Democratic Watchman

INK SLINGS

-The Lindbergs have a son. The "we" is three now and the "Lone Eagle" will probably be doing a lot -After all maybe Charlie Hall, of Philadelphia, has power to express in advance the opinions of the Supreme court.

-Admiral Byrd finds the temperature much warmer at home than in Antartica, but the tax on his nerves is little less exacting.

----Anyway when the Luzerne county vote is certified to the Secretary of the Commonwealth Pinchot will be the Republican nominee for a few days.

-President Hoover asked Congress to appropriate $40,000 to extinguish the mosquitoes on the White House lawn, but a proposition to provide necessaries of life to veterans throws him into a fit.

of hopping on the nursery floor. -The Watchman will not visit you next week. It will be our semi-annual week off and we propose to loaf so hard that it will take several weeks of work to get over that on the morning of July 1 gas on September 29. ought to be a cent cheaper. If your that the Hon. Holmes voted to put much as all great men, at one time, the first dollar we have recollection lenged in the complaint. had a normal child's mind for exaggeration and, in consequence, grand- able hardship. father might have paid for a few more "million" bugs than were actually in the making on those

-She was just a plain, simple little woman upon whom nature had lavished no special charm and upon whom fortune had never turned more than a feeble smile. Her's was a life of such constant drudgery that she probably never thought so that others might have them. For more than half a century this self effacing, patient little plodder whose life has left an impress possibly far beyond that of any of the whose lot has been more opulent adjourns." and whose work has been taken more notice of. When the gates of courage up. With characteristic but that is also true of passenger Westmont, by a colored boy shoot-Heaven swung open, last Sunday caution Uncle Andy admits that the automobiles. But during the period ting mark. Fortunately the wound morning, to welcome her soul there measure has defects, but unlike his of fictitious prosperity, encouraged was not of a serious nature and must have been a ring of joyousspokesman on the floor of the Sen. by what seemed an unlimited air. "Uncle Dan." as he is familiarly Moon hills and cannons roared from ness in the angelic chorus such as few can be expectant of hearing; will be remembered that Senator siderable number of people and a for no one knows how many in that Reed, apologizing for voting for the vast amount of capital were enticed chorus Miss Ida Greene taught to bill, enumerated various bad features into the manufacture of air craft have their lamps trimmed and burn- and trusts to luck for the fulfill- with the result that now a great ing. Every community has its "Miss ment of his expectations. Mr. Stimmany machines are in stock and except when they wanted her to serve, and

At the end of the day She still had a smile At the end of the day There were things worth while At the end of the day Ne'er pretense nor guile For hope was her guide At the end of the day.

At the end of the day She trudged alone, On a mission of mercy, To brighten some home. At the end of the day Church work was to do At the end of the day That was for me and for you

The end of her day Came, most ere it begun The end of her day Her race had been run For the end of her day Brought her home to the One Whom she'd loved and served With work, well done.

STATE RIGHTS AND FEDERAL UNION.

BELLEFONTE, PA., JUNE 27, 1930.

NO. 26.

VOL. 75

Luzerne County's Primary Vote.

The pronouncement of the Supreme court in the matter of the merses the subject in doubt. The

The charge of mutilation is based tion of the Senate.

a hundred. We can see ourselves the more surprising because in 1922, now, going through the lot on grand- the same court, unchanged in per-

> It would look bad if 60,000 risburg.

Team Work in Washington.

The administration in Washington, striving to fool "all the people all that pleasure and leisure were ever Grundy tariff bill. The head-liner ers are loudly complaining of vanobtainable except through slaving in the enterprise is Uncle Andy Melishing trade and reports from Delon, who in a statement declares troit indicate an almost complete little woman has been known to almost everyone in Bellefonte. One ests of the United States or resaw her daily trudging the streets tard business recovery." Secretary product is unable to find a market on her way to earn the paltry pit- of State Stimson simultaneously at any price and the surplusage is cut off. Pepper plants also have tance on which she subsisted or carrying a bunch of flowers or some in not planning to resort to repris-create no appeal and as one writer as well as corn fields. little dainty to a stricken friend. als against France if increased on the subject declares, "no reason-She was part of Bellefonte, just a rates are put into effect by the able offer, backed up with real mosons and daughters of the town Tariff Commission before Congress year's business slump.

prevent a smash. The big banks abroad.

miral Byrd have been richly earned The administration is in some meaand worthily given.

Power Trust Arrogance Frankly Expressed.

