FIFTY YEARS AGO
IN CENTRE COUNTY.
Items taken from the Watchman issue of October 15, 1880.

Several cases of diphtheria have developed in Phillipsburg.

The ladies of Howard have presented the Hancock club of that place with a beautiful flag made with their own fair hands.

H. A. McKee Esq., and Miss Myra E. Shaver, adopted daughter of H. Y. Stitzer Esq., were united in marriage on Wednesday evening last, by Rev. S. E. Faust. We wish them much happiness.

Those of our readers in town, who have heretofore received their papers at their doors will find it this morning in the post-office. The illness of the carrier has prevented him from going his usual rounds. (Editor's Note.—The carrier in question went down with diphtheria and had to be isolated in a big darkened parlor and his only visitors were his sainted mother and Dr. Hibler. The doctor would sit by the window with the blind slightly raised dipping a camel's hair brush into caustic. It would be smoking when he withdrew it from the bottle and the carrier shuddered for the agony he was to go through as the doctor swabbed the white patches in his throat with that awful stuff. When he squirmed, fought and gagged the doctor threatened to drop the brush down the boy's throat. It was the only thing he could do to make the lad hold still enough for the operation. It was a bad case but the carrier didn't die, else this note would never have been written.)

Married.—At Milesburg, on October 7th, by Rev. W. O. Wright, Mr. Robert B. Lucas and Miss Jane Confair.

At Howard, on September 30th, by the Rev. J. A. Irvin, Mr. John F. Schenck and Miss Emma Lyons. At the M. E. parsonage at Penn Hall, on October 7th, by the Rev. J. Benson Akers, Mr. Michael M. Burkholder to Miss Susan E. Emerick, both of Centre Hill.

The laying of the corner stone for the new Reformed church, in this place, last Sunday, was quite an interesting ceremony. The Rev. J. F. DeLong conducted the service. In the tin box enclosed in the stone were placed a copy of the Holy Bible, a copy of the book of Church Services, a copy of the Heidelberg catechism, a copy of the minutes of the Synod held in Lancaster in 1878, a number of church papers including the constitution of the local church. Also copies of the Democratic Watchman, the Bellefonte Republican and the Centre Democrat. Surely that church cannot fail to prosper and do good which has the Bible and the Watchman in its corner stone. Rev. Gearhart, of Lancaster, was to have preached the sermon for the occasion but a wreck on the railroad made it impossible for him to get here and Rev. DeLong officiated in his stead.

A dwelling house near the Milesburg toll-gate, owned by Mrs. Andy Emmel, was destroyed by fire on Saturday.

The first number of the Canton, Ohio, Republican, dated October 7th, has reached this office. It's editor and proprietor is our good friend, Robert A. Cassidy, formerly of this place, and well and favorably known here as a young man of spirit, intelligence, activity and enterprise.

Little Joseph Brew, the three year old son of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Brew, of Spring street, died on Sunday morning of membranous croup.

At the big Hancock parade in Milesburg, last Saturday night, Col. James F. Weaver was chief marshal, E. H. Carr and Dr. Joseph Adams had charge of the meeting. There were 439 uniformed marchers with the Zion and Pleasant Gap bands and the Unionville and Milesburg drum corps as escorts.

HARGART.—Mrs. Claire E. Hargart, wife of D. N. Hargart, of Bellefonte, passed away at the Centre County hospital, at 120 o'clock Saturday afternoon, as the result of uraemic poisoning, following an illness of but ten days.

She was a daughter of W. Reynolds and Mary Elizabeth Allen Shope and was born in Bellefonte on January 23rd, 1898, hence was 32 years, 8 months and 11 days old. All her girlhood life was spent in Bellefonte and she was educated in the public schools of the town. She was a member and ardent worker in the United Brethren church and when Rev. T. Hugh McLeod, pastor of the church about twelve years ago, left here to go to Washington, D. C., she went with the family to that place. There she met Mr. Hargart and they were married about eight years ago. They lived a short time in Washington then moved to Fargo, N. D., and after several years there located in Webster, S. D. Last April they came to Bellefonte and had since been living with Mrs. Hargart's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Shope.

