

DEATHS OF THE WEEK.

EISENHAUER.—Merrill T. Eisenhauer, for more than a score of years a resident of Bellefonte, died at the State hospital, at Danville, early last Saturday morning, as the result of pernicious locomotor ataxia. He had not been in good health for some years but worked up to about three weeks before his death. He then went to Beavertown on a vacation, became violently ill and was taken to the Danville hospital.

He was a son of J. G. and Alice Adelman Eisenhauer and was born at Millheim forty-four years ago. In his early life he taught school several terms then was assistant manager of a restaurant at State College. In 1908 he came to Bellefonte and went to work as a clerk in the P. R. R. freight depot, where he remained until his fatal illness. He was a member of St. John's Lutheran church and a member of the choir. He was also a member of the Knights of the Golden Eagle and for a number of years secretary of the order. In politics he was a Republican and had been a member of the Bellefonte board of auditors for some years past.

About twenty-one years ago he married Miss Carrie Bowersox, of Beavertown, who survives with two sons, Francis and Richard. One daughter, Ethel, died when a small child. His father was killed in an accident in the P. R. R. yards at Northumberland thirteen years ago but he leaves his mother, living at Aaronsburg, and the following brothers and sisters: Clarence Eisenhauer, of Youngstown, Ohio; Mrs. Arthur Weaver, of Lewistown; Philip, of Akron, Ohio; Mrs. Ray Auman, of Youngstown; Mrs. C. O. Grove, of Williamsport, and Harry, of Millheim.

Funeral services were held in Beavertown, on Monday afternoon at two o'clock, burial being made in that place. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Decker, were among the Bellefonte people who attended the funeral.

McWILLIAMS.—William E. McWilliams, a life-long resident of the western section of Centre county, died on the evening of July 4th, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Frank V. Goodhart, at Centre Hall, as the result of a stroke of paralysis sustained four days previous.

He was a son of Henry and Rebecca McWilliams and was born on the farm at White Hall on July 3rd, 1850, hence was 80 years and one day old. His early life was spent on the farm until he lost an arm in an accident when he quit the farm and moved to Lewistown where he engaged in the hardware and implement business. A few years later he moved back to Rock Springs and became the first rural mail carrier in that section, a job he held 44 years, or until his retirement about ten years ago. He was a member and elder of the Graysville Presbyterian church.

When twenty-two years of age he married Miss Annie Goheen, who died in 1910, but surviving his are the following children: Mrs. Frank Goodhart and Mrs. Harry Potter, of Centre Hall; Mrs. Ralph Musser, of Mill Hall; John H. McWilliams of Louisville, Ky., and Harold, of Johnstown. He also leaves one sister, Mrs. John Bailey, of Pine Grove Mills.

After brief services at the Goodhart home, Monday afternoon, the remains were taken to Graysville where further services were held by Rev. J. M. Kirkpatrick, burial being made in the Graysville cemetery.

HAAS.—William F. Haas, for a quarter of a century in charge of the Bellefonte fish hatchery, died in a sanatorium, at Allentown, on July 4th, where he had been undergoing treatment since leaving Bellefonte in April. He was born at Allentown and was 60 years and 2 months old. As a young man he made a study of fish culture and followed that occupation all his life. When he came to Bellefonte to take charge of the State fish hatchery it was one of the new ones in the State and it was mainly through his efforts that it was built up to one of the best in the State today.

Mr. Haas' wife passed away last fall and as they had no children his only survivors are a brother and sister, Harvey and Margaret, both of Allentown. Burial was made in Allentown on Tuesday afternoon.

MEYER.—Miss Loretta H. Meyer, a 1930 graduate at the Centre County hospital training school for nurses, died at the hospital, last Saturday morning following several weeks illness. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Meyer and was born at Tusseyville 20 years ago. She is survived by her parents and the following brothers and sisters: Elmer Meyer, in Hawaii; Mrs. Nellie Ripka, of State College; Miss Helen, of Johnson City, New York; Charles, in Haiti; Miss Charlotte, of Philadelphia; Woodrow, Dorothy, Kenneth and Junior at home. Burial was made in the Pine Hall cemetery on Monday afternoon.

FIELDS.—John Franklin Fields, well known resident of Bellwood, died at the Altoona hospital on Monday, June 30th, as the result of an attack of pneumonia suffered several months ago. He was a son of John and Etta Rider Fields and was born at Gatesburg on May 20th, 1870, hence was past 60 years of age. He was a carpenter by trade and followed that occupation all his life. He was a member of the Methodist church, the Tented Order of Maccabees and one or more musical organizations.

In 1889 he married Miss Anna Ghaner who survives with four sons and four daughters. He also leaves two brothers and two sisters. Burial was made in the Logan valley cemetery last Thursday afternoon.

BUFFINGTON.—Mrs. Sarah Jane Buffington, widow of the late Charles Lucien Buffington, died at her home in Altoona, on June 29th, as the result of general debility. She was a daughter of Wharton and Eliza Watson Norris and was born at Centre Furnace, Centre county, on November 25th, 1840, hence was in her 90th year. The greater part of her life was spent in Centre county. In 1864 she married Mr. Buffington who died 16 years ago. She is survived by three daughters. Burial was made at Tyrone on Tuesday of last week.

GOOD MOVIES SCHEDULED FOR SHOWING NEXT WEEK.

The infectious comedy antics of Paramount's one and only "boopa-boopa-doop" girl will rock the walls of the Richelieu theatre again next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday when Helen Kane appears in "Dangerous Nan McGrew" original laugh and music frolic.

"Dangerous Nan McGrew" is the story of a traveling medicine show which gets all mixed up with the Canadian northwest mounted police, with Klondike comedy characters and with wealthy city folks vacationing at a luxurious hunting lodge in the wilderness. There is a comedy twist for every one of the multitude of surprise turns in the engrossing story.

"Under a Texas Moon" Warner Bros. first 100% talking, singing, out-door picture in technicolor, which comes to the State theatre all next week is an adaptation of Stewart Edward White's "The two Gun Men."

SPEND A PLEASANT DAY AT VEILED LADY CAVERN.

See the spectacular ghostly figure of the Veiled Lady, under brilliant electric flood lights in all the colors of the rainbow, many thrills, masses of formations, weird passages and chambers. Free park and picnic grounds, open day and night. It is only 8 miles east of Centre Hall.
