

Second honors in the graduating class at the Pennsylvania State college have been awarded to a Centre county boy: Robert P. Campbell, of Pennsylvania Furnace, who also been honored by selection salutatorian of his class. Campbell is vice president of the student M. C. A., a member of the city debating team, president of forensic council of the college and intercollegiate wrestling champion.

The regular alumni dance for the graduating class of the Bellefonte High school will be given in the auditorium at Hecla park, Thursday night, June 5th. The Ross orchestra of Johnstown, will furnish the music.

During a rain storm, Wednesday of last week, the home of Joseph Smull, at Smulton, was struck by lightning and burned to the ground, with all its contents.

FISH BOWLS

Fish Bowls, 25c to $1.00. Castle bells for same. See the new One Dollar Wagon with rubber tires. The rarest one dollar value.

GARMANS

READY-TO-WEAR DRESSES

Our Victoria Line of Ready-to-Wear Dresses are wonderful. Nothing could be made better. Style, fit and workmanship could not be improved upon.

GARMANS

Notice!

All Bellefonte stores will be open Thursday afternoon before Decoration Day, May 29.

You May Shop
All Day Thursday

Free Lessons in Modern Cooking

at

Central Penna. Gas Company Store
Thursday, Friday and Saturday Afternoons at 2 o'clock, sharp

May 22, 23 and 24

CONDUCTED IN PERSON BY

Miss Grace Preston

Nationally-known Authority in the Cooking Art and Director of the Home Service Department • • ERIEZ
STOVE & MANUFACTURING COMPANY

There is a real treat in store for every woman who attends these famous Free Lessons in Modern Cooking. Many new and novel labor-saving ideas will be presented—ideas that are bound to lessen the burden of housekeeping. The instructress will show how to prepare novel Dishes and menus, Special Luncheons, Unusual Salads, Perfect Cakes, and will demonstrate Whole Meal Cooking with Heat Control.

Attend as many afternoons as possible, as each day's Lessons are entirely different. Recipes given free to those present.

Remember—2 P. M. Sharp at Central Penna. Gas Company

PINE GROVE MENTIONS.

J. H. McCracken is serving as a juror this week.

A little daughter arrived at the A. L. Beam home, Thursday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Bodle visited Tyrone friends the latter end of the week.

J. B. Harris, of State College, was a Sunday guest at the Fred Gearhart home.

After a month's stay in town George W. Ward has returned to his home in Pittsburgh.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Fry, of Altoona, visited Mrs. Hannah Osman the latter end of the week.

Lady Ferguson Rebekah lodge has made a contribution of $20 to the Centre County hospital drive.

The Citizens band gave a delightful open air concert here, Saturday evening, in the presence of a large crowd.

After visiting relatives in this section the past month Miss Anna Gingerich has returned to her home in Reading.

Mr. and Mrs. Deemer Pearce had as guests, the latter part of the week Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Matts, of Spring Mills.

Farmer Ed Frank, of the Glades, is taking out timber for the erection of some new outbuildings on his premises.

Earl Eyer has taken over the Main street barber shop and Paul Henry has purchased the Koch butcher block.

Jacob W. Kepler motored up from Philadelphia and spent the early part of the week at his parental home.

Mrs. N. B. Martz has returned home from the Methodist hospital, Philadelphia, and is now getting along very nicely.

Kelly Henry and wife and Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Elder were in Bellefonte, Sunday, visiting the sick in the Centre County hospital.

Rev. J. W. Wink, newly elected pastor on the Reformed charge here, filled the pulpit in Bethel Reformed church, Sunday evening.

Mrs. D. F. Kapp and daughter Ruth entertained quite a number of fraternity students from Williamsport Dickinson Seminary, Saturday.

Mrs. Mary J. Little, who came from California by rail and airplane in forty-six hours, is visiting the Ellis Bierly and other Centre county families.

A dozen car loads of young people from this section motored to the Branch, one evening recently, where they gave Glenn Wasson and bride an old-fashioned serenade.

Mr. and Mrs. Newton Hartswick attended the graduating exercises of nurses at the Williamsport hospital, last week, their daughter Catherine being a member of the class.

Word has been received here of the recent marriage at Washington, D. C., of Miss Catherine Kepler, daughter of Hon. and Mrs. J. W. Kepler, and Walter Buck, a successful business man of Washington.

