

INK SLINGS

-In two days the r that said good-bye to us last April will be back on the calendar.

____If anything worries you tell your troubles to Hoover. He might appoint a commission to investigate.

It is only just to protest that State College doesn't teach the form of sociology and psychology that Professor Bamford practices.

-It may be assumed that the negotiations between Mr. Pinchot and Mr. Vare have failed and Sam in other directions.

present campaign in Pennsylvania, and that is the prohibition question. On all other subjects the people of all parties are agreed.

-Crime cost Centre county $75,-000.00 last year. In 1911 it cost $13,500.00. There is something wrong. very radically wrong. Something that calls every good citizen to take cognizance of where we are drifting.

here. Then summer will be over of 60,000 legally qualified voters be number of elements to be considerand what a summer it has been. In thrown out was absurd. history it will probably be notable draining the entire U. S. A.

ly to the fact that many parents by law. Legal acts are not stopping his election inevitable. crime. Teaching morality by the fireside at home will.

out their notices and farmers who for disqualifying voters unless frauds have no potatoes to sell, little hay were intended or perpetrated. The in their barns to feed their cattle election laws of Ponnsylvania proover winter, no prospect of corn to vide for the recounting of ballots in in part attributable to that fact. his superior fitness or personal popfeed their pigs or grind into chop the event fraud is charged and for the But it is absolutely certain that the ularity. It was rather a popular De sell them out for not immediately paying taxes that Providence has denied them the means with which denied them the means with which ballots for the alleged purpose or prohibition laws, not in the interest corporate magnates affiliated with out of luck and Senator Scott and fault it was no grave crime. the Hon. Holmes voted to load the dice against them.

But Sometimes, What's the Use.

Just around every corner in a country printing office there is always something. At times those who try to keep the wheels going round become so discouraged that they feel like chucking a wrench inbeer and skittles.

here by bus at 2:40. At 4:20, or West Virginia, is the top-notcher. just one hour and forty minutes la- Jones is about as well qualified for erable proportions.

the Watchman." the major portion of the mails had had not yet been taken to the postoffice. When she told us she was in Centre Hall and had tomorrow's Watchman in her hand, for a moment we went goofy. It seemed impossible, but it was the fact because how else could she have known that there was a stove ad-

To make a long story short she came over to Bellefonte that evening, looked at the stove, bought it and was home fifteen hours before the paper was delivered to its Bellefonte readers. And the lady is not. a subscriber to the Watchman, eithvertised in it.

That, we should say, is a record for rapid selling by means of a newspaper advertisement. Advertising does pay.

We stopped at the First National bank, on Friday morning, and had the lady's check cashed. When we came out we met Wesley on the street and he "touched" us for the money so that he might buy stock enough for the stand he is running at the Granger's picnic this week.

We have always believed that advertising does pay, but in the case of the stove: What if it did? What was the use?

STATE RIGHTS AND FEDERAL UNION.

BELLEFONTE, PA., AUGUST 29, 1930. VOL. 75.

NO. 34.

Pinchot's Nomination Confirmed,

It is not easy to analyze the that. To our mind it is due large- Pinchot. It would have aroused think that morality can be taught not too saintly forester and made

The Supreme court of Pennsylva- fund. nia has frequently ruled that mark--Tax collectors are now sending ing ballots is not sufficient reason

The lost has been found. Colonel Eric Fisher Wood was seen Does Advertising Pay? It Does! in Harrisburg, the other day. This revives hope that the miscreant who championship may be in doubt, but vocates the election of the latter it covered.

Price of Senate Seats Increasing.

The vicious practice of buying to the machinery and walking out. Senatorial nominations has now ex-At others so many heartening things | tended to West Virginia. At the rebob up that one feels that life is all cent primary in that State James Last Thursday was one of the fortune estimated at $75,000,000, aclatter days in the Watchman office. quired the Republican nomination Machinery ran without a stop and for United States Senator at the the relief from mechanical troubles alleged cost of $1,000,000. This is with a bulging treasury, the wisewas accentuated by a number of the record price thus far. Mr. New- men determined to cut the income of the government in its time-honwas accentuated by a number of the record price thus far. In the pleasant little notes from readers. berry, of Michigan, started the bid- tax one per cent on all schedules. ored functions," he asks, "if it is his column. It was a hopeful day, indeed, but ding some years ago at approximately It seemed a perfectly feasible way to become a business efficiency or the real thrill came just at its close. $190,000. Vare and Pepper ad-The paper last week carried a vanced the price to a trifle short of that receipts have fallen off to a small advertisement for a cook seven figures. The amount spent by startling extent there is imminent gan in 1928 when President Coolidge stove that was for sale. Our and for Mrs. McCormick, of Illinois, mail to Penns Valley points left has not been revealed but Jones, of vious level will be necessary in or-ter, this office received a call from service in the United States Senate Centre Hall. The lady at the other as Scar-faced Al. Capone is fitted end of the line wanted to make inend of the line wanted to make inquiry "about a stove advertised in with the invention of the "yellow dog of the same period last year, notleading statement was triffing comin New York some days ago to in the past. It was testified the prisoner contract," has acquired great wealth withstanding an increase of $3.343,- pared with the result of the orwatchinan.

