

WINGATE.

Roy and Henry Fisher have begun husking their corn crop, which is not very good.
Mrs. Ethel Murray has recovered from a recent illness sufficiently to be up and around.
Mr. and Mrs. John Summers are the proud parents of an eight pound baby boy, who arrived last week.
Mr. and Mrs. James Sterrett, of Milesburg, and Mr. and Mrs. John Smith are on a vacation trip down south.
The women's Sunday school class, about twelve in number, enjoyed a supper at the John Walker home, one evening recently, while the men had a supper on the top of the mountain.
William Summers gave an apple cutting party, Tuesday evening of last week, as a celebration of Mrs. Summers' birthday anniversary. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McLaughlin, Mrs. Lydia Irwin, Mrs. Florence Lucas, Sylvester Summers and daughter, John Shawley, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Summers and little daughter, David Wyland, William Summers and three children.

PINE GROVE MILLS

J. H. Peters invested in a new Fordson tractor.
Miss Lizzie Gummo, of Tyrone, visited in town last week.
Mrs. A. P. Wieland is visiting her brother in the Steel city.
Otis Corl, of Circleville, spent Monday in town on business.
A few farmers are seeding wheat while others are still plowing.
Mrs. Mathias Musser is housed up with a carbuncle on her face.
Samuel Fogleman is J. H. Miller's assistant with his steam thrasher.
Ed. Elder, who took Greeley's advice forty years ago and went west, Mrs. Lizzie Kline is planning to go to Philadelphia to spend the winter.
John G. Miller is equipping his town house with a new water system.
J. L. Shank is putting a complete water system in his home on Main street.
J. C. Corl and family, of Juniata, are visiting relatives in the valley.
Robert Bonn announces the arrival of a boy, No. 4, at his home in the east end.
Joseph Ard, of Woodward, was in town, on Friday, shaking hands with old acquaintances.
Mrs. Minnie Tate and Miss Alice Harvey, spent Monday at the Mrs. Annie Tate home.
A meeting of worthy past grands, I. O. O. F., will be held at Port Matilda this evening.
Mr. and Mrs. Harry Musser and Mrs. Brennan attended the Bloomsburg fair, last week.
Ralph Albright, son of A. L. Albright, is recovering from an attack of scarlet fever.
The new arrival at the David Harpster home, at Baileyville, last Friday, is a daughter.
John Hartwick, of Bellefonte, was in town, Saturday, attending to some personal business.
John Henry Bailey, gas and oil dealer, of Mill Hall, spent Sunday with his family in town.
Elmer Young and wife, of Petersburg, mingled among friends in town on Saturday evening.
Robert W. Reed, wife and son Eugene motored to Bellefonte Saturday on a shopping tour.
Mrs. J. Hall Bottorf visited the John Hess family, at Shingletown, the latter end of the week.
Mr. and Mrs. Dreibelbis, of Fairbrook, were in town, Saturday evening, doing some shopping.
Our grammar school baseball team lost to Franklinville, last Friday by the score of 11 to 7.
A friendly notice to taxpayers states that 5% will be added on all taxes unpaid on October 1st.
Warren Bailey, a student at the Williamsport commercial college, spent Sunday at his home here.
Walter Woods motored up from Philadelphia for a brief visit with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. G. H. Woods.
Preaching services in the Methodist church Sabbath evening, at 7:30. Special music. Everybody welcome.
George Reed has so far recovered from his recent illness that he is able to walk around town with a cane.
Rev. J. S. English and wife visited Mrs. Nina Hess, a patient in the Centre County hospital, on Saturday.
William Times, Dr. Nixon's farm manager, has returned from the Altoona hospital and is convalescing nicely.
After spending several months among relatives in the Buckeye State Mrs. Mary Johnson has returned home.
Work on the White Hall road has been completed past the Henry McWilliams farm. C. W. Powley is in charge.
Royal Kline and two chums spent the latter end of the week fishing in Delaware bay and report a catch of six dozen.
Ed. S. Moore fell down a flight of stairs, Saturday morning, sustaining a number of bad bruises and other injuries.
Misses Wilda and Tresta Dreibelbis have gone to Philadelphia and enrolled as nurses in training at the Jefferson hospital.
R. E. Irvin and wife and Ben Everhart and family motored to Altoona, Saturday, and visited the new Jaffa Shrine temple.
Anna Mary Corl has returned home from the University hospital, Philadelphia, and is able to resume her studies in school.
Communion services will be held in the Lutheran church here on Sunday, with preparatory services this Friday evening.
H. C. Fry and Ernest Gilliland, students at the Lock Haven teachers' college, spent Sunday at their homes at Rock Springs.
The Altoona Mission Board, in charge of superintendent Foore, will hold services at Franklinville Sunday afternoon and evening.
Herbert Peters, Norman Smeltzer and Miss Marcella Tate visited the State capital, Hershey and Hummelstown during the week.
E. D. Deltrick and wife were visitors at the Lutheran parsonage last Sunday. They were at one time parishioners of Rev. English.
Our new butcher, George Reed, is driving a new truck and has extended his meat route to Graysville, McAlevy's Fort and Charter Oak.
Rev. W. J. Wagner attended anniversary services at his first charge last Sunday and Rev. J. S. English filled his appointment at Pleasant Gap.
Members of Pennsylvan lodge, No. 276, I. O. O. F. should note the fact that the date for the installation of officers has been changed to October 13th.
W. F. Thompson is suffering with a nervous breakdown and Mrs. Bessie Corl is laid up with bronchial trouble and threatened with pneumonia.

