

NEWS ABOUT TOWN AND COUNTY.

Quite a large forest fire swept along "the Ridge" north of Lamar on Tuesday.

The Senior Commercial class of the Bellefonte High school cordially invites the public to attend their bake sale to be held Saturday at the Variety Shop. Proceeds to go to the fund for the class' trip to Gettysburg.

M. C. Hansen has sold his home, on east Linn street, and with his family will move to Pittsburgh on or about June 1st. A. C. Hewitt, purchaser of the property, will occupy it as soon as the Hansens leave Bellefonte.

Two hundred rainbow trout, eight to fifteen inches in length, were brought to Bellefonte from the fish hatchery and put into Spring creek just below the falls on Tuesday afternoon. The trout were surplus stock that was not needed at the hatchery.

Godspeed's Book Shop in Boston is offering $100.00 for a book that might be lying in your attic. It is the narrative of the adventures of Zenas Leonard, a native of Clearfield county and at the time a resident of Bellefonte. For more particulars read the advertisement on page 4.

Some six hundred State College students helped to fight a terrific forest fire in the Barrens between State College and Scotia last Friday and Saturday. Over six hundred acres were burned over and the house and buildings on the small farm at one time occupied by George B. Thompson at Alto were totally destroyed.

Bellefonte baseball fans who fail to attend the Academy games, on Hughes field, are missing some good sport. Last Saturday the heavy Academy swatters defeated Dickinson Seminary by the score of 6 to 4, making their third successive victory. Tomorrow afternoon they will play the Bethlehem Steel company nine of Johnstown. Game will be called promptly at 2 o'clock and the admission will be 50 cents. This game will be well worth seeing.

According to preliminary plans Centre county farmers' day at State College has been set for Thursday August 7. County agent R. C. Blaney is chairman of the committee of arrangements; Ward Krape, Bellefonte, vice chairman; W. S. Jeffries, State College, secretary-treasurer. Other members of the special committee are J. J. Markle, State College; Mrs. Alfred Albright, Penna. Furnace; and Miss Mayme Lovelace, home economics extension representative.

George T. Bush has been appointed an aid on the staff of Grand Generalissimo Clyde P. Love for the annual convocation of Knights Templar to be held at Easton May 26th to 28th. He will be Central Pennsylvania's representative at the gathering. So far no candidate has come out against Boyd A. Musser, of Scranton, for the office of grand treasurer, and he will likely be chosen without opposition. Mr. Musser formerly lived in Bellefonte and is a member of Constans Commandery, No. 33.

There has been a dearth of dances in Bellefonte this winter and because of this fact the young people of Bellefonte should welcome the opportunity to trip the light fantastic on the occasion of the Academy minstrel dance, in the pavilion at Hecla park, from 9 to 2 o'clock Friday evening, May 16th. The Varsity Ten orchestra, of State College, will furnish the music. Everybody is invited. The dance will follow two nights of "Aunt Lucia," which will be given by Academy students, in the State theatre, the evenings of May 14th and 15th.

H. C. Greer, of Morgantown, W. Va., who recently declined President Hoover's offer to make him president of the Civil Service Commission, is the gentleman who owns the extensive limestone operations at Greer, West Virginia, which D. J. Kelly, formerly of Bellefonte, has been managing so successfully for a number of years. Mr. Greer is also owner of the Morgantown "Post." We do not know the gentleman, but the fact that he has turned down a position that controls over half a million of government employees stamps him a very unusual character. So unusual that we nominate him for a niche in the Hall of Fame.

At a hearing before the Public Service commission, in Harrisburg last Friday, the Pennsylvania and Bellefonte Central Railroad companies protested against the granting of an application of M. A. Clark, of State College, for a certificate of public convenience to operate motor vehicles for the transportation of freight and merchandise between Williamsport and State College. The railroads claim that the present freight and express service is adequate and quick enough to meet the needs of the community, while Mr. Clark maintains there is a demand for his proposed service, especially for the transportation of foodstuffs and automobile parts.

DEATHS OF THE WEEK.

DORWARD.—Wesley Charles Dorward, assistant engineer in the State highway offices at Clearfield, died at his home in that town, on Saturday, April 26th, following ten days illness with pneumonia, aged 35 years.

