Terms of Subscription.—Until further notice at the following rates: Paid strictly in advance - $1.50
Paid before expiration of year - 1.75
Paid after expiration of year - 2.00 Published weekly, every Friday morning. Entered at the postoffice, Bellefonte, Pa. as second class matter.

In ordering change of address always give the old as well as the new address. It is important that the publisher be notified when a subscriber wishes the paper discontinued. In all such cases the subscription must be paid up to date of cancellation.

A sample copy of the "Watchman" will be sent without cost to applicants.

Democratic State Ticket.

For United States Senator SEDGWICK KISTLER of Clinton County For Governor
JOHN M. HEMPHILL of Chester County
For Lieutenant Governor
GUY K. BARD
Lancaster County For Secretary of Internal Affairs.
LUCY D. WINSTON of Cumberland County Judge of Supreme Court HENRY C. NILES For Judges Superior Court AARON E. REIBER of Butler County GEORGE F. DOUGLAS of Philadelphia

Democratic District and County

Ticket. For Representative in Congress MAXWELL J. MOORE of M'Kean County

RAILROAD CASES LISTED FOR SEPTEMBER COURT.

in trespass against the New York and the P. R. R. relief association. they hope to give a bigger and bet-Central and Hudson River Railroad Co., and the Pennsylvania Railroad caused by fire. The New York three cases and the Pennsylvania in and Harry Thompson, of Brownsville; fourteen cases. Most of the claims Joseph and Homer, of Bellefonte. Rush township. list:

Ralph A. Smith vs. The New York Central and Hudson River Railroad Co. Kato Coal Co. vs. The New York Central and Hudson River Railroad Co.

Railroad Co. Kato Coal Co. vs. The Pennsylvania

Railroad Co. Ralph A. Smith vs. The New York Central and Hudson River Railroad Co.

George W. Eaton vs. The Pennsylvania Railroad Co. nia Co.

M. K. Bowes, T. M. Kunes, Harry Kunes, William S. Kunes, S. C. Kunes vs. The Pennsylvania Railroad Co.

Fred W Bechdel vs. The Pennsylvania Railroad Co. Curtis E. Bechdel vs. The Pennsylvania Railroad Co. Sarah Spangler, Irvin Spangler, Mary Spangler, Essie Spangler vs. The Pennsylvania Railroad Co. Hayes A. Pletcher vs. The Pennsylvania Railroad Co.

Mary Kunes vs. The Pennsylvania Railroad Co. J. Farris Clark and Olive Hoover vs.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Co. H. C. Kessinger vs. The Pennsylvania Railroad Co. Thomas J. Bechdel vs. The Pennsylvania Railroad Co. Mary M. Packer, William H. Packer, Marlin S. Packer, Crider Clark and Celia Packer, vs. The Pennsylvania Railroad Co.

George Miller vs. D. P. Brink. Polydoros Baroutsis, also written Paul Baroutsis, vs. George M. Gregory. E. Miles vs. The Borough Milesburg.

Minnie Askey vs. The First National Bank of Osceola Mills.

SPRING TWP. SCHOOLS TO OPEN SEPTEMBER 8.

as follows.

termediate, Ethel Noll; 2nd intermediate, Dorothy Stitzer. Axe Mann-Grammar, Margaret Smeltzer; primary, Celia Smoyer. Coleville-Grammar, Myra Boone; inter-

Bush Addition-Grammar, Bertha Wolfe; primary, Charity Confer.

Yocum-Grammar, Joyce Carey; primary, Mary Mae Peters. Halfmoon Hill-Helen Brown. Fishing Creek-Clara Dunkle. Oak Grove-Wilbur Dunkle. Horntown- Edith Hile. Gentzel-Franklin Hoy.

pany had an exhibition in their big honor guest was Miss Ellen Whitmer, show window, Friday evening, that who is here from Philadelphia visit- new camp of the Reformed church, the proprietors probably don't know ing with her sister, Mrs. John G. anything about. It was a two-thirds Love Jr. Following the game, the midway between Alburtus and Barto, grown mouse making a feast on the fifteen young women were guests dead flies in the window. Quite a of Miss Love for tea at the Talley- The camp is to be conducted by the number of people stopped outside the rand. window to watch the mouse, which scampered about until it had eaten Centre county is now down to rock and religious outdoor activities of heim, a student nurse, became a all the flies then took it's departure. bottom.