Miss Catherine Hartwick, a graduate of the Williamsport hospital, has accepted a position as nurse in the State College hospital, her home town.
Harry Frantz, of Centre Hall, spent Thursday evening in town looking up old cronies he made while welding the yard stick behind the counter.
Miss Dorothea English, who holds a responsible position at the State capital, spent the latter end of the week with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. J. S. English. is here visiting relatives, which includes three brothers, Henry, David and Samuel. Both Mr. and Mrs. Elder look as if life had treated them very kindly.
Mr. and Mrs. Harry Corman and three children, Burns, Clifford and Cora, of Hecla park, and Clair Shank and family, of Avis, were Sunday visitors at the J. L. Shank home.
C. M. Fry and wife and Mrs. Esther Ritchie and daughter Joan, of Altoona, enjoyed a motor drive here, on Sunday, and were guests of mother Osman, who has been ill but is now much improved.
A surprise kitchen shower was given Earl J. Musser and bride, at their home on Main street, last Friday evening. Silver, linen and many other household articles were bestowed on the young couple.
Anna Mary Johnson, eight year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Johnson, was operated upon for appendicitis, at the Centre County hospital, on Sunday. Reports indicate that she is doing nicely.
George P. Irvin and J. H. Gilliland were elected delegates from the Baileyville Sunday school to the State convention at Scranton. Rally day services will be held by the Sunday school on Sunday morning.
Four sisters had a meeting at the Mrs. Ella Miller home, at Avis, last Thursday, where they had a chicken and waffle dinner. They were Mrs. Miller, Mrs. John Frankenberger, Mrs. J. L. Shank and Mrs. Bond Gummo.
After visiting the John Gilliland home, near Baileyville, for a week, M. and Mrs. Roy Moffit, left this week for their home in Florida. Coming here they brought with them grandmother Moffit, 83 years old, who stood the trip very well, and who will remain here for some time.
Fred Markle has resigned as Dr. Nixon's farm manager at Fairbrook for the purpose of assisting his father, James Markle, on his farm at Pine Hall. John Douth and a small army of pickers, with Mrs. A. C. Kepler as timekeeper, are raising Dr. Nixon's potato crop, which is quite large. Most of the tubers are being stored.

