FLACK .- Mrs. Annie Keefe Flack, wife of Harry W. Flack, passed street at 7:25 o'clock Sunday evening, as the result of a stroke. She had tion. not been in good health for twenty years and was stricken on Wednesday afternoon. She suffered a secand stroke on Friday and lingered in a semi-conscious condition until her death. She was a daughter of Michael and Anna Murphy Keefe and was of cleveland. Mr. Auman was one died at her home on east Logan from his home. Mr. Fry was obligborn in Bellefonte in 1858. When yet a child her parents moved to the toll gate on the Boalsburg pike. When she grew to womanhood she engaged in teaching school, a profession she followed a number of years. She married Mr. Flack in 1898 and the first year or two of their married life was spent at Coleville, moving from there onto Logan street, Bellefonte, where they have lived ever since. She was a member of St. John's Catholic church all her life and a woman beloved by all who knew her.

In addition to her husband she is survived by two step-children, Lloyd Flack, of Blairsville, and Mrs. George Carpeneto, of Bellefonte. She also leaves one sister, Mrs. Edward Kane, of Bellefonte. Requiem mass was held in St. John's Catholic church at ten o'clock on Wednesday morning, by Rev. W. E. Downes, burial being made in the Catholic cemetery.