In addition to her husband she survived by one daughter, Violet Jane, aged five years. She also leaves her parents and the following brothers and sisters: Susan Shope, at home; William F., Harry, John and Mrs. Oliver Hartman, all of Bellefonte; Mrs. Roy H. Grove, of Warren; Mrs. Stewart Hoy, of Millerstown; Mrs. Robert Knox, of Harrisburg; James and Miss Grace, of Lancaster. Her's was the first death in the family.

Funeral services were held at the Shope home at 2:30 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon, by Rev. T. Hugh McLeod, of Washington, assisted by the U. B. pastor, Rev. G. E. Householder, burial being made in the Union cemetery.

SMITH.—Mrs. Bertha S. Smith, wife of Fred F. Smith, died at her home near Cold Stream, on Sunday night, as the result of a second stroke of paralysis sustained the Wednesday previous.

She was a daughter of Isaac and Mary Shimmel and was born at Wallacetown in 1860, her age at death being 70 years, 4 months and 27 days. In addition to her husband she is survived by ten children, Charles C., Stanley H. and LeRoy Smith, all in San Antonio, Texas; Clarence F. and Miss Anna Mary, of Warren; Mrs. Fred Klett, of Phillipsburg; Mrs. W. D. Swartz, of Snow Shoe; Mrs. Robert Lee Thompson, of Gearhartville; Mrs. James Knowles and Max E., of Phillipsburg. She also leaves two brothers and three sisters.

She was a member of St. Paul's Episcopal church, of Phillipsburg, and the Sewing Guild. A woman of cheerful and happy disposition she had a large circle of friends who deeply mourn her death.

Funeral services were held at her late home at two o'clock yesterday afternoon by Rev. C. E. Knicker, assisted by Rev. F. T. Eastment, burial being made in the Phillipsburg cemetery.

PEARCE.—Mrs. Catherine M. Pearce, wife of Russel C. Pearce, died on Tuesday of last week, at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. Cash Snyder, at State College, as the result of an embolism, following a brief illness.

She was a daughter of Harvey G. and Sarah A. Mease, and was born at Shiloh on July 23rd, 1885, hence was 45 years, 2 months and 7 days old. She lived in State College since her marriage to Mr. Pearce in 1909. She was a member of the Presbyterian church, the W. C. T. U., Lady State lodge of Rebekahs and Nittany camp, Royal Neighbors of America.

She is survived by her husband and seven children, Margaret, Ione, Dorothy, Harold, Madge, Richard and Barbara Ann, the latter an infant. She also leaves one brother and four sisters, E. E. Mease, of Pittsburg; Mrs. J. Cash Snyder and Mrs. Hugh Etters, of State College; Mrs. W. G. Bender, of Steelton, and Mrs. Samuel E. Foulz, of Reading.

Funeral services were held at 2:30 o'clock on Thursday afternoon, at the Pearce home, by Rev. Samuel Martin, burial being made in the Pine Hill cemetery.

ARMOR.—John Augustus Armor passed away at his home, on east High street, Bellefonte, on Sunday morning, following almost a year's illness with a heart affection, although his condition did not become critical until a month or more ago.

He was a son of James and Mary McGowan Armor and was born in Spring township on August 28th, 1871, hence was 59 years, 1 month and 7 days old. The greater part of his life was spent on the home stead farm in Spring township but fourteen years ago he came to Bellefonte and engaged in blacksmithing, an occupation he followed until failing health compelled him to quit work. He was a member of St. John's Catholic church all his life.

He married Miss Catherine Garber who survives with no children. They, however, raised a girl, who is now Mrs. Robert Cole, of Bellefonte. He also leaves two sisters, Mrs. Harry Lutz and Miss Nellie, both of Spring township.