He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Dorward, of Emerald, Pa. He was a graduate of State College and during the World war served as a second lieutenant in the coast artillery, stationed at Fort Barry, Cal. After the close of the war he was located for a time at Rockview penitentiary as a civil engineer leaving there to join the highway force while it was located in Bellefonte. Two years ago, when the district offices were moved to Clearfield, he moved to that place. He was a member of the Presbyterian church, the Sigma Phi Sigma fraternity, of State College, and the John Lewis Shade post of the American Legion, of Clearfield.

He married Miss Virginia Holmes, daughter of Hon. and Mrs. John Laird Holmes, of State College, who survives with three children, Lewis, Adaline and Helen. He also leaves his parents and a number of brothers and sisters. Funeral services were held at his late home in Clearfield, on Monday afternoon of last week, by Rev. E. C. Reeve, the remains being taken to State College for burial in the Pine Hall cemetery.

WINTON.—Harry W. Winton, a well known resident of Bellefonte, died quite suddenly and unexpectedly, at his home on south Spring street, between six and seven o'clock last Thursday evening as the result of acute dilatation of the heart. While he had been troubled with high blood pressure for some time past he had worked right along, and all of Thursday had been at work on the State highway between Bellefonte and Milesburg. He returned home at the usual time, ate his supper and sat down to read the daily paper when he was stricken and died before medical aid could be summoned.

He was born in Bellefonte about fifty-nine years ago. When the old Central Railroad of Pennsylvania was put into service in the early nineties he was appointed baggage master and express agent on the train, and in the last few years of the road's existence also served as conductor. When the road was abandoned in 1918 he embarked in the coal business which he followed a number of years.

On April 3rd 1893, he married Miss Alice Saylor who survives with one son, William, at home. Funeral services were held at his home, at 2:30 o'clock on Sunday afternoon, by Rev. William C. Thompson burial being made in the Union cemetery.

STRUBLE.—Mrs. Maria Struble, widow of the late J. Calvin Struble, died at the Samuel I. Corl home, near Pine Hall, Ferguson township, at two o'clock last Wednesday afternoon, as the result of an attack of pneumonia. She had gone to the Corl home for a little visit, was taken sick there and died within a few days.

She was a native of Union county where she was born 83 years ago. In 1887 she married Mr. Struble and all their married life was spent in the vicinity of Pine Hall. Her husband died seven years ago and since then she had made her home with her nephew, Charles Strouse and family. She was a life-long member of the Reformed church. Her only survivors are a sister, Mrs. Kate Shaffer, of Lock Haven, and a number of nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held in the Pine Hall Reformed church at 10 o'clock on Friday morning, by Rev. J. S. English, burial being made in the Pine Hall cemetery.

MCCOOL.—James Howard McCool, a retired farmer of Potter township, died on Monday of last week. He had not been in good health for some months but his condition did not become serious until a few days before his death.

He was a son of Jacob and Rebecca McCool and was born in Penn township in May, 1853, hence was not quite 77 years of age. He was a farmer practically all his life. As a young man he married Miss Mary Neese who survives with two daughters, Mrs. S. C. Brungart, of Centre Hall, and Mrs. Charles S. Smith, of Potter township. He also leaves three sisters, Mrs. Nathaniel Brown, of Spring Mills; Mrs. Barbara Snyder, of Mifflinburg, and Mrs. William Finkle, of Buffalo, N. Y.

Rev. S. F. Greenhoe officiated at the funeral which was held last Thursday afternoon, burial being made in the Centre Hall cemetery.

BILGER.—William R. Bilger, World war veteran, died at the Naval hospital, Philadelphia, Tuesday night, where he had been for three weeks undergoing treatment for kidney trouble, the result of being gassed while in service in France.

He was a son of Charles and Nettie Houser Bilger and was born near Pleasant Gap 35 years ago. He is survived by his parents and these brothers and sisters: Miles Bilger, of Pleasant Gap; Andrew, Evan, Alta, Carolyn and Bertha, at home. Funeral services will be held at his late home at two o'clock this afternoon by Rev. W. J. Wagner, burial to be made in the Pleasant Gap cemetery.

WARNER.—William Parsons Warner died at his home at State College, last Wednesday afternoon, following a week's illness as the result of an attack of influenza and pleurisy.

He was a son of Clarence and Martha Jane Warner and was born in Wilkes-Barre on Jan. 13th, 1892. He served in France during the World war and was severely gassed while fighting on the French front. He spent several months in the base hospitals, was then invalided home and mustered out of service. He was among the first contingent of soldiers sent by the government to State College for rehabilitation. He attended college several years then secured a job in the State College postoffice where he had been for over eight years. He was a member of the Methodist church, the American Legion Modern Woodmen of America and the Odd Fellows.