GATES.-Mrs. Nancy E. Gates, UNDINE FIRE CO'S FAIR widow of Issac A. Gates, died last Thursday, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. M. J. Ross, at Bedford, following an illness of some weeks with a complication of diseases.

She was a daughter of Samuel and Mary Gates Ellenberger and was born at Gatesburg, Centre county, on July 1st, 1854, hence was a little past 76 years of age. In 1877 she married Mr. Gates and the early part of her married life was spent in portion in Blair county. During the past three years she had made her home with her daughter, at Bedford. She was a member of the ter deserves special notice. It was First English Lutheran church, at Tyrone.

Her husband died in February, 1925, but surviving her are two ture that the fire boys were induced and discharged on Tuesday. sons and one daughter, Wilson S. to go to DuBois on the occasion of Gates, of Tyrone; Isaac. of Harris- the annual convention of the Cenburg, and Mrs. Ross, of Bedford. One son, John Gates, died on board where they won first prize. It is tient on Monday of last week and ship while enroute to France during the World war. She also leaves one brother, Prof. I. C. M. Ellenberger, fonte parade, and the boys are now of Venice, Florida. The body was taken to Tyrone where funeral services were held on Sunday afternoon, after which the remains were taken to Gatesburg for burial.

tre County hospital, at one o'clock on Wednesday morning. For more night the crowd was so large it was than two years he had been a sufferer with high blood pressure and ment at the hospital for several

He was a son of Robert W. and For State Senator
DON GINGERY
of Clearfield County

For Representative in General Assembly
JOHN G. MILLER of Ferguson Township.

Thompson and was born at Axe Mann on September 19th, 1866, hence was not quite 64 years old. As a young man he secured a job as fireman on the Pennsylvania job as fireman on the Pennsylvania tend their thanks to the people of railroad and was eventually promot- Bellefonte and Centre county for Tuesday of last week. ed to an engineer. For many years their hearty support and cooperation. he was in charge of the regular shifter in the Bellefonte yards. He this year, as evidenced by the libtrial at the September term of was a member of the Methodist eral patronage, they are already

In 1889 he married Miss Caroline Etters who survives with two chil-Co. to recover alleged damages dren, Mrs. Frank Jamison and Robert M. Thompson of Waynesburg. Central has been made defendant in He also leaves four brothers John Funeral services will be held at Liberty township, with several from his late home on north Spring street, have an exhibition at the Grange Following is the at two o'clock this afternoon, by fair next week, of from three to four Rev. Horace Lincoln Jacobs, burial to be made in the Union cemetery ..

KEELER.-Following an illness of some weeks with a complication of Tuesday. Isaac F. Heaton and Mary C. Heaton, diseases William Keeler died at his in 1871, hence was past 59 years of age. He married Miss Julia Ann Houtz, who survives with the following children; Clair and Paul, or Bellefonte, and Barbara, at home. He also leaves two brothers and a Hugh N. Crider vs. The Pennsylva- sister, John and Harry of Bellefonte, and Mrs. Newton Haupt, of Harris-James A. Kunes, Percy Kunes, Mrs. burg. The tuneral was need yesterday afternoon, burial being made in the Union cemetery.

REV. WILSON P. ARD TRAINING IN TEXAS.

From the Denver. Col., Post of recent date we clipped the following concerning one in whom many Watchman readers are interested:

One Denver minister is combining his annual summer vacation with military training. He is the Rev. six boys ranging in age from two Wilson P. Ard, pastor of the Mestor to thirteen years, was instantly killsiah English Lutheran church, east Colfax avenue and Elizabeth street.

Dr. Ard is one of Uncle Sam's training camp students this month at Fort Sam Houston, Tex., attached to the 328th Medical regiment as captain chaplain. This is his third camps since the end of the World

During the war Dr. Ard served as recreational director and chaplain in the training camps in the east. He will return to Denver and his pulpit this month.