We were non-plussed. We couldn't by enslaving the coal miners of 256.77 in the tax on cigarettes. But ganized propaganda of the Hoover ad while prison life might imperil his such an advertisement in the Watch- pioneer operator. But ambition is that is disturbing the treasury of- street debacle Mr. Hoover assured little excitement. West Virginia, where he became a man because the press was still run- not a flower of intellectual achieve- ficials. It can be plausibly, if not the people that there was no danning down in the press room and ment. A cat may look at a queen truthfully, explained by inauspicious ger to the industrial life of the and the possessor of $75,000,000 may conditions which have obtained for country and had the Secretary of aspire to any office within the gift some time. But the custom receipts the Treasury, the Secretary of aspire to any office within the gift some time. But the custom receipts the Treasury, the Secretary of galluses up or down. Speeches of a careless electorate. So Jones for the period since the approval of Commerce and the Secretary of La-about dress reform are about as rolled into the Senatorial race on his the Grundy tariff bill have fallen off bor issue encouraging predictions stimulating as speeches about sell"bar'l" and emerged with a certifi. approximately $40,000,000. That cut with the result that what might the people of the State.

a few weeks, for the reason that his science of government as an unborn Labor, now the Republican candi-Vare, of Pennsylvania, were reject-ed. But Jones is not abashed by the "with returning normal conditions Commenting every kind. Besides he imagines But Mr. Hoover, anxious to promote It is certain the Republicans will tion he is greatly perturbed. need votes in the next Senate.

of the present campaign.

Wickersham's Law Enforcement.

In an address before the American state of mind which influenced Fran- Bar association, in session in Chica- have determined to place John M. Lewis is now heading his activities cis Shunk Brown to challenge the go, the other day, Mr. George W. Hemphill on their ticket as the sinnomination of Gifford Pinchot by the Wickersham, chairman of President gle representative of their politi-Republicans of Pennsylvania on the Hoover's National Commission on cal philosophy may have meant well There is only one issue in the ground that most of the ballots Law Observance and Enforcement, but they have not acted wisely. by the Demograts of Pennsylvania Schrader, 19, of Pittsburgh, has anvoted in Luzerne county had been availed himself of the opportunity They will not get the full reward and the party adopted a platform nounced her willingness to marry a perforated under order of the com- to cast a reflection upon Senator of their enterprise. The election of covering the wet and dry issue man "of almost any background, 35 or mon pleas court of that county. If Glass, of Virginia, because of his Mr. Hemphill will be practically which has been broadcast through- under, of good character and good there had been suspicion that the attempt to curtail the operations of made certain and the fact that out this and other States in plain health" who will pay her $8000 in cash. Her family is heavily in debt and neither marking of the ballots had been the Commission to prohibition endone for the purpose of committing forcement. He quoted from President Pennsylvania will stand revealed. have emphatically declared themfraud, such a contest would have Hoover's statement that only thirty But the main purpose of their orbeen justified. But there was no per cent of federal prisoners are in ganization and effort, which is to allegation of fraud, and so far as custody for violation of the Volstead eliminate the evils of National prothe public had been informed no law, and added that "a baranced hibition, will not be greatly adsuspicion of fraud. In the circum- inquiry into the problem would con- vanced. It may be positively re-—In twenty-three days fall will be stances the demand that the ballots sider prohibition as one only of a tarded.

