For many years Mr. Mensch conducted a livery barn in Millheim but the advent of the automobile put an end to that business and for some time past he had lived a retired life. He was a member of St. John's Lutheran church at Millheim and the lodge of Odd Fellows.

He was twice married and is survived by his second wife, whose maiden name was Miss Della Boyer, and the following children: Charles, of Lewisburg; Mrs. George Musser, of Lewisport; Harry E., of Milton; Fred C., of Millheim, and Miss Margaret, at home.

Funeral services were held at his late home, on Tuesday afternoon of last week, by Rev. L. V. Leshner, burial being made in the Fairview cemetery, Millheim.

KREAMER—John Luther Kreamer, a veteran of the Civil war, died at his home at Woodward on July 1st, of diseases incident to his advanced age.

He was a son of Samuel and Anna Hess Kreamer and was born at Woodward on September 5th, 1839, hence was 90 years, 9 months and 26 days old. During the Civil war he served in Company D, 148th regiment, under Gen. James A. Beaver. Returning home he engaged in farming, an occupation he followed until his retirement to private life.

His wife, who prior to her marriage was Miss Catherine Hess, died some years ago, but surviving him are two children, Mrs. Annie M. Guisevite, of Woodward, and Charles W. Kreamer, of Pottstown. He also leaves one brother, Samuel Kreamer, of Woodward.

RICHELIEU PRESENTS "THE TEXAN" NEXT WEEK.

What one of the best beloved of American authors put into words, Paramount, with Gary Cooper in the leading role, has put into a life-like, talking picture, "The Texan" which will be presented at the Richelieu Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week, is taken from O'Henry's immortal story, "A double-dyed Deceiver," and is the second of the spectacular, outdoor talking epics which Paramount initiated with "The Virginian."

"The Texan" comes in at a gallop and gallops his way straight into the heart of the audience. He's gay, debonair, swaggering, the same Cooper who won hearts in "Wolf Song," "Seven Days Leave," "Legion of the Condemned" and, more recently and particularly, "The Virginian." Here he makes love to beautiful Fay Wray, who is devastating as a South American senorita.
