Another Pinchot Falselhood Refuted.

The vicious as well as the absolute worthlessness of Gifford Pinchot's campaign statements was again revealed the other day. In a letter addressed to the people of Philadelphia, a copy of which was mailed to every voter in the city, he made the startling statement that "the Pennsylvania Railroad does not pay one penny taxes on its vast real estate holdings in Philadelphia." Thomas W. Hulme, vice president of the company, in charge of its real estate affairs, promptly replied that "the Pennsylvania Railroad paid the city $1,284,000 in taxes on real estate for the year 1929." Notwithstanding this positive and authentic statement of fact Pinchot practically repeated the lie next day.

Such malignant misrepresentation is criminal. Like a mad man Mr. Pinchot is promising impossible things on one hand and uttering slanderous falsehoods on the other, and imagines an intelligent electorate will approve such demagogism. It is his method of creating enthusiasm which he declares is what is now needed to promote his interests. Precisely the same mental processes influence feeble minded persons to commit murder, wreck trains and set buildings on fire to create thrills. But they don't appeal to intelligent men and women, as Mr. Pinchot will discover when the votes are counted next month. The harvest of such planting is decisive and deserves defeat.

The campaign of Mr. Pinchot is without parallel in the history of this or any other country. It has been a "continuous performance" of vilification. He slanders every Republican who expresses disapproval of his methods or disagrees with his plans. Himself a perennial bolter he denies the right of any one else to bolt. Professing uncompromising opposition to party bossism he arrogates to himself the right to boss every member of his party. Declaring opposition to corruption he has done more to debase the politics of the State, in recent years, than any other individual, by the excessive use of money. No man or woman who favors honest election and common decency in politics can vote for him.

Significance of the Election.

In a telegram to Senator Borah, the other day, Gifford Pinchot said, "this situation goes beyond any question of the Governorship of Pennsylvania." That is about the only truth Gifford has uttered since his campaign of vilification began. But its significance doesn't lie in the direction he had in mind. He was trying to convey the idea that his election is necessary to protect the people of the whole country from the cupidity of predatory corporations. That is a malicious misrepresentation of the facts. His election or his defeat can have no influence on or restraint of the business, methods or purposes of utility corporations in Pennsylvania or any other place.

But the situation leads directly into the Presidential election in 1932 and the policies of the government at Harrisburg and Washington in the future. If Gifford Pinchot is defeated for Governor this year the strangle-grip which monopoly has upon the commercial and industrial life of the country will be broken, the constitution will be restored to its intended form as a charter of liberty, and taxation will be limited to the legitimate expenses of a government economically administered. Legislation in the future will

THREE PRISONERS ESCAPE WHEN LIGHTS GO OUT.

Last Friday evening's high wind and showers of rain were directly responsible for the escape of three prisoners from Rockview penitentiary. The storm and rain occurred shortly after seven o'clock. Water seeped into the transformer on the penitentiary grounds and caused a short circuit which put out all the lights. This occurred at 7.15 o'clock and it was almost 8 o'clock when the service was restored.

A number of prisoners were in the enclosed stockade at the time when the lights went out and at eight o'clock when a check-up was made it was found that three men had taken advantage of the darkness to climb over the iron fence and make their escape. The men are James Duffy, of Crawford county, serving 5 to 10 years; Nick Dubish, Allegheny county, 5 to 10 years, and Joseph L. Morrow, Allegheny county, 4 1/2 to 9 years.

The men were believed to have gone west toward State College but no definite trace was found of them in that direction or elsewhere. On Sunday morning three strange men were seen in the railroad yards, at Tyrone, but they quickly disappeared, and it is not known if they were the escaped prisoners or merely illegal train riders.

Two of the men were caught at Weikert Wednesday night and brought to the Centre county jail. They are Marrow and Duffy. They went to the home of William F. Pursley, at Weikert, about 8:30 o'clock Wednesday evening and asked for something to eat. Pursley recognized the men and telephoned the penitentiary. He then held them at his home until the arrival of officers. Pursley will get $100 reward. Nick Dubish, who escaped at the same time, is still at large.

INTERESTING MEETING OF LOCAL ODD FELLOWS.