On June 7th, 1921, he married Miss Verna Smith, of State College, who survives with one son, Clarence Smith Warner. Funeral services were held at his late home, at 2:30 o'clock on Saturday afternoon, by Revs. Bixler and Harkins, burial being made in the Pine Hall cemetery.

SHOPE.—Dorothy Jane Shope, eight-day-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Shope, of Bellefonte, died on Tuesday morning, from convulsions. In addition to the parents, one brother, Bobby, survives. Burial was made in the Union cemetery on Wednesday afternoon.

WASSON.—Smith.—A pretty wedding was celebrated at the Edward Glenn home, on "the Branch," at ten o'clock last Saturday morning, when W. E. Glenn Wasson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Wasson, and Miss Myrtle E. Smith, of Neff's Mills, were married by Rev. James Glenn, of Carlisle, assisted by Rev. J. Max Kirkpatrick, the ring ceremony being used. The attendants were Walter O'Bryan and Miss Edna Duff. Following couple left on a wedding trip dinner was served after which the train, and in the last few years of the road's existence also served as conductor.

The bride during the past year taught "the Branch" school and is a charming young woman. The bridegroom is an industrious young man. Just where they will go to house-keeping has not yet been announced, following the ceremony a wedding

Laird.—Fry.—The home of Mrs. Stella Williams, at Howard, was the scene of a pretty wedding, last Saturday evening, when Earl T. Laird and Miss Fietta L. Fry, both well known young people in that community, were united in marriage by Rev. William E. Yingling, pastor of the Evangelical church, the beautiful ring service being used. The happy couple will make their home at Steward, Nevada, where Mr. Laird is a teacher of music in the Carson Indian school. Before leaving for their western home both Mr. and Mrs. Laird expressed appreciation for the kindness shown by many friends and the various expressions of interest in their future welfare.

Musser.—Johnson.—Charles N. Musser and Miss Sarah E. Johnson, of Guyer, were married at Pine Grove Mills on Monday, April 21st, by Rev. J. S. English, at the Lutheran parsonage, the ring ceremony being used. The young couple were attended by Henry Musser and Miss Bettie Linn. Following the ceremony they motored to the home of the bride where a wedding dinner was served and reception given the happy pair. Both young people are well known in their home community and have the best wishes of many friends for a happy married life.

Woodring.—Hartshorne.—Charles Kenneth Woodring, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Woodring, of Port Matilda, and Miss Edith Clerc Hartshorne, of Chester Hill, were married in St. Paul's Episcopal church, Phillipsburg, on Thursday morning of last week, by the rector, Rev. C. E. Knicker. The young couple were attended by Simeon Hartshorne Jr. and Mrs. Walter Lamb, a sister of the bride. The bridegroom is employed as a driver for the Phillipsburg Bus company and it is in that town they will make their home.

Breon.—Fleisher.—Calvin Breon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Breon, of Bellefonte, and Miss Ruth Fleisher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Fleisher, of Lamar, were married at the Lutheran parsonage, Bellefonte, Thursday afternoon, May 1st, by the pastor, Rev. C. E. Arnold. The young couple have already gone to housekeeping in their own home on west Beaver street, Bellefonte.

An unknown bandit killed in Minneapolis, Minn., last week, is believed to be a young man who, last June, passed several bad checks on State College merchants. A wrist watch found in his possession had been purchased of a State College jeweler by a man who signed the name of George White and posed as a college student.

YOUNG MAN KILLED IN AUTO ACCIDENT.

Donald Joseph Baughman, a clerk in the A. & P. store in the Brock-erhoff house block, Bellefonte, but whose home was in Clintondale, was injured so badly in an automobile accident on the Nittany valley State highway, about 10:30 o'clock on Sunday morning, that he died at the Lock Haven hospital Sunday night. The youth and his brother, Guy Baughman, manager of the grocery department in the store, had gone to Clintondale to spend Sunday at home.

Sunday morning Donald went with Kenneth and Kersey Harris, sons of R. H. Harris, of Clintondale, for a ride in the Harris car. Kersey, 16 years old, drove the car. Between Clintondale and Mackeyville the young driver attempted to turn to the side of the road to avoid hitting a dog and as he did so the car ran into a ditch at the side of the road, rolled over twice and lit in a cornfield, with the wheels in the air. One of the Harris boys was caught beneath the car and the brother and Baughman were able to lift the car sufficient to release him. Neither of the Harris' were injured to any extent and Baughman didn't appear seriously hurt. A passing motorist took the three to Clintondale.

