Bellefonte, Pa., June 13, 1930.

P. GRAY MEEK

To Correspondents.—No communications published unless accompanied by the real came of the writer.

Terms of Subscription.—Until further notice at the following rates: Paid strictly in advance - - $1.50 Paid before expiration of year - 1.75 Paid after expiration of year - 2.00

Published weekly, every Friday morning. Entered at the postoffice, Bellefonte, Fa. as second class matter. In ordering change of address always give the old as well as the new address.

It is important that the publisher be notified when a subscriber wishes the naper discontinued. In all such cases the subscription must be paid up to date of cancellation.

Democratic State Ticket.

For United States Senator For Lieutenant Governor GUY K. BARD Lancaster County For Secretary of Internal Affairs.

LUCY D. WINSTON of Cumberland County For Judge of Supreme Court HENRY C. NILES of York County For Judges Superior Court AARON E. REIBER of Butler County GEORGE F. DOUGLAS of Philadelphia

Democratic District and County Ticket.

For Representative in Congress MAXWELL J. MOORE of M'Kean County For State Senator
DON GINGERY
of Clearfield County For Representative in General Assembly JOHN G. MILLER of Ferguson Township.

SAFE AND SANE FOURTH SAYS BURGESS HARRIS.

Burgess Hard P. Harris has declared for a safe and sane Fourth of July by issuing a proclamation forbidding the sale of the deadly cracker or other explosions before July 3rd and their use only on July 4th, and then with every precaufire or accidents. Now if the burgess will see to it that his promulto a minimum the hazards to chil. the Fourth of July, nineteen hun. Samuel Coulter, of Homestead. as follows:

dred and thirty. A "Safe and Sane" observance is respectfully requested. No fire works or display of any description will be tolerated fire works; many accidents have happened; annually we hear of men, for life; many deaths occur from the use of these explosives.

on July Fourth, you are now respectfully requested not to sell them until July 3rd, 1930, and then until July 3rd, 1930, and then an engineer on the Bald Eagle and hibited until July Fourth, and on ried Miss Elizabeth Hess, of Philipsthat day only.

done to property; also caution those in your household to be careful, very careful, so that no accident will occur or a life be endangered. Given under my hand at Belle-fonte, Pa., this 6th day of June, A. D. 1930.

DAVIS-BROWN LEADER

during the recent primary fight, for the boys to be "on the job" according to the statement filed in each working day, and it is a the prothonotary's office by L. physical impossibility to admit vishome of Mrs. Harry Hoy, Wednesday evening, June 4th. Those presday evening, June 4th. Those presday evening for the country but later came to day evening, June 4th. Those presday evening for the country but later came to day evening. polls.

State Senator Harry B. Scott, in his campaign for renomination for DEATH FOLLOWS FALL Senator gives his paid expenditures as $894.78, and unpaid bills $780.46. He received no contributions and printing and traveling. contribution of $201.82.

Republican county chairman W. I. brothers and three sisters survive.

-Mr. and Mrs. William Thompson Achenbach have announced the mar- ious to entertain the annual conriage of their daughter. Ivy, and vention of the Central Pennsylvania Richard Clark Van Dunsen, which Volunteer Firemens' association in took place in Glens Falls, N. Y., on 1932, which will be the fortieth an-Saturday, the seventh of June. Mr. niversary of the organization of the and Mrs. Achenbach were former association, which took place in residents of Bellefonte.

SOMMERVILLE.—Bond Valentine HOLY LAND PICTURES Sommerville, a native of Centre county but for forty-five years a civil engineer with the Pennsylvania about 11 o'clock Saturday morning, immediately following the alumni parade at Lafayette College, Easton.

45th annual reunion of his class. The family later moved to the landed shrine of many worship-Bellefonte and he was educated at ers. the Bellefonte Academy and Lafayette College, graduating at the latter institution with the class of He married Miss Nina Ramsey, of riots in Jerusalem. Pittsburgh, and for many years they made their home at Sewickley. Of late, however, they had lived with their widowed daughter. Mrs. L. J. Davis, at Carnegie.