ed." The Supreme court of Pennsylva- But as a matter of fact Senator for one or two things. According nia is a partisan tribunal and its Glass simply wanted to limit the to John Collins, Democratic State record in recent years justifies a Commission to the purposes for of public confidence. The Demoto John Collins, Democratic State record in recent years justiced in the county jail, chairman, it ought to be remember. Suspicion that it is sometimes in- which it was created. In his speech cratic candidate, Sedgwick Kistler, States Senate. He never fooled his at Warren, last Thursday, Frank Mced as the summer in which our fluenced by political exigencies. In accepting the Republican nomination great President finished his super reversing a lower Philadelphia court for President Mr. Hoover declared herculean task of ditching and in order to help the Brown faction that prohibition enforcement was "a of the party to control the . party noble experiment," and in the event State committee, a few weeks ago, of his election he would appoint a -The high cost of crime in Cen- it revealed an unfriendly attitude Commission of distinguished gentletre county is something for serious toward Mr. Pinchot. But the mem- men to investigate and devise methminded people to think about. The bers of the court, being reasonably ods for making it successful. With startling revelation to be found in intelligent men, certainly knew that this understanding of the subject an article on page 8 of this issue is a decision in favor of the Brown Congress authorized the Commission something that can't be laughed contention in the case in point and appropriated a considerable sum off. It is too serious a matter for would not help Brown nor harm of money to finance its operations. At the end of about a year, noth. popular resentment, martyrized the ing having been accomplished except spending the money, Senator indifference between these candi-Glass objected to renewing the dates.

federal courts and it may be assum. dates for Senator. Mr. Davis was of the Republican party and to pro- much influence. mote the campaign for the re-election of Mr. Hoover.

highest level in campaign expenses, it into existence.

Worries of the Administration,

According to press dispatches from Washington the administration and the Republican leaders at the capital Elwood Jones, coal magnate with a are much worried over the decrease in revenue receipts since the Grundy tariff law became operative. After the Wall street debacle of last fall. flanger that an increase to the pre- declared that "the billion dollar inder to avert a deficiency of consid- ural expansion not large enough to internal revenue collection fell off the disastrous panic of last fall. $5,030,823.27, as compared with that But the evil effect of that misthis slump does not cause the worry ministration. Following the Wall cate of nomination, to the shame of in the revenues within a period of have been a temporary disturbance the hilt now.

One thing that has accounted for have developed into a long drawn one thing that has accounted for sixty days is alarming. Senate. But Smith, of Illinois, and law would cause a return of pros- about the matter but Mellon and $75,000.000 will move mountains or an engineering mind would have seen such a crisis as let Newberry in may his chances for re-election, accepted work the same result for him at this "fool's advice" and now that the the beginning of the next Congress. truth is forcing itself on his atten-

---Gifford Pinchot was the first -The election of a Bayard to candidate for office in Pennsylvania trend, prediction has always heretothe Senate by the voters of Dela- to spend an enormous amount of rather recklessly.

Well Meant, Probably, but Unwise.

The Liberal party leaders who

The Republican nominee for United States Senator, Secretary of Labor Davis is a bone-dry prohibition-ist or an "artful dodger," unworthy render valuable service to the cause. of every day in the year, The Republican candidate for Justice of the Supreme court, Judge Maxey, is a straddler, while the Democratic nominee, Judge Henry advocate of the repeal of the Eighteenth amendment, the Volstead act of Congress and the Snyder act of Assembly. Yet the action

There is no basis upon which to Everybody knows that there are analyze the attitude of the Liberal

---The winner of the tree-sitting favor of Judge Niles. Unless it ad-

Criticising Bad Practice.

rent issue of Harper's Mr. James confines of the State. Truslow Adams sharply criticises the President and members of his cabinet for habitually deceiving the public by falsely predicting improvements in industrial conditions. 'What is to become of the stability practice, Mr. Adams observes, because any unfavorable comment.' For the quarter ending in July the The result of that expression was has developed into a long drawn Senator Watson, of Indiana, who out and devastating industrial col-Commenting upon the criticism of misfortunes of pikers who own only our foreign trade will continue to Mr. Adams an esteemed contemporaa few millions. He reasons that expand." Of course any other than ry, friendly to the administration, crash barriers anywhere and of the absurdity of such a prediction. tion in official practice. Presidents were imposed on five Huntingdon and Treasury Secretaries long ago Treasury has had to review the mon- ber. ey and business situation in his official reports. But beyond a highly conservative study of the general fore been scrupulously avoided." But ware would be a gratifying incident money for nomination and election.. President Hoover, flattered into the belief that he is a superman, em--Mr. Pinchot is assuming the ploys this discreditable expedient to Chairman Fess' platitudes are functions of Governor rather pre-so heavy that they make the air maturely and promising services purposes. It is both dishonest and are bought. According to Quay, in his wife, and during the past year was reprehensible.

