FORMER BELLEFONTE MAN CONVICTED OF FRAUD.

Following a nine day's trial before Judge William H. Kirkpatrick, in the U. S. District court in Philadelphia, Harry G. Fitzgerald, of Columbus, Ohio, and Alonzo E. Smith, of Philadelphia, were both convicted on eight charges of fraud and conspiracy in connection with alleged Florida land swindles which is said to have aggregated over two hundred thousand dollars. Two of the men implicated in the alleged swindle have never been taken into custody, J. C. Winters, reported dead, and Robert L. Zien, who is believed to be in Canada.

Local interest attaches to the case because of the fact that Harry Fitzgerald was born and raised in Bellefonte. He was educated at the Bellefonte High school and later located in Columbus, Ohio, where he conducted a dental supply store.

According to the evidence submitted at the trial the case was the outcome of an endeavor on the part of the real estate operators to sell lots in "Melbourne Heights and Manor," an alleged boom town in Florida, but which, upon investigation, proved to be a backwoods tract covered with pine trees, palmetto and pools of water, about thirteen miles away from the city of Melbourne.

Fitzgerald and Smith did not deny that false representations had been made to inveigle purchasers but both claimed that they did not do it. The selling campaign was put on in Atlantic City in May, 1925, and blew up in Miami, Florida, in 1927, where the offices of the promoters were moved when they were literally chased out of Atlantic City because of investigations which revealed the fraud.

In the prosecution of the case against Fitzgerald and Smith government attorneys introduced in evidence 1100 exhibits, including booklets, folders, pamphlets, photographs, letters, canceled checks, etc. Fitzgerald, in his own defense, produced a number of character witnesses, one or more of whom were from Bellefonte.

The jury deliberated upon the case six hours before returning a verdict of guilty. Attorneys for the men promptly gave notice that a motion would be filed for a new trial and Judge Kirkpatrick increased the bail bond on the two men from $2500 to $5000. Both Fitzgerald and Smith spent Friday night and Saturday morning in Moyamensing prison until their attorneys were able to arrange for a bond with a surety company.

FRESH AIR OUTING FOR NEW YORK CHILDREN.

A field worker for the New York Tribune's fresh air fund visited Bellefonte, on Monday, and made preliminary arrangements for this summer's outing for New York children. Mrs. Robert M. Beach will again serve as chairman and her committee will be made up as follows: Miss Henrietta Quigley, Miss Daise Keckhine, Mrs. W. Harrison Walker, Mrs. Ebon Bower, Mrs. Frank M. Crawford, Mrs. G. Oscar Gray, Mrs. Lelia Cole, Mrs. M. R. Johnson, Mrs. William Nighthart, Rev. William Snyder and George S. Smith, representing Centre Hall. The date for the arrival of the children has been set for July 17th.

"THE ARIZONA KID" SHOWING AT RICHELIEU.

Action, romance and suspense are the triple keynotes of "The Arizona Kid," all talking production for Fox Movietone which is showing at the Richelieu this Friday and Saturday nights and which brings the popular Warner Baxter again to the speaking screen in the best performance of his sombreroed career. From all appearances, this picture will surpass both "In Old Arizona" and "Romance of the Rio Grande," the two pictures which elevated Baxter to first place in out-door romantic roles. With every bit of the film taken on the exact locale of the story, "The Arizona Kid" sets a new record in screen history.