Late Sunday afternoon Baughman complained of a pain in his ear and the family physician was summoned. He examined the youth and according to members of the family, did not consider him seriously hurt. In the evening, however, he became so much worse that he was taken to the Lock Haven hospital, and a close examination there revealed a bad fracture of the skull on top of the head. He later sank into unconsciousness and died shortly after midnight.

The unfortunate young man was a son of Joseph (deceased) and Abbie Baughman, and was born at Clintondale on October 23rd, 1912, hence was in his eighteenth year. He had been a clerk in the A. & P. store in Bellefonte most of the past year. He is survived by his mother, living at Clintondale, and three brothers, Dean and Ralph, at home, and Guy, of Bellefonte.

NANCY CARROLL IN "HONEY" AT THE RICHELIEU.

Nancy Carroll, the flaming-haired sweetie of "Sweetie" fame, is to be seen and heard in her second musical romance, and her second starring picture when "Honey" comes to the Richelieu next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, with a midnite show Sunday at 12:01.

"Honey" is based on the famous comedy success "Come out of the Kitchen" by Alice Duer Miller and A. E. Thomas.

The cuddlesome Miss Carroll plays the role of the southern girl, who is forced by circumstances to assume an Irish brogue and play the role of cook in her own plantation kitchen. Stanley Smith plays the role of Burton Crane, young scion of wealth, who falls in love with Nancy during a visit to her plantation. Smith was her college-boy sweetheart in "Sweetie." In addition to Smith others in the big supporting cast are Harry Green, Skeets Gallagher and Lillian Roth.

"No No Nanette" will be seen at the State theatre Monday, Tuesday, Friday and Saturday of next week with one show daily at 8:15 P. M. due to the Academy play which will be presented on Wednesday and Thursday.

First National's screen version partly in technicolor, of the famous musical comedy is on a vastly larger scale than the stage version. There are 150 girls and men in the chorus, with a large cast of principals headed by Bernice Claire, Alexander Gray and Louise Fazenda.

NEXT YEAR'S ADDITIONS ON ACADEMY FACULTY.

When the Bellefonte Academy opens in September for the 1930-'31 school year a number of new faces will be in evidence among the faculty. The old instructors who will be found in their accustomed places are Miss Hill, Miss Overton, Mr. Thomas, Mr. Sumner, Mr. Cockins and Charles S. Hughes.

The new men will include John B. Hoyt, E. S., a graduate of Middlebury College, Vermont, who will succeed J. L. Simmons, in the department of higher mathematics.

Daniel N. Perkins, A. B., a graduate of the University of New Hampshire, will be in charge of the Latin and German department, succeeding Mr. Butterfass.

Edward P. Traylor, A. B., a graduate of Mississippi College, will succeed Lyndon Colby, teacher of French and Spanish.

Sylvester V. Pauxtis, A. B., a graduate of Dickinson College, will be the coach, as announced two weeks ago.

Bellefonte High school juniors who will take part in the declamation contest for the Col. W. Fred Reynolds prizes, at the annual commencement, have been selected, as follows: Florence Cohen, Lenore Morgan, Sara Bricker, Mary Rhoads, Newton Fisher, Charles Shank, John Musser and Luther Kane, with Lillian Johnson and Kenneth Ishler as alternates.

NEWS PURELY PERSONAL.

Miss Anne Wagner and Miss Ruth Detrick went over to Reading last week for a week-end visit at Cedar Crest, both young women being graduates of the College.

Mrs. John Sommerville, with Miss Mary Linn as a motor guest, drove to Milton, Monday, for an overnight visit with Mrs. Sommerville's sister, Miss Jessie Davis.

Mrs. Walter Cohen and her daughter, Miss Grace, are in New York, guests of Mrs. Cohen's eldest daughter, Mrs. Saul Auerbach and her family, at their city apartment.

Mrs. A. O. Furst, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. John Curtin, went to Overbrook last week, where they have been visiting with William S. Furst and his family.

Mrs. Frank Harris who was here Sunday, with a driving party from Clearfield, spent the time while in Bellefonte with her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gearhart.

Mrs. Winifred B. Meek-Morris drove in from Pittsburgh, Monday, with her son King, expecting to be in Bellefonte for an indefinite time. King returned to his work the following morning.