-J. T. Leathers, of State College, is making ready to capitalize The Spring township school board the building of the new United has decided on Monday, September States penitentiary in Union county. 8th, as the date for the opening of He has purchased the Joseph Ikeler the public schools in that district. farm of fifty acres, lying adjacent Teachers for the school year will be to the proposed penitentiary site and will lay it out in a town to be Pleasant Gap-High school, James L. known as Ikeler Park. Anticipating Ritter; grammar, H. E. Breon; 1st in- the probable demand for a place to eat work has already been started on the construction of a restaurant and gas filling station, two places that will doubtless be in demediate, Ivan Laird; primary, Bella mand as soon as work starts in connection with the new prison.

-Mrs. David Dale was hostess at ing two weeks. At the afternoon golf party, given by Miss Katherine Love on the here. The Bellefonte Hardware com. miniature golf course Monday, the

The matrimonial market in BIG FINANCIAL SUCCESS.

The street fair of the Undine Fire company, held three evenings last week, broke all previous records in time, was discharged on Monday of point of attendance and financial last week. returns. When all the bills have been paid the company will realize between $1800 and $2000.

The fair opened at eight o'clock on Wednesday evening and was preceded by a big street parade which Monday of last week. Centre county and the latter was led by Wetzler's Boys band and included both fire companies of College, was admitted on Monday as Bellefonte and the Darktown fire a surgical patient and discharged the brigade, of State College. The lat- following day. originated for State College's big display on the Fourth of July. It Rishel, of Millheim, was admitted then proved such an attractive featral Pennsylvania district firemen, Linden Hall, became a surgical paneedless to say that it was one of was discharged the following day. the leading features of the Belle-the State firemen's convention. Recurring to the fair, however, the three free shows, the music of Monday of last week. Wetzler's band and various attraccouldn't resist. Because of rain, the THOMPSON .- Claude D. Thomp- fair was closed on Thursday evening. received the same day while in the son, of Bellefonte, died at the Cen- There was a good attendance on employ of the Ross Construction Co., Friday evening while Saturday on the Waddle road. almost impossible to move around.

diabetes, and had been under treat- car was given away, Saturday night. L. Frank Mayes was in charge and the lucky winner was Clayton Ripka, an employee of the Clark Mary J. Thompson and was born garage, at State College, agents for of an infant son, born in the hospiat Axe Mann on September 19th, the car. The winning ticket was tal on Tuesday of last week.

No. 8940. Members of the fire company ex-Having made a success of the fair court seventeen of them are actions church, the Bellefonte Lodge of Elks looking ahead to next year when ter program than that of last week.

RABBIT EXHIBITION AT THE GRANGE FAIR.

Officials of the Central Pennsylvania Rabbit and Cavy Breeders' association are confident that they will hundred specimens. For the information of exhibitors they say:

All exhibits should arrive on the grounds Monday, or before 10 a.m.

Isaac F. Heaton and Mary C. Heaton, diseases william to the first should arrive on the control of the debt fund. his wife, vs. The Pennsylvania Rail- home, on Halfmoon hill, on Monday. turned Friday morning. Local ex-He was a son of Wallace and Fietta hibitors may remove their exhibits Wednesday of last week for surgi-Keeler and was born in Bellefonte after 9 p. m. Thursday. All ex- cal treatment and discharged the elers welcome press shipments to Centre Hall must | following Friday. be prepaid.

The show will be housed in a large tent near the Midway, and tin township, was admitted on Wednot in the poultry building, as last nesday of last week for surgical

A slight hitch in the A. R. and C. association rules necessitated change in judges, and Albert E. Facey, of Valley Stream, Long Island, will be on hand to place the exhibits and award prizes.

If you are a breeder of rabbits don't fail to be present at the fair with an exhibit of your best speci-

MOTHER OF SIX BOYS KILLED BY OWN SON.

Mrs. John Hamilton, mother of ed on Saturday afternoon, at her home at Boynton, near Philipsburg, when a double_barrelled shot gun was accidentally discharged by her eight year old son, David, the bullet penetrating her abdomen. The year of training at that post and gun was a present to Clifford Hamhis fifth in the summer training ilton, the eldest son, from his gun was a present to Clifford Hamgrandfather, John D. James. The boy had just taken the gun home charged on Friday. and was showing it to his parents and brothers. David thoughtlessly pulled the trigger just as the mother stepped in front of the muzzle. Coroner W. R. Heaton held an inquest and the jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

In addition to her six boys Mrs. Hamilton is survived by her husband, her father, one sister and two brothers. Her funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon, burial being made in the Umbria cemetery, at Osceola Mills.