"Hypocrites."

From the Clearfield Republican. Worse than silly to yell "Hypocrites" at Sedgwick Kistler and John M. Hemphill, Democratic candidates for United States Senator and Governor. They were nominated from financial worries, Miss Gertrude the party platform and are repeating their adherence to that platform J. A. Rosenberger, of near Waynesboro, mind of anyone in the least ac- the State road and rides to and from quainted with Mr. Kistler where work, hitching the horse during the day in he stood on the Eighteenth amend- a vacant lot. When he went to feed the ment, the Volstead act and the animal at noon he found the buck stand-Snyder law long before his name ing beside the horse. The deer dashed was ever mentioned in connection into the woods. is in cordial sympathy with the platform of his party on the subbusiness or in politics. He is a man at suicide by standing in the flames ject and if elected will be able to of conviction and the courage there- until he was burned fatally. McKoon

Same is true of John M. Hemphill, who stands up boldly and courageously for repeal of the Eighteenth amendment, the Volstead himself at the time Mrs. Lindquist was C. Niles, of York, is an outspoken that the federal government restore their own police questions and that of the American Car & Foundry of the Liberal party leaders indicate tution of both State and Nation. In thus taking their stand and Hemphill are standing in honest defects in the machinery of the party with respect to the candi- and emphatic contrast with their opponents, James J. Davis, Repub. ed that the clogging of the courts and the cramming of the prisons is it can hardly be ascribed to either and the cramming of the prisons is it can hardly be ascribed to either ed Republican candidate for Gover-

Davis says he stands on the Kanfeed their pigs or grind into chop the event radius absolutely certain that the desire to defeat Grundy than to sas City platform, whatever that may to keep their dairy cows from causing the milk check to shrink monthing to promptly prosecute and honor Davis. But in the case of be construed as meaning today. He ing the mink check to shrink month.

It is in large measure responsible, and the contest for the Supreme court says nary a word about the Snyder missing. The victims were William Guysays nary a word about the Snyder missing. The victims were will all distributions were will all distributions with the says and the says nary a word about the Snyder missing. The victims were will all distributions were will

And Mr. Pinchot's dry record, what to pay. The farmers are certainly preventing fraud may have been a of prohibition but for the benefit the Liberal party have had too about it? Is it anything near like while the Liberal party has endorsed the candidacy of Mr. Kistler it has not taken a public stand in the liberal party has endorsed the candidacy of Mr. Kistler it has not taken a public stand in the liberal party has endorsed the candidacy of Mr. Kistler in the liberal party has endorsed the candidacy of Mr. Kistler in the liberal party has endorsed the liberal party h lowers claim. Anyway, Gifford Pinchot is not stressing the wet and dry question today as he did sight years ago who were not as are not as lower and dry question today as he did sight years ago who were not as are not as lower and his Moose work, was chosen directorgeneral. Davis has been leader of the organization since 1907. The Secretary of Labor will "struck Billy Patterson" may be dis_ any one who reasons and figures will not be giving its fullest sup- D. C., that the Pinchots are not as can see that Pinchot will attain the port to the cause which has brought dry as their boosters and blind folyears ago when he said he would close every saloon in Pennsylvania In an article published in the cur- and drive every bootlegger from the wet and dry controversy when asking for the votes of the people of her $7,529.64 for the death of her husthat section of the State. He just band. The case was the result of the wanted votes and did not care by what means they were recorded in mine when he, it was decided, died from Opponents and critics and Davis-Pinchot followers can call Sedgwick tersection. The claim was made against Kistler and John M. Hemphill any type of bad names they choose, but the one brand they cannot use and expect to stick is hypocrites.

Clothes and Parades.

From the Harrisburg Telegraph. ing blouses, a number of men met for which McClenahan had been jailed start a crusade against coats and is suffering from tuberculosis and that, luncheon and a parade. Both created health, he nevertheless needed to be to be herded or paraded, and he structions that he be kept on the prison will decide for himself what he farm. wants to wear, all the way from the rapid advancement of the Amercupy the seat he had purchased, for knows about as much concerning the lapse. Of course the Secretary of ican republic is the fact that so the line in allowing ourselves to be vote was necessary to give the Re- babe knows about aviation, assured date for United States Senator in herded into a crusade—whether for publican party a majority in the the President that the Grundy tariff Pennsylvania, didn't know anything setting up a Communistic government or wearing pajamas on the street.

