Our borough schools opened on Tuesday with a good number in attendance. Miss Nell Williams and Prof. Hosterman are the teachers for this term.
The social and bake sale by the Ladies Aid society of the M. E. church, Saturday evening, was well patronized and a nice sum added to their treasury.
Rev. M. C. Piper, of Milesburg, will preach to the Grangers and friends in the Grange Hall Sunday, at 2 o'clock. All are welcome. Special music for the occasion.
Union Grange will serve coffee, sandwiches, pie and cookies during the sale of household furnishings at the home of Mrs. Martha Griest, which will be an all day sale, Saturday, September 13th.
Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Cleaver and sister, Mrs. Bertha Marshall and little daughter Florence, all of Kennett Square, were pleasant callers among friends here last Saturday, while on their way to Bedford.
The report of the marriage of Mrs. Lizzie Holter Gordon and Charles Eckenroth was verified by themselves at the Hall reunion, on Monday. Their friends extend congratulations and best wishes for their happiness. They will reside in our town.
The Hall family reunion which had been looked forward to for some time with much pleasure was held on Monday, Labor day, as planned, at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Hall, on Dix Run. It is an ideal place, large maple trees providing shade and clear sparkling spring water to drink. By noon a large number of the clan had arrived, together with old friends and neighbors, who just had a delightful time greeting one another. Some had not met for years and it certainly was a pleasure to get together as one big family. The dinner was indescribably delicious, such an abundance and variety. A day that will be long remembered.
During the afternoon a refreshing shower of rain, much appreciated on account of the drought, scattered the company who took shelter in their cars. After dinner addresses were given by Mrs. Mary Hall, of Renovo, who is 96 years young, generally known as "Aunt Mary" and whose society is very much in demand. Then followed our much appreciated Rev. M. C. Piper, of Milesburg, who is 82 years young, and gave a very instructive talk, followed with recitations by Walter and Paul Bressler. Since our meeting a year ago two who were with us then have passed to their reward, namely: Grant Hoover, of Williamsport, and Fred Schiele, of Lewisport. J. E. Hall was re-elected president and the following committee appointed: Mrs. Anna Finch, E. A. Hall, Robert B. Hall, John D. Hall and Mrs. C. R. Eckenroth. The following persons registered as the book was passed around:
Mrs. Mary A. Hall and daughter, Miss Wilbretta, of Renovo; J. M. Iddings and Mrs. Hannah Iddings, of Fleming; Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Hall, of Howard; Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Hall and six sons, David, Howard, Daniel, Walter, Stewart and Ellis; Mr. P. B. Loder and wife, Mrs. Temple Hall Loder, of Lamar; Mrs. Mollie Hall Boalich, of Bellefonte; Mr. and Mrs. Howard A. Hall and family, of Juniata; Emily Hall Miles, of Milesburg; Mr. R. C. Meyer and wife, Lizzie Hall Meyer, of Oscema Mills; Mrs. Hannah Hall and sons, Norma, Clarence, of Fleming; Mrs. Margaret Hall Keatley, and daughter Emily, of Fleming; Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Keatley and daughter, Lois Ann, of Ashland; Harold Keatley, of Washington, D. C.; Charles Keatley, of Pittsburgh; Mr. and Mrs. Homer D. Hall and son, Jean, of Altoona; L. C. Thompson, of Bellefonte; Mr. and Mrs. Eckenroth, Mr. and Mrs. Benner Hall and family, Mrs. Josephine Singleton, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Blair C. Hall, of Harrisburg; Mr. and Mrs. Ellis N. Hall and daughters, Alice S. and Clara E., of Braddock; Mr. and Mrs. John D. Hall, of Mill Hall; George P. Hoover, of Altoona; J. Clyde Hoover, of Wilkes-Barre; Samuel H. Fletcher, of Howard; Mrs. Francis Hall and J. E. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hall, of Osceola Mills; Charles E. Fletcher, of Howard; F. P. McElhany and wife, Mae Hall McElhany, and three children, and Mrs. Grace McElhany, of Lewistown; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hall, Mrs. Mary Kilm Hall and sons, Grant and James, of Pittsburgh; Toner Irwin and wife, Emily Hall Irwin, of Altoona; Sarah Hinds, Donald Hinds, of State College; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bickle and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bickle, of Warriorsmark; Mrs. Harriet Stere, Philip Holter and Lillian Fletcher, of Howard; Miles Hall, Anna Hall Finch, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Parsons and family; Mrs. Alice Hall Stiffer and daughter, Olive, of Hollidaysburg; Rev. M. C. Piper, of Milesburg; Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Bressler and four sons, of Bellefonte; A. W. Ammerman, of Fleming, and son, James Ammerman, of Geneva, N. Y.; Mrs. Harriet Ingram, son Clark and daughters, Mrs. Edna Fern and Mrs. Anna Harpster, of Tyrone; John T. Hall and wife, Etta Hall Hall and family, Mrs. Cora Hall Young and three daughters, of Port Matilda; Mary Summers, of Perry; J. Hall and daughter Rebecca, William Stere, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Stere and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Shank and daughter Emily, of State College; Mr. and Mrs. A. Y. Williams, Mrs. Hannah Hall Scholl, Mr. and Mrs. Kezia Williams and two children, Lloyd Spotts and wife, Julia Hall Spotts and four children, Mr. and Mrs. Philip N. Hall and son Robert and daughter Phyllis, of Willard, O.; Mr. and Mrs. I. Among those from here who attended the Walker clan reunion, at Alfaretta park on Saturday, were A. Stine Walker, dean of the family; H. N. Walker and wife, J. E. Elder and wife, H. S. Elder and wife and Paul Sunday and wife.
About two o'clock, Monday morning, H. S. Elder was awakened by a crash in the street and going out to investigate found a car upside down and three young men imprisoned underneath. Securing help the car was righted and the imprisoned occupants released. Fortunately none of them were seriously hurt but the car considerably damaged. The driver of the car had evidently fallen asleep with the result that the car ran up onto a bank and overturned. The young men were taken to State College by a passing motorist while the car was towed to a garage for repairs.

IN BELLEFONTE CHURCHES.
BELLEFONTE METHODIST CHURCH
Church Bible school, C. C. Shuey, Supt., 9:30, with extra events and World Service offering-special: challenging study. League, 6:30, open air meeting, last of the season. Worship—10:45, earnest exposition of specially selected Scriptures; and 7:30, pungent preaching on a pertinent proposition. Junior chorus. Wednesday, intermediate league and mid-week forum, devotions and intercession. Tuesday, class. Tourists, commercial travelers and week-end visitors welcome. Pastor responds to all calls for his services.
The anniversary of the corner stone laying of The Methodist Home for Children, near Mechanicsburg, has a fine program and exhibit prepared for the friends that attend this Saturday. Some Bellefonte folks have this event in their plans.
On Sunday, August 31, the Rev. L. W. McGarvey, of Sinnamahoning, and the Rev. G. L. McGarvey, of Westport, assisted the pastor, Rev. H. L. Jacobs, in the morning worship, and took part with lay members of the church in the reception of two persons into membership. In the afternoon the pastor baptized a child and then an adult, who with his wife was enrolled as full members of the church.
Strangers from many places in Pennsylvania and from three States outside of Pennsylvania attended both the church school and worship, morning and evening.
In the morning, at the close of the service the pastor displayed a paper, which the church now permanently holds. It was a note for a bank loan, covered by the Debt Fund, which Bellefonte Methodists are raising to pay off all current expenses and loans, made prior to March 1, 1930. The receipts in this fund now total just one-third of the total indebtedness, which it is planned to wipe out by August 1, 1932.
Horace Lincoln Jacobs, Pastor.