BISHOP DARLINGTON DIED LAST THURSDAY.

Bishop James Henry Darlington, of the Harrisburg diocese of the Protestant Episcopal church, died in the hospital at Kingston, N. Y., last Thursday, following an operation some days previous for intestinal bridge luncheon, given at the trouble. He was 65 years old and gical patient. Nittany country club Tuesday, in had been bishop of the Harrisburg compliment to Miss Bertha Laurie, diocese since April, 1905: The Bishop who is here from New York, spend- was well known to members of the Episcopal church of Bellefonte through his various official visits

> On Sunday August 24, the which is located at Mensch Mill, in Berks county, will be dedicated. board of christian education of the Reformed church and it is planned dergoing surgical treatment. to make it the center of the social

PATIENTS TREATED AT AT COUNTY HOSPITAL

Oscar Fisher, of Wingate, who underwent surgical treatment for some

John Alvin Baum, of Bellefonte, who had been a medical patient, was discharged on Monday of last week. Mrs. Irving Boerlin and infant son, of State College, were discharged on

Miss Blanche L. Wieland, of State

Frances Rishel, seven_vear-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul B. on Monday for surgical treatment

Dan, eleven_year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William McClintick, of Lucian G. Snyder, of Spring Mills

R. F. D., was admitted as a surgical considering going to Allentown for patient on Monday of last week. Lucy N. Watson, of Boggs township, became a surgical patient on

William Fair Jr., of Philadelphia, tions were drawing cards the public became a surgical patient on Monday of last week, following injuries

Dorothy L. Best, of Bellefonte, a student nurse at the hospital, be-

Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Williams, of State College, are the proud parents

Linwood Heath, of State College, who had been a surgical patient Murphy campaign was so long ago for sometime, was discharged on Alfred Furl, of Runville, who underwent surgical treatment, was discharged on Tuesday of last week. Grace, one-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nevin Hoy, of Marion township, was discharged on Tuesday of last week after undergoing surgical treatment. Mrs. Pearl Chilcoat, of Benner day of last week for surgical treatment.

on Wednesday of last week. Lee, eight-year-old son of Mrs. Leona Fink, of Taylor township, was admitted on Wednesday of last week for surgical treatment and discharged on Thursday. All exhibits should arrive on the Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Miller, of with official board, final report of > Floyd D., eight-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Miller, of Curtreatment and discharged Friday.

> Shoe, became a surgical patient on Wednesday of last week and was discharged the same day. Florence Catherman, of Milesburg.

> became a medical patient on Wednesday of last week. Violet L. Catherman, of Milesburg, entered the hospital on Wednesday of last week for medical treatment. Mary E. Shuey, of Bellefonte R.

F.D., a student nurse, was admitted on Wednesday of last week for medical treatment and discharged on Sunday. Miss Anna Duracko, of Clarence, was admitted last Thursday for medical treatment. Miss Caroline Downing, of Bellefonte, was admitted last Thursday for medical treatment and discharged on Saturday. Helen Rossman, of Pennsylvania Furnace, was admitted last Thursday as a surgical patient and dis-Miss Glenna Thomas, of Howard township, was discharged on Friday after having been a surgical patient.

Mrs. Guy Moyer, of Pleasant Gap, was admitted on Friday as a surgical patient and discharged on Saturday.

Mrs. George Ishler and infant son, of Bellefonte, were discharged on Friday. Miss Ardus Blair, of Halfmoon township, was admitted on Saturday for surgical treatment and discharged the same day.

A. H. Hartswick, of Penn township, became a surgical patient on Saturday and was discharged the same day.

John Cook, of Broad Top, was discharged on Saturday after undergoing surgical treatment. Orvis Horner, of Potter township, was admitted on Saturday as a sur-Miss Leona M. Kaup, of Avelon, was admitted on Saturday for surgical treatment and discharged the following day. Miss Alice Baumbarger, of Wingate, was admitted on Saturday for surgical treatment and discharged on Sunday.

Mrs. F. B. Tate, of Ferguson township, was discharged on Sunday after undergoing surgical treatment for some time.