Quite a number of friends gathered at the C. M. Powley home, at Baileyville, last Saturday to help Mrs. Powley celebrate her birthday anniversary. Among the guests were Mrs. Edwood Harpster and Miss Edna Houser, the latter one of Altoona's efficient school teachers. A chicken dinner was a feature of the gathering.
BOALSBURG.
Mrs. Hall and Mrs. Stuart spent Tuesday at State College.
Miss Hoffer, of State College, is visiting at the home of her cousin, Jacob Meyer.
Rev. and Mrs. Wink and baby daughter are visiting among Ohio friends this week.
Miss Anna Mary Hess entertained a number of friends at her home on Thursday evening.
Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Johnson, of Crafton, spent last week at the home of Mrs. M. A. Woods.
Mrs. Margaret Thomas left, last week, for her home in San Antonio, Texas, after spending the summer with Dr. and Mrs. Hall.
Mr. and Mrs. William Rockey, Mrs. John Wright, son and daughter, spent Sunday at the home of Willard Rockey, at Petersburg.
Mrs. Anna Ross Harter, her husband, J. R. Harter, and son Robert, of New York, have been spending some time in town, combining business with pleasure.
Mr. and Mrs. Torrence Wolfe and daughter, Miss Anna, of Randall, Kansas, were guests of friends about town, several days, and were accompanied to Altoona by Mrs. Charles Kuhn and G. E. Meyer.
Mrs. E. E. Stuart entertained her niece, Mrs. Walter Williams, (nee Miss Priscilla Wilson) and son John, of Wilmington, Del., and Mrs. Bertha Bettinger and daughter, Mrs. Tompkins, of Charlestown, W. Va., last week.
Mac Mothersbaugh returned to his work, on Sunday, after a two week's vacation spent in this vicinity. Mrs. Mothersbaugh, accompanied her son to Philadelphia to visit her daughter, Mrs. Henry Bueck, the main attraction being the baby boy, born Saturday night, the first child in the Buebeck family.
Rev. and Mrs. W. J. Wagner accompanied Rev. and Mrs. J. T. Harkins and sons of State College, to Muncy, on Sunday, to attend the tenth annual memorial service of Immanuel church. Rev. Wagner began his work in the ministry in that church thirty-six years ago, and he and his family enjoyed being present at the service on Sunday.

FREE CAMP MEETING AT VEILED LADY CAVERN
Rev. West Blackwell is conducting a camp-meeting in the park at Veiled Lady Cavern, below Centre Hall.
It is free to everyone and good public singing features the services. They will continue every night until further notice.
—Read the Watchman.

Altoona Booster Merchants Say:
Patronize Your Home Stores First.
Come to Booster Stores for the Things Your Home Stores Cannot Supply.

Altoona Booster Stores
Are Now Making
Special Displays OF Home Furnishings

There is style in Home Furnishings just as there is in Apparel, and housewives who visit the Booster Stores that specialize in Furniture Draperies, Floor Coverings and other furnishings for the home will find wonderfully attractive displays representing all that's new and modern in home furnishings.

Booster Stores offer these goods at prices that are very reasonable and, if desired, arrangements can be made to pay for purchases over a period of time.

An invitation is extended to all to inspect the displays of New Home Furnishings, especially to those who are planning to equip their homes with new furnishings for this fall. This week will be a good time to make selections.

Plan to Visit Booster Stores Every Wednesday and share in the Suburban Day Offerings

You will find many attractive Special Values offered by Booster Stores each Suburban Day.

Many folks from out of town also plan to use Suburban Day as a day to meet their friends, as well as to shop.

Don't Forget That Every Wednesday is Suburban Day in Altoona Booster Stores!

Good Roads

Lead to the Stores of Members of the

Altoona Booster Association

Follow Routes 36 or 264 to the Altoona Business District.

$15
FOR YOUR OLD WATER HEATER ON THE PURCHASE OF A NEW "RED CROWN" AUTOMATIC ELECTRIC WATER HEATER

If your home is not equipped with running water, a Duro Water System will solve your problem for you—efficiently, economically. Ask about easy terms on combination Duro System and "Red Crown" Heater installations.