The insolence of monopoly was Luzerne county primary vote im- frankly expressed, the other day, when Samuel Insull, of Chicago, Republican primary vote gave Mr. undertook to censor a speech which prohibition or the Eighteenth amend-Pinchot a plurality of approximately the United States Ambassador to ment to the Federal constitution. Who is it wears last summer's hat, 26,500 over Mr. Brown, the Vare Germany was about to deliver at candidate for Governor. Mr. Brown a convention of Power magnates in as a banker and a lawyer and, hav- And thinks it quite all right at that? challenged the result on the ground Berlin. Mr. Insull, who is a dele ing recently been called into public that the ballots had been mutilated. gate in the convention, happened to life, rendered valuable public serv-The Luzerne county court, one of see an advance copy of the speech ice. As a member of the banking the judges dissenting, decided against and finding some features of it ad- house of J. P. Morgan he had acthe complaint. An appeal was taken verse to his interests demanded that quired a high standing in the busiand on Saturday last the Supreme it be deleted. Ambassador Sacket ness world. As Ambassador in We've Mother's Day and Poppy Day, court handed down an opinion di- was first inclined to comply with Mexico he had affected some recon- But almost all are Labor Days recting the county commissioners to the demand but encountered so ciliations and ironed out some difficertify the return to the Secretary many difficulties in the way he fi-—At midnight next Monday one of the Commonwealth, "subject to nally decided to let it go as prepar- ours. As a delegate to the London Caress and smooth his rumpled hair, cent will automatically drop from modification, correction or rejection ed. This incident aroused the indigthe price of gasoline. Remember, after a full hearing" by that court nation of Senator Norris, who sub-spicuous but agreeable. sequently brought it to the attenfilling station doesn't remember give on the fact that the ballots had been Mr. Sacket was an invited speakthe proprietor a little gas. Tell him perforated. At the election of 1926 er in the conference but he evident row had taken the "dry" side he that the cent that is to come off the vote of Luzerne county was so ly has a rather clear understanding might have lost some votes but he automatically is just half the tax polluted with fraud that in 1927 the of the subject in which it was concourt directed the commissioners to cerned. He said: "I know of no As a shrewd reasoner, however, he perforate the ballots. With the other manufacturing industry where adopted the popular side of the The reports that potato bugs consent of all the judges and the the sale price of the product to the question, on the principle of are unusually numerous this season managers of both parties this prac- great mass of consumers is fifteen brings a very important matter to tice was continued until this year, times the actual cost of production of at the time, former Senator Freour mind. One that we think we when objection was made. The comhave never before revealed. Inas- missioners referred the matter to ly to define a weakness that calls the court and a judicial order was for the keenest thought in your course of the wind and set his sails issued to follow a custom which had deliberations." This statement was accordingly. But his nomination is to the first dollar they earned we been adopted to prevent fraud by as true as it was timely. The power neither a substantial wet victory don't know just why such an occa- using unofficial ballots as had been corporations are organizing a monopsion never smacked us on the done in 1926. The vote in a few disbean until this moment. It's done tricts in the county in which votit, however, so we here record that ing machines were used was unchal control they exact "all the traffic utable business man to a crafty will bear," and as much more as father's farm up in Ferguson town- sonnel since, handed down an opin- who at one time thought he had had the party organization behind ship with the right hand stained ion diametrically opposite in pur-bought a seat in the United States him in the primary campaign and with yellow bug juice and the left pose and substance. Justice Simp- Senate with money taken from the will have the full force of the Naguarding the can into which we son, in that opinion, declared "to consumers of high-priced power, this tional administration and the ma- are unable to state at this time. dropped the yellow and black strip- eliminate an entire poll, though no same Insull, representing the Power terial help of the National organiwas a bonanza, for we sat and counted every egg and chalked them down as potential bugs. Counting the down as potential bugs. down as potential bugs. Counting the forating the ballots it was not done bassador and tells him what he the Eighteen eggs in a potato bug nest was a rather to promote fraud but to prevent it, cannot say." This is the destination an inspiration but a plagiarism from intricate operation. We probably and disfranchising 60,000 voters on to which the Republican party is Governor Smith's programme of that account would be an unendur- leading. As Senator Norris added: last fall. "Are we willing to submit to this?

best.

False Reports Responsible..

tariff is either stabilizing or imthe time" on the effects of the proving business. Automobile buildthat "the new tariff law will not paralysis of that industry. But the French against American imports. ney will be refused by many air of Johnstown city council, member the funeral in a body. Finally, President Hoover states craft manufacturers who were left of the board of fish commissioners that he "will make changes in the financially high and dry by last and a personal friend of editor T.

