Maud Miller entertained a number of lady friends, at their home in the Glades, last Saturday, in celebration of both Lincoln's and Washington's birthdays. A big chicken dinner, and all that goes to make it a success was served. The guests included Mrs. A. L. Albright, Mrs. D. S. Peterson, Mrs. Margaret Reed, Mrs. E. B. Harmon, Mrs. O. Peterson, Mrs. Maude Fry, Mrs. C. Irvin, Mrs. M. Harmon, Mrs. Ed Isenberg and Miss Anna Ward.

The last Communion service for this conference year will be held in the Pine Grove Mills Methodist church the coming Sabbath at 2:30 p. m. Rev. M. C. Piper, of Milesburg, will preach the sermon and Miss Alma Budman, of Muncy, Pa., an evangelistic singer, will also be present at the service and sing. Everybody is welcome to meet with us and enjoy this service.
C. C. SHUEY, pastor.

WINGATE

Mrs. Willis Neff has improved sufficiently from her recent illness to be up and around.

Milton Haines and family, of Unionville, were Sunday visitors at the Wharton Hosband home.

We had a few warm days, last week, but made up for it on Sunday and Monday.

Mrs. Daniel Barnhart was brought home from the Centre County hospital, on Friday, and is now getting along splendidly.

The oyster supper held at the Witmer home, on Friday evening, was largely attended, and a nice sum was realized for the benefit of the church.

Mrs. Clair Boob and two children, of Tyrone; Mrs. Arthur Boob and child and Miss Grace Boob were callers at the Edward Bavarr home, last Wednesday.

After a pleasant visit with her mother, Mrs. Katherine Fisher, in this place, Mrs. Maggie Tice has gone to Bald Eagle to spend some time with her son.

A man and a woman reported to be from Bellefonte drove into a freight train at the upper Milesburg crossing, last Saturday afternoon. Fortunately neither of the occupants were injured but the car was more or less damaged.

JACKSONVILLE

Mrs. Mary Dietz spent Sunday at her home here.

Mrs. Willis Bathgate greeted friends here last Friday.

Edna Sortman was a caller at the Mervin Hoy home on Thursday.

Mrs. George Ertle spent Monday afternoon at the William Weaver home.

Mrs. Harry Hoy spent the week end with her daughter, Mrs. Joseph Neff, at State College.

Three grey foxes were captured, last week, by Fred and Byron Lucas and Harry Hoy and sons.

Mrs. Hogan Long and son George spent Tuesday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ephraim Lucas.

Miss Genevieve Lucas and Willard Hoy spent Sunday at Curwensville, and brought Mrs. Hoy home from the College on their return trip.

Get a radio free. See advertisement on page 5.

Rev. Samuel Martin, who for almost twenty-two years has been pastor of the Presbyterian church, at State College, has notified his congregation that he will retire from the ministry the first of August. With his wife he will continue to make State College his home.

IN THE CHURCHES ON SUNDAY.

ST. JOHN'S LUTHERAN CHURCH.
9:30 A. M., Bible school
10:45 A. M., Morning service;
Sermon: "A Life in Ruins."
7:30 P. M., Evening service;
Sermon: "A More Sure Word of Prophecy."
Clarence E. Arnold, Pastor

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

FOR CONGRESS
We are authorized to announce the name of CHARLES P. LONG, Spring Mills, Centre county, as a candidate for the nomination for CONGRESS on the Republican ticket at the May Primaries, Tuesday, May 20th. He respectfully appeals to the Republicans of the Twenty-third congressional district, Centre, Clearfield, Cameron and McKean counties, for their support and influence. P. O. Address, Spring Mills, Pa.

FOR STATE SENATOR
We are authorized to announce the name of Harry E. Scott of Philipsburg, Pa., as a candidate for the nomination for State Senator, representing the Thirty-fourth District, comprising Clearfield and Centre counties, at the Primary Election to be held on Tuesday, May 20th, 1930, subject to the rules governing the Republican party.

FOR STATE COMMITTEEMAN
We are authorized to announce the name of Harry E. Scott of Philipsburg, Pa., as a candidate for the nomination for State Committeeman representing Centre county, at the Primary Election to be held on Tuesday, May 20th, 1930, subject to the rules governing the Republican party.

