

HOWARD.
 Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Schenck were ted by the stork, leaving a baby ev. Howard Robb, of Export, spent several days in town last k.
 ev. Yingling was called to Han-r, last week, to see his father-in-who is ill.
 fr. and Mrs. J. D. Heller spent day with Mr. Heller's parents Hollidaysburg. am Kling, of Altoona, spent the k-end with his sister, Mrs. Wal-Yearick and family.
 Miss Emma Pletcher attended the eral of Mrs. Jennie Curtin, at tin, Monday afternoon.
 ev. and Mrs. Maneval and chil-n, of Avis, were Saturday guests Rev. and Mrs. Yingling.
 Miss Gace Schenck, of Milesburg, ed on her mother, Mrs. Mary enck, on Sunday evening.
 Mrs. Earl Cartwright and children n Saturday with Mrs. Roy an and family, at Milesburg.
 fr. and Mrs. Ira Helbley and ily spent Sunday with Mr. and
 s. Charles Fravel, of Nittany.
 Mrs. Mirian Simpson, of Pleasant n, spent several days with her ents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Lucas.
 The Ladies social club held a en supper, on Thursday evening, the home of Mrs. Claude Moore.
 The Ladies Aid society of the odist Episcopal church met at home of Mrs. Rachel Weber, nesday evening.
 Mrs. Gordon H. Lauth and chil-n, of Lock Haven, are spending eral days with her parents, Mr.
 Mrs. T. A. Pletcher.
 fr. and Mrs. G. A. Ekdale and
 s. A. M. Butler spent Sunday h Mrs. Butler's daughter, Mrs. n Bennett, at Mill Hall.
 fr. and Mrs. Will Torrence and ghter, Mrs. Beyers, of Bell Cen-Ohio, were visitors of Mr. and
 s. H. T. McDowell, Saturday.
 Mrs. Byron Martin, of Detroit; Mr.
 Mrs. Bressler, Mrs. Margaret ith and John S. Holter, all of nsonburg, called at the home of T. McDowell, on Sunday.
 Harold Confer, of Howard, and s Sue Bittner, of Beech Creek, e quietly married in Cumberland, Wednesday of last week. They make their home in Howard. unday dinner guests of Mrs. nk Butler were Mrs. Sara Wise, s. Mayme Beisen, Mrs. Nelle g and daughter, Miss Beryl, hiansport, and Miss Carrie Butler.
 fr. and Mrs. Harry Martin, of kinsburg, and Mr. and Mrs. Sam-n, of Pittsburgh, the ladies both ers of J. Will Mayes, were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Mayes on Sunday.
 fr. and Mrs. Frank Chalk, of dsdowne, near Philadelphia, spent week-end with the latter's fath-Anson A. Schenck. Mrs. Chalk, ore her marriage, was Roseatta enck.
 fr. and Mrs. Girard Altenderfer, L. Altenderfer and Mr. and
 s. Horace Schenck were in Miles-g, Sunday, stopping to hear s. Osborne, chaplain, at Rockview, ach in the Presbyterian church.
 fr. and Mrs. J. H. Heller moved Centre Hall, Tuesday of this k. Mr. Heller was formerly the ager of Shaffer's stores, of this e. Some time ago he was transe to Centre Hall to manage the e there.
 Miss Anna Muffly, Miss Nelle ber, Hilda Leathers, Mrs. John ber, Mrs. Joe Rathmel and Mrs. ard Altenderfer attended the in-lation services of the Bellefonte pter of the O. E. S., Wednes-evening.
 Mrs. Clark Carson and Mrs. tswick, of Bellefonte, spent rdsday as guests of Mr. and
 s. Girard Altenderfer. Mrs. Harts-k renewed old acquaintances at town as she was formerly n Jacksonville.
 ev. Charles Robb, of Toms ck, Va., with two children, are King Mr. and Mrs. Will Orr. On day Rev. Robb led Sunday ool in the Reformed church and ght all of the adult classes. Sun-evening he delivered a sermon a good sized congregation.
 The Keystone Bible class of the E. church held their regular uthly meeting at the home of s. W. C. Thompson, on Wednes-evening, with nine members ent. The next meeting will be l at the home of the teacher, Stella Williams, the last Wed-day in April.
 A. Daughter of the Desert," play-by the Junior class of the How-High school, was a huge suc-s. The play was given in the d room of the old school build-and was directed by Miss yes, teacher of the Junior class.
 April 5th they will give the e play in Loganton.
 n Sunday the Evangelical Sun-school made awards to the nbers of the school with a year's feet attendance. J. Frank Wil-s had a very unusual record, has attended the school here for eriod of eight years, with a feet attendance record, for which surely deserves the highest ise. ervices in the M. E. church Sunday, April 6th, as follows: day school, 9:30 a. m., Wilbur Hall Supt.; Worship and ser-h, 10:45, with a children's talk Epworth League, 6:45; announcements, Tuesday evening 6:45, or League, Tuesday evening, ), Bible study, by the pastor, day, April 13th, which is Palm day, is the day set apart for the ging of eggs for the Home of the d. Members are requested to ember the date. tudents of the third grade and nbers of the boys Sunday school s of the Evangelical church met, nesday evening, at the home of

