JOHNSTOWN WOMAN VICTIM OF GUNSHOTS.

Mrs. Stella Shaffer, wife of Roland B. Shaffer, of Johnstown, is a patient in the Memorial hospital, in that city, suffering with a gunshot wound in the right side of the chest and another through the upper part of the right arm. The bullets were fired by Mrs. Joseph DiBartola, a jealousy-crazed woman because, she alleged, her husband, a prominent Johnstown merchant, was too intimate with Mrs. Shaffer.

Mrs. Shaffer is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar McMullen, of Coleville, who were visitors at the Shaffer home at the time of the shooting while Mr. and Mrs. Shaffer's daughter, Miss Eleanor, was here visiting friends at Coleville. The shooting took place about ten o'clock Sunday night. DiBartola had taken Mr. and Mrs. Shaffer, Mr. and Mrs. McMullen and two boys for an outing at an amusement park near the city on Sunday afternoon. They returned about ten o'clock at night. Mr. DiBartola driving to the Shaffer home. As Mrs. Shaffer was walking from the car to the house two shots were heard and she dropped to the ground unconscious. A woman was seen running away, but it was too dark to recognize her.

Mrs. Shaffer was removed to the hospital and an examination revealed a shot in the right breast and one in the right arm. Neither one, however, is believed to be serious and the woman's recovery is expected.

On Monday morning Mrs. DiBartola, who is fifty years old and the mother of eight children, walked to the central police station, accompanied by her son Philip, and gave herself up. She then stated, "I did not want to kill her, but wanted to scare her so she would stay away from my Joe." Mrs. DiBartola claims her husband has been friendly with Mrs. Shaffer for three years.

NEGRO MURDERER WAS ELECTROCUTED MONDAY.

John Pierce, 31 year old negro of Delaware county, was electrocuted at Rockview penitentiary on Monday morning for the murder of Frank Kowalski, a Chester policeman, early in the morning of December 16th, 1929. The shooting occurred in an all night restaurant. Pierce, who was under the influence of liquor, insisted on dancing and creating a disturbance. When the officer remonstrated he pulled a gun and shot him.

Pierce was attended to the chair by Rev. A. E. Mann, a colored minister, of Media. Dr. J. V. Foster, of State College, and Dr. W. B. McLaughlin, of Rockview, were the physicians. The body was claimed and was taken back to Delaware county for burial.

Pierce was the third man electrocuted this year and three men are scheduled to go to the chair next Monday morning and one on July 7th.

The many friends of Merrill T. Eisenhauer, billing clerk at the P. R. R. freight depot and a member of the Belleville board of auditors, will learn with regret that he has been taken to the Danville State hospital for treatment. He has not been in good health for several years and following a general collapse last Saturday evening, while on a visit to the home of his wife's parents at Beavertown, it was deemed best to take him to the State hospital for treatment.

GREENE.—Miss Ida Mary Greene, for more than half a century a well known resident of Belleville, died quite suddenly about nine o'clock Sunday morning, as the result of a heart attack. She had not been feeling well for several days and Sunday morning decided not to go to Sunday school or church. She became ill while at the residence of William Houser, just opposite her home, on south Water street, but was able to return home. A physician was summoned who rendered medical aid but shortly after he left she became so much worse that another hurry call was made for a doctor but before he arrived she had passed away. She was a daughter of Frank Peebles and Lavinia Burris Greene and was born at LeClaire, Iowa, on March 29th, 1858, making her age 72 years, 2 months and 23 days. She was a direct descendant of General Nathaniel Greene, of Revolutionary fame. A year or two after her birth her parents came east and located in Huntingdon county, later moving to Philipsburg. On April 2nd, 1871, the family moved to Belleville and this place had been her home ever since. As a girl she learned the trade of a seamstress and followed that occupation all her life.

In January, 1871, when not quite thirteen years old, she became a member of the Methodist church and in May, 1875, she was chosen a teacher in the primary department of the Methodist Sunday school of Belleville, and for fifty-five years, continuously, or until her death, she served in one capacity or another most diligently.

She was one of a family of four children and the last to pass away. Her mother and sister, Annie Rose, died in 1899, her father in 1908, a brother, Edgar B., in 1919, and another brother, Elmer C., in 1924. Her only survivors are two nephews and a niece, James Greene, of Winter Haven, Fla.; Frank, of Altoona, and Mrs. Samuel Christian, of Ocala, Fla.

Funeral services were held in the Sunday school room of the Methodist church at 2 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon by Rev. Horace Lincoln Jacobs, while Rev. C. C. Shuey officiated at the interment in the Union cemetery.