In addition to his wife and above named daughter he is survived by another daughter and a son. He also leaves two sisters and four brothers, Misses Bessie and Mary and Robert Sommerville, all of Winburne; John, of Bellefonte; Allen, of Patton, and Donald, of Jersey Shore.

to Carnegie for the funeral services increases in pensions, as follows: All which were held in the Presbyterian veterans now receiving $65 per church there at 8 o'clock on Monday evening, burial being made at and those receiving $72 and $90 a Sewickley on Tuesday morning.

BIDDLE-Rev. Fletcher W. Biddle, his home at Bedford, on Sunday morning, following an illness of some years.

He was a son of John H. and Buffalo Run valley 72 years ago. He was admitted to the Central Pennsylvania Methodist Episcopal conference in 1887 and during his thirty_nine years of active ministerial BIG ATTRACTION AT STATE work had filled various appointments within the conference. He was placed on the retired list in 1926 tion possible against the danger of owing to ill health. Rev. Biddle married Miss Josephine Little, of Concord, Pa., who survives with no gation is enforced it should reduce children. He leaves, however, two brothers and two sisters, Rev. E. J. next week at the State theatre. dren and property and also the an- Biddle, of Tyrone; H. W. Biddle, of noyance of the promiscuous use of Osceola Mills; Mrs. Laura Thompexplosives during the days preceding son, of Brooklyn, N. Y., and Mrs.

Rev. and Mrs. Horace Lincoln Jacobs went to Bedford for the fu-"Safety First" should be kept in neral which was held at 1:30 o'clock mind when attempting to celebrate on Wenesday afternoon, burial being the Fourth of July, nineteen hun made at Bedford.

STEINER-Harry Harnish Steiner, a retired engineer of the Tyrone diwithin the limits of the borough of vision, died at the home of his Bellefonte except on Friday, July sister, at Chester Hill, near Philips-4th, and then only in the most care_ burg, last Friday night, as the re_ ful and moderate way. Confine this business to one day only.

sult of arterio-sclerosis. Since his retirement nine years ago he had retirement nine years ago he had "Safety First." Numerous fires of made his home with a daughter in a very expensive character have Huntingdon and late in May he happened; annually we hear of men, women and children being maimed for life; many deaths occur from went to Chester Hill to visit his He was a son of Jacob F. and Elizabeth Harnish Steiner and was Merchants: If you have a supply born at Chester Hill almost 74 years Sunday afternoon. of these seemingly innocent crack- ago. He worked for the Pennsylvaers and other devices for use only nia railroad forty-three years, prior only by cautioning the purchasers that the use of them is strictly proburg, who died in 1917, but surviv-Parents: Be on guard every mo- ing him are four children, one ment of the day, and see to it as brother and three sisters. Burial far as possible that no damage is was made in the Philipsburg cemetery on Monday afternoon.

PUBLIC COMMENCEMENT OFF AT REFORMATORY.

Owing to the extensive building HARDMAN P. HARRIS, Burgess. program and the largest number of inmates in the history of the institution, the management of the SPENT $749.50 IN COUNTY. Pennsylvania Industrial Reformatory has deemed it unwise to con-The Davis-Brown campaign com- duct a public commencement, as mittee put $750 into Centre county in former years, as it is necessary amount Mr. Mayes spent $749.50, the The commencement exercises this most of it, or $650 going for the year will therefore be confined to employment of watchers at the the inmate population only, and will be held Friday evening, June 20th.

FROM CONCRETE MIXER.

Climbing upon a large concrete the greater portion of his expenses mixer standing in front of his home, was for newspaper advertising, last Friday evening, Merle Blake, seven years old son of Mr. and Mrs. In his campaign for re-election as Thomas Blake, of Point Lookout, State committeeman Senator Scott near Philipsburg, slipped and fell to spent less than fifty dollars, while the ground. His fall toppled a it cost his unsuccessful opponent, large plank which fell upon him, James H. Hugg, $248.75 to conduct causing internal injuries which rehis campaign. Mr. Hugg received a sulted in his death at the State hospital a short time later. In his campaign for re-election as In addition to the parents four Fleming spent less than fifty Burial was made in the Philipsburg cemetery on Sunday afternoon.

> -Philipsburg firemen are anx-Philipsburg.

HERE NEXT TUESDAY.