CHAIRMAN COUNTY COMMITTEE
We are authorized to announce the name of Phil D. Foster, of State College, Pa., as a candidate for County Chairman of the Republican party in Centre County, Pa., subject to the decision of the voters of the party as expressed at the primary to be held on May 20th, 1930.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

HOUSE FOR RENT.—A 6 room house, with all modern conveniences, located on Reynolds Ave., Bellefonte, Pa. Garden, garage and chicken house. Inquire of H. L. Zimmerman. 75-8-11

EXECUTOR'S NOTICE.—The undersigned executor of the estate of Charles C. Cochran, late of State College borough, Centre county, Pa., hereby notifies all persons having claims against said estate to present them, properly authenticated, for payment, and those knowing themselves indebted thereto are notified to make immediate settlement of such indebtedness.
MRS. MARY E. COCHRAN
W. Harrison Walker, Atty., Executor
Bellefonte, Pa. State College, Pa. 75-7-6t

EXECUTOR'S NOTICE.—Letters testamentary upon the estate of Margaret Louise McManus, late of Bellefonte borough, deceased, having been granted to the undersigned, all persons knowing themselves indebted to said estate are requested to make prompt payment, and those having claims against the same must present them, duly authenticated, for settlement.
THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK
BELLEFONTE, PA.
James C. Furst, Atty., Executor 75-7-6t

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

FRESH COWS.—For sale two fresh cows and one calf. Inquire of John Adams, Coal Street, Osceola Mills, Pa. 75-8-3t

EXECUTOR'S NOTICE.—Letters testamentary having been granted to the undersigned on the estate of Minerva Tate, late of the township of Spring, county of Centre and State of Pennsylvania, deceased, all persons knowing themselves indebted to said estate are directed to make payment of such indebtedness and those having claims should present them, properly authenticated, for payment.
SCOTT TATE
ALIVA HENDERSHOT
Executors of Minerva Tate, Dec'd.
Bellefonte, R. F. D., Pa.
William Groh Runkle, Atty., Bellefonte, Pa. 75-8-6t

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

FOR SALE.—10 shares of the stock of the Bellefonte Trust Co. Apply to J. Kennedy Johnston, High St., Bellefonte, Pa. 75-7-1t

LOST.—A large bunch of keys. Finder will please notify Dr. J. J. Kilpatrick, in Temple Court, Bellefonte. 75-7-1t

TYPEWRITER FOR SALE.—"12" L. C. Smith Typewriter, in excellent condition. Cheap for quick sale. Phone Bellefonte, 333-R. 74-6-4t.

LOST.—On Saturday, between State College and Williamsport, front automobile bumper. Finder is requested to return to or notify the Watchman office. 75-8-1t

MAJESTIC RADIO
GIVEN AWAY
Absolutely Free
A New $116 Majestic Cabinet Radio, 1930 Model, will be given away by us absolutely FREE to the person who gives us the Most Prospect Names Which Result in Sales within 60 days from date of Feb. 21, 1930. The names given by you can be prospects for either Radios, Pianos or Victrolas.
Contest Closes April 21st
Get Busy...Send In Your Prospects Now
AND FROM DAY TO DAY
Someone is Sure to Get the Radio
Harters Music Store
Phone 110-R BELLEFONTE 75-8-2t

RICHELIEU
Showing 2-7 and 9 P. M. Continuous Saturday 2 to 11 P. M.
Western Electric Vitaphone Equipment
Showing Friday and Satur. The All-Talking Movietone Romance of a World Aflight with John Garrick—Helen Chandler—Gilbert Emery.

WILLIAM FOX presents
The SKY HAWK

Monday, Tues., Wednes
Next Week
A Thrilling Story of the Most Mysterious Spot on the Globe, with
Noah Beery
Virginia Valli
Jason Robards
100% Talking

THE ISLE OF LOST SHIPS

STATE THEATRE
Showing 7 and 9 p. m. Admissions—Children 10c., Adults, Balcony 25c., Main Floor 35c.
Friday and Saturday
Claire Windsor in a Thrilling Talking Special
"Midstream"
Pathe Sound Fables

Monday and Tuesday—Next Week
William Collier, Jr., in the Talking Comedy Feature
"Two Men and a Maid"
Wednesday and Thurs.—Next Week
Belle Bennett in "Molly and Me"