Earl Musser was 21 years old, on Monday, and his mother gave a party in celebration of the event. The big supper, served at the Musser home on the Branch, was the principal feature and was enjoyed by one hundred invited guests. Social amusements made up the program for the evening. Earl received many nice and useful presents.

The monthly meeting of the Ferguson township Brotherhood was held in the Presbyterian church on Tuesday evening. Prof. Finney, of State College, was the speaker. Officers elected for the ensuing year were J. H. Bailey, president; N. C. Neidigh, vice president; Charles Rudy, secretary; I. O. Campbell, treasurer; E. C. Musser, Ed Martz and Howard Walker, executive committee.

The annual Memorial sermon will be preached in the Lutheran church on Sunday evening, by Rev. J. S. English. On Memorial day services will be held at Graysville at 10 a. m., with Rev. S. B. Brown, the speaker. Services at Pine Grove Mills 2:30 p. m., Rev. A. E. Butler the orator. At the Pine Hall cemetery services will be held at 6 o'clock p. m. Rev. Brown will deliver the address. All civic organizations are invited to take part in this sacred observance.

AARONSBURG

Mrs. A. J. Irely attended the funeral of the late Dr. F. E. Gutellus, in Millheim, Wednesday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul F. Bartges were week-end guests at the home of Mr. Bartges' brother, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bartges, in Martinsburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Shem Aurand, their son, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Aurand, of Milroy, were pleasant Sunday callers at the home of Mrs. Aurand's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Stover.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. King were pleasantly surprised to have a visit from Mrs. King's cousin, Breck Straw, his son Mr. and Mrs. Charles Straw and three children, all of Monument.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Crouse and daughter, Miss Mable, and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Crouse returned Friday, from a motor trip to Akron, Ohio, where they circulated among relatives of the Holloway clan.

Rev. G. A. Fred Greisinger attended the annual meeting this week of West Susquehanna Classis, in session in the Reformed church in Bellefonte. On Monday he was accompanied by Frank Armagast.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Kessinger, their sons, John and James Friday, of State College, and their daughter, Mrs. Claude Butler and small daughter, Mary Ellen, of Norristown, were Sunday afternoon callers at the home of their aunt, Mrs. Thomas Hull.

SHINGLETOWN.

Miss Erma Horner returned home, last week, from a visit with some friends at Pittsburgh.

Miss Evelyn Neff spent last week at the home of her sister, Mrs. Ray C. Ishler, of Pleasant Gap.

Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Wilson and son, Dean, visited friends and relatives in Huntingdon on Monday.

Mrs. Stephen Yaloski and sons, Irvin and Richard, of Pittsburgh, are visiting at the home of grandmother Campbell.

Miss Grace Garver, of Axe Mann, spent last week at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Campbell.

Miss Dorothy Wilson of Krumrine, is back again with her school mates. She is visiting with the John Wertz family.

Mrs. B. F. Neff and son, Howard, of this town, and Clayton Jones, of Pleasant View, motored to Williamsport, on Saturday, and attended to some business and shopping.

Over the week-end Edgar Hess and Lester Gladfelter, of this town, and Lester Brouse and Leland Walker, of Boalsburg, motored to Atlantic City on a fishing trip. All are in the hopes that they may bring home some rare specimens.

On Tuesday of last week the school held their annual picnic in the Shingletown gap, and all had a wonderful time. On Wednesday they bade farewell to books and their teacher and hurried home to begin their summer vacation. Their teacher was Miss Helen Behrer, of State College.

The Shingletown Sunday school held a picnic here on Saturday; all reported having a good time. The teachers during the winter were Miss Ellen K. Kaufman and Mr. Donald Wiley, of the State College Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. During the term many other young boys and girls came out to the Sunday school as teachers.

BOALSBURG.

William Meyer recently purchased a new Ford sedan.

Jacob Meyer attended Classis of the Reformed Church, in Bellefonte, this week.

Miss Blanche Rowe was home from Mt. Alto for a few days' visit at the home of her father.

Paul Derner has returned home after teaching a successful winter term in the Jacksonville schools.

Miss Jean Homan enjoyed a few days visit at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Harry Hoy, at State College.

Mrs. E. G. Wasson and Miss Priscilla Glenn, of Aulsworth, were callers in town on Tuesday evening.

Miss Anna Sweeny returned home, Friday, after spending the winter in Centre Hall and at State College.

A male quartet and a comedian from Johnstown gave an entertainment in the I. O. O. F. hall, on Saturday evening. The families of the lodge members were guests and refreshments were served.

