WINGATE.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Mitchell and son Robert motored to Altoona and spent Sunday with friends.

Shortly after midnight, Saturday night, a motorist coming down the mountain at high speed failed to make the turn at the Mrs. Ida Witmer home and crashed into the front porch breaking one of the posts and doing other damage. The driver's identity has not yet been discovered. Several weeks ago a machine broke down two panels of P. G. Murray's lawn fence.

"SON OF THE GODS"

ALL NEXT WEEK AT STATE.

Richard Barthelmess, First National star, has the most dramatic and colorful role of his career in "Son of the Gods" which comes to the State theatre all next week, with one show daily at 8:15 P. M. In this screen version of Rex Beach's novel he enacts the role of Sam Leo, an American boy who is raised by dignified Chinese nobleman and believes himself a Chinaman.

The tragic and dramatic situations into which this leads him make what is being generally heralded as the greatest picture of his career.