Fred Yarnell came up from Chester, on Sunday, on a visit to his parents, ex-sheriff and Mrs. George H. Yarnell, at Hecla, though it is quite likely that the trout fishing season was his principal excuse for coming at this time.

Miss Margaret Cook is going to Philadelphia to-day and will leave with no definite plans as to the length of her stay. During Miss Cook's absence, Mrs. Shoemaker will be with Mr. and Mrs. Cook, at their home on Linn street.

Mr. and Mrs. John S. Walker and Miss Shortridge drove to Birmingham, Saturday, to bring to Bellefonte Miss Winifred Woods, of Carlisle, an instructor at the Birmingham Seminary and a cousin of the Shortridge family. Miss Woods visited in Bellefonte over the week-end.

Rev. T. W. Young, a former chaplain at Rockview penitentiary, with his daughter, Mrs. William B. Epley, and grand-daughter, Miss Elizabeth Epley, motored in from Pittsburgh, last Friday evening, and were guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Hansen and family until Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. David Dale, Mrs. John Curtin and Mrs. Charles R. Kurtz will all go down to Virginia, the latter part of the month, to attend commencement at Fairfax Hall, a college preparatory school for girls, where Lois Kurtz, Anne Dale and Caroline Curtin all finish with the class of 1930.

Mrs. R. G. H. Hayes is arranging to go to New York this week to be with her son John and his wife, while resuming her treatment with specialists, under whose care she had been during the winter. Miss Annie Miller, who has been with Mrs. Hayes, will return to her home at Salona for the present.

Mrs. W. C. Hicks, of Flushing, accompanied by Mrs. Harry Garber, arrived in Bellefonte Tuesday afternoon, stopping enroute back to Long Island from a motor trip through Virginia. Remaining here for several days as guests of Mrs. George B. Thompson they will then continue the drive to Flushing with plans for Mrs. Garber's return to Bellefonte for an indefinite stay.

Betty Casebeer went down to Philadelphia a week ago to attend a reunion of the Sea Crest camp girls, held in the city Saturday. The camp is at Avalon, N. J., and Betty having spent last summer at the shore camp, has plans for returning for the coming vacation. During her two day's stay she was a house guest of Virginia and Janet Gibson, at the home of their parents, in Germantown.

Mrs. James A. McClain and her daughter, Emily Eliza, have been in Bellefonte with Mrs. McClain's mother, Mrs. J. L. Spangler and Col. Spangler, at their home on Allegheny street, stopping here enroute home to open their house at Spangler for the summer. Mrs. McClain has been in Washington, since shortly after Christmas, living there to be near her daughter, who has been there at school.

Mrs. George M. Glenn has returned to the Esther Gray farm, in Buffalo Run valley, where she will spend the summer, expecting for the present to have with her, the two elder children of Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Glenn. Later George M. Glenn Jr., an instructor at the Harrisburg Academy, will join his mother to spend his vacation in the country. Mrs. Glenn was in Florida and with friends in the south, for the winter.

Mrs. J. Will Conley and her daughter, Mrs. William B. Wallis, are in Bellefonte for the summer, and while here, will occupy a third floor apartment in the Hayes building on Allegheny street. Mrs. Conley and Mrs. Wallis have been living in Pittsburgh and Atlantic City and now expect to be located here, Mr. Wallis joining them when his business will permit. Mrs. Wallis left, Wednesday, to join Mr. Wallis in New York for a short time.

Miss Mabel Allison is visiting with her brother, William H. Allison, at Larchmont, N. Y., having accompanied him home from a recent business trip to the Allison home at Spring Mills. Charles Allison, of Toronto, and his daughter, Patsy, who were back in Centre county at the same time, took with them to Canada, as a driving guest their cousin, Miss Katherine Allison, she having returned home the early part of last week, after an over-Sunday visit with her cousin's family.

Mrs. W. H. Boadley and Miss Mary Cameron drove up from Harrisburg, Wednesday, for lunch with Miss Mary and Henry S. Linn. Guests whom the Linn's entertained last week included, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Kennedy, of Sioux Falls, who were returning to South Dakota after spending the winter in Orlando, Florida; Mrs. Kennedy, formerly Miss Louise Duncan, is a native of Spring Mills, later making her home in Washington, D. C. Having relatives in Bellefonte, Mrs. Kennedy's time was given entirely to them.

Curwensville has taken the franchise in the Centre and Clearfield baseball league held by Bellefonte last season.