This is literally whistling to keep good many of us can do without, while riding in an automobile in ate he fails to enumerate them. It mindedness among the people, a con-known, has not lost much sleep ov- other eminences in town. The speech Ida," but few communities realize son "casts an anchor to the windwhat such persons contribute to ward" to temporarily allay a grow- chase them even at the cut rates them so the Watchman pays tribute ing apprehension of a tariff war at which they are offered, in some to a woman whom few thought of with France while President Hoover cases fifty per cent. off and in all "throws a tub to the whale" of cases below the actual cost of proridicule developing in the Senate. duction. And this condition is in But all these efforts will be futile. the face of an undiminished popular Big business is doing its best to interest in aviation, at home and have made money cheaper than ever Of course it will be said that men before with the idea of encouraging engaged in the enterprise and inspeculation and thus bolstering the vested their money at their own false pretense of prosperity. But option, and frequently without solicshare values decline rather than in- itation, and have themselves to crease. Public intelligence has ad- blame for the disappointments that vanced too far to be deceived by have come from their adventures. such sophistry as the tarif apolo- But this is not altogether true. gists are able to advance. As Sen- Capital is always seeking employator Barclay, of Kentucky, remarked ment and the absurdly optimistic in reference to the signing of the announcements of the President, the measure, "while six prominent citi- Secretary of the Treasury and the zens each received gold pens, all the Secretary of Commerce that prosrest of the people received gold perity in abundance was "just around bricks." That is the sum and sub- the corner," misled many usually stance of the prosperity the Grundy cautious investors to believe that this new and appealing industry would grow as the automobile in-The honors bestowed on Ad- dustry developed a few year ago. sure to blame.

Mr. Morrow's Nomination.

Dwight Morrow would probably Authorship Unknown. have been nominated for Senator Who is it wears the patch work hose by the Republicans of New Jersey And seldom goes to picture shows, if he had not said a word about That his girl may have fine clothes? He was widely and favorably known That his boy may join a sporty frat culties between that government and Get out his slippers and easy chair, Naval conference he was incon- And let him know you're glad he's there-

New Jersey is notoriously and dripping "wet." If upon entering the campaign for Senator Mr. Mor- FIFTY YEARS AGO would have been nominated anyway. "safety first." His only opponent vane and Mr. Morrow sensed the nor a disastrous dry defeat. It politician.

of having earned was made by picking potato bugs at five cents of having earned was made by picking potato bugs at five cents down by the court, on Saturday, is senator Norris, after reading the equivalent to an election in New 12c, eggs 10c, bacon 7c and ham 9c. press dispatches on the subject, said: Jersey and Mr. Morrow has the "Thus we learn that Samuel Insull, fight of his life before him. He

The record for non-stop flying which played havoc with the bean legal voters were disfranchised in from New York to Mexico is now crop in various sections of the counleaves, but he took our word for it, order to shift the Vare machine in possession of a Mexican, but re- ty, last year, has again made its activities from Philadelphia to Harcords are transient properties at appearance in a number of gardens in Bellefonte as well as other sections, which leads to the old saw, that "its just one d-n thing after another." Both farmers and garden-It would be hard to persuade air ers report that they can't recall a in team-work form, is valiantly craft manufacturers that the Grundy year when cut worms were so assistant, Henry Wetzel; third grade, plentiful or destructive as they have Rosa Wood; fourth grade, Nannie been this year. One Bellefonte res_ McGinley; fifth grade, Lizzie Swartz; ident who put out 180 cabbage enth grade, Mary L. Nesbitt; seventh grade, Bella Rankin; eighth plants has already used over 500 grade, Annie McAffrey; ninth grade, plants in replacement. Up near Mary Shrom; tenth grade, Carrie Rockview a gardener put out 84 Humes. Miss Humes and Miss cabbage plants one evening and the next morning 43 of them had been

> Dan R. Schnabel, a member H. Harter, of the Keystone Gazette, Air ships are luxuries that a was accidentally shot, last week, er the accident.

-Fourth of July fire works are making their appearance in the display windows of Bellefonte stores, but so far both merchants and boys have heeded the proclamation of burgess Harris restricting the sale and use of the deadly explosives to the Fourth only.

--It may be only a coincidence but it seems that President Hoover always developes an economy spasm when Congress legislates favors to war veterans.

