COUNTY SOCCER LEAGUE READY FOR FIRST GAME.

The Centre County Interscholastic Soccer schedule is arranged at a meeting of the C. C. I. A. in the Court House in Bellefonte, Tuesday, September 16th.

Because of the number of teams entering the county league this year it was desirable to divide the teams into two divisions, namely Eastern Division, which includes Spring Mills, Millheim, Rebersburg and Hublersburg; and Western Division, which includes Boalsburg, Centre Hall, State College and Port Matilda.

The winners of the two groups will play for the county championship.

"Bill" Jeffrey, Varsity Soccer Coach at Penn State, has started plans for organizing a league of high schools of the central part of the state. Already several counties have shown their intention of coming along.

Mr. Jeffrey has obtained a large silver loving cup as an emblem of the Central Pennsylvania Interscholastic Soccer Championship, to be given to the high school soccer team winning the championship.

The schedule for the Centre County League is as follows:

EASTERN DIVISION
 October 3—Rebersburg at Hublersburg.
 October 10—Hublersburg at Millheim.
 October 17—Hublersburg at Spring Mills.
 October 28—Millheim at Rebersburg.
 Rebersburg at Spring Mills.
 October 31—Rebersburg at Millheim.
 Spring Mills at Hublersburg.
 November 4—Millheim at Spring Mills.
 Hublersburg at Rebersburg.
 November 14—Spring Mills at Rebersburg.
 Millheim at Hublersburg.
 November 21—Millheim at Rebersburg.

WESTERN DIVISION
 October 3—Boalsburg at Port Matilda.
 Centre Hall at State College.
 October 10—State College at Boalsburg.
 Port Matilda at Centre Hall.
 October 17—Boalsburg at Centre Hall.
 State College at Port Matilda.
 October 21—Centre Hall at State College.

MILESBURG YOUNG MAN FORGED TWO CHECKS.

C. A. Smith, 22-year old man of Milesburg, forged two checks, Saturday, and is now in the toils of the law to answer for his crime. Both checks were made out in his own name and signed "D. A. Grove." One for $5.37 was cashed by Paul Emerick, on Saturday, and the other one, for $27.50, was cashed by Harry Rossman on Sunday. Both checks were on the First National bank, of Bellefonte, and the forgeries were discovered when they were presented at the bank on Monday.

Some time ago Smith did a little work for Mr. Grove, who paid him by check and it is likely that he then copied the signature in anticipation of using it some time.