COWHER.—Samuel R. Cowher, a retired farmer of Worth township, died on Monday morning, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Frank Pfoust, in Tyrona, as the result of a heart affection.

He was a son of Thomas and Sarah Cowher and was born at Port Matilda on January 1st, 1860, hence was 70 years, 5 months and 22 days old. He followed farming all his life until his retirement a year ago, since which time he had made his home with his daughter in Tyrona. He was a member of the Methodist church and the Port Matilda lodge of Odd Fellows.

In 1887 he married Miss Emma McMonigal who survives with one daughter and a son, Mrs. Pfoust and W. Harry Cowher, both of Tyrona. He also leaves two brothers, Dewey and Adam Cowher, both of Port Matilda.

Funeral services were held at the Pfoust home, in Tyrona, at 2:30 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, by Rev. Samuel W. Strain, after which burial was made in the Grandview cemetery, Tyrona.

ALTER.—Miss Sarah Alter, a native of Centre county, died at the Methodist home in Tyrona, last Friday morning, of general infirmities. She had been an inmate of the home for five years.

She was a daughter of John and Elizabeth Homan Alter and was born at Millheim on March 17th, 1849, making her age 81 years, 3 months and 3 days. John Alter, of Millheim, and Herman Alter, of Williamsport, are her nearest surviving relatives. Funeral services were held at the home at 11 o'clock on Monday morning by Rev. Emerson Karns, after which the remains were taken to Millheim where burial was made in Fairview cemetery the same afternoon.

LYTLE.—Mrs. Margaret Lytle, widow of the late Andrew J. Lytle, of State College, passed away on Sunday, June 15th, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Nellie Fenstermacher, at Bloomfield, N. J., as the result of general debility.

She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Miller and was born at Boalsburg eighty years ago. All her married life, however, had been spent in the neighborhood of State College. Her husband died several years ago but surviving her are one daughter, Mrs. Fenstermacher, and two step-daughters, Mrs. George Hollibaugh, of Coleville, and Mrs. Roy Johnson, of Clearfield. Burial was made in the Branch cemetery last Wednesday.

YOUNG.—Mrs. Anna Eliza Young, wife of Roland Young, of Boalsburg, died at the Centre County hospital, on Wednesday of last week, following an illness of several months with a complication of diseases. She was a native of Gatesburg and was 46 years old. In addition to her husband she is survived by two sons. The funeral was held on Saturday morning, burial being made in the Boalsburg cemetery.

TANNER.—Mrs. Crissie Daup Tanner, widow of William Tanner, passed away at her apartment in Petrikin hall, at 8:30 o'clock last Thursday evening, following an illness of ten days. She was first stricken with an attack of intestinal flu and later spinal meningitis developed which caused her death. A daughter of George and Martha Hughes Johnston she was born at Mount Eagle 65 years ago. At the age of twenty years she married William Tanner and for a year or two they lived in Altoona. From that place they moved to Renovo where they spent a number of years and finally came to Belleville over thirty years ago. Shortly after arriving here Mrs. Tanner opened a boarding house on Bishop street, and later moved to the Brew house, now the Decker home, on Spring street and from there onto High street. As a boarding house mistress she was quite successful. From High street she moved into Petrikin hall and about six years ago opened a cut-rate drug store, on High street, in the management of which she also was successful.

She was a member of the Methodist church for many years and not only affiliated with all church societies but an active worker in all of them. She was a member of the Belleville chapter Eastern Star and the Royal Neighbors. Her survivors include a daughter and two sons, Mrs. Hugh J. Boyle, of Hazleton; George and Forrest W. Tanner, of Belleville. She also leaves one brother and three sisters, J. Kennedy Johnston Esq., of Belleville; Mrs. Howard Orwig, of State College; Mrs. John C. Brooks, of Linden, and Mrs. John Foresman, of Howard.

Funeral services were held in the Methodist church at ten o'clock, on Monday morning, by Rev. Horace Lincoln Jacobs, burial being made in the Union cemetery.

TAYLOR.—Miss Elinor Kathryn Taylor, only child of Samuel S. and Kathryn Leib Taylor, former residents of Belleville, died suddenly at seven o'clock Tuesday evening, of heart failure, at the Taylor cottage in the mountains fifty miles from Bridgeport, Conn. She had been ailing for about two years and her condition had been considered serious for a year at least. Two weeks ago she was taken to a cottage in the mountains in the hope that the change would prove beneficial, and while she showed apparent improvement it was followed with a collapse which resulted in her death.