PINE GROVE MENTION
 Royal Kline, wife and three children, spent Sunday with relatives in Williamsport.
 Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Shank, of Avis, spent Sunday with his cousin, J. L. Shank.
 Bruce Harmon is operating a new International tractor on his farm at Rock Springs.
 Rev. C. W. Rishel has been returned to his former charge, Meek's church and Franklinville.
 W. R. Port, of the State College Times, was off duty several days on account of illness.
 Mr. and Mrs. Deemer Pearce, of State College, called on mother O'Bryan on Sunday afternoon.
 H. L. Dale and Walter O'Bryan, young farmers on the Branch, called on friends in town on Monday.
 Miss Virginia Dale, teacher of the Hublersburg school, is housed up with an attack of the grip.
 Miss Kathryn Kepler, of Washington, D. C., is visiting her parents, Hon. and Mrs. J. Will Kepler.
 Don't overlook the Mrs. Mary Johnson public sale tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon, at one o'clock.
 Mrs. Elsie Cori has been discharged from the Clearfield hospital and is now at her home on White Hall.
 Next Monday evening is the date for the installation of the new officers of Lady Ferguson Rebekah lodge.
 The recently elected officers of Pennsylvania lodge, No. 276, I. O. O.
 F. will be installed tomorrow (Saturday) evening.
 Merchant H. C. Fluke and wife, of Barto, Berks county, spent the latter end of the week with relatives in town.
 Rudy Wieland, 15 years old, sustained a broken right arm while playing at school, on Monday. Dr.
 Woods reduced the fracture.
 Rev. C. C. Shuey will hold preaching services in the Methodist church at 7:30 o'clock on Sunday evening.
 Special music. Everybody welcome.
 Dr. John Baker Krebs and wife and Roy VanBuskirk and wife, of Northumberland, visited the J. H.
 Bailey family and Dr. R. M. Krebs, on Sunday.
 Wray Reed and wife have returned to Centre county after spending the winter in California. They came back by automobile, and made the trip in two weeks.
 Rev. H. L. Wink preached an able sermon in the Reformed church, on Sunday. He is a candidate for the vacancy on this charge. Election of a pastor will take place on April 13th.
 Seven car loads of members of the Pennsylvania Furnace dairy unit went to Milton, on Friday, to attend a dairymen's meeting. Rumors are that a milk shipping station and creamery are to be erected at Pennsylvania Furnace and will be ready for business by the time the Bellefonte Central is open for traffic.
Many Movings.—Many movings took place in this section this spring.
 Earl Ishler moved to the John T.
 McCormick farm, at Circleville; Charles Loesch to the Charles Snyder farm; Charles Spicher to the Strouse farm, near Tusseyville; Oscar Struble to State College; J.
 C. Wilson to the Will Leech home; Frank Harms to the Methodist parsonage here; H. L. Harpster to Tyrone; H. F. Gearhart to the Harpster home; Curly Randolph to rooms in the Mrs. Mary Johnson home; Clayton Neidigh to the J. D.
 Neidigh farm, at White Hall; James Dean to the George P. Irvin farm; Ed Conrad to the Huntingdon Furnace farm; Ray Louck quit the restaurant business and moved with his brother Charles; Kelly Henry to the home he bought from the Mrs. Sue Peters heirs; Lloyd Houck from Neff's Mills to the Drieblehns farm on Fairbrook; Wilbur Shillings to the R. W. Reed place, at Rock Springs; Ed Rossman to Altoona; C. E. Campbell to the Joe Gilliland place, at Baileyville; S. E. Fleming to his new bungalow in town; John E. Miller from his town house to his farm near town; Edward and Ella Livingston to their new home on Main street.
 J. L. Shank to the Capt. Fry home; Charles Gilligan from Boals-burg to the home he bought at White Hall; J. M. Campbell to his new home at State College, his son Charles and bride taking the farm at Fairbrook, which makes the fourth generation to cultivate the farm. Russell Koch moved to the Capt. Fry home, on east Main street; Charles Laird is with E. T. Far-sons; Bruce Weaver from State College into one of Capt. Fry's homes; David Nearhoof to the Mary Meyers property; H. S. Elder to the home he recently bought from Mrs. Roop; Ed Moore from the farm into town to engage in the restaurant business, the Lohr brothers taking charge of the Moore farm. C. B.
 Baumgardner moved to State College and Harry Struble to the Nancy Snyder farm.
 Harry G. Sunday to the John Harshberger place, near Linden Hall; Harry Bechtel to the Goss place, on Water street; George Bann from Stone valley to the Sallie Burwell farm, on the Branch, Mrs. Burwell coming to the Margaret Reed home which she purchased; James I. Reed moved to his lodge; Harry Barto from Stormstown to the A.
 F. Fry place, on the Branch, and J. D. Neidigh to his new home at Struble.