On Wednesday morning A. Lansdy broke ground for addition to his new hotel "T Markland." It is to provide a breakfast room and kitchen for the splendid little resort and will add 50x16ft. The structure will be added to the north side of building and will be mostly glass, so that it will be cheery possible. It is needless to say it will be modern in its appointments because Mr. Lansdy does everything to make his hotels attractive, regardless of cost. It is his present plan to serve breakfasts and luncheons at "T Markland."

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Bluebaker Coal company was held in Harrisburg, Monday, at which time officers for the ensuing year were elected, follows: President, Col. J. Spangler, Bellefonte; secretary a treasurer, Ross A. Hickok, Harrisburg; directors, Col. Spangler, Ross Hickok, Thomas Beaver, Bellefonte, and Dr. A. E. Blackburn Philadelphia. The company's operations are in Cambria county a the reports showed that during 1929 the company mined and shipped 1,042,272 tons of coal again 583,605 in 1928.

MOTHER'S DAY FLOWER SALE.

Mrs. George Miller's flower sale for Mother's day will exceed variety, of both cut flowers and potted plants, any she has here fore held. Early orders from out-of-town patrons will receive prompt attention. Sale at Miller's hardware store, Saturday, May 10, 18.

Thirty-six tax collectors Centre county returned to the County Commissioners, on Monday, total of 853 properties upon which taxes are due and unpaid. Owners will have until August 1st to pay these taxes, and if not paid that time the properties will put up for sale.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS.

Clara G. Rossmann, et al, Robert E. Hettinger, tract in Greer Twp.; consideration $1825.

James I. Fetterolf, et ux, George J. Vogt, et al, tract in Centre Hall; consideration $3400.

Michael Parko, et ux, to Gabri Ellis, et ux, tract in South Philip burg; consideration $1.

James C. Miller, et ux, to Amos Swarmer, et ux, tract in Bellefonte consideration $2950.

Eleanor R. Gettig to Harry Johnson, tract in Bellefonte; consideration $1.

John Bodenshok, et ux, to Max S. Pinchok, tract in Snow Shoe Twp. consideration $1.

Agnes Pinchok to Steve Almashi et ux, tract in Snow Shoe Twp. consideration $1.

H. L. Lank, et ux, to Edward Moore, tract in Ferguson Twp.; consideration $4000.

John P. Bradin, et al, Exec., C. C. Bradin, tract in Rush Twp. consideration $900.

Anna L. Bright to Rebecca I Green, et al, tract in Burnside Twp.; consideration $1.

Rebecca Pfoutz, et al, to Arthur Pfoutz, et al, tract in Rush Twp. consideration $600.

Mary G. Mudgett, et bar, to Harry E. McElwain, et al, tract in Unionville; consideration $1.

Calvin Weston to Paul W. Chane et ux, tract in Worth Twp. consideration $2500.

John M. Hartswick, et al, to O. W. Houts, tract in State College; consideration $1.

O. W. Houts, et ux, to R. I. Stine, tract in State College; consideration $1.

Rush Twp. School District to Anna Dorman, tract in Rush Twp. consideration $260.

Citizens B. & L. Assn., to Charles W. Owens, tract in Phillipsburg consideration $2500.

Minerva J. Stine, et bar, to Thomas G. Ryder, et ux, tract in Worth Twp.; consideration $1600.

Catherine Gramley, et al, to Ad E. Hubler, tract in Miles Twp. consideration $1840.

Harrison Tressler, et ux, to Sall Houser, et bar, tract in Spring Twp.; consideration $1.

F. R. Hubler, et ux, to W. T. Hubler, tract in Miles Twp.; consideration $37.50.

Joseph Condo, et ux, to William T. Hubler, tract in Miles Twp. consideration $150.

Edwin M. Brungart, Exr., to William T. Hubler, tract in Miles Twp.; consideration $2810.

W. T. Hubler, et ux, to Paul C. Rearick, tract in Miles Twp.; consideration $3500.

Grace S. Foster, et al, to Lorenz McElwain, tract in Unionville; consideration $2350.

Howard Stover, et ux, to Agne Stover, tract in Phillipsburg; consideration $1.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Calvin A. Breon and Ruth Viol Fleisher, both of Bellefonte.

Earl T. Laird, and Fietta I Fry, both of Howard.

Ernest U. Simler and Stella E Mollica, both of Phillipsburg.

Bellefonte Grain Markets

Table with 2 columns: Grain type and price. Includes Wheat, Corn, Oats, Rye, Barley, Buckwheat. Corrected Weekly by C. Y. Wagner & Co.