She was born at Rutherford, N. J., in 1908, hence was 22 years old. When but a child her parents moved to Bridgeport, Conn., where she was educated in the public schools. After graduating from the High school she took a secretarial course at Booth College. She was a member of the Presbyterian church since girlhood and always active in the young people's societies of the church. She was quite well known in Belleville, having come here most every summer for her vacation. Her parents are her only survivors. The remains will be brought to Belleville on this morning's train and taken to the home of her aunt, Miss May Taylor, on north Spring street, where funeral services will be held at eleven o'clock by Rev. W. C. Thompson. The remains will be laid to rest in the Union cemetery.

—Dear are annoying Spring township farmers. Out about Axe Mann, on the Jodon, Meek, Kline and poor farms a whole flock can be seen every day eating the corn and other growing crops.

—Mr. and Mrs. Smith, of State College, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary yesterday.

AARONSBURG.

BIRTH OF OUR NATION.

Late in the afternoon of the Fourth of July, 1776, the old bell in the statehouse at Philadelphia rang out a joyous peal. A few moments before, exhausted by the great heat and vexed to desperation by a multitude of flies, the fathers of this country's liberties had unanimously adopted the Declaration which severed the Thirteen Colonies from Great Britain and made the United States of America forever free and independent. John Hancock, president of the Continental Congress, had then affixed his flourishing signature to the document and what up to that time had been an uncertainty, owing to the unwillingness of many to entirely forswear allegiance to the mother country, had at last become an accomplished fact.

WHY WOMEN TAKE JOBS.

If you cling to the old maxim that women's place is in the home, read over the recent bulletin from the United States Women's Bureau.

This bulletin reveals that women in increasing numbers are being called on to support their families. Out of 30,000 families investigated, for instance, 27 per cent were supported entirely by the wages of their women members.

Of 17,000 unmarried women studied, one in five was supporting a family unaided.

An enormous proportion of city families is depending wholly or in part on the money earned by wives and daughters. In certain industries which employ women, 65 per cent of the women working are married.

Evidently the woman who marries for economic security stands a fair chance of getting badly stung. Instead of being freed from the necessity of supporting herself; she may have to pitch in and help support, not only herself, but her husband as well.

Yet we have no breadlines, no unrest, no nation wide exhibit of suffering, despite the fact that we are continually harboring this enormous number of men who cannot get work. Why? Well, Mr. Chase suspects that the women worker has a good bit to do with it. Many and many a family in which the breadwinner has lost his job has been saved from starvation by the fact that the breadwinner's wife has gone to work as a salesgirl or telephone operator.

We won't know what the remedy for all of this is until competent economists have studied the whole thing more carefully. Meanwhile, however, it is obvious that something is wrong somewhere. Our prosperity can't be quite all it is cracked up to be if it is placing a constantly increasing economic burden on women.

It would seem that there are several things back of this recent influx of women into the realm of jobs. It isn't apparently, the outgrowth of a sudden desire, on the part of womankind, for freedom. The marriage or career stories written by our popular fiction produces—how idiotic they sound now that the real facts are coming out! Most working women, one concludes, are working because they have to, not because they want to. The modern world is giving them, not a new freedom, but a new duty.

Stuart Chase, in his recent book, "Prosperity: Fact or Myth," sheds a bit of light on the subject. One out of every 13 male wage-earners in the United States, he estimates, is always out of a job. The "technological unemployment" that our engineers talk about—the replacement of worker by labor-saving machinery—is giving us an army of jobless men that averages around 3,000,000.

IN BELLEVILLE CHURCHES.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH.
 Church Bible school, C. C. Shuey, Supt., 9:30, with special events and a commanding study. League, 6:30, has exceptional interests and timely topic. Worship, 10:45, very special exposition of Scripture—"Life Triumphant." At 7:30 pithy preaching, perhaps pugnacious, sure towards prejudice, predatory practices—in business and in morals. Pastor responds to all calls for his services. Commercial travelers, tourists, strangers and week-end visitors find a welcome in this church, a "House of Helpfulness" for all people. Horace Lincoln Jacobs, Minister.

ST. JOHN'S LUTHERAN CHURCH.
 The congregation will receive the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper at two services. At 7:00 o'clock in the morning the confessional service will be held followed by Holy Communion. The 10:45 A. M. service will also be that of Holy Communion. There will be no evening service. Sunday school will be held at 9:30 A. M. Clarence E. Arnold, pastor.