You Can Save Money by Buying Now!

You don't have to scrap that old, wornout water heater of yours; just trade it in now on a brand new "Red Crown" and receive $15 credit! Then pay only $15 down and this superb automatic electric water heater will be installed in your home, and you have 18 months in which to pay the balance! These monthly payments are as low as $8.02!

Perfect Hot Water Service at Low Cost!

The "Red Crown" can be installed anywhere... it puts an end to all hot water troubles. No fumes, smoke or dirt of any kind. An abundant supply of hot water is always on tap at every faucet, yet the electricity used is reduced to a minimum. What is more important, under West Penn's new low domestic rate, the current used is extremely cheap!

Offer Time-Limited!

Make up your mind—before this liberal offer closes—to see for yourself what a "Red Crown" automatic electric water heater will mean to you when installed in your home. Visit our local store today.

WEST PENN ELECTRIC SHOPS

IN BELLEFONTE CHURCHES.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH.
Evening services will be resumed for the winter beginning next Sunday, at 7:30 p. m. The service will be choral Evensong and Sermon. The eleven o'clock service will be a Memorial Service for the Rt. Rev. James Henry Darlington, late Bishop of the Diocese of Harrisburg.
Suart F. Gast, Rector.

ST. JOHN'S LUTHERAN CHURCH.
9:30 A. M., Sunday school, Herman Hazel, superintendent.
10:45 A. M., Morning service; Sermon: "Master Over Death."
7:30 P. M., Evening service; Sermon: "Jehoiakim's Penknife."
Clarence E. Arnold, pastor.

The Y. M. C. A. drive to date has yielded over $4000 of the $8000 set as the goal for the coming year's expenses.

—Subscribe for the Watchman.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

FOR SALE—Double heater and wardrobe steam trunk. Both in good condition. Inquire at the Watchman office. 75-39-11*

LOST—Monday morning, between Pleasant Gap and Lemont, brief case with books. Owner's name inside. Reward if returned to him in Bellefonte. 75-39-11.

LOTS AND FURNITURE—For sale, cheap for cash, 2 lots opposite the Irvin Harrison home. Also furniture at private sale. Inquire at Irvin Harrison home at Pleasant Gap, Pa. 75-39-21

CATHAUM
A Warner Brothers Theatre

STATE COLLEGE
Matinee Daily at 1:30, except Saturdays of home football games

FRIDAY—Ramon Novarro, Dorothy Jordan, Ernest Torrence in "CALL OF THE FLESH"

SATURDAY—Doug. Fairbanks, Jr., Anita Page in "LITTLE ACCIDENTS"

MONDAY AND TUESDAY—Matinee daily at 1:30.
First National and Vitaphone present
Dick Barthelmess, Doug Fairbanks Jr. in "THE DAWN PATROL"

WEDNESDAY—Warner Bros. and Vitaphone present
Dorothy Mackall, Lewis Stone in "THE OFFICE WIFE"

THURSDAY—Constance Bennett, Lew Ayres in "COMMON CLAY"

NITTANY THEATRE
FRIDAY—Joe Cook, Louise Fazenda in "RAIN OR SHINE"

SATURDAY—"CALL OF THE FLESH"

TUESDAY—Ann Harding, James Rennie in "GIRL OF THE GOLDEN WEST"

RICHELIEU

Saturday (This Week) Anita Page, Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., Sally Blane and Zasu Pitts in "Little Accident"

The play that rocked Broadway is now shaking the world with laughter as a rollicking Screen Comedy with a multitude of mirthful marital mishaps.
Children 10c to 5 p. m.

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday (Next Week) the two Black Crows Moran and Mack in "Anybody's War"

You've heard them on the radio and laughed. You've laughed at their first riotous movie revel, Why Bring That Up? Now prepare for the laugh of a lifetime. Right from Charlie Mack's own best-seller novel "The Two Black Crows in the A. E. F."