McBATH.—Francis M. McBath, a retired farmer who had made his home in Tyrone the past six years, died last Friday morning, following two months illness with arterio sclerosis.

He was a son of William and Lucetta Coble McBath and was born in College township, Centre county, on August 31st, 1855, hence was in his 76th year. He lived in College township until his retirement six years ago. He was twice married, his first wife having been Miss Elizabeth Bloom. Following her death he married Mrs. Rachel Shuey, who died in 1924. Surviving him are a son and daughter, Irvin McBath, of Altoona, and Mrs. G. Conrad Albright, of Tyrone, with whom he made his home. He also leaves five step-children, Charles and Oscar Shuey, in California; William, of Pittsburgh; John, of Tyrone, and Mrs. Clayton Etters, of Oak Hall, as well as one brother and a sister, William McBath and Mrs. Harriet Corl, both of State College.

Mr. McBath was a member of the First English Lutheran church and the pastor, Rev. Edward M. Morgan, had charge of the funeral services which were held at the Albright home, on Sunday afternoon, the remains being taken to Pine Hill cemetery for interment.

BELL.—While making a call at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Paul Merrick, at Cleveland, Ohio, Saturday afternoon, former Judge Singleton Bell, of Clearfield, sustained a stroke of apoplexy and died shortly after his removal to a Cleveland hospital.

Judge Bell was born in Clearfield county in February, 1862, hence was in his 69th year. He graduated at the University of Michigan and read law with the late Senator William A. Wallace. He started practice at the Clearfield bar about the middle 80's. He served as district attorney from 1890 to 1894. He was elected judge in 1914 and served ten years. He is survived by one son and two daughters. Burial was made in Clearfield on Wednesday afternoon.

SNYDER.—J. Frank Snyder, well known attorney of Clearfield and prominent in the Democratic party, died quite suddenly on Tuesday morning, as the result of a stroke of apoplexy. He was 75 years old and for fifty-two years had practiced his profession at Clearfield. From 1901 to 1906 he served as disbursing clerk at Harrisburg. In the last judicial fight in Clearfield county he was the Democratic candidate against Judge A. R. Chase. His funeral will be held this (Friday) afternoon at 4 o'clock.

AVERY.—C. G. Avery, who was the first cashier of the Moshannon National bank in Phillipsburg and served in that capacity for twenty years before his retirement, died on Wednesday, following an illness of about a year with heart trouble. He was almost 66 years old and is survived by his wife and six children. The funeral will take place this (Friday) afternoon.

REV. ARNOLD ATTENDING BIG CHURCH CONVENTION.

Rev. Clarence E. Arnold, pastor of St. John's Lutheran church, left on Monday for Milwaukee, Wis., where he will attend the biennial convention of the United Lutheran church in America. The convention will be in session from October 7th to 15th, inclusive. The Rev. Mr. Arnold is a delegate of the Susquehanna Synod of Central Pennsylvania, the district Synod to which the Lutheran churches of Centre county belong. E. M. Huyett, of Centre Hill, is a lay delegate.

The United Lutheran church is composed of thirty Synods in the United States and three in Canada. These will be represented by five hundred and fifty delegates from all parts of the United States and Canada, in addition to delegates from the native churches of India and Japan. The confirmed membership of the body is approximately one million, while the baptized membership almost a million and a half, the United Lutheran church being the largest of the three great bodies of Lutherans in America.

The missionary activities of the church, the benevolence agencies, the problem of marriage and divorce, peace and war, the election of women as delegates and members of councils, the merger of colleges and seminaries and the church's educational policies will be among the questions placed before the delegates for decision.

During the absence of the Rev. Mr. Arnold on Sunday, October 12th, the guest preacher at St. John's Lutheran church will be the Rev. Carl F. Lauer, until recently the pastor of the Lutheran church in the Dormont section of Pittsburgh, and now director of the religious, educational, and recreational work of Rockview penitentiary.