> Jail sentences totaling 2495 says: "It was certainly an innova- days and fines aggregating $1100 found it necessary to discuss the ing deer without a camp roster economic situation in the broader and killing eleven illegal deer durview. Every Secretary of the ing the hunting season last Decem-

> > -Probably the administration at Harrisburg hasn't heard about the fraudulent voting of pupils at the teacher's college at West Chester.

> > -According to current gossip this State they are catapulted.

SPAWLS FROM THE KEYSTONE

-The estate of Milton C. Clay, late of Harrisburg, was estimated at $3000 when the will was filed with the Dauphin county register. The bulk of the estate is to be divided between the Methodist Home for Aged, Tyrone, and the Methodist Home for Children, Mechanicsburg,

-During the past few weeks, says the Game Commission bulletin, hundreds of American egrets have been observed in the vicinity of Harrisburg in flocks of as many as 30 to 100. Motion pictures of a flock of 29 egrets and 1 great blue heron were taken along the Susquehanna river near Harrisburg on July 28.

-Colonel Harry Trexler, of Allentown, was encouraged about ten years ago to "plant" beavers in Pennsylvania and the Hickory Run game preserve was stocked with several pairs of the little architects and builders. Now the beaver is about to return to its old habitat in the Pocono mountains as a result of a decade of development in the Hickory Run section.

-As a means of relieving her family every day as they cover the counties Pa., who surprised a ten point buck and meet the people. There never was doubt in the Old Forge. Rosenberger is employed on with the nomination for the United -Building a fire in the county jail, was awaiting trial on a charge of firstdegree murder for the killing of Mrs. act and the Snyder law and asks slain, but recovered from a bullet wound.

-Two square blocks of smoking ruins to the States the power to regulate mark the site of the Bloomsburg plant the Snyder law is worse than a pany wiped out early on Tuesday in a vicious encroachment on the constithe entire town. Showers of blazing sparks fell for blocks around despite the stating their positions regarding these, at present, all important questions Messrs. Kistler and ville, Sunbury, Northumberland and Catapanies from Bloomsburg, Berwick, Danville, Sunbury, Northumberland and Catawissa fought to confine the blaze to the car shops

-The bodies of two boys were found in the ruins of the Colonial Apartment building in Altoona early on Tuesday, several hours after the structure was destroyed by fire. The bodies were found by police who searched in the debris after the children had been reported

-Secretary of Labor James J. Davis, now Republican nominee for United been a suspicion in the minds of Monday, as the board of governors closed the people of Pennsylvania, New its semi-annual session. Joseph A. Jenmittee and of the board of governors.

-Mrs. Pearl Brooks and children, of Yatesboro, Armstrong county, were made He did not appeal to the "hard coal counties" as a dry by any means. He forgot all about the State last week when compensation acute dilation of the heart five minutes after he pushed a mine car over an inthe Helvetia Coal company, which alleged that death was due to strombosis.

-Frederick L. McClenahan Jr., 29 years old, member of a prominent Wynnewood family, faced Judge Corson, at Norristown, and plead guilty to the theft of a watch from his father and an electric cleaner belonging to his mother. The Preaching dress reform and wear- man's father recited a series of offenses subject to stricter discipline. He was The average human doesn't care sent to jail for seven months with in-

-Fire, believed to have been caused by spontaneous combustion, early this week, burned the barn on the Selinsgrove State Epileptic Colony farm. Four horses and two mules and some farming implements were burned. The loss will reach $6500, with insurance. A team of bays and a team of sorrel horses and the two mules had been rescued by attendants, but broke loose from their drivers and rushed back into Chester A. their stalls to perish, Dr. Marsh, superintendent, said. Horses were taken out of the blazing barn in 15 minutes, although most of them stampeded to get back. By closing the doors and tying them up 19 head were saved.

-Floyd Sharp, a Coatesville postoffice clerk, has fallen into the hands of United States secret service agents and was arrested at Lancaster. Inspectors Albert E. Whitmore and Matthew McVicker charged Sharp, of east Chestnut street, Cotesville, with attempted larceny before alderman W. Wirt oYung, of Coatesville. Sharp is said to have signed a confession he had stolen at least $700 from the postoffice during the year. Secret service agents intimated Sharp's peculations would amount to between $2000 and $3000. Sharp was a trusted employee, and as clerk in the postoffice had access to the safe in which the money was placed. The inspectors learned Sharp had not been living with spending money liberally.