Coming Next Thurs., Friday, Satur.—The only showing in Centre County of the Season's Greatest Motion Picture—"Manslaughter"

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

EAT SLICER—Wanted a small meat slicer. Sunflower Filling Station, Bellefonte, Pa. 75-39-31.

BIDS—For heating and ventilating Bishop Street school. Bids will be received on the remodeling according to plans and specifications of the heating and ventilating system of the Bishop St. school, Bellefonte, Pa., until 12 o'clock noon, October 20, 1930, the School Board reserving the right to reject any or all bids, and to decide when the installation is to be made.

Plans and specifications may be obtained at the office of the Supervising Principal, Arthur H. Sloop, High School Building, Bellefonte.

All bids must conform with the laws and statutes covering heating and ventilation of schools in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. 75-39-31.

Dwelling House For Sale and One For Rent

TONER A. HUGG
75-39-31 Milesburg, Pa.

16-Day Excursions Washington

Friday, October 10

$12.60

ROUND TRIP FROM BELLEFONTE

Proportionate Fares from Other Points
For details as to leaving time of trains, fares in parlor or sleeping cars, stop-over privileges, side trip to Atlantic City, or other information, consult Ticket Agents, or S. H. Reaney, Division Passenger Agent, Williamsport, Pa.

Pennsylvania Railroad

STATE

Now playing All This Week "Ingagi"

All Talking Hunting Adventure in the Wilds of Africa.

All Next Week—continuous 7 to 11 Every Day—"The Silent Enemy"

Wild Love! Wild People! Wild Animals!

Thrilling drama made in the unexplored wilds of Northern Ontario—where men still fight with their hands against famine and hunger-maddened beasts—where warriors with their spears and bows by the might of their arms. Living right on the same continent with you—you see them in all their primal reality for the first time.

A True and Mighty Thrill-Romance in Sound

FIRE INSURANCE

At a Reduced Rate, 20%

73-36 J. M. KEICHLINE, Agent

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

LOST—In Bellefonte, a blue silk umbrella of the present short handle type. Reward if returned to Anna H. Hoy. 38-11

MANTEL AND FIRE PLACE—Slate mantel, fire place, hearth and all parts complete. No broken parts. $15.00 will take it. Inquire at this office. 75-38-41.

COAL FOR SALE—Kofman & Company will take orders and deliver best grades of Bituminous House and Steam Coal in lots of 5 tons or more in the following towns: Mount Eagle, Howard Julian, Port Matilda, Centre Hall, Lemont, State College, Pine Grove Mills and from Hubersburg to Clintondale. Prices to suit every customer. If interested write Kofman & Company, Bellefonte or call Bellefonte, 319, day or evening. 75-37-11.

SHERIFF'S SALE—By virtue of a writ of Fieri Facias issued out of the Court of Common Pleas of Centre County, to me directed, will be exposed to public sale at the Court House in Borough of Bellefonte on FRIDAY, OCTOBER 17th, 1930.

The Following Property: ALL that certain message, tenement and lot of land situated in the Borough of Howard, County of Centre and State of Pennsylvania, bounded and described as follows, to wit:—

BEGINNING at a post on road leading from Howard Borough to Jacksonville, thence along land now or late of Sarah J. Lucas and Benjamin and Mary A. Strunk now Joseph Royer, One Hundred and Twenty (120) feet to post; thence along said Joseph Royer land Ninety-two (92) feet to post; thence along land of Joseph Royer, One Hundred (100) feet to road on place of beginning.

HAVING erected thereon a two story frame house and out buildings. Being the same premises conveyed by Pheobe Mann to Russell J. Schenck by deed dated July 12th, 1918, and recorded in the Recorder's Office of Centre County in Deed Book No. 122, page 255.

Seized, taken in execution and to be sold as the property of Russell J. Schenck.

Sale to commence at 1:30 o'clock P. M. of said day.

Terms Cash. H. E. DUNLAP, Sheriff, Sheriff's Office, Bellefonte, Pa. September 20th, 1930. 75-38-31.