The Blue and White bowling alley and billiard parlor, at State College, was considerably damaged by fire of an unknown origin, Sunday morning. The building was owned by H. M. Meyers who occupied the first floor as a storage garage. The bowling alleys and billiard parlor were on the second floor. The loss is estimated at $15,000, mostly covered by insurance.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS TO HOLD COMMUNITY FAIRS.

School-community fairs will be held at Howard and Hubersburg next Thursday and Friday, October 16th and 17th, respectively.

The programs of events for the two fairs are completed and final arrangements are now under way. The Howard fair is to be held Thursday, October 16th and will be of the usual high standard. Already grade and rural school teachers have signified their intentions of taking part with exhibits from their schools. In addition, the high school classes will compete for honors. All persons concerned are doing everything possible to make the fair a real success.

The Hubersburg fair, which is to be held the following day, Friday, October 17th, promises to be the best fair ever held in that place. The teachers, principal, school board, pupils and parents have taken hold in a way that insures success.

In both fairs the placing of all exhibits will be in the hands of specially selected judges. The judging has been divided into three divisions, namely: Agriculture, home economics, and academic. The first named will be handled by R. C. Blaney, county extension representative; the home economics will be handled by Miss Alexon, county home economics extension representative, who has just taken over the work of Miss Mamie Lovelace. The academic work will be judged by Mr. Lennhart, newly appointed assistant county superintendent.

Athletics will be a prominent feature in both fairs. At Howard the local high school football team will meet a worthy opponent on the gridiron at 2:30. A soccer ball game will be the leading sports event of the Hubersburg fair. In both cases the girls will meet teams in volleyball and dodge ball from other schools. Present plans call for sports of various kinds in the morning for the youngsters. These games will most likely be led by Mr. Heineman or Mr. Singer, of the Bellefonte Y. M. C. A.

The exhibits at Howard this fall will be left up until 9:30 p. m. in order to give those who are unable to get in during the afternoon a chance to go in the evening.

An added feature of the Hubersburg fair will be the afternoon program. Mr. Haney has arranged for a very fine entertainment. The pupils of the school will render a short play and the orchestra will play several numbers. An attempt will be made to have some real group singing.

The school-community fairs are held for the people of the above named communities and it is hoped that they will do their part by attending.

Following are the rules and list of exhibits:

- AGRICULTURE: Eggs—White, one dozen; brown, one dozen. Corn—Ten ear sample. Potatoes—Any variety, 10 specimens. Small Grains—1 quart on paper plate—1, wheat; 2, oats; 3, Barley; 4, buckwheat. NINE COUNTIES WANTED PENN STATE COLLEGE.

Nine counties in Pennsylvania made an effort to get the Pennsylvania State College when a number of leading educators decided to establish one in 1855, but Centre county won out by donating 200 acres of land and $25,000 in cash, and the Farmer's High School was established. This was the beginning of The Pennsylvania State College. For years it just struggled along but during the past 35 years it has grown by leaps and bounds until now it represents an educational plant worth millions with a student body of 4300.

The College will celebrate its 75th anniversary on October 23rd, 24th and 25th, and a comprehensive program is being prepared for that event. The formal dedication of the New Main will take place at that time.

SEE "DAWN PATROL" IT'S A FINE PICTURE.

There have been great aviation pictures in the past, but there has never been one like "The Dawn Patrol."

This latest First National and Vitaphone picture, starring Richard Barthelmess, which will be seen at the Richelieu Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week, stands without doubt in a class by itself as a drama of war in the air. For thrills, chills, terrors, triumphs and the sweep of sheer reality this picture is without a peer.

Under the direction of fish commissioner N. R. Buller Bald Eagle creek has been stocked with 3000 bass and 300 perch. A consignment of 10,000 brook trout has also been placed in Spring creek.