Centre lodge I. O. O. F., of Bellefonte, had an interesting meeting at the regular session last Thursday evening. The new officers installed the week previous by district deputy J. E. Klinger, of Leontine, occupied the chairs. They are noble grand, William Grenninger; vice grand, Nelson Billett; financial secretary, J. M. Hartswick, and recording secretary, Robert H. Steltz. Past grand Charles Schaeffer assured the members of the lodge bowling team, participating in the Y. M. C. A. tournament, of the interest and moral support of every member of the lodge. He then introduced as the speaker of the evening Rev. W. E. Gibbons, pastor of the Bellefonte A. M. E. church, who gave a very interesting talk on his impressions and experiences in various countries, especially of his birthplace, the Barbadoes, in the West Indies.

Following the business meeting a lunch was served by the refreshment committee, of which Boyd Vonada is chairman.

At a recent meeting of the lodge a program committee was appointed, with past grand Cyrus Hoy, as chairman, whose duty it is to arrange a program of music, addresses, amusement or some other feature for every meeting; and the innovation is working out to the advantage of the lodge, as shown in the increased attendance and interest manifested.

be for the people instead of for special privilege or reimbursement for campaign contributions in that event now practically certain of fulfillment.

This is one of the reasons why Democrats, whatever opinion they entertain on the question of prohibition, should vote for John M. Hemphill for Governor of Pennsylvania this year. Mr. Hemphill is splendidly equipped for the office. He believes in temperance quite as fully as Mr. Pinchot and is as firmly opposed to the return of the saloon. But he realizes that the experiment of prohibition by constitutional force has failed, that in its failure it has brought other and greater evils than the saloon, and that moral and material interests require that another and more promising method be adopted. No conscientious Democrat can justify the desertion of his party in Pennsylvania this year.

ANNUAL SCHOOL FAIRS PROVE BIG SUCCESS.

The annual school-community fairs, held at Howard and Hublersburg last Thursday and Friday, rank among the best ever held in those communities. The exhibits were not only greater in number but better in quality than those of last year. The attendance, also, was larger than in former years, that at Howard drawing the largest crowd. Eleven grade and rural schools completed at Howard exhibiting an abundance of high quality of products from the farm, the home and the class room. Teachers of these schools are to be congratulated for the splendid showing made.

There was keen competition in the High school class, each of the four schools trying to excel the others. Quality and judging were stressed in these exhibits, and it was plainly evident that the boys and girls are learning the art of selection. Gordon Singer, physical director of the Bellefonte Y. M. C. A., was in charge of the games for the smaller children, while the High school football team played a game with the Howard alumni.

Mr. McCool, county agent of Clinton county, judged the agricultural products; Miss Ella Reynolds, of State College, the home economics, and Lewis Lennhart, of Bellefonte, the academic. There were 2359 exhibits at the Howard fair. Awards were made as follows in 1, 2, 3 order, as named:

While the Hublersburg fair was not as large as that at Howard there was just as much interest manifested. Five rural schools and two grade schools took part. The exhibits numbered 1227. A game of soccer ball was played at Hublersburg instead of football. At the afternoon gathering short talks were made by the three judges, county superintendent Rogers and Roy Decker, while the High school girls put on a little play. Winners at Hublersburg were as follows:

- Best Map, Grade 4, 5, 6—William Barnhart, Forest school; Mary Hall, Hublersburg primary.
Best Map, Grade 7 & 8—Jack Showers, Crawford school; George Armstrong, Hublersburg grammar.

The Bellefonte band in 1844 was composed of 21 pieces and had in it such men as Wesley Lambert, P. Benner Wilson, Samuel Linn, the present distinguished lawyer, and others. Linn was the captain and was a Whig, while Benner Wilson was a Democrat. The band was about equally divided in political preference but politics was not permitted to be discussed in the meetings. On July 4th. of that year there were too big political meetings held here to start off the campaign which turned out to be a memorable one. The Whigs held theirs in Bush's meadow and the Democrats held theirs in what has latterly been known as Armors' grove. Both wanted the Bellefonte band and Linn, the Whig, and Wilson, the Democrat, conceived the idea of auctioning off the band's services. $25.00 was a big price to pay for a band in those days but competition in this instance was so feverish that the Whigs finally offered $65.00 and the Democrats did without the band.