UNIONVILLE
 Mrs. Medie Stere has some rooms for rent in her residence.
 Mrs. C. K. Brugger came home from the Geisinger hospital last Friday.
 Benner Gummo moved, on Tuesday, from G. W. Holt's farm, in Bush hollow, to Julian.
 Harry Hall moved from the Cadwallader house here to the Musser farm near Zion.
 Mr. and Mrs. Earl Waite and some friends were Sunday visitors at the J. E. Brugger home.
 Mr. Stockdale, of Ohio, was a caller at the Askins and Kerchner homes on Sunday afternoon.
 Mrs. Mary Wright moved, last week, from the Smith house to rooms in the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Roller.
 Mrs. Elwood Way has been on the sick list for a week or more, being in bed most of the time, with an attack of heart trouble.
 J. C. Hall attended the funeral of his cousin, Mrs. John Holter, on Saturday afternoon, from the home of her sister at Mackeyville. Burial was made in Jacksonville Presbyterian cemetery.
 Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Watson and children, of Bellefonte, and Mrs.
 Millie Kepler and children, of Pine Grove, were Sunday visitors at the home of their brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kerchner.
 Mrs. Mary Hall Williams and son, John Edward and daughter Alice Louise, of Port Matilda, attended Grange on Friday evening, then went home with grandpa E. T. Hall for a visit over the week-end.
 Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Brugger and Miss Laura Rumberger attended the funeral of their sister-in-law, Mrs.
 George Rumberger, on Thursday, at DuBois. She had been a patient at the Cresson sanatorium for some time.
 While John Askins was away, last week, on his round of business calls he found himself snowed in at Spangler on Thursday. The snow was several inches deep and the drifting kept him stranded there all day and night.
Grange, News.—Union Grange, No.
 325, met last Friday evening, at the regular time, and after the usual opening service R. C. Blaney, county agent, gave an interesting talk to the farmers on the dairy business, explaining the difference in the value of timothy, red clover and alfalfa for the production of milk; alfalfa being the most valuable. He also gave some interesting information on the potato question. At the close of his address he left at once to attend another meeting. The lecturer, Mrs. A. F.
 Showers, continued with the literary program, giving a reading on "why a boy left the farm, and why a boy stayed on the farm." One boy was allowed to claim the lambs, the pigs and calves until they were matured then they belonged to his father.
 The other boy was given a share in the profits of the stock after it was raised, making staying on the farm much more attractive.
 A milking contest was participated in by Mrs. Houtz, Mrs. Mary Williams, Clair Parsons and Floyd Sanderson. The game was to see who could drink a certain amount of milk from baby bottles the quickest.
 Mrs. Houtz won the prize, a large candy rabbit.
 The third and fourth degrees were conferred on Mr. and Mrs. John Casper, Harold Alexander and Miss Harriet Alexander.