Residents of Bellefonte and vicin-Railroad company, at Pittsburgh, ity will have an opportunity to dropped dead of a heart attack see pictures of the Holy Land, next Tuesday evening, when Stephen A. Haboush, a native Galilean shepherd, will give his musical travelogue He had gone there to attend the in the Methodist church, beginning at eight o'clock. Special motion pic-He was a son of James L. and tures, in original colors, taken by Jane Harris Sommerville and was Burton Holmes, will illustrate all born in Bellefonte almost 68 years the historical places and scenes of

Among other scenes will be shown the gilded temple of Jerusalem, the narrow streets and bazaars Immediately following his of the ancient cities, peculiar peograduation he secured a position as ple and unusual buildings, the rushcivil engineer with the Pennsylvania ing waters of the Jordan, the sea Railroad company, at Pittsburgh. At in which the waters were command. his death he was assistant chief en_ ed to be still, the wailing wall and gineer on the Pittsburgh division the mobs which started the recent

Mr. Haboush will be assisted by his wife, Mrs. Leah Haboush, who will have charge of the musical part visit Mr. and Mrs. David Hile. of the entertainment. The price of admission will be 50 cents for adults and 25 for children.

OLD SOLDIERS BENEFIT BY PENSION INCREASE.

Forty_three veterans of the Civil war living in Centre county will benefit by the provisions of the pension bill signed by President Hoover Mr. and Mrs. John Sommerville went on Monday. The bill provides for month will hereafter receive $75, month will receive an even $100. Widows of veterans who formerly retired Methodist minister, died at ceive the allotment of $40 a month may now get it at the age of 70 next Thursday evening. years. Just how many widows there are in Centre county now receiving pensions, or how many will be eli-Sarah Biddle and was born in gible under the reduced age limit it has been impossible to ascertain, but it is quite likely the number is larger than that of the veterans.

THEATRE ALL NEXT WEEK.

The biggest production of its kind ever offered to the public such is to recovery. Warner Bros. "Show of Shows," the vitaphone musical extravaganza in technicolor, will be shown all Scores upon scores of outstanding stars of stage and screen contribute to this elaborate revue. Several distinct choruses numbering over five hundred persons appear in various chicken dinner. numbers.

A few of those in the imposing list of stars are John Barrymore, and reported his corn damaged b Blue, Beatrice Lillie, Winnie Light- ports a short clover crop. ner, Georges Carpentier. Ted Lewis, Irene Bordoni, Marian Nixon, Myrno that Annie Campbell, of Wooster, Noah Beery.

JACKSONVILLE.

spent Thursday with Mrs. Luther Fisher.

Misses Pearl Weaver and Josephine Deitz motored to Jersey Shore -A large number of people from this vicinity attended the carnivals in Bellefonte last week.

-Mr. and Mrs. John A. Korman.

-Mr. and Mrs. Stover and Mr. of Blanchard, spent Sunday at the Harry Hoy home.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fisher and family, of Connellsville, spent Sun-day, June 1st, at the Harry Hoy last Thursday, drew a large crowd and Luther Fisher homes.

Sunday at the Ephriam Lucas home. ster. Everybody was invited for the —Don't forget the cemetery as day and the morning was spent in sociation will hold its festival Sat-good fellowship and inspecting some body welcome. Come and help a report.

Mrs. C. N. Yearick, Mrs. William Dixson and grandson, Mrs. Edward day, was the big dinner and to Bartley, Mrs. Ellsworth Weight and daughter, Nora, Miss Violet Ertley, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hoy. The Aid will meet the next time on the sec- 20 gallons of milk, three pecks of

MARRIAGE LICENSES

H. Yearick.

John Nearhoof, of Tyrone, and Mildred Iva Walk, of Hannah. William Marchello, of Sandy Munson.

Charles Albert Long and Marie Love Tate, both of Bellefonte. Roy McKean, of Curtin, and Hannah Etters, of Howard. Thomas B. Atcheson Schuylerville, N. Y., and Clara B. Owens, of State College. Irvin W. Martin and Evelyn Watson, both of Bellefonte.

-Rear the Watchman.

PINE GROVE MENTIONS.

John Gummo is housed up with an attack of the grip.