The Lindberg baby will probably be a high-flyer but if he is as modest about it as his daddy nobody will complain.

The open season for bass, pike, pickerel and muscallonge in Pennsylvania will open next Tuesday, July 1.

-A scientest has discovered knows that too much of it is burnext postmaster at Centre Hall. densome.

the news worth reading.

IT'S FATHER.

It's Father!

It's Father!

Who is it buys the bread and meat? Who keeps the shoes on all our feet? It's Father!

Your Father!

Items from the Watchman issue of July 2, 1880.

the residence of H. B. Pontius, by struct a 31,000-horse-power hydro-electric plant on the upper reaches of the Alle-Breon to Miss Laura Etta Harter. gheny river became known on Monday. both of Bellefonte.

-The W. C. Coup shows are advertised for an appearance in Bellefonte on Wednesday, July 14. It is really a monster tented exhibition and as a special feature attraction is exhibiting Ritchell's flying machine; something Bellefonte has never seen before and a contraption that will really fly.

-Wheat is $1.00 a bushel, corn yesterday morning, with, it is supposed, the final arrangements in regard to the car works in his pocket. Just what they are, however, we ed pests. We picked them with our harm has actually been done, mere-trust which has crept into the back- zation in the impending contest. But our young friend William H. Noll, fingers. We didn't knock them into ly because public officials did not door of schoolhouses, into lodges, he will have an harmonious, vigor- serenaded the Bush house last Sata can with a paddle. And when we perform their duties properly, would women's clubs and farmer's organious and militant force against him urday night and were complimented got a leaf with the underside speck- result in the very wrong sought to zations; this same outfit which has and the halo which adorned him very highly in an appreciation speech got a leaf with the underside speck-led with the tiny yellow eggs that be prevented." Even if the judges been crawling and creeping every, through the primary contest will be prevented." Even if the judges been crawling and creeping every, through the primary contest will be prevented." was a bonanza, for we sat and of Luzerne county did give wrong where and boasting of its decept vanish. The voters will come to in the way of music and have lots

-Daniel Lowden, of Ferguson tary of Agriculture Arthur M. Hyde at township, found a curio while tear- Washington. come petrified.

-Bellefonte's school directors met last Tuesday evening, created a new teachers but two. The staff is now as follows: Principal, D. M. Lieb; Swartz are the new teachers chosen. Mr. John M. Duncan and Miss Lizzie Campbell were not re-elected.

-Mantin Foley, of Lamb St., died last Saturday evening of consumption. Deceased was formerly an employee of W. P. Duncan & Co., and the men of that plant attended —A great Hancock ratification meeting was held in this place last Saturday night and the crowd was into the court house, so that overflow meetings were held on the hill somely illuminated, fire works were shot off from reservoir and Half making was done by Col. D. F. Fortney, Major Forster, Hon. C. T. Alexander, Col. William H. Blair, of the court.

W. C. Heinle Esq., and J. W. Gephart Esq. Col. Jack L. Spangler, —With the county chairman, called the meeting was hot and close.

having resigned, J. D. Mitchell has been appointed to serve in his stead.

be made more secure. Prayer meet- children, was arrested by State policy ings will be held in the wigwam and church services in Humes' hall until Lingenfelter, who turned over a rethe desired reinforcements are made. volver fully loaded. He offered no re-

----At this distance it looks very farming a small tract at Leamersvill that heat has weight. Everybody much as if Cloyd Brooks will be the

-Read the Watchman and get all shot a newspaper reporter stepped lieved responsible by the coroner for the outside of his territory.

SPAWLS FROM THE KEYSTONE

-Tampering with a juror at Honesdale, Frank Conaboy, of Carbondale, was fined $700.

Westmoreland county are believed to have created a record when they underwent throat operations in the H. C. Frick Memorial hospital in Mt. Pleasant on the same day. The operations were successful.

-Almost 2,000,00 pounds of honey. valued at $426,730, were produced in Pennsylvania last year according to estimates of the Federal-State Crop Reporting Service. Pennsylvania is now one of the 10 States which produces on an average over $425,000 worth of honey annually.

-Edward L. Spangler, 70 years old of York county, fell from a cherry tree in the yard at the rear of his home and suffered a broken back near the base of his spine. He is confined to the West Side sanitarium, in York, where his condition is reported to be critical. In the fall from the tree the aged man lended across a fence and then toppled to the ground.