Mrs. Laura Place Woods, of Long Island, N. Y., is spending some time at the home of her mother, Mrs. M. A. Woods.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Charles and daughter Pauline drove to Philadelphia, Saturday, for a visit with Mrs. Charles' sister and family.

Mrs. W. J. Wagner spent part of last week with her daughter, Mrs. J. F. Harkins, at State College, while Rev. Wagner attended Synod at Berwick.

The Steel trust doesn't like the idea of a competitor quite as strong as itself.

COLLARS

Dozens of New Styles in Collars. 35c to $1.50. The equal of many that you are asked twice as much for.

GARMANS

Will Pay $100.00

For a Copy of the Following Book
Printed in Clearfield, Pa., in 1839:

Narrative of the Adventures of Zenas Leonard, a native of Clearfield County, Pa., who spent five years in trapping for furs, trading with the Indians, etc., etc., of the Rocky Mountains.

Zenas Leonard at one time lived in Bellefonte.

GOODSPEED'S BOOK SHOP

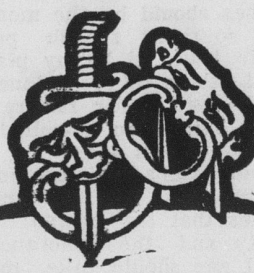

7 Ashburton Place, Boston, Mass.

RICHELIEU

Saturday—First Showing in Centre County, Sweethearts of "The Virginian" in another All Talking Outdoor Romance—Gary Cooper and Mary Brian in "Only the Brave" Also Tom Tyler in "The Phantom Rider."

Monday, Tuesday, Wednes., Maurice Chevalier in "The Big Pond" with Claudette Colbert. Tuneful Chevalier Comedy Romance in the U. S. A., with more sparkle than the "Love Parade."

Coming Thurs., Friday, Satur. Next Week—Warner Baxter in "The Arizona Kid." All Talking Western Romance.

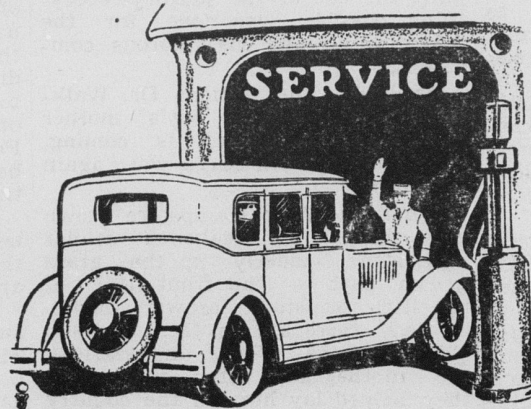

STATE

Shows Start 8.15 p. m. Daily News 8.15 Comedy 8.25 Feature 8.45 All This Week—"Gold Diggers of Broadway."

All Next Week Richard Barthelmess and Constance Bennett in "Son of the Gods" From the Famous Novel by Rex Beach. (Scenes in Technicolor.)

Hear the Improved Sound at The State

Dependable Used Cars

We have a selection of used cars to suit the demand of almost any used car purchaser. Cars priced below what they are actually selling for anywhere else. Bought on easy terms. All cars have been carefully re-conditioned. New tires put on where needed, re-ducoed, and are in excellent condition.

Begin Now and Save Money

1926 Ford Roadster	$ 65.00
1924 Chevrolet Sedan	75.00
1922 Dodge Screen body Truck	65.00
1924 Ford Roadster, looks like new	75.00
1924 Ford Sedan	95.00
1927 Star Coupe	190.00
1926 Ford Roadster	95.00
1927 Pontiac Coach, looks like new	225.00
1927 Chevrolet Cabriolet	325.00
1925 Maxwell Touring	50.00
1927 Chevrolet Coach	275.00
1928 Chevrolet Coach	350.00
1927 Pontiac Coach	200.00
1929 Chevrolet "6" Cyl. Imperial, like new	500.00
1928 Essex Coupe	325.00
1927 Chevrolet Coupe	275.00
1929 Plymouth Sedan	425.00
1927 Chevrolet truck, open express	240.00
1929 Chevrolet "6" Truck. 4 Speed Transmission
1926 Chevrolet Coupe
1924 Chevrolet Coupe

These Cars can be Seen Anytime—Day or Night
Trade in on Any of These Above Cars

Decker Chevrolet Co.,

Phone 405

BELLEFONTE, PENNA.