Paul Roop and family, of Pitcairn, are spending their vacation in town. Mrs. Adeline Fye is entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Roy Heim, of Newark, Del.

Mrs. Lee Krebs and son Donald visited relatives in Lock Haven, last

John D. Neidigh is having his house freshened up with a new coat Paul Musser and wife made motor trip through New York State last week. Mrs. Paul Wrigley is spending some time with friends in the northern part of the State. H. N. Musser and wife motored Pittsburgh and spent Sunday with their son and family.

Herbert McWilliams and wife, of Altoona, spent Sunday at his parental home, at Graysville. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Musser went

Mrs. John Garner and daughter Julia spent several days, last week, with friends in Halfmoon valley. Mrs. Elizabeth Kline is planning the summer at their home on Main a trip to Philadelphia to purchase furniture for her new apartments. Mrs. Laura Porter, a State welfare worker, at Harrisburg, spent last week among Centre county friends. After spending several weeks as ville hospital Mrs. Harry Resides has returned home.

lege, Harrisburg, last week, Miss Lizzie Archey has returned to her the lot and building used as a garhome in this place.

had to be 75 years of age to re- Presbyterian Sunday school will be entertained at the Fred Fry home Owing to the unfavorable weather the Dannley family, closed their camp on Old Tussey, last week, and left for their respective homes. Dr. and Mrs. W. S. Glenn are planning to attend the annual convention of the Eclectic Medical society to be held at Columbus, Ohio, June 17-20.

While in Bellefonte, on Friday, Kelly Henry and wife visited Ruth Rossman, in the Centre County hospital and found her on the way

Our young friend, Edwin Grove, who was rushed to the Lock Haven hospital, on Memorial day, for an operation, is back home and convalescing nicely.

Milt Wieland and family motored to Stormstown and spent Sunday the Charles Rosenburg family, where they were served a

D. W. Thomas, farmer on the Branch, was in town, on Monday, Frank Fay, Dolores Costello, Monte the recent cold weather. He also re

Word received here is in effect Loy, Sally O'Neil, Alice White and Ohio, is slowly recovering from the effects of a stroke of paralysis sustained several weeks ago.

Mrs. J. L. Shank and sister, Mrs. —Mrs. Mervin Hoy and daughters J. Frankenberger, made a trip to Bellefonte, on Tuesday, and completed arrangements for a family reunion at Lamar, on Flag day.

The first ball game of the season, on the Nixon field Saturday, be-tween Pine Grove and Pleasant Gap, brought out a large crowd. The visitors won by the score of 10 to 8.

Children's day exercises were held in the Presbyterian church, at Baileyville, on Sunday evening, with G. B. Fry in charge. Ed Isenberg had charge of the music and Miss Anna and Clarence and Dorothy Korman, Spent Sunday at the Mervin Hoy Gardner and Mrs. Brown had charge Gardner and Mrs. Brown had charge of the children and their part on the program was well taken. Rev. and Mrs. John Hoy and family, Brown was the speaker of the eve-The collection amounted to $17.00.

The Harpster family reunion held —Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Walker and family, and Mr. and Mrs. of the three brothers, Daniel, Samuel and Ira Gates Harpster, surviving sons of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel sons of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel sons of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel sons of of kinsfolk as well as warm friends urday evening, June 21st. Every genuine furniture antiques. And as proof of the genuineness of the angood cause along. Mrs. Mary Deitz, tiques it might be said that they solicitor for the festival, has been include pieces of furniture brought very busy and will have a very nice to this country when the first Harpster came to America in 1750. -The Ladies Aid met at the The original emigrant settled in ent were Mr. and Mrs. Nevin It was there Samuel Harpster, fath-Yearick, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Year- er of the three men named above, ick and son John, Mr. and Mrs. was born. The boys eventually Willard Harter, Mr and Mrs. John bought the George Gates farm, in Condo, Mr. and Mrs. James Vonada, Halfmoon valley, and have made it Mr. and Mrs. George Rodgers, Mr. one of the most productive in the and Mrs. Mervin Hoy and daughters, county. Of course the principal feaconsumed 200 pounds of meat, 50 large cakes, 20 gallons of lemonade, ond of July, at the home of Mrs. N. beans, 12 cans of coffee, with an ample supply of sugar and cream. The meal was topped off with cigars, and there were no leftovers. Appropriate talks were made by Revs. C. W. Rishel, J. S. English and C. V. Grubb. It was late in the after-William Marchello, of Sandy noon when the gathering disbanded Ridge, and Lucille Eisenbauer, of and all departed for their respective SHINGLETOWN.