-Ninety World war veterans are making a house to house canvas for $18,000 for the community chest in Clinton county. The campaign is being conducted in Lock Haven and vicinity, the territory served by the Lock Haven hospital, the Community Service Association and the Children's Aid Socfety. The amount received will be apportioned to the three charitable organizations.

-Fulton county is the latest of Pennsylvania counties to decide to hold a county fair. The Fulton County Fair association has been granted a charter, being capitalized at $10,000 with George E. Gladfelter as treasurer. Incorporation was made for the purpose of buy-IN CENTRE COUNTY. ing a piece of land and erecting a permanent building at McConnellsburg, the county seat, for holding the fair.

-Tentative plans of the West Penn Married .- On the 24th of June, at Power company of Pittsburgh to con-The plans, now being studied by United States army district engineers, propose construction of the plant in connection with dam No. 8, now being constructed by the government across the river between Templeton and Mosgrove, above Kittanning.

-A burglar, daring as he was lightfooted, broke into the home of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Love, in York, Pa., ransacked the lower floor of the house, went to the bedroom where Mr. and -Ex-Governor Curtin arrived home, | was discovered when the couple awoke the next morning. The empty pocketbook was found in the yard at the rear of the Love home. Entrance was gained by means of a pick key. -The Federal government has moved to preserve 16,000 acres of natural forest The Pleasant Gap band led by about the headwaters of the Allegheny river in Forest and Warren counties. Included is a tract of 100 acres of virgin white pine, said to be the only perfect stand of such timber in the United ing down the wall of his old barn -James Carey, who has been a teachin preparation of building a new one. er at Penn State College for the past Embedded in the mortar he found five years, was awarded a degre of doc-The destructive bean beetle a hen's egg that must have been tor of science from Massachusets Instiplaced there when the barn was built tute of Technology, last week at the in 1788. The egg was in perfect commencement exercises. Mr. Carey is condition as to appearance but it the son of Mrs. Lizette Carey, of Harrisrattles as though the inside has be- burg. He was graduated from Lehigh University in 1922, and received his master's degree at Penn State, having worked for it while teaching there. He is school and re-elected all of the old at present in Ponca City, Okla., where refinery equipment for the M. W. Kellogg company.

-After trussing up the turnkey at the Huntingdon county jail about 9:30 p. m. Friday, two prisoners, sentenced serve a term for violation of liquor law, successfully made their escape, according to messages broadcast over the teletype at police headquarters. The prisoners are Frank McEwin, 27, described as weighing about 220 pounds, and Albert S. Clark, 32. Their absence was discovered about 10:45 p. m. when guards in making their rounds found the turnkey securely tied and locked in the cell which previously held the escaped prisoners.

-The longest and hardest fought automobile damage case ever to come before the Mifflin county court was concluded at Lewistown, on Saturday, when a jury found a verdict for $5043.50 in so great that it couldn't be gotten favor of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hedberg, of Jamestown, N. Y., who had brought action against Harry L. Hoffman, of at the rear. Buildings were hand- Lewistown, for injuries Mrs. Hedberg received in an automobile accident last November, when the car driven by Mr. Hoffman collided with the car driven by Mrs. Hedberg as she was coming off a side street onto South Main street. The case occupied four full days of the time -With the Japanese beetle making its annual emergence, the Department of to order John A. Woodward was Agriculture sent uniformed guards to chosen president, with J. P. Gep-boundary points of the quarantine are hart, Benjamin F. Hunter, James on main highways to check against F. Weaver and William H. Noll as shipment of beetle-infested produce vice presidents. (Of all that array of Warm weather has brought the beetle noted Centre county Democrats of out of their winter homes in the so fifty years ago only two are living: earlier than usual. A large number of the pests which cause heavy damage Postmaster Miles, of Milesburg, and greens were found in sections of each year to farm products, shrubber Harrisburg by department scouts. Sev eral of them showed evidence of havin On Sunday last the weather been killed by the centerer fly, the was simply distressing: Oh, but it parasite released by the department.

-Firing 11 shots into the body of hi -The Presbyterian congregation uncle, Frank M. Gates, 74, retired A of this place has abandoned their toona trolley employee, Harry Linger church edifice entirely until it can felter, of Leamersville, father of 1 on a charge of murder. Police disarme sistance. Gates, the first man to driv a horse drawn trolley in Altoona, wa adjoining the Lingenfelter home and was shot as he was walking through the field. Lingenfelter was unemployed the past two years following an accident The Chicago gangster who at his work. Ill health and heat are betemporary derangement of the man.