JACKSONVILLE.
 John Glossner has purchased a new tractor and plough to make his farming easier.
 Harry and Mervin Hoy and Vincent Lucas attended I. O. O. F. lodge, at Bellefonte Thursday evening.
 Floyd Weight and Elmer Moltz returned home, on Sunday morning, after a two week's tour of the western States.
 The Ladies Aid of the Reformed church of Jacksonville will meet at the home of Mrs. Willard Harter, Saturday evening, April 5th.
 Our milk man, Willis Bathgate, is hauling his milk around in a new Ford truck.
 The body of John Holmes was laid to rest, Monday afternoon, at Jacksonville. Mr. Holmes was a former resident of this place.
 The children of Mr. and Mrs.
 Ephraim Lucas have all been called home to the bed side of their mother, who has pleural pneumonia. We wish her a speedy recovery.
 On March 23rd a daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. William Watkins. Both mother and babe are getting along fine under the splendid care of Mrs. Mary Deitz, Callers at the Watkins home, on Sunday, were Mr. and Mrs. Garret and children, Mrs. William Weaver and son Willard and granddaughter.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS
 LOST.—Certificate No. P4634 for six (6) shares of Capital Stock of the Pennsylvania R. R. Co., issued to Joseph Grossman and dated May 28, 1914. Application for a new Certificate has been made.
 JAMES K. BARNHART, Executor, 74-13-4t Estate of Joseph Grossman.

Amoco Gas
 The World's Premier Gas Sold ONLY at the Sunflower
Filling Station
 ON THE HECLA DRIVE
 "Motor the Amoco Way" MOTOR OILS 100% PURE

USED CAR BARGAINS
 A Prize With Each Purchase

We Have Listed Cars That Cannot be Equaled Anywhere as to Durability

Roadsters	Coupes	Coaches
1923 Chevrolet Roadster, pick-up body.....		$ 50.00
1923 Ford Touring, fully equipped.....		30.00
1923 Chevrolet Sedan		50.00
1925 Haynes Sedan		50.00
1924 Ford Coupe		25.00
1923 Chevrolet Touring		35.00

STUDY THESE BARGAINS

1926 Chevrolet Touring	100.00
1926 Ford Coach	150.00
1925 Cleveland Touring (Excellent Condi- tion)	150.00

Select the Car you want at the Price you want to Pay.

1927 Star Coupe	225.00
1927 Pontiac Coupe	275.00
1927 Pontiac Coach	325.00
1929 Chevrolet Coach	475.00
1928 Chevrolet Coach (4 Wheel Brakes)	350.00
1929 Chevrolet Sedan, just like new, low mileage	525.00
1927 Chevrolet Sedan (very neat looking).....	300.00
1928 Chevrolet Sedan (Custom built)	410.00

TRUCKS

1924 Dodge Truck, cab and platform body	145.00
1927 Chevrolet 1½ Ton Truck, open express body	275.00
1928 Chevrolet 1½ Ton Truck, 4 wheel brakes, 4 speed transmission	75.00 1925 Ford Truck, Ruxsteel axel Steel Dump Body and 108x72 Stake Rack to fit either one of the above Chevrolet Trucks.

With every Used Car purchased you will get a Prize. No matter what Price Car you buy, you will win a VALUABLE PRIZE.

Open Night and Day . . . Phone 405

Decker Chevrolet Co.,
 Corner High and Spring Streets . . . BELLEFONTE, PA.