Magdeline Miller, of Boalsburg, visited friends here over the week-

Winifred Miller visited friends and relatives in State College on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jordan, of State College, visited relatives town on Monday evening.

BOALSBURG.

Miss Anna M. Dale spent Saturday and Sunday in Bellefonte.

Mrs. Ira Hess, of Altoona, enjoy-E. W. Hess.

daysburg. Mrs. Emma Brouse went to Norristown, last week, to visit for several weeks with her son, Fred Brouse and family. The instructors and pupils of the

Harris township vocational school enjoyed a day's outing at Lake_ mont Park, on Friday. The men's Bible class of the Lutheran Sunday School enjoyed an outing in camp in the nearby mountains on Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. George L. Homan and daughters. Marjorie and Jean, motored to Pittsburgh, Saturday, for a week_end visit among friends. The women's Bible class of the out to Pittsburgh, last week, to at the home of Mrs. E. M. Kuhn Lutheran Sunday School will meet on Saturday evening, June 14th. Dr. and Mrs. George C. Hall, of Wilmington, Del., are expected to arrive in town this week to spend student at Penn State. A message was received on Frian observation patient in the Dan-day announcing the death of Daniel Musser, son of John Musser, of Wilkes Barre, The family were for-Having graduated at Beckley col. merly residents of this vicinity. Ralph Rishel recently purchased age from the I. O. O. F. and is The men's Bible class of the erecting a modern garage made resbyterian Sunday school will be necessary by his rapidly increasing Mrs. Ezra Breon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Lee, who had been seriously ill in a Cleveland, O., hos_ pital, is improving and the family have hopes of her recovery. Mrs. Lee is at the Breon home.

> Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Bender spent a short time in town enroute from State College to their home near Wilkes-Barre. Mr. Bender is a

-Read the Watchman and get all

IN BELLEFONTE CHURCHES.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH. Special events in church school 9:30, C. C. Shuey, Supt. Mr. Stephen ed a few day's visit at the home of Haboush, the shepherd of Galilee, head of the party presenting Tues-Eugene Charles, Meyers Close and day evening's entertainment, is to Misses Dorothy Lonbarger and Raspeak. Study of unusual approchel Hunter spent Sunday at Hollipriateness. Special offerings for priateness. Children's day fund for aiding poor, ambitious students. At 10:45 program by the children, entitled, "The Glittering Gate." Reception of members. League hour, 6:30, of big significance in the high topic. Worship, 7:30, with special sermon, first of series. "Products from Pentecost"—exposition on "The Common Created Uncommon." Pastor repsonds to calls for his service. People of Bedford community and strangers, week-end visitors and commercial travelers courteously treated.

Horace Lincoln Jacobs, Minister.

UNITED BRETHREN CHURCH. Sunday school 9:30, followed by public worship,10:30. Let us show our loyalty to Christ and His church and our regard for our sacred vows by being in attendance at these

No intermediate nor Senior Endeavor this week.

At 7:30 P. M. a children's cantata entitled, "The Pathway of Service," will be rendered by the children and young people of the church. This is a beautiful cantata. The public is invited to come and enjoy it.

Rev. W. M. Snyder. Pastor ST. JOHN'S LUTHERAN CHURCH.

9:30 A. M., Sunday school. 10:45 A. M., Morning service; Sermon: "The Early Christian

7:30 P. M., Evening service; Sermon: "Blessed are the Merciful."

Clarence E. Arnold, pastor. EVANGELICAL CHURCH

9:15, Sunday school. 10:30, Baptism of children. 7:30, Children's Day program. A. Ward Campbell, Minister.

-A little son was born dead to Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Brooks. of Bellefonte, Saturday morning, and was buried the same afternoon.

WILL EXHIBIT AT

ONE DAY ONLY

Admission 25 and 50 Cents