Elmer G. Watson, of Snow Shoe, was discharged on Sunday after un-

Miss Dorothy Whitecar, of Millthe church in eastern Pennsylvania. surgical patient on Sunday.

The Undine Fire Co.

Expressing our appreciation to the public for the splendid support given our Fair.

WE THANK YOU

This column is to be an open forum. Everybody is invited to make use of it to express whatever opinion they may have on any subject. Nothing libelous will be published, though we will give the public the widest latitude in invective when the subject is this paper or its editor. Contributions will be signed or initialed, as the contributor may desire.—ED.

When Harry Went Dry.

No wonder I am dry! I see by the esteemed Watchman that it is times when practically everybody in these lines were drinkers. Is it any wonder I am dry now? I did not realize that the Francis until I saw reference to it in the Fifty Years Ago column in the Watchman last week—for the week of August 13, 1880. How tempus

Regards to all friends-especially members of the Bellefonte High

IN BELLEFONTE CHURCHES.

township, was admitted on Wednes- BELLEFONTE METHODIST CHURCH 9:30 a. m., church Bible school, C. C. Shuey, superintendent; supreme Mrs. Herbert McKinley, of State subject for study. Special feature, College, was admitted for treatment two young people from Institute

6:30 p. m., League, Mrs. Samuel Tressler, leader; timely topic. 10:45 a. m., worship, with special exposition. Junior chorus. 7:30 pleading preaching. Mid-week, Wed-Tuesday, class. Monday, nesday. Johnny, twelve-year-old son of Aug. 25, special meeting of members

> Last Sunday the morning congre- fire. gation and many visitors heard a well interpreted solo of the Twentythird Psalm, which Mrs. Esther

Johnson Hollabaugh sang. That afternoon the pastor baptized children of three families. One young woman was received into church Miss Nanna Watson, of Snow

The Brotherhood had a very delightful meeting at Snow Shoe park Thursday evening. All eats were Three new members were elected. The business was varied especially the proceedings that covered plans for advance activities of the members.

Horace Lincoln Jacobs. Pastor.

day evening will be held in the Evangelical church. The Rev. William E. Yingling, of Howard, will be the preacher. Special music by the male chorus.

ST. JOHN'S LUTHERAN CHURCH. 9:30 A. M., Sunday school.

"The Refusal of God's Grace." mon: 7:30 P. M., We unite in the community service in the Evangelical

Clarence E. Arnold, Pastor

tended a family reunion, at Lamar, on Sunday.

John Robb went up to Altoona, Saturday, on a short visit with Gilbert Cole.

Claude Crispin, of Bradford, and a two week's outing.

from Milesburg, on Saturday, where the Citizens' band. Proceeds will she had been taking care of her sis-

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rote and Miss Ann Love motored to Lewistown, Sunday, to visit their aunt, Mrs. Charles McVaugh, who has been in ill health for two months.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Stover, of Cleveland, Ohio, and Beryl Stover, who has been under treatment at the Danville State hospital, are visiting their mother, Mrs. Kate Stover,

PINE GROVE MENTIONS.

Charles Gates and wife, of Tyrone. were Sunday visitors in town. Miss Mary Baker, of Chester, is visiting Centre county friends. A ten pound daughter arrived at the Russell Eyer home on August

George C. Meyers, of State College, tranacted business in town last Warren Bailey and wife, of Saxton, were here for the Baileyville picnic.

Rev. Samuel B. Brown, of Graysville is away on his two week's vacation.

James Kline and wife spent Sunday at the Kline parental home, at McClure. Mr. and Mrs. Martin Fry have returned from spending two weeks at Lancaster. Rev. Shultz filled the pulpit in the Gatesburg Lutheran church on Sunday morning. A. J. Musser and wife motored in from Indiana, Pa., on Sunday, to see Dr. R. M. Krebs.

H. N. Koch and wife and J. I. Taylor and wife are up in Maine for a two weeks' outing. Clarence Dearmit and wife, of State College, were callers in town on Sunday afternoon. Don't overlook the annual Harvest Home picnic which will be held in Holmes' grove tomorrow. Dr. Harry Archey, of Plymouth, Pa., is spending his vacation angling for pike on Spruce Creek. A number of young ladies of this place are spending two weeks in camp, in Huntingdon county. Mrs. Mary Johnson left, on Monday, for a two week's visit with friends in the Buckeye State. E. C. Musser and wife, of Bellefonte, were Monday evening visitors at the E. C. Musser home here. Rev. J. F. Harkins and family have returned from their vacation, which was spent at Blaine. Pa., After spending a week with friends here Mrs. Viola Fluke has returned to her home at Barto, Berks county. Emory Johnson and family motored in from Niles, Ohio, last week

No definite plans have yet been made for rebuilding the Pine Hall school house, recently destroyed by Prof. S. C. Miller and wife, of Chester, are spending their vacation for a summer outing at his old home.

at Camp Monroe, in the Seven mountains. Mr. and Mrs. David Baney, of Warriorsmark, were callers with old friends in town the latter end of the week. Miss Hunter, of Fort Wayne, Ind., a sister of Riley Hunter, of State College, is visiting Centre county friends.

Joe Heberling, of Salona, for many years a section foreman on the Lewisburg and Tyrone railroad, has been here visiting old friends.

Samuel Hess Tate and wife, of Lewistown, are here arranging to occupy a tent at Grange park, next. week, with Mrs. Mary Meyers. Mr. and Mrs. William Cummings.

of Winchester. Va., were here, Sunday, visiting Wilbur Cummings, who is suffering with a stroke of paral-A collision occurred between the cars of John Rudy and George Barto, on the Tadpole road, Monday evening. Nobody was hurt but both cars slightly damaged. Dr. E. R. Harper, of Philadelphia, and Leslie Harper, of Harrisburg, are spending some time with their father, George Harper, whose health is not very good.

Scouts, last week. Harold Martz, accidentally stepped in the camp fire, burning both feet and legs. Dr. Woods rendered medical aid. C. M. Fry, of Altoona, is recovering from an attack of pleuro-pneumonia, but it will be some time before he will be able to go back on his job as an engineer on the P. R. R.

While in camp with the Boy her home, at State College, with illness, and has been unable to give Mr. and Mrs. John Ramish at- much attention to her work as secretary of the Grange fair association: The Baileyville picnic brought out a large crowd, on Saturday, many old-timers being there from distant States. William Tressler, of Belle-

Mrs. John S. Dale is confined to Ending their two weeks camp in Mrs. Samuel Miller is over at the Tussey mountains W. W. Keller Lewistown for a few week's visit and family returned to Pittsburgh. with her sister, and son, Howard Saturday. J. Milton Keller and wife. also of Pittsburgh, are now here for

The Baileyville Sunday school will Miss Ethel Stover spent Saturday The Baileyville Sunday school will afternoon with friends in Lock hold a lawn social and festival at the church Saturday evening, August 30th. Music will be furnished be devoted to the installation of a new light plant in the church.

Communion services will be held in the Methodist Episcopal church, Pine Grove Mills, Sabbath evening, August 24th. at 7:30 o'clock. Rev. M. C. Piper, of Milesburg, will be present and bring the message. Come and enjoy this helpful service with You are welcome.

-Subscribe for the Watchman.

us.

Johnstown, Pa., Aug. 12, '30. Dear Petev:

50 years since I signed the pledge to abstain from intoxicating liquor under the spell of that eminent world_famous Irish orator, Francis Murphy. And what is more to A new American made Austin came a medical patient on Monday the point I have kept that pledge car was given away, Saturday night. of last week and was discharged on to this day, despite the fact that I spent several years in the newspaper business and more of them in advertising, part of these periods at does fugit!

School class of '89. HARRY ULMER TIBBENS speaking.

fellowship.

UNION SERVICES. The union church service on Sun-

10:45 A. M., Morning service; Ser.

The new building for the school of mineral industries at the Pennsylvania State College having been completed the old frame structure that has been used to house the mining department for thirty years is being demolished. It stood on College avenue, west of the main entrance to the campus, and has been an eye-sore that every one will be glad to have removed.

COLEVILLE.

Edmund Thomas, of Indianapolis, fonte, 88 years old, was the patriarch Ind., is here for a visit with his par- in attendance. ents, Mr. and Mrs. George Thomas. Miller.

Miss Esther King returned home

ter, Mrs